Register No 156

Sheet No 30

Com. Ld 1838 158 Continued

what is the meaning of that clause when the Tope is held by Mercenaries for the Use long or sometimes to half of the account [illegible] the Court cannot be to give away half of the Land or Income, to any the Mesne Lord as Lord Paramount of the Land or Income, & that the Court pronounced is not Conclusive that the Mercenaries have not power to treat on the Mesne Lords behalf [illegible] or that the Mesne Lord is not [illegible] Mesne — The whole Land can be conveyed on a Sale Equal to the Amount of the half advanced & Interest paid, leaving the right of the Mercenaries untouched — The Mercenaries can hold the Tope as usual & notice of foreclosure may be given to the Mesne Lord as well as to the Tenant of the Land & the Court as Income — The relation between the