The villages of Kottan Kerambu & Sinna Tamarayal were granted in Sarva Maniyam tenure by the [illegible] Brahmin [illegible] & intercession of Sitta Bava Swamy by Tuljaji Rajah in 1772. On the death of the late Rajah in 1855 these two villages were placed under attachment; & on the production of the Sannad supporting the above holdings they were released from attachment & made over to the Agraharam Brahmins under the orders of the Special Commission for Tanjore.

1st Kottan Kerambu The village is bounded on the north by the village of Ottangadu; east & south by the Shrotrium of Thomavayal; & west by the village of Kilagaram.
