G. O. BY GOVERNMENT.

The Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to direct that the usual honorary reward for the attainment of the Hindoostanee language, be presented to Lieutenant Borthwick of the 2d Native Regiment; the Committee for the examination of Military Students having reported on his acquirements in that language, in the following terms;

"The versions of Lieutenant Borthwick were both executed "with great accuracy; but his translation from English "into Hindoostanee evinced such a command of language, and "propriety of expression, as to afford the most satisfactory "proof of his attainments.—He converses with fluency and "ease; and we have great pleasure in recommending him for "the usual reward."

Captain James Smith of the 12th Regiment Native Infantry, who had received the permission of the Honorable the Governor in Council at Fort Cornwallis, confirmed in General Orders

Orders dated 25th October last, to proceed to England from China, should the state of his health require it, has returned to Europe on furlough accordingly.

Lieutenant J. Crisp of the 2d Native Regiment, who, as announced in General Orders dated the 9th September last, had obtained the usual honorary reward for his proficiency in the Hindoostanee language, having recently presented himself for examination in Persian; and the Committee having reported their opinion of his merits to the following effect:

"A passage of considerable length from the Bahar Danish, "and abounding in phrases of no easy interpretation, was "rendered into English by Mr. Crisp, with so much accuracy, "that we were not able to detect a single error in his trans-"lation."

"In the more difficult task of translation from English "into Persian, Mr. Crisp was equally successful; his perform-"ance being distinguished by an uncommon display of the "peculiar style of composition, which is considered "beautiful in the latter language."

"With respect to the colloquial part of his examination, "we deem it proper to notice that Mr. Crisp's pronunciation "appeared incorrect; at the same time, however, we are "persuaded that with the thorough knowledge of the Persian "language which he evidently possesses, he will soon be "able to overcome his present trifling deficiency in speaking;

"and

" and we accordingly beg leave to recommend him for the " usual honorary reward."

The Right Honorable the Governor in Council has great satisfaction in conferring on Lieutenant Crisp the additional distinction for the attainment of the Persian language, established by the General Order of 17th November 1812.

Charge 1st.—For conduct unbecoming the character of an Officer and a Gentleman, he having on the morning of the 23d January 1815 (while in conversation with Lieutenant Ellis) called me on one side and told me, that I had acted towards him very unlike a Gentleman and like a great Blackguard.

Charge 2d.—For infamous and scandalous conduct unbecoming the character of an Officer and a Gentleman, in denying that he ever made use of such language to me as Blackguard, in a Letter addressed to the Acting Adjutant for the information of the Commanding Officer, and falsely asserting in that Letter, that my manner to him was impertinent and provoking, so as to have occasioned him to make use of the words unlike a Gentleman, all of which tending to subvert military discipline and in direct violation of the Articles of War.

SENTENCE.—The Court, after the most mature deliberation on the whole of the evidence before it, has come to the following decision.

That the Prisoner, Lieutenant Hamilton, is guilty of the first, second and fourth counts of the first Charge.

That the third count is proved, but it attaches no culpability to his conduct, on that occasion.

That he is guilty in part of the fifth count of the first Charge, viz. having accused Lieutenant Hamilton of grossly insulting him at the Mess, without sufficient cause for using such strong language.

That he is guilty in part of the first Additional Charge, viz. telling Lieutenant Picking "that he had acted unlike "a Gentleman," but it acquits him of the remainder of that Charge.

That he is not guilty of infamous and scandalous conduct, as set forth in the second Additional Charge, and it doth acquit him of the same.

CHARGE preferred against Lieutenant W. H. Hamilton, His Majesty's 34th Regiment.

For conduct unbecoming the character of an Officer and a Gentleman, in having in a Letter addressed to Major General Wetherall, dated Seringapatam, 17th October 1814, unjustly aspersed my character and those of the Members of the Court of Enquiry over which I presided, by the following assertions, extracted from the said Letter, viz.

"And I have now only to add that I have the most "serious cause of complaint, as to the manner adopted "by the Court in its Proceedings. It is a most unwilling "task, but I feel it due to myself to state the unwarrant-"able conduct of the President and one of the Members "on that occasion; and the animosity which but too "generally prevails, fully evinced by neglecting the "semblance of decorum on the first and second day of "their sitting, I was publicly reprimanded by the Presi-"dent (Major Dickens) for a passage in one of my "Letters, produced before the Court, and a Member "came forward voluntarily to give evidence against "me—Threats and intimidations were held out to me by "the President, without any cause on my part (at least "that I am aware of) for such violent measures."

Which assertions I maintain to be false.

Major H. M. 34th Regt. and Lieut. Col.

BY ORDER,

(Signed) T. H. S. CONWAY,
Adjutant General of the Army.

SENTENCE.—The Court finds the Prisoner guilty of highly improper conduct in having (in a Letter addressed to Major General Wetherall, under date the 17th October 1814)

1814) preferred a very exaggerated complaint against Lieutenant Colonel Dickens and the Members of a Regimental Court of Enquiry (of which he was President,) thereby unjustly reflecting upon their public conduct on that occasion; but it acquits him of every other part of the Charge.

Having found him guilty in the above instance, it doth, by virtue of the Articles of War, sentence him, the said Lieutenant Hamilton, to be severely reprimanded, in such manner as His Excellency The Commander in Chief may be pleased to direct.

SENTENCE on REVISION.—The Court acquit the Prisoner, Lieutenant Crowther, of the Charges preferred against him, in respect that at the periods specified in the Charges, FORT ST. GEORGE, 28th June 1815. (Signed) C. RUMLEY, President, and M. G.

(Signed) J. LEITH, Judge Advocate General of the Army.

CONFIRMED,

(Signed) T. HISLOP, Lieutenant General.

The Commander in Chief has withheld his approval of the revised sentence passed on Lieutenant Crowther of the 2d Battalion 3d Regiment N. I as His Excellency considers the proof recorded of the Prisoner's deranged state of mind, at the time when he committed the offences for which he has been tried, to be too equivocal to have furnished a sufficient ground for his acquittal from Charges of so serious a nature, and of which, the first excepted, he appears to have been fully convicted, although it might have given rise to such a degree of doubt as to his entire self-possession at that period, as would have justified the Court in recommending that his case should be received with lenity.

The Right Honorable The Commander in Chief in India has so forcibly pointed out in his observations on the trial of Cornet Montague of H. M 22d L. D., the danger to the discipline of the Army, which must result from too easy an admission of doubtful and temporary appearances of insanity, as a plea and expedient under which any Prisoner may escape the otherwise certain consequences of his guilt, that Sir Thomas Hislop will content himself with pointing the attention of the Army to His Lordship's remarks alluded to, as applicable in many respects to the present case, and with expressing his expectation that the impressive caution they convey, will guard future Courts Martial against establishing a precedent and practice which are calculated to counteract and evade the due course of justice.

Lieutenant Crowther having, since his trial, been declared at his last examination before the Medical Board, to be entirely recovered from the unfortunate state of mind which has been considered to have caused his late violent breaches of discipline and of good order, he has been released from arrest, and directed to return to his duty, and will from that period be considered as responsible for every act he may commit, and the less entitled to lenity for any future misconduct, from the caution he should derive from the danger he has lately escaped, and from the indulgence he has already experienced.

ADDITIONAL CHARGE preferred by order of Major General Wetherall, Commanding the Troops in the Mysore Division, against Cornet R. C. R. Montagu of His Majesty's 22d Regiment Light Dragoons, viz. Scandalous and outrageous conduct subversive of good order and military discipline, in having on or about the night of the 21st January 1815, grossly insulted Lieutenant Murray of the same Regiment, by applying to him the infamous epithets of Coward and Rascal, or words to that purport, for refusing to become his (Cornet Montagu's) Second in a Duel.

SENTENCE.—The Court, after the most mature deliberation on the evidence produced on the part of the prosecution, together with the Prisoner's extraordinary defence, is of opinion, that the first Charge is proved, and that the second Charge is also proved in part; but as the mental derangement of the Prisoner, has so conspicuously appeared during the whole trial, the Court cannot attach guilt to his conduct, but is of opinion that he should be removed from His Majesty's Service.

Colonel, and President.

and Deputy Judge Advocate.

Remarks

Remarks and Observations upon the Proceedings and Verdict of the Court.

The Commander in Chief has carefully perused the Proceedings of the General Court Martial in the case of Cornet Montagu of His Majesty's 22d Light Dragoons.

The opinion expressed by His Excellency Sir Thomas Hislop, that it was the duty of the Court to proceed with the trial and to come to a decision on the point of guilty or not guilty, on the Charges advanced, appears to His Lordship to have been perfectly sound and consonant with the purest equity. The Extracts cited from Blackstone specifying instances in which the insanity of the Prisoner should be a bar to trial, do not at all apply to the case in question. There does not seem to have existed on the part of Cornet Montagu the least want of the self-possession, the acuteness, or the discriminating judgment necessary towards enabling a Prisoner to meet with entire competence the evidence adduced against him. The extravagance of the Prisoner indeed, (as far as the Proceedings exhibit) does not display itself till the amount of the testimony against him is ascertained.—Now it need not be pointed out to the Court how dangerous a latitude it would be to put a Prisoner into possession of the extent of proof against him, and when he shall be satisfied of the impracticability of rebutting it, to countenance a resort to a show of derangement, as an expedient for evading the consequences impending from such a substantiation of guilt.—In the distribution of justice, the business of the Court is to receive and record the proofs by which the truth of criminal acts alleged against an Individual is supported.—The Prisoner is entitled to show the misconception of the perjury of the witnesses who testify against him; but altho' the equity of the Court will always consider the accused Person so much under its protection, as that it will act for him in detecting inconsistencies in the prosecution, exposing prevarications of a witness, or repelling irrelevant aggravations, it will not sustain a Prisoner in his wilfully foregoing those licit advantages and resting his cause on loose imputations instead of grappling with the adverse testimony.—It is thence the opinion of His Lordship, that the Court ought to have passed a sentence, and then have urged their persuasion of the Prisoner's mental derangement as a ground for soliciting lenity.—It is to be observed that any suspicion of the incorrect state of Cornet Montagu's mind antecedently to the outrages in question, is not deducible from the record,—had the Court been in possession of facts bearing on that point; it ought to have stated them; as His Lordship, however, concludes that the Court must have ascribed to the influence of malady existing at the time, the irregular conduct exhibited in the two Charges, and means to have it understood that while it finds the prisoner guilty of the fact, it regards him as not having been in that state of sound intellect, requisite to justify the Court's attaching the notion of crime to the conduct, he will accept the verdict as it stands.

The Commander in Chief entirely agrees with Lieutenant General Sir Thomas Bislop in the intimation given to the Court, that it ought not to have examined witnesses, even on a collateral point (which must be well understood to have been for the purpose of gaining information respecting the sanity of the Prisoner), without putting those witnesses on oath.

(Signed) MOIRA.

His Excellency The Commander in Chief is pleased to direct that the foregoing Order be read at the Head of each of His Majesty's Regiments in India, and entered in the Regimental Orderly Book.

Marriott of the 12th Native Regiment, is President, are published to the Army.

Private John Ford, of Captain Ross's Company, 1st Battalion 34th Regiment, confined by me, his Commanding Officer, for disorderly and mutinous conduct on the 26th day of June 1815, in the following instances:

1st CHARGE.—Disorderly and unsoldier-like conduct, in having made use of very abusive and highly disrespectful language towards me, his Commanding Officer, towards the Acting Adjutant of the Regiment, and towards the Pay Serjeant of his Company, Serjeant George Brasher.

2d Charge.—Mutinous conduct, in threatening to shoot shoot me his Commanding Officer, the Acting Adjutant of the Regiment, and Serjeant George Brasher, the Pay Serjeant of his Company.

3d Charge.—Mutiny, in making use of traitorous and disrespectful language towards the King and Constitution, damning the King, the Coat he wore, and those that made him wear it; or words to that effect.

(Signed) P. VANS AGNEW,
Deputy Adjt. Genl. of the Army.

SENTENCE.—The Court finds the Prisoner, Private John Ford, guilty of the whole of the Charges exhibited against him, and doth therefore sentence him to suffer six (6) months solitary confinement, at such time and place as His Excellency the Commander in Chief may be pleased to direct.

Colonel, and President.

(Signed) J. WELSH, Lieut. Colonel
and Deputy Judge Advocate.

CONFIRMED.

(Signed) T. HISLOP, Lieut. General.

His Excellency the Commander in Chief cannot publish the foregoing Sentence to the Army without attaching to it the declaration of his opinion, that the punishment it awards bears little proportion to the heinousness of the Crimes of which the Prisoner has been found guilty.—Death would not have been too severe an atonement for such traitorous and mutinous conduct, devoid as it is of any palliating circumstances.—Under this impression Lieutenant General Sir Thomas Hislop has not approved, altho' he confirms the Sentence.—The Officer Commanding in Mysore will be pleased to cause the punishment of solitary confinement awarded to Private John Ford, to be carried into effect agreeably to instructions he will receive from Head Quarters.

BY ORDER.

(Signed) P. VANS AGNEW,
Dep. Adjt. Genl. of the Army.

SENTENCE.—The Court finds the Prisoner guilty of all and several the Crimes charged, which being to the prejudice of good order and military discipline, the Court does therefore, by virtue of the Articles of War, sentence and adjudge the said Prisoner, Charles Graham, Private Madras European Regiment, "to be shot to Death with Musketry," at such time, place and manner as His Excellency the Commander in Chief may be pleased to direct.—Done at Trichinopoly this sixth day of September 1815.

(Signed) F. P. STEWART, Dep. Judge Advocate.
(Signed) A. M'CALLY, Colonel, and President.

CONFIRMED.

(Signed) T. HISLOP,
Lieutenant General.

An irregularity in the foregoing Proceedings, of such importance, as probably to illegalize the Proceedings, has alone prevented Sir Thomas Hislop from confirming and directing the execution of the Sentence of Death so deservedly passed upon the Prisoner Charles Graham, Private of the Madras European Regiment. His Excellency would have considered that an indispensable duty, as well from the atrocity of the Crime of which the Prisoner has been found guilty, as from the conviction, that it is due to the community at large, to enforce the penalty of the law, on a criminal who cannot be permitted to exist, but at the risk of the lives of others.

It appears that Private Charles Graham, was arraigned upon, and pleaded before a Regimental Court Martial, to Charges similar similar in matter, to those on which he was subsequently brought to trial before a General Court Martial, a circumstance of which the Commander in Chief was uninformed, and which was so little likely, that His Excellency concluded the Additional Charge to have arisen, during the Prisoner's trial by a Regimental Court, for the lesser offence, of firing off his Piece in the Barracks, and of the threat which accompanied that act—He supposed either that that tribunal had not taken cognizance of a Crime which its limited powers were incompetent to punish, or that the trial had not been entered upon; that the Court had not been sworn in, or the Prisoner arraigned and permitted to plead; as proves to have been the case.

His Excellency will refrain from commenting with the severity merited on the singularly erroneous course of proceeding adopted by the Regimental authorities, trusting that its consequence, in defeating the ends of justice, and absolving from punishment, so great a Criminal, will sufficiently point out the serious evil of the want of common information, or discretion, which has led to a result materially hurtful to the discipline and good order of the Army.

The Officer Commanding at Trichinopoly, in making known to Private Charles Graham the Sentence of the Court, will endeavour to impress on his mind the narrow escape he has made from a just and awful punishment, in consequence of an irregularity in the manner of his trial which no ways lessened his guilt.—Private Charles Graham will then be released from his present confinement and further orders will be given for his future disposal.

The General Court Martial of which Colonel M'Cally is President, is dissolved.

The appointment of Mr. Assistant Surgeon W. Train to do duty under the Cantonment Surgeon at St. Thomas' Mount, is cancelled; and he is posted to do duty with the 2d Battalion of Artillery until further orders.

The

The Commander in Chief having confirmed the foregoing Sentences, directs that the execution of the Prisoners, Privates John Wilson and Thomas Pagett of His Majesty's 84th Regiment, take place on Saturday morning the 4th Instant, in front of the Troops composing the Garrison and Cantonment of Bangalore, agreeably to detailed instructions which will be communicated to Major General Hare, Commanding the Mysore Division of the Army.

The Commander in Chief considering it due to the General Court Martial, of which Colonel Pritzler is President, to give effect to its recommendation in favor of the Prisoners

Mathew Stead,
John Yarbury,
Andrew Hatton,
} Privates His Majesty's 84th Regiment of Foot,

has been pleased to remit the sentences awarded to them, by extending the Royal Mercy, and further directs that the Prisoners,

Mathew Stead,
John Yarbury,
Andrew Hatton,
} Privates His Majesty's 84th Regiment of Foot,

whose length of service and general good conduct has been recorded on the Proceedings of their respective trials, shall be released from their confinement and return to their duty.

The Commander in Chief considers James Whiley and Robert Sharpe, Privates H. M. 84th Regiment, who have been capitally convicted, to be fit objects for Mercy.---His Excellency has been pleased to commute the sentence of death awarded Robert Sharpe, to transportation for the term of his natural life to New South Wales; and the sentence awarded James Whiley is commuted in like manner, to transportation for seven years.

The Commander in Chief having now acquitted himself of his duty to his King and his Country, and extended mercy to the utmost limits which are compatible with the maintenance of discipline and subordination, desires that the Soldiers of H. M. 84th Regiment, and of the Army in general, may call to remembrance the lenity, and forbearance he evinced in the case of Private Owen Haslem, H. M. 84th Regiment, whose Court Martial appeared in General Orders dated 21st April 1815.

The deliberate act of mutiny which was proved on that Soldier and the forbearance and humanity which influenced the Commander in Chief to grant him a conditional pardon, had led His Excellency to expect, that such an example would not fail to awake in the minds of the Soldiers of this Army a just sense of the dangers and disgrace attendant on mutinous and outrageous conduct. His Excellency looked, in particular to His Majesty's 84th Regiment, to evince a grateful sense of his clemency on that occasion and not to force from him the performance of the pledge he then made the Regiment of carrying into effect the first capital sentence which might be awarded. The disappointment of his too sanguine hopes, could not fail therefore to establish in his mind the imperious necessity of awful example now in a Corps to which he had, but a few months before addressed so serious and forcible a warning.---The mutinous and outrageous proceedings which have been proved against a large body of the 84th Regiment have required the strong hand of authority to suppress, and His Excellency trusts, that the examples now made will have their full effect of crushing a spirit wantonly displayed, and he hopes excited only by the example of the unhappy and misguided victims of their own disgrace and untimely fate. Sir Thomas Hislop will not dwell on the fatal consequences which intemperance, insubordination and evil examples have brought on a Corps heretofore so highly disciplined and exemplary as His Majesty's 84th Regiment. He trusts and confidently expects that the awful examples they are about to witness will recall them to the duty they owe to their King and Country and excite those honorable sentiments of manly feeling and proper repentance which, inspired by the example of the distinguished Army he has the honor to command, will stimulate them, under the colours they have for a moment tarnished, to efface the recollection of the present unfortunate period by their future conduct as orderly, obedient and faithful Soldiers, and entitle them again to claim their rank and reputation, in common with their British Troops, pre-eminent alike in valour as in discipline, qualities which under the immortal Wellington, a name ever to be revered and honored, the British Army has proved its right to possess above every other in the world, and which have been invariably attended, with the most brilliant successes, victory and glory.

The Commander in Chief will now take leave of the mutinous conduct of H. M. 84th Regiment which has so peremptorily demanded his severest displeasure and reprehension, confident that the examples it has been his painful but sacred duty to make, will have the effect of subduing that spirit of insubordination and outrage which has for a moment displayed itself, assuring the Regiment, that on their orderly and exemplary conduct in future, will depend the place they are to hold in his estimation as a Corps, and that unless future misconduct appear, which His Excellency will not suppose possible, they shall again enjoy his consideration, regard and protection in common with their brother Soldiers.

Having now performed a painful and distressing duty, the Commander in Chief feels a particular satisfaction in offering to Major General Hare his acknowledgments and public thanks for the measures he adopted on his arrival at Bangalore, to reduce

H. M.

H. M. 84th Regiment to order and obedience, and to check the growing evil of mutiny.

The zeal and energy which distinguished the conduct of the Major General at that trying moment, were such as His Excellency felt persuaded he would adopt on an occasion so distinctly calling for promptitude and decision, and the Commander in Chief cannot in terms more forcible than he feels his obligation to Major General Hare, declare in the most pointed and unequivocal manner, that he attributes to the exertion of his authority in so Officer-like and exemplary a manner the early return of the Regiment to a proper sense of its duty.

His Excellency therefore requests that Major General Hare will thus receive his acknowledgments for the service he has rendered the Army, by the adoption of decided measures, marked by discretion and judgment, and affording, on such an occasion, so excellent and beneficial an example.

The Commander in Chief cannot conclude this Order without recording the high opinion with which the orderly and Soldier-like conduct of H. M. 22d Light Dragoons, the Detachment of the Madras Artillery, as well as the whole of the Troops at Bangalore has impressed him.

This Order to be read at the Head of every Corps and Detachment of the Army, at 3 successive Parades.

The General Court Martial of which Colonel Pritzler is President, is dissolved.

G. O. BY THE COMMANDER IN CHIEF.

The military and soldier-like appearance of the Troops composing the Bangalore Force on the General Parade yesterday forenoon, could not but attract the Commander in Chief's attention.

Their

Their steadiness under arms, correctness and precision of movement, added to the advantages, which uniformity of appearance, smartness and cleanliness of dress, and the excellent order and preservation of their arms and appointments, gave to those highly disciplined Corps, could not fail of distinctly claiming the Commander in Chief's approbation and applause; and His Excellency considers it due to Colonel Marriott Commanding the Troops at Bangalore, as well as to all the Commanding Officers of Corps and Detachments, to record his sentiments of their unremitted zeal for the good of the service, which must have been directed with great ability, attention, and correctness of system.

The Commander in Chief had no less reason to feel satisfied with the efficiency of the Troops, at the several Inspections, than he was with their appearance and performance in the Field. The excellence of the materials, does credit to the attention of Commanding Officers to the first and most important duty, of obtaining eligible Recruits, and their equipments, neatness, and uniformity in marching order, were so characteristic of the attention paid to the ground-work of Military Excellence (namely) the internal economy of Troops and Companies, that His Excellency considers the whole to be in the most complete state for Field Service, to which, whenever they may be called, they will not fail to meet his expectations, and do honor to the Madras Army.

The unsettled state of the weather having prevented the Commander in Chief from inspecting and reviewing the Troops composing the Garrison of Vellore, His Excellency can only express the regret he feels in being disappointed of the gratification which the favorable reports made by Major General Taylor of their discipline and interior economy, had led him to expect.

The Commander in Chief cannot but notice in terms of approbation the orderly conduct of His Majesty's 34th Regiment, which

Colonel

Colonel Hall reports to be exemplary; and His Excellency trusts, that the Regiment will at an early period recover from the severe sickness which has, during their tour of duty at Seringapatam, reduced its efficiency and strength.

The 2d Battalion 14th Regiment having been so lately under the Commander in Chief's personal inspection, His Excellency is satisfied, that this highly disciplined Corps preserves its well merited reputation.

G. O. BY THE COMMANDER IN CHIEF.

The following Extracts from G. O. issued by The Right Honorable The Commander in Chief in India, are, by His Excellency's orders, published to the Army serving under this Presidency.

Extract from the Proceedings of an European General Court Martial, assembled at Cawnpore, on Monday the twenty-eighth day of August 1815, by order, and in pursuance of a warrant, under the hand and seal of His Excellency The Earl of Moira, K. G. Commander in Chief of all the Forces in India, for the trial of Lieutenant Colonel Greene, 1st Battalion 16th Regiment of Native Infantry, and such other Prisoners as may be brought before it.

President.—Major General Martindell.

Judge Advocate.—Captain Tickell, Deputy Judge Advocate General conducting the trial.

Lieutenant

Lieutenant Colonel Robert Greene, 1st Battalion 16th Regiment of Native Infantry, ordered into arrest, in pursuance of instructions from The Right Honorable The Commander in Chief, and the following Charges preferred against him.

CHARGE 1st.—That the said Lieutenant Colonel Greene, having command of the 1st Battalion 16th Regiment N. I. at Cawnpore, on or about the 21st of March last, did, in a Roll, dated 21st March 1815, and transmitted to the Adjutant General's Office, knowingly recommend for promotion, to the rank of Jemadar, Havaldar Coossial Sing; notwithstanding he had then been less than four years in the Service, was one of the Junior Havaldars in the Corps, and had not merited such rapid advancement; even to that of Havaldar which he had so prematurely obtained.

That the said Lieutenant Colonel Greene, having caused the Recommendation Roll to be prepared at his own Quarters by the Drum Major of the Battalion without the knowledge of the Adjutant; on which Roll the dates of enlisting and of promotion to the intermediate ranks were omitted, and to which, no list of the Havaldars, senior to Coossial Sing, with the reasons of their being passed over, was annexed, did withhold the information, required by the Regulations of the Service, with the manifest design of surreptitiously obtaining promotion for a favored Individual.

Such conduct evincing shameful partiality to Coossial Sing, and great injustice to the Senior Havaldars, of the Corps in particular, being unbecoming the character of a Commanding Officer, prejudicial in it's tendency to the interests of the Native Army, and in breach of the Articles of War.

CHARGE 2d. That the said Lieutenant Colonel Greene, in signing a Recommendation Roll for Promotion, dated 21st March 1815, acted in disobedience to General Orders and greatly neglected his duty as the Commanding Officer of a Corps, in as much as the said Roll was extremely defective and unauthenticated by the Adjutant's signature.

Such conduct being discreditable to an Officer, prejudicial to the Service, and in breach of the Articles of War.

By order of His Excellency The Right Honorable The Commander in Chief.

HEAD QUARTERS: FUTTEH GHUR, 21st August 1815. (Signed) G. H. FAGAN, Adjutant General.

SENTENCE.—The Court having attentively weighed and considered the evidence in support of the prosecution, and what the Prisoner, Lieutenant Colonel Robert Greene, has urged urged in his defence, are of opinion, that he is guilty of the whole and every part of the Charges exhibited against him, which being in breach of the Articles of War, they do sentence him, the said Lieutenant Colonel Robert Greene, to be suspended from rank and pay for six calendar months.

Major General, and President.

(Signed) SAMUEL TICKELL, Captain
Dep. Judge Advocate Genl. conducting the trial.

APPROVED AND CONFIRMED.
(Signed) MOIRA.

Remarks and Observations.

The Commander in Chief has approved and confirmed the Sentence of the General Court Martial upon Lieutenant Colonel Greene.

His Excellency must regret that the Court did not apprize the Prisoner of the unwarrantable license which he was assuming in his defence; so that the Commander in Chief might have been spared the necessity of a public stricture on it.

Lieutenant Colonel Greene complains of suffering a special grievance, which he ascribes to the ill-will of the Adjutant General, who acted under the imperative duty of his station, in being brought to trial for a defective Recommendation Roll, when a Standing Order directs all defective Returns to be sent back for correction.—Lieutenant Colonel Greene was not brought to trial for the simple informality of his Roll.—The tenor of the Charges against him was not, that the Recommendation Roll was accidentally incomplete, to which case alone the Standing Order could apply; but that he had wilfully and knowingly made out and transmitted a Roll on which the information required by the Regulations of the Service was withheld, for the purpose of imposing on the Commander in Chief, and with the manifest design of surreptitiously obtaining promotion for a favored Individual to the injury of old and meritorious Halzdars in the Battalion.

The Court has found Lieutenant Colonel Greene guilty of the whole and every part of the Charges: thereby convicting him of the deliberate intention and endeavour to deceive the Commander in Chief into concurrence in a most improper measure.—But this is not the most serious fallacy which Lieutenant Colonel Greene has allowed himself to attempt, he has hazarded the astonishing perversion of fact that he was condemned by a Private Inquiry; as if he had not been arraigned before a Public Court of Enquiry, on the opinion of which he was subsequently brought to public trial before the Court Martial which has established his guilt.

Reluctance

Reluctance to bringing forward against an old Officer a Charge involving such impeachment of his character, whilst a hope remained that a different interpretation might be found for his conduct, induced a previous investigation, whether any particular act, or merit in Coossial Sing (the Individual recommended for a commission before he had been four years in the Service,) or any other circumstances could take from the Recommendation Roll that appearance of fraudulent design, which it bore upon its face.—The Prisoner, so far from being sensible of this delicacy, represents the procedure as a secret inquiry instituted against him. He even makes a sort of appeal to his Brother Officers by this passage. "If then "every act of a Field Officer's conduct in the discharge of his "public duty can thus at pleasure be enquired into by a secret "tribunal, the situation and safety of a Commanding Officer must "be a very dangerous one indeed."

The mischievous purpose of so gross a misrepresentation would well have justified the Commander in Chief in referring the Proceedings of the General Court Martial to the Governor General in Council, in order to move the suspension of Lieutenant Colonel Greene from the Service, till the pleasure of the Honorable Court should be known: But as His Lordship is satisfied that the ends of discipline will be sufficiently consulted by every Officer being enabled to pass his own judgment on the case, this more lenient mode of reprehension is adopted.

Inconvenience having arisen from the Commissariat having been required by Officers in Command to supply conveyances for the March of Troops unauthorized by the Regulations: The Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to explain that, the Commandant of the Division is alone considered the proper authority to judge in the first instance of the emergency which may in any case render a departure from the Regulations indispensable.

Officers of the Commissariat are accordingly prohibited from furnishing such irregular supplies except on Indents countersigned by by the Quarter Master of Brigade "by order of the Commandant of the Division," when such authority can be procured without injurious delay to the Public Service.—But should the absence of the Officer Commanding the Division render it impossible to procure his order for the purpose, the signature of the Commandant of the Station will be sufficient to sanction the supply; and the responsibility which in the former case attached to the exercise of discretionary power by the Commandant of the Division, will in the latter case rest with the Commandant of the Station, until the Indent shall have received the final sanction of competent authority.

The Governor in Council further directs that all Indents connected with the conveyance of the Troops and their marching equipments and of Ordnance proceeding on Field Service shall be referred to the Officer Commanding the Division through the Quarter Master of Division previous to supply, when such reference may be practicable without detriment to the Service; and that until the signature of the Officer of Check be affixed, the responsibility of issue shall attach to the former signatures.

The Committee for the examination of Military Students, having in their report, dated the 12th September last, on the examination of Lieutenant Aubrey of the 2d Native Regiment, in the Hindoostanee language, recommended that Officer for the usual reward,—representing his "translation from Hindoostanee "into English of a passage from the Bagho Behar of no common "difficulty to have been performed with perfect accuracy;" and that

that "his version into Hindoostanee although not entirely free from "some idiomatical errors, evinced a very satisfactory knowledge "of that language;" while the "want of fluency and readiness," which was observable, "in the colloquial part of his examination," it was not doubted, "considering his other attainments," he would soon overcome.

The Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to confer the honorary reward established for the acquirement of the Hindoostanee language, on Lieutenant Aubrey.

ADDITIONAL CHARGE.—" For conduct highly disorderly " and unbecoming the character of an Officer and a Gentleman, " on the evening of the 15th of May (at which time his trial " was yet pending before a General Court Martial which had " then adjourned), in threatening and grossly abusing Lieute- " nant John Crotty of the 3d Ceylon Regiment, a witness for " the prosecution, at the said General Court Martial, and " addressing the following expressions to the said Lieutenant " John Crotty, viz. " Why does not every one mind his own " " business. upon my honor I will bring it home to you ; " " By God I will kick your a'se."—Such conduct tending to " obstruct the course of public justice, and being in breach " of the Articles of War, and to the prejudice of good order " and military discipline."

" The Court having deliberately considered the evidence " brought forward in support of the Charges exhibited " against the Prisoner, Captain Charles White of His Majesty's " 66th Regiment, together with what he has alleged in his " defence, and the evidence he has adduced thereon, is of " opinion that he is guilty of the original Charge, and doth " therefore sentence him, the said Captain Charles White " of His Majesty's 66th Regiment, to be dismissed from " His Majesty's Service."

" The Court is of opinion with regard to the Additional Charge,

" Charge, that sufficient proof has not been adduced to convict " the Prisoner thereof, and doth therefore acquit him of the " same."
