No. 467 enjoy besides what descended to them as inheritance large extent of Inam by purchase from other sharers or people who had had portions in gift as descendants in the female line. The purchases were made partly by the father of No. 4 & partly by that of No. 5-6-7 who were brothers. Nos. 5 & 6 have also purchased each a small portion. The purchases are well supported by deeds & some of them are more than 50 years old having been effected in Janbackee Kalayukthi Sowmya before Vilambi Iswara, Chitrabhanu, Vishu, Vijaya, Durmukhi, Manmatha. The most recent purchases were made in 1856 Kalayukthi, Raktakshi & [illegible] for [illegible] certain [illegible] pending these purchases are given in the statements. Nos. 8-9 are brothers & No. 10 their brother's descendant. The father of the two former besides the share he inherited purchased from other sharers portions of the village. This is a Sarva Manyam village. It was originally granted to [illegible] individual. The number of present holders is 73. With the exception of 21 persons who are descendants of the grantee the rest are strangers who have come into possession either by purchase or gift. Even amongst the original holders there have been transfers of shares from one another. With regard to the strangers it would be observed the chain of [illegible] has been [illegible] and [illegible] noticed in detail in this Register nor does it appear necessary to do so, except where the alienation [illegible] from any cause seem objectionable or require special notice when the facts of each alienation are carefully recorded in the statements obtained from the Inamdars. These need [illegible] only be referred [illegible] col. 19.

The village being owned as it is by many individuals no acct of collections are kept — the lands being directly cultd by the Inamdars themselves, the necessity for keeping an account of their profits was not felt by them. No. 14's grandfather & great grandfather of No. 12 had a portion made in gift [illegible] taken from his mother, No. 24's grandmother — this descended to Nos. 12 & 14 together with a portion given in gift to No. 14's father by father of No. 24. Deeds for both produced. Besides these Nos. 12 & 14 have an original share in the Inam.

No. 17 enjoys [illegible] inheritance. His maternal grandfather purchased portions in the village besides what he inherited. The purchases were effected from other original sharers in the Inam in the years Iswara, Bahudhanya & Sobhakritu before [illegible]. No. 17 purchased in the year 1856 the share of one [illegible] Dikshitar a descendant of the original grantee.
