present enjoyer to receive the Title Deed, which will be held good only until any final orders are passed.

Sivasubramania Pillai Complained that there is no chatram now kept up at Danuskotta. But it appears from the evidence of persons who had been to Rameswaram on Pilgrimage that at Rameswaram there is a choultry and that about 7 miles between Rameswaram and the Seashore which is Called Dhanakotti, there exists another chatram Called Mutthkundu Raja's choultry which is building partly of straw thatch, and partly of brick and Chunam and that Brahmins are fed there well. Sivasubramania Pillai points out that to be Called a Dhanakotta choultry, the choultry must be at the Shore while the present incumbent states that for fear of Sea in-undations, the choultry was recently built some 7 miles off the shore and also that the Sea has in some measure receded. As however the choultry is kept up, I would Confirm the inam.

Further remarks

Regarding the jodi the amount was chatram, Rapodas 500 or Rupees 1060-9-9 according to Mr Lushington's Kattugutta Register of Fs. 1211. The Dasakaval was stated therein to be blank - In 1815/21/Fs. 1231 the jodi was recorded as Rs. 1391-8-0 or Rs. 330-14-3 in excess of 500 chakrams - The Karnam and the inamdar represent that the jodi was only Rupees 1060-9-9 and all the sum above it is the Dasakaval fee payable to Government on the lands of the Kattugutta village. Pattas are not produced but the receipt accounts in the taluk show 1391-8-4 as Kattugutta and

It seems that the amount of jodi shown in the accounts of 1815/21 and F. 1231 included Dasakaval also and the average annual Dasakaval on past 5 years is Rupees 754-3-9 -

I leave it for decision whether the T. D. should include this ~~dasa Kaval~~ Desakaval amount also in the column of jodi - If it might I recommend that the past five years average may be put in as fixed Dasakaval jodi. I wrote to the Collector on the subject Kattugutta Dasakaval generally on 14th November 1865 & 5th May 1865 and no answer has been as yet received.

General remarks of the Inam Deputy Collector.

The wet is irrigated
by the Kattu channels
for Mel Nambipur
and by rain fed tanks
for the other villages.
The assessment of the ayan villages
under the same irrigation is Rs. 8-2-2 per Kotta in Nenmeni and Rs. 7-7-3
for Sukkangudi. The other [illegible] on rainfed irrigation land is about 8 Rupees. I would therefore charge the wet ayakat in this village with Rs. 8-2-2 per Kotta.
All are one ~~compound~~ crop lands.
The aikat and tanks
are repaired by Katta-

This is a Kattuguttagai village – It consists of Nambipur 1. Mel Nambipur 2 changalipatti, Vedapatti. Kilakarandai and T. appatti – The village of Mela Nambipur is again an ardamaniyam village between the Kattuguttagadar and the temples of Vishnu and Siva at Nambipur. The Kattuguttadar's moiety and the remaining 5 hamlets are appropriated for the choultry and sarkar jodi. There are 3 remissions in this village of a communistic character viz., a general remission of 5 per cent on the Dry cultivation and 2ndly a further remission of 25 per cent on the holdings of the Brahmins and 3rdly a Duppatti remission of 1½ Fanams for every 100 Fanams of the Jamabandi Beriz – All these are remissions in favour of the Brahmin Mahajanam community of the village. The Duppatti Kalam is not the manigar's fee, but it is also a remission in favour of Brahmins for encouragements of cultivation or as Sukavasi – But these remissions form a part of the administration of the village by the Kattuguttadar and he fixes his Jamabandi after allowing those remissions which are exclusively confined to the Dry – There are no remissions of any kind on the wet lands. The Kattuguttadar allows the remissions from the Beriz struck on the Dry assessment fixed in Fasli 1213. The assessments fixed on Dry are shown elsewhere – As these remissions were introduced in the former Government and on certain understanding between the Kattuguttadar and the Mahajanams we cannot view them as remissions intended to be made from the rates of assessment fixed in this Government. Besides it appears, that in the neighbouring villages of Vagaitamu and Kilmuratti of the Yettiyapuram Palayapat and Chengottai of Mayalapuram and 1836 the village was put in the hands of Muthkunda Row's heirs under orders of Board of Revenue – The Board's order of 1835 is not before me; but it appears from copy of an endorsement produced of Collector Mr. Silver in 1862 – 12th April that Mr. Silver sent for the original orders of the Board of Revenue dated 14th December 1835, and that he found from the letter that in the Board's opinion Muttayya Pillai's claim was not sustainable and that the Board directed the assignment of the villages to Muthkunda Row's people –

Muthkunda Row's heirs have no Parwana or other original grants. The present enjoyer states that the grant was made to Muthkunda Row, that in consequence of the residence of Muthkunda Row at Madras, the management of the village and choultry was made over to the Rameswaram Pandaram and that with his villages this village also was attached and that on representation the village was restored to his family under orders of Board of Revenue as the rightful owners.

Sivasubramania Pillai recently put the matter again before acting Collector Mr. Banbury and it appears from an endorsement held by him passed by Mr. Banbury on 22nd May 1865 that Mr. Banbury has written to Board on the subject – Mr. Banbury's endorsement runs thus:– "Patta should not be changed until after the Board's orders are received" on this case in reply to my letter –

It should be remarked here that the Rameswaram Devasthanam people have not come forward at any time to claim the inam as theirs – The present enjoyer of the village produces a certified copy of a deposition dated 3rd January 1819 by Sethu Ramanad Pandaram the then Dharmakartha of Rameswaram in which he admits that the right of the village belonged to Muthkunda Row – In opposition to this, Sivasubramania Pillai is able to produce a certified copy of a deposition dated 12th October 1828 given by the then Rameswaram Dharmakarta Tapasi Dharmakarta Sethu Ramanatha Pandaram – In his deposition he stated that the right of the village and choultry belonged to Iyelliappan Pillai and not to Muthkunda Row –

I cannot determine which of these two conflicting ~~testimony~~ testimonies contained true facts. The Proceedings of 1835, must have touched upon every such discrepancy – Under these circumstances and because the case is now pending before the Revenue authorities, I would not interfere in the case further than confirming the present enjoyment and waiving the

×× however what person filed the grant in 1814, whether the claimant's ancestor or the Pandaram of Rameswaram, but it seems probable that the Sannad was filed by Rameswaram pagoda people, for the case No. 34, in the register in which this grant was registered includes both this village and the village of Poovani and this latter village is held exclusively by the people of Rameswaram pagoda. – On the ground of this Parwana Sivasubramania Pillai claims registry. He alleges that from before the survey up to F. 1222 the Inam was enjoyed by the ancestors that in F. 1223 & 24 the choultry was left to the charge of Rameswara Pandaram owing to the minority of one Nallanayakam Pillai that in F. 1225 the village was attached when all the villages of the Rameswaram temple were attached and that in F. 1227 one Hakkubay Ammal wife of one Mukunda Row got it fraudulently registered in her name and obtained possession of the village for Mukkhunda Row's choultry, that his father then

The letter proceeds to give an account of the disputes in the family of Mukkhunda Row describing their enjoyment under orders and refers to the claim preferred by one Muttu Pillai (who is alleged to be Siva Subramania Pillai's great grandfather's brother) and recommended that the village is now under Sarkar management should be continued (Section [illegible] regulation VII of 1817) until the proprietary right is satisfactorily determined – As regards Muttaya Pillai's claim it simply records the advancement of the claim and the non-settlement of his claim – This letter is dated 1833, but in ~~1836 the village was~~

Average of the additional baskaval collections in last 5 years Total baskaval jodi Total baskaval jodi	Assessment Col 9 in jodi original baskaval fixed and collected upto Fs. 1231 Total as per 1815/21	1060-9-9 330-14-3 1391-8-0 423-5-6 754-3-9 1814-13-6		No parwana produced by the present enjoyers But one Sivasubramania Pillai of Tinnevelly produces a Parwana called Melak or renewal grant dated 1st Shabha Hijri 1213. The Sanad specifies that Nambipuram and its 5 hamlets were granted for Dhanushkotti chattram and is addressed to Tyelpakam Pillai a Gumasta of Rameswar Ramanad Pandaram & for looking after the choultry. In this document the word Vicharippu are written between two regular lines and the letters "pu" corrected in (ஆ)(KA) KKa the former reading Vicharippu and the latter reading it as Vicharikka and cannot account for the state of the alteration. The letters KKa are written in a quite different ink from the ink of the Sanad. But it signifies little it strikes me whether the reading is the one or the other for either goes to show that Tyelappakara Pillai was a Gumastal for the chattram. Sd/- A. V.
