Chidambaraiyer just mentioned. That is entd. in her name was given to her, after the death of her husband by his brother & father with power to dispose of it as she liked in the year 1830. Of this extent A 31-10 or 2 [illegible] were mortgaged by her (No 24) with one Mutha- [illegible] Ayyar in the year [illegible] for Rs 38 [illegible] with a condition that if they be not redeemed at the end of 6 years they would be forfeited as sold. As the 2 [illegible] in question were not redeemed within the period specified Mahalingaiyer sold the land in the name of his son in the year 1851 to one [illegible] Pillai cancelling apparently the fruit of the land having been mortgaged with him. This appears to have been done with a fraudulent intent on the part of the mortgagee. As according to the law in force the mortgagee has not forfeited her right to the land, I have entd. it in her name. That No 25 enjoys was given to him, they say, under [illegible] by her to [illegible]. The gift was admitted in Court by the owner & also before me. The extent is entd. in the Parimaik in the name of Sami Rao a relation or agent of the said brothers of No 24, as wd. appear from these accounts. Nos 26 & 27 are step brothers. Their father purchd. A 7-8-13½ C.A 1-10-8½ in 1848 from the son of No 9 in col. 16, & A 5-35-5 in 1844 from the son of Sami Rao, already allowed to, & his relatives whose land was entd. in the Parimaik in his name, & on hand by exchange for his lands in another village in the year 1851 A 1-8-5¾ from Kaliyana Aiyar who had purchd. it in 1837 from the [illegible] No 7. The A 5-35-5 purchd. from Sami Rao's son including A 15-3½ entd. in the name of Narayana Pillai; Narayana Pillai's lands enjoyed, that the party who has purchd. Narayana Pillai's [illegible] Hence this is what A 26-4½ of the extent entd. in Sami Rao's name. Hence the [illegible] [illegible], though [illegible] [illegible] or there was perhaps an the Enam was entd. in the name of the other [illegible] Nos 26 & 27's father produced Exchange. Deeds to support the acquisitions by Nos 26 & 27's father [illegible] [illegible] purchased in 1829 in the name of Tiru Narayana Pillai [illegible] of No 19 purchased [illegible] Narayana Pillai (named [illegible] Subbaraiyar (named under No 8 in col. 15) from Narayana Pillai [illegible] V 1-4-6½. Of the extent the No already allowed [illegible] No 14) V [illegible] A 9-10¾ which the V 1-4-6½ amounted to with the [illegible] only A 6-21-1¾, nearly equivalent to [illegible]; were entd. in the name of Subbaraiyar & the rest was entd. in the name of Narayana Pillai. The purchr. was [illegible] in the enjt. of the whole or A 9-10¾, minus the A 15-3½ already & in the remarks on Nos 26 & 27, with the A 26-4½ referred to in the same No & A 30-[illegible] being Narayana Pillai's share of the extent entd. as Sarvam. No 28 widow of Narayana Pillai objected before me to the registry of the above extent in No 19's name as [illegible] that she is in enjt. of same, & as he is entitled to under the deed of sale executed by her husband. The claim has been settled by the parties entering into a compromise by which No 19 has given over to No 28 A 29-12½ being the V 1-4-6½ over the 1st purchd. by the former with the portion of the [illegible] due on it. Deed of sale executed & [illegible] [illegible] by Narayana Pillai, & deed of [illegible] [illegible] executed by Subbaraiyar are produced. The boy entd. in col. 19 as [illegible] to No 12 is said to have been adopted by her (No 12's) husband whose sister [illegible] No 12 entd. herself in the statement as heir & denied the adoption where the guardian & natural father of the adopted son appeared to lay claim to the Enam on behalf of the boy, & produced a will left by the deceased bequeathing this Enam & the major portion of his other property to the adopted son who was to allow maintenance to his widow. She has however subsequently admitted the adoption & the claimant has filed a second [illegible] or petition retracting the claim for registry in the name of the boy having arranged with the widow that she should enjoy the Enam till the boy attains his age, when she is to give up a moiety [illegible] holding the other half be [illegible] to [illegible] family. That No 20 enjoys is out of the extt. in the name of his uncle's son No 11 in col. 15. That No 21 enjoys appears in the Parimaik in the name of his adoptive father No 17. No 22 is son of No 3 in col. 15. That he enjoys a moiety of the extent under that No & his father's share of the extent under No 13 A 8-6 purchd. by his father in the year 1836 from Mahalingaiyer (the family of named under No 13 & No 15) A 1-29-4½ purchased by him in the same year from the widow of No 5 who had mortgaged it with his grandfather in 1826 & A [illegible] of the extent entd. as Sarvam. Deeds to support the above purchase & the purchase of the extent entd. in the Parimaik in his father's name are produced. Of the extent in the enjt. of No 23 A 5-35-12½ was purchd. by his father (A 4-28-2½ in 1845 from [illegible] [illegible] holder No 20 & A 1-7-[illegible] in 1842 from No 10 & 11 & the [illegible] from No 9 in col. 16) & A 1-11-9 by his grandfather in 1837 from [illegible] named in the Parimaik.
