Constituents in the Pagoda

Assistant Collector

In the enjoyment of the Pagoda

The Pinnad accounts of Fasli 1216 & 20 show that the whole Inam was originally granted to the Pagoda at Tiruvalur and that it is of more than 50 years standing. The Agent of the Pagoda manager has given a statement claiming the whole land, both the whole of it which is exception of [illegible] in Extent 15 A. in the enjoyment of private individuals who pay nothing to the Pagoda and over their land we have [illegible] Inchgard &c.

As per Constitution Book of the Pagoda Staff.

It is possible therefore that this may relate to another village unless it intends to land suitable to the Community and may not grant off to the Pagoda every description. But [illegible] to be entered on the accounts of the Pagoda should it [illegible] to be returned as Inam to the Pagoda under Rule 8.

Date of Attachment 6 1870 Date of Statement is not known, but Statement was filed by the Pinnadaiyan of the Pagoda on the 11th August 1870

Some of the Inamdars concerned have also filed Statements, particulars connected with them are given in Note 4 to 20 Accounts in Statement No. 1. Particulars connected with those of them are not filed Statements are given in Statement No. 2.

Extent according to the Pinnad Accounts of Fasl 1216 — A. 5½ Fasl 1221 — 2 — 12 — 3 — 18½

The cause of this difference cannot be ascertained from the accounts.

No. 11 Pagoda has [illegible] not [illegible] exercised any right of ownership on the lands of the Pagoda within the last 50 years, I think that they cannot be confirmed as Inam — If we find a title deed, the Pagoda will no doubt commence to collect some quit rent on the lands, and the rule lead to needless litigation — I would strike the off the list.

Chetty Varu of Mundy of Chetty Varu

No XXIX purchased the Land from the Great Grandson of No 27 on the 10th Paingany of Rakshasa.

No XXX purchased the Land from the grandson of Ponnal Nadi, who is the owner of the Land No 28 lying to the North on the 28th Mara of the year Chitta.

Pattaiyan Lingadeiten claimed the Land from No 29 and sold it to Pethiannan Appan, who keeps Poo nanmai Pattam to the Sirkar No XXXI on the 27th April 1816.

Pethiannan Appan purchased the Land from the Son of Nindy & himself & Daughter in Law Valli, all to the husband of No XXXII on the 29th Aypasi of Rudhirodgary.

The father of No XXXIII sold his Land from No 33 to whom it was mortgaged by his brother, under the decree of the Tirivalore Moonsiffs Court.

No XXXVIII purchased the Land from No 38 on the 1st September 1815

Particulars of Immoveable Property					Endowment of the Agraharam of Tarcadoo
Situation					Tarcadoo
Quantity
Boundaries					Endowment Agraharam at Tarcadoo the Endowment question is now out of dispute & appears from the Statement that the income of the land is about to be applied to the service of the Endowment of the Agraharam and that the Executor resides there.
Name of Landlord or Grantor of Agreement

Date of Endowment 2 October 68
Date of Registration 2 September 69

No other Document exists of which the Payment is Assumed

Here might well be Document from the records the original object of this Document cannot but by the Agraharam Endowment deed to be in about that three cent free Income for 50 years and Upwards. All is charitable endowment and not a personal benefit the building of the Agraharam under notice is now in a state of complete repair and the Trustee (Ramasamy) resides in the Agraharam at Tarcadoo as the Endowment deed requires. The income of the Endowment is very small compared to the considering the small amount of the Income of the Agraharam that the Endowment is genuine that the Agraharam is not a Sham & that the Trustee resides there as required by the Endowment deed. The Endowment is genuine & bona fide & the Trustee resides there as required by the Endowment deed.

As there does not appear to be any good prospect of the Inamdar ever Engaging for which this Inam was granted, being resumed, the Inam is fully granted, being resumed, the Inam is fully assessed -
