This is a Neerarambam Village in which the Cawny is considered to contain 1·01 Acres. I have converted the Cawny into 1·32 following the practice in the Rev. Dept.; but if the Conversion is viewed as wrong, the Cawnies & Goolies in col. 4 can be taken for acres & cents as done in the settlement Dept.

The average assessment of Vellur is taken for settlement as that village is more like this —

In Dowle 1259 4 names are entered:

(4) Chakkrapani Achari, gt gd son

(2) Sengammal 26 — (2) Widow of gt gd son — (2) Daughter unmarried 1

(4) Vijayandrachariar 63 — (4) Gd son — (4) son 1, Daughter married 1, son's wife 1, son's Daughters 4
(5) Chakkrapaniachari 45 — (5) D^o — (5) wife 1, sons 2, 3

The family is divided. The inam is also divided in the following shares:

1 —	1
2 —	1
3 —	2
4 —	2
5 —	2
	(8)

No. 1 and 2 however enjoy in Garden land 8–12½ more than what they are entitled to under the whole shares which hold good in every other respect. The excess is certainly claimed by No. 3 to 5 on the ground that the Todi is p^d by them for the excess. They are told to adjust the dispute amicably or thro' Court.

There is a dispute between No. 1 and 2 as to the future reversionary right to the share enjoyed by the latter. No. 2 states that it must go to her unmarried Daughter while No. 1 states that it must go to him as an undivided member with her. There is no doubt that the share in question is now enjoyed by No. 2 in her own right & as divided from him as the Tah^r reports on the lapse consequent on the death of her husband in Fusly 1258 goes to establish. No. 1 however lays stress on a Deposition given before the Tah^r by No. 2 to the effect that she was undivided with him. The widow as she states now, gave such a deposition under the idea that her share would be resumed by Gov^t as the declared heirless property of no male heirs, and with the view to [illegible]. No. 1 & 2 however are desired to settle the dispute amicably or thro' Courts.

To be confirmed in I.C.
