Taking advantage of absence of Enamion Karnam of Ayazman patta had land cultivated & appraised granted & proceeds thereof for some years. Price Rs 88 45, Rs. having been bought & notice of July & Karnam was furnished for the full in his order dated 26th January 1846 directed to Landdar to hold & proceeds of Enamion in deposit.
Under & head of Devaji Jamma, & assessment. No & possession of Enamion. His Enamion has since been under attachment. The exact amount now in deposit is not known.

of Raima Wharton claimed, & restoration of him of & Enam, & Lander's equipment into & care & responsibility. & & Enam should be ~~restored~~ restored to Raima Wharton. In order in his own behalf 15th Nov. 1858, called for full explanation.
In Lander's report in reply, & certain details of ~~the~~ Lander's party, some not yet coming. He can now be referred to the Dept. for disposal. All & circumstances relating to & subject, are not ~~at~~ available. But it is clear, from & papers found in & Lander's party, & & Enam, was intended to be placed ^{under} attachment in 1858, under a ~~provisional~~ order, issued above, & Enam's having, absconded & removed from & Wharton & & Raima's having in consequence been appropriated to proceeds of & Enam.

Ram's Son Kari Tim Bhatar died 5 years ago, leaving behind him a widow, Gaurammal, & an eldest married sister Kama Bhatia, who has succeeded to the name. Gaurammal is under the protection of Ram's Bhatia.

Reverend Mother states that his father engaged to Susan till 1826, & after his death, he & his brother did not go to N. York for 20 yrs, & had been then laid out.

The released from attachment, & confirmed of Raima Mullen under Rule D 63. agreed

The proceeds of insurance as deposited may be a
