One of the former Heads of the Institution sold this inam for Rs 80 to father of present Holder on a Stamp Paper Deed of sale dated 5th Sept. 1829 — which is produced —
The present Hd of the Institution named Kumara Sivaprakasa Swamiar wishes that the inam should be confirmed to it because the alienation was irregular & inadmissible & because the sale is not to be relied upon —
But there is nothing to doubt the truth of the sale — & the inam has been uninterruptedly enjoyed by the family of the alienee these 38 years from the state of sale — I think the act of one Hd of the institution is binding on all his successors — The seller's successors respected the sale, and the present Hd who was his 2d successor has not objected to the sale these 12 years that he has been installed — Govt are not bound to respect a right given up by the parties — Besides the efficiency of the Institution is not impaired by the sale of this inam as it is supported by numerous other inams and an entire village. The alienation has been complete, and it has been hitherto viewed unobjectionable by those interested in the institution and the inam is small in extent — Under the Pro: of the Comr 12th Feby 1861 No 228 Para 13 — I have disallowed the claim of the present Hd of the institution & have advised him to recover the inam from the alienee by a Civil action — The institution can not object to the treatment of the inam as personal because
