The Public Room is reserved for the expenditure of which this money given flows a great deal of it. 86 St. Marks St. New York City. It is situated on a large lot and is well kept - and now and then by a house. I have tried in vain to get the name of the owner - No one here has given me a clue. He has been building a house on the lot but has not yet finished it. It is now left to the Trustees of the Pan-African Congress all claims to the money - and the Chicago Community decided that the money may be conferred to the Public
