Yakhoji Raja ~~worth~~ of the Est was the first Raja of Tanjore who took possession of the Fort on the 9th Feby 1675. His son was Tukkoji Raja. His son Nana Saib. His son Appu Saib. His son Nana Saib. His son Tukkoji Saib who died in Kristha 1844 leaving ~~[illegible]~~ behind him a daughter Sakwarbayi Ammani and a widowed sister Radhabayi Ammani.

Now Appu Saib daughter's son of Savitri bayi Ammani another sister of Tukkoji Raja contends that he was adopted by Tukkoji Raja 2 hours before his death. Sakwarbayi Ammani daughter of Tukkoji Raja urges that no adoption of the kind took place and in proof of which produces the late Raja's decision on the subject. Papers on the appeal from enquiry it seemed that Tukkoji Raja was suddenly attacked by a severe illness at about 10 of the night and carried off immediately. The European doctor of the Residency was called for. In post mortem examination he reported that he was dead. There was no opportunity for adopting the boy. Again the the aunt of the Ganesh Sahib employed as Tukkoji Raja ~~at~~ states that he was present at the time of the death of the Tukkoji Raja & that no adoption took place. The late Sevaji Raja in his mem dated 15 Febr 1845 refused to recognize the adoption advanced by Radhabayi Ammani sister of Tukkoji Raja, on the ground that it appeared from enquiry held in His Highness' fort that no such adoption took place. ~~Sakwarbayi~~ Sakwarbayi & alleged ~~Resident~~ adopted son Appu Saib as the daughter's son of the sister of Tukkoji Raja. Savitribayi Ammani the mother of Appu Saib died in 1838 the funeral rites of her were performed in the name of Appu Saib. After performing the funeral rites of his natural parents he is considered ~~disqualified~~ for adoption. ~~[illegible]~~ of the late Raja this village was placed in attachment, & after in his own detail, 1st Sept 1858 directed the restoration of the Village of the Tukkoji Raja to his daughter Sakwarbayi Ammani & sister Radhabayi Ammani. The Government Agent in his ~~letter~~ dated 30 Jan 61 ruled that Appu Saib has not been recognised as the ~~owner~~ heir of – declaring that Sakwarbayi Ammani daughter of Tukkoji Raja was the sole ~~owner~~ & legal heir ⊕

This Village or Zittam is an Inam Jaghir Inam supported by no Sannad granted by the large Rajas or Pannanagar. At the same Inam is measured as a part of Rana mudrakottai. Again measured as a whole village are the name of Rettapuliadi Zittam, It has then been for the last 50 years treated as a whole village. This Zittam has been placed under attachment from Fusli pending enquiry into the title which it is held. The Pannanagar is produced. It appears with the title of Fusli as well as with the Jaghir of F1238 – The original grantee Mallayi Gadi Row Saib is the sister's husband of Pratap Sing Raja & it was 11 Dec. The Inam appears to have been granted as Sarangi Khane to his sister Sama bayi Saib wife of the Est – Under the circumstances I would recommend that it may be confirmed on 1 Tank ~~[illegible]~~ 8 – 2 ~~[illegible]~~

⊕ The Sakwarbayi Ammani daughter of Tukkoji is considered the heir of Tukkoji Sahib family & the annual pension Rs 222 per mensem for ~~her~~ subsistence has been distributed to Sakwarbayi Ammani. Mr Forbes in his letter dated 23rd Novr 1853 intimated that the annual pension should be paid to the principal heir Sakwarbayi Ammani with the proviso that 52 – 2 – should be ~~given~~ allowed to Radhabayi Ammani & his sister grand son Appu Saib. Under the circumstances it is evident that the adoption of Appu Saib has not been recognised, & that the merits of the alleged adoption ~~do~~ do not admit of its being recognised. This paper regarding of the village – which has been ~~mortgaged~~ for the last 20 yrs to any transfer he ~~[illegible]~~ Sakwarbayi Ammani daughter of Tukkoji Raja the Resident is ~~[illegible]~~
