Register (No. 14.)

Register of Inams in the Village of Alampatti (No.), in the Taluk of Sattur in the District of Tinnevelly.

Sheet No. 127 (Extract)

This is a Sarva Inam village. The accounts available are the survey ayacut of 1804 for Dry and no wet ayacut. The Dry ayacut has been prepared according to the Survey Ayacut and the wet ayacut has been prepared according to the Karnikam ayacut of Fusli 1249. The Dry ayacut was all assessed according to fixed rates. The wet has not been assessed. The ayan village next to this is Irukkangudi which bears an average wet assessment of Rupees 9-1-7 per seed Kottai. The same assessment has now been charged. The Survey Inam account has been prepared according to the jamabandi of Fasli 1217.

As regards adoption, the question seems to have been ascertained in Dy. Collector Sreenivasa Row's for Inam at Tenkasi. So I need not discuss the question now. As for Velatti ammal's petition she should be first identified as the writer of the petition.						Boundaries of the village are stated thus. Vakil Alagappa Pillai, Vakil of Nos. 1 and of 3's alleged adopted son Kumarasami Mudali, declares the fact of adoption of Kumarasami Mudali by the deceased. But No. 2's Vakil admitting the fact of adoption dissents against. A registered petition has been received this day, alleged to have been written by No. 3 Velatti ammal declaring against the fact of adoption.		In this case, there are 2 questions to be decided. 1st the question of excess 2ndly, the unsatisfactory manner of performing the Kattalai almost on a make believe system. As for the excess it was not examined or surveyed by Circar. This is the first time the existence of the excess is shown. It was recorded in the village accounts by the Karnams from 30 years gradually as cultivation progressed and fields surveyed by the Karnam. The Inamdar's Vakil admits the existence of the excess which is 50 per cent on the entire original ayakat. The ayan villages of Ettagal Padandal and Methupatti are adjacent and quite contiguous to the inam. The unusual enormity xxx	Confirmed to the Pagoda in Col. 16 on present tenure subject to a jodi of Rs. 28-12-0 in Commutation of Badakaval fees. The extent is confirmed according to the Survey ayakat. If the Revenue authorities find that the original boundaries of the village have been overstepped, it is open to them fully to assess the encroachment. Sd/- W. T. Blair Offg. Contn of Col. 21. xxx enormity of this excess must bespeak the fact of a gradual encroachment on all sides. The limits of the villages are not defined naturally or in respect to any natural bounds so that all suspicions of encroachment might be dispelled. An imperceptible extension on poramboke and immemorial waste was therefore possible. The only course left then is to assess fully the 30 chains excess minus 10 per cent or 6 chains. The remaining will be 24 chains which should be fully assessed at the 3rd class Dry rate viz., Rs. 5-4-5 (as ps) per chain or

In the Survey of Fusly 1213 Iswaram Kovil Vela Pujah Katlai Sarva Inam village Madattu-Kadu Ayakat as recorded in Col. 4	In the F. 1217 jamabandi Sattur Chitambareswara Swami Kovil Velas Puja Katlai Sarva Inam village Kotapacheri Madattu-Kadu. In the Amishan jamabandi account of F. 1217, both Kotapacheri and Madattukadu are described as Sarva inam villages for Chitambareswara Swami Vela Puja inam.		Sattur. Chitambareswara Swami Vela Puja Katlai Present holders of the land Dalavayi Ramaswami Mudali, Mede Kumaraswami Mudali Dharmakarta of the temple, Padandal Naramaiyan					This is a case of direct misappropriation. The inamdars have been seriously misappropriating the inam, under the name of a pretended diverted object. The accounts available are the Survey account of Fasli 1213 and the jamabandi of Fasli 1217. In both these accounts, the village is described distinctly, as a village granted for Sattur Chitambareswara Swami Kovil Vela Puja Katlai. The Sarva inam village of Kottappacheri Register No. 2) has been also held for the support of the very Katlai and it has been used for that object, though very indifferently. The proceeds of that village come to 340 Rupees and the inamdar's Vakil and Gumasta have shown accounts of annual expenditure to the extent of 25 Rupees a month or 300 Rupees a year. This inam which has been allowed for the support of the Vela Puja Katlai, has been misappropriated under the pretence of supporting the charity of feeding in the Sevvai-Kilamai or Tuesday Matam at Sattur. The actual expences incurred there are 2 1/2 Rupees a month (viz.,) feeding Pandarams to the extent of 10 annas every Tuesday. The annual expenditure on that account is Rs. 30 a year. The remaining sums must then inevitably go into the Inamdar's pocket. No Circar records shew that this was a grant for Sevvaikilamai Matam. The inamdar's Vakil is not able to produce any documents in support of the claim of Tuesday Matam. The Devastanam people of Sattur say that the Sevvaikilamai Matam was a private charity of the Dalava Mudali family and xxx	Confirmed in one Title Deed to the managers for the time being of the original Katlai, leaving it to the Committee, appointed under Act XX of 1863, to guard against the misappropriations brought t notices by Dep Collector. Sd/- T. Krishna Dy. Collr. and Asst. to the Inam Commr. 7th November 1865. Approved. Sd/- W. T. Blair Inam Commr. 17th November 65 T. D. No 217.

xxx Contg of Col. 21. and they had long maintained it at their private expenses, but from about fifteen years, they have disconnected this Sarva-inam from Sattur Chitambareswara Swami's Vela Puja Katlai and pretended to apply it to the Tuesday Matam. This misappropriation and diversion from the original object of the grant is clear and the inam should, for that reason returned. But the claim of the Sattur temple to the inam will have also to be ~~Confirmed~~ Considered. If in consideration of this claim, the inam right be Confirmed, I recommend that the village of Kotappacheri, and this village of Madattukadu should be made over to the charge of the temple Dharmakarta.
