for the service of Pagoda Worship. As on enquiry it is elicited that the claim is true, & that the Manager does not interfere with it, having been usually allowed as Pujari Inam, it is recommended that the inam may be confirmed to them free in one T.D. so long as Pujari service is rendered. The heir of the Worshipper in F 1223 is stated by the Zamindar's Vakeel to be still performing the service of worshipping, for which he says he is pd in cash by himself. The Zamindar is seen managing the Pagoda from F 1256 & states he was manager even before that. He does not appear, however, to have been nominated as Manager for this Pagoda, as he has been to other Institutions, when Davastanam management was given up by Govt. in F 1252 — 14/5/64.
The heirs of the party in F 1223 — No. 4 — have since claimed the inam as being in their enjoyment.
