PENSIONS AND GRATUITIES.—(Continued.)

GENERAL.—(Continued.)

Winscom, Mr. J., Second Class Deputy Collector in charge of Income-Tax. The Government of India asked to permit Mr. Winscom's service from the 24th April 1867 to the 31st December 1869, during which period he was employed as Collector of License, Certificate, and Income taxes to count for leave and pension; and generally to issue a ruling as to the status, in these respects of the servants employed in the collection of the late License and Certificate and existing Income taxes

Refusal of the Supreme Government expressed to convert, retrospectively, into pensionable grades services which are not so, for the reason that they were rendered as a temporary arrangement. As to the general principle, ruled that when a Government servant is detached for employment in the late License Tax, Certificate Tax, and existing Income-tax Departments as an incident in his official career he is entitled to count his service for pension.

Supply of Silver and copper coins to — during 1869-70.—Statement furnished by the Accountant General showing the ... and the balance in the Madras Bank at the close of the year. The non-supply of copper coins to many Districts attributed to the unrestricted receipt of these coins during the past year in consequence of the Notification of the Government of India. The lakh of rupees worth of small silver coins advanced to the Travancore Government not included in the statement. The balance of one-fourth and one-eighth Rupee pieces being much reduced in the Madras Bank, the Comptroller-General of Accounts requested therefore to supply a lakh and half Rupees worth of each... ..
