W. L. Blair Officiating Inam Commissioner 9th January 1867

It is a personal grant appears to have been long in the family. The present Inamdar is still a young man and 2 annas likely to continue the Rent of family and considering the trifling value of the Inam it is submitted that the Inam may be Confirmed to him subject to the payment of an annual Rent of the aforesaid

Permanently Rent at the rate of 1/8th

Signed General Deputy Collector's Office 15th December 1866

Date of application for attachment 15th December 1865

Special Agreement for Inam

Fasly 1274

As per Inam accounts Faslee 1253 — C 6 — a 11

As per Inam accounts Faslee 1261 Do

As per Pymaish accounts Faslee 1216 — 2 9 — 13

As the genealogical tree given in the accompanying Statement the present holder had omitted the name of Venkatachella Syen and in his stead Nagapah Syen is put in as the founder but this is evidently wrong and the Inamdar perhaps knows nothing of his ancestors further than Nagapah Syen. In the Inam accounts Faslee 1261 opposite to the entry of this Inam, Subbiah attests with his signature that he is the great grandson of the Original grantee. If this is true and there is no reason to disbelieve it then as per the genealogical tree Subbiah was the son of Venkatachella Syen, son of Nagapah Syen, son of Venkatachella Syen the Original grantee and perhaps the founder is not of the family.
