	Thammuttiyan Marimuthu 50. 1. Karuppa Udayan 2. Muttu Karuppa Udayan 3. Annamuthu Udayan					Old S. Rate 24-1-0. Entered in Col. 3 of the register as shown as religious Inam in favour of the muttiyan but in the Revenue accounts he is not entitled as Inamdar by the Inam Commissioner. It was found under attachment from 1901 when Inam Commissioner enquired into the Inam. They claim the land as Inam. They have no documentary evidence to prove the Inam but they contend that it was granted to the muttiyan for the maintenance of the village temple. They also contend that the Inam settlement at the time of Inam Commission was made in favour of the muttiyan. The Inamdar has been in possession of the land as Inamdar for 50 years and upwards before the date of Inam Commission. The Inamdar also produced the Inam Sanad. The Inamdar appears to be entitled to the benefit of the institution which is well kept up. Therefore I beg to recommend the confirmation of the Inam subject to the payment of Quit, rent at half the full assessment. The Managers of the institution agree to this.
