Further contain a Taluk of a Tahsildar Kala Sat on 17th June 1800 to Maniagar directing that the money collected in Tuppasipatti and the money remitted from Kala Sat may be paid to Tuppasiar, and that the village should be left uninterfered with; also a Taluk of Tasildar Venkat Rau dated F. 1210 letting the monegars know that orders were received from Collector for putting the wet & Dry of Tuppasipatti in the possession of Tuppasiar: By a receipt of Tuppasiar dated 15th July 1800 acknowledging the payment to him of 38 P. 4th granted to him by the Honourable Company. These papers give no more information than what the accounts before me have given. viz that Tuppasipatti is an Inam Village Ryakat not being known, that the Catholic church - enjoyed certain sundry Inams of certain extent and a mothurpha grant, as declared in the gross jamavandi of F. 1209. The Palegar's Vakil on the other hand, produces copy of certain depositions on the subject in 1837. The said depositions taken in 1827 before a Tahsildar Venkat Rau from Kamam Divaniam Pillai, Ambalam Perumal Reddy; Chinnasidan Swaminarayana Pillai and Arasadi Kamam Toppaiya Pillai. The witnessed them declared that Tuppasipatti was a mere hamlet without land; and that certain Nanja to the extent of 5 under the Palegar's Tank of Arasadi was granted to Tuppasiar by the Palegar for charity and that they have been enjoying it; that at Arasadi, there was dry Inam to the extent of 4 chain at Arasadi. They said that no mothurpha was allowed to the Tuppasikavil in the Accounts. The question put in the deposition of Toppia Pillai shows that the Tuppasiar kavil manager's Vakil claimed 60 Kotas 10 Dry chanis 3 and Mothurpha in the village of Tuppasipatti, neither party could say what final order was issued - but the Palegar's Vakil states that the matter was not settled by the Collector. In the accounts of F. 1209 the gross Jamavandi of the whole Vanithanam was 3 Kotas & Mothurpha were deducted as Inam. I would,
