been any ill at Tirupadaiyur unable to stir out of his house, but the letter said forwarded by the claimant is of [illegible] distant by about 11 or 12 miles from Tirupadaiyur - The document appears to me to be altogether a fabricated one - the claim is quite unsustained and is therefore rejected - No 49 is brother's widow of No 40 in col: 15 - of the brother of her husband the Court having decreed to No 50 who claimed succession as her adopted son, a portion in virtue of a document executed to him by No 49 (the adoption was not proved) she enjoys the land. What No 50 & 52 enjoy was purchased from No 40 in col: 15 & his brother in the year 1847. Deed of sale produced. No 53 enjoys the extent in the name of his grand father No 37 in col: 15 together with 3 & odd acres purchased by his father in 1847 from the above named, the lands are [illegible] deed of sale prod^d.

No 39 is son of Subbaiyan No 38 in col: 15 who acquired the extent specified in his name by purchase in the year Pingala from two individuals - deeds of sale produced - No 40 is daughter of No 38 in col: 15 whose land he enjoys. No 38's brother now alive relinquished right to this woman in favor of the present holder the heir and other heirs. No 41 purchased what is now in his enj^t in the year 1842 from [illegible] and sold it in the year [illegible] from Annapooraniyo No 38 in Col: 15. This woman Annapoorani acquired the land by purchase in the year [illegible] deed of sale not produced. No 42 is same as No 35 in col: 15. His father bought the land enjoyed in his name [illegible] Aiyan in the year [illegible] deed of sale produced. The extent sold in No 43's grand father's name (No 32) in col: 15 including 1/8 of a Veli purchased by his father in the year [illegible] before the late [illegible] 2 original [illegible] document produced. No 44 is son & No 45 brother's grand son of Venkatappaiyan No 30 in col: 15. Besides the extent sold in Venkatappaiyan's name they enjoy also the 3 & odd acres sold in the name of Aiyasamiyan No 29 from whom No 45's grand father purchased it in the year 1842. Deed of sale produced. No 46 is son of No 27 in col: 15. He enjoys in add^n which appears in his father's name A 2-14-4¾ purchased by his father in the year Nandana from Ramaiyan but this [illegible] is mentioned in the [illegible] & deed of sale produced. The extent in the enj^t of No 47 was purchased by his father in the year 1842 from Venkatakuppai Aiyan in col: 15. Deed of sale produced. Subbarayan son of Venkatakuppai Aiyan objects to the registry of the land in the name of the purchaser, on ground that a covenant agreement was given by [illegible] on the day of [illegible] to the effect that if the money were refunded within a certain period, the land would be returned. Subbarayan also produces a letter purporting to have been addressed [illegible] purt^d & forwarded through the agent already reg^d wherein it is stated that the land shall be returned whenever the money is repaid - No 47 alleges that this letter & the one from the agent forwarding it to Venkatakuppai Aiyan are both forged documents. Comparing the signatures in them with those in a number of other letters received from the same parties by the claimant's father & now put forward by No 47, I find them disagree - in the letter in question simply the month & date are specified without the year - The deed of sale is of 17th Purattasi Subhakrithu & from letters produced the agent through whom the letters was received appears to have died in the 3rd Alpisi Subhakrithu. The letter from the agent forwarding the other letter is of 25th Chittirai - The Chittirai in the letter cannot be any other Chittirai but that in Subhakrithu - From letters received by No 47's father from the agent in 1828 it [illegible] appears to have
