Krishna Sastri father of the above Maradamma Sastri, having been made to collect in connection with the Capes consequent on the death of Eggia Ditchit, the Tahsildar inquired when the above request by Eggia Ditchit and the fact of the property being settled being true or not. Krishna Sastri as he is called by his friends, Maradamma Sastri, who was the Minor were proved before him. Vide Agra 28th April 1863 N. 194 refused to collect for disposal by Alien Commission. The Sham is now claimed by Maradamma Sastri as his share for himself - while his four Brothers A. D. C. D. claim to participate in the request in shares. It is true that he and his Brothers are in one family and undivided. But they can be held as undivided and therefore possessed of common interest, in the Property of their father only. But as the Sham is the self acquired Property of Maradamma Sastri and does not rest in his Cousins but belongs to the acquirer's individual line. Vide Strange on Hindu Law Small Volume Chapter X on Partition Section 232 Page 41, I have rejected the claim of his Brothers. The right of the parties having been thus disposed of, it must be considered whether the transfer of the Sham by last Holder Eggia Ditchit to a party who was not his direct heir under the Hindu Law, was allowable. The alienation besides, was made in 1854 after the prohibitory Notification of 1848 and it was irregular. A. C. R. at 1/2 is therefore imposed.
To be complied with in our S. D. A. R. at 1/2 Compulsory Act " - 14 - " -

Sham claimed by A. C. R. to Court to see that the Sham is not transferred to the line.
