have been called for, and considered by the Foujdaree Udalut and that the result of the investigation by the Criminal Judge was the release of the Prisoner and submitting the opinion of the Court of Foujdaree Udalut, that there can be no question that that officer was perfectly justified in that proceedings in as much as his conviction before the Court of Circuit on the evidence adduced would have been impossible and that there was a conspiracy against Baupanah Dorah and their further opinion that the proceedings of the Magistrate of Rajahmundry with the respect to that Hill Chief were from first to last unwarranted, harsh, illegal and extremely oppressive, and that although they do not doubt that the Magistrate acted from motives of zeal for the public Service it was a zeal not duty tempered by discretion.
