| — Regretted that the —, after 2½ year's trial, is pronounced a failure; and satisfied that it is due to the caste restriction placed by the Native gentlemen, who, in a measure, supported the Institution. Its abolition however disapproved; and for the purpose of carrying it on on the basis Government originally approved, viz., that it shall "be open to female students of all classes and sects, provided they belong to families of respectable social station," and are willing to adopt the profession of teacher, the Director of Public Instruction requested to submit his proposals; also, to give his full attention to the details presented to his consideration, and to bring his personal influence to bear on the educated members of the Native community in order to secure a sufficient number of eligible students ... | 13th Sept.                   | 18-21 | 297    |
