BOOKS, REGISTRAR OF.—(Continued.)	1870.
Curator of Government Books. —The Accountant-General ordered to disburse to the—for his additional charge as Registrar of Books a salary of Rupees 100 per mensem with office rent, Rupees 65, and the reduced commission of $7\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. upon sales in the Book Department, pending further instructions from the Government of India, who appear to have misunderstood the intentions of this Government. Pointed out to the Government of India that no reduction of Mr. Kistnama Charry's salary of Rupees 200 as Curator was ever contemplated, but that sanction was merely requested for the grant to him, as Registrar of Books, of a salary of Rupees 100 per mensem with a commission of $7\frac{1}{2}$ per cent., instead of the commission of 10 per cent. alone, as hitherto; an arrangement which, as observed by the Director of Public Instruction, raised considerably the receipts of the Curator, and, indeed, so much so, as to promise in a few years to place him on a level, pecuniarily, with the best paid Inspectors of Schools... ..	9th June...	16-19	168
