From the Hon'ble— . The Advocate General is of opinion that the assault committed at sea off Cochin, occurred within the Admiralty Jurisdiction of the Supreme Court, and ought not to have been tried by the Circuit Judge. If it be thought advisable, the parties may be brought down to Madras; but the Advocate General does not recommend this Course, thinking that the facts are not sufficiently strong nor the evidence sufficiently conclusive and that the length of time the parties have already been in custody, will be taken into consideration here.	4 th . To the—. Sanctioning charges incurred by the Magistrate of South Arcot for the subsistence of the convicts removed from Chingleput to Cuddalore.	24 th . December 1824	12	24 th .	December	1824	2247
Order thereon.		13	24 th .	D ^o .	D ^o .	2248
From the—. The postponement of the Jail delivery at Cuddapah, suggested by the Acting Judge is considered objectionable. To expedite the trial of the prisoners, the translation of the documents may be dispensed with, except in cases referred to the Foujdarry Adawlut; to prepare which, the establishment of the Judge on Circuit might be increased, and some of the papers might be translated at Madras. If the Jail delivery at Cuddapah cannot be completed soon enough to leave time for the sessions in the other Zillahs, a Regulation may be passed empowering the Governor in Council, under such circumstances to issue a special commission for the completion of the Jail deliveries.	20 th . December 1824	14	24 th .	D ^o .	D ^o .	2248
To the—. Concurring in the opinion of the Judges, that it is not advisable to postpone the sessions at Cuddapah, approving the proposition for dispensing on this occasion, with translations in cases brought before the Circuit Judges, except in cases referred to the Foujdarry Adawlut; stating that Government will be ready to sanction the expense of any arrangements which may be adopted to expedite the preparation of translates in such cases; desiring that the Judges will watch the progress of the sessions at Cuddapah, and that, if they should eventually consider it necessary to provide for the completion of the Jail deliveries by a Regulation such as they have suggested, they will submit a specific recommendation to that effect.	24 th . The vicinity of Travancore, into which the Southern Marawars make incursions and secrete their booty in Tinnevelly, before steps can be taken on the representation of the Resident to apprehend them. 2. The distance of the Criminal Court which causes complaints to be suppressed. 3. The number of poligars, who countenance thieves. 4. Apprehensions entertained of the caste of Marawars. To render the police more efficient, the Collector requests an increase to his establishment to the extent of Rupees 392-6-0 per mensem, and authority to introduce the preventive system adopted in Coimbatore. The increased expense, he hopes, may be gradually reduced. TRANSLATORS TO GOVERNMENT.

From the Persian — In translation of the Regulations it has been usual to correct any trifling mistakes in the originals, that partook of the nature of errors of the press. Being doubtful of the propriety of this practice, the Translator suggests that the errors in question should be corrected under orders from Government by the authorities to whom the Regulations have been furnished; or that he should be authorized to make his translations exactly conformable to the Originals. A few errors of this kind are pointed out.	25 th . October	1824	7	16 th . November	1824	1982
