The Court cannot record a Sentence implicating as it does, the characters of so many of the Witnesses, without respectfully soliciting the attention of His Excellency The Commander in Chief to the contradictory evidence recorded on the Proceedings, as well as to the motives which have induced Subadar Meer Mahomed Allie to magnify the offence, inadvertently committed by the Prisoner, at a moment of indignant irritation arising from the personal violence and highly insulting language used towards him, by the Subadar, on an occasion wholly unconnected with military duty, and without the smallest provocation, into a heavy charge, affecting in its fullest extent the life of the Prisoner.

The conduct of the Prosecutor, Subadar Meer Mahomed Allie, appears from the Proceedings to have been so highly improper, that The Commander in Chief directs the Commanding Officer of the Regiment to signify to the said Subadar, on the Public Parade of the Regiment, His Lordship's strong displeasure at the unworthy motives which it is evident actuated the Subadar in instituting the prosecution, and His Lordship further desires that this reprehension may be recorded in the Orderly Book of the Battalion.

HEAD QUARTERS:

CHOULTRY PLAIN, 14th January 1820.

The Right Honorable the Governor in Council having addressed the subjoined Orders to His Excellency the Commander in Chief, to be published to the Army, they are accordingly published in Military Orders.

FORT ST. GEORGE, 6th December 1819.

G. O. BY GOVERNMENT.

The Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to direct, that the following rules shall be observed whenever any Commissariat Stores may be lost, stolen, or accidentally destroyed.—In all such cases it shall be the duty of the Commissariat Officer in charge to apply to the Commanding Officer for the assembly of a Committee of European Officers, at the time and on the spot, by whom the circumstances will be investigated, as they may have occurred. The Committee will ascertain the exact extent of the loss, and will record their opinion whether every proper degree of vigilance, care, and attention had been observed by the Officer in charge; whether Sentinels were duly posted for the protection of the Stores, and whether in short, the accident may, or may not be viewed, as having happened unavoidably. The proceedings of the Committee are to be forwarded by the Officer Commanding to the Commissary General of the Army, who will also receive a full explanation from the Officer of his department.—The Commissary General will then submit the original proceedings, with a report to Government, with the least practicable delay, in order that the Governor in Council may determine how far the Officer of custody or any other person, shall or shall not be held responsible for the loss; while it is to be clearly understood, that no Articles will ever be allowed to be written off as stolen, lost, or destroyed, unless the most satisfactory evidence be afforded in the manner above described, that no precaution was omitted for the due security of the public property.

This Order, however, is not meant to disturb the existing Regulations, when Commissariat Stores are damaged by weather, lost on a march, taken by the enemy, or rendered useless by any unforeseen or unavoidable accident on Field Service.

By order of the Right Honorable the Governor in Council.

G. O. BY GOVERNMENT.

Ordered that the following Extract from the Honorable Company's General Letter in the Military Department, dated the 16th June 1815, be re-published in General Orders.

Pars. 139. In consequence of the numerous applications, which have been preferred to us by our Servants, on leave of absence in this Country, for advances of money on loans, we think it proper to recal your attention to our Orders in the Military Department of the 26th February 1808, upon this subject. Those Orders declared our determination not to make any pecuniary advances to Officers at home, beyond what they are allowed by the existing Regulations of the Service, and you were required to publish them in General Orders to the Army; but as a resolution of this description, in order to be generally known to a body which is continually receiving an accession of new Members, should be occasionally re-published, and being fully persuaded that a strict observance of this resolution, will prevent much trouble and inconvenience, besides loss to the Company, we direct that our Orders above adverted to, be in future circulated, for the information of the Army, in the month of January in every year, and we shall take the necessary steps for reminding Officers who may arrive in England upon furlough, of our determination upon the subject in question."

By order of the Right Honorable the Governor in Council.

GENERAL ORDERS,

HEAD QUARTERS:

CHOULTRY PLAIN, 2d February 1820.

G. O. By the Commander in Chief.

The following Extracts from General Orders issued by His Excellency The Most Noble The Commander in Chief in India, are, by His Excellency's Orders, published to the Army serving under this Presidency.

Extract from the Proceedings of an European General Court Martial, assembled at the Fort of Allahabad, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, on Wednesday the 10th day of November 1819, and continued by adjournment until the 15th of the same month, in obedience to the Garrison Orders of Major General Marley, Commandant, and by virtue of a warrant under the hand and seal of His Excellency The Most Noble The Marquis of Hastings, K. G. and G. C. B. Commander in Chief of all the Forces in India, on Gunner John Lowe of the 1st Battalion Artillery, who appealed from the Sentence of a Garrison Court Martial held at that Station on the 13th September last, and such other Prisoners as may be brought before it.

President.—Lieutenant Colonel Thomas Fetherstone, 1st Battalion Native Infantry.

Officiating Deputy Judge Advocate General.—Lieutenant Henry M'Kenley, 2d Battalion 21st Regiment N. I.

CRIME.—Gunner Lowe, 2d Company 1st Battalion Artillery, confined for making use of highly disrespectful language to me on the afternoon of the 9th Instant.

Allahabad, 9th September 1819.

(Signed) H. TIMINGS, Lieut.
In charge of 2d Company 1st Battalion Artillery.

FINDING and SENTENCE.—The Court having duly weighed and considered what has appeared before them, are of opinion, that the decision of the Garrison Court Martial, from which the Prisoner has appealed, finding him Guilty, is not borne out by the evidence recorded in the Proceedings, and that consequently, the sentence of the Court is unjust; The Court being of this opinion, do therefore acquit the Prisoner, Gunner John Lowe, of the Crime alleged against him.

Allahabad, 15th November 1819.

(Signed) T. FETHERSTONE, Lt Col.
President.

(Signed) H. M'KENLY, Lieut.
2d Battalion 21st Regiment N. I.
Officiating Deputy Judge Advocate General.

Confirmed:
(Signed) HASTINGS.
(A true Extract.)
(Signed) C. J. DOYLE, Lieut. Col.
Military Secretary.

The Commander in Chief confirms the decision of the Court; the passage in the Finding which says, that the judgment of the former Court "was not borne out by the evidence," leaving it uncertain on what particulars of testimony the opinion is founded; The Commander in Chief persuades himself, the General Court Martial did not admit the plea of the Prisoner, that the posture in which he stood, or the tone of voice which he used, when addressing his Officer, were unfitly taken into consideration by the Court from which he appealed; the Charge against him having been for "highly disrespectful language,"—it is obvious, that the tone and manner may give to language an unquestionable character of disrespect, while the words simply would be equivocal.

By Command.
(Signed) C. J. DOYLE, Lieut. Col.
Military Secretary.

Extract from the Proceedings of a Native General Court Martial held under authority of a warrant, signed by His Excellency The Most Noble Francis, Marquis of Hastings, K. G & G. C. B. Commander in Chief of all the Forces in India, for the trial of Subadar Shree-kishun Sing, 1st Battalion 30th Regiment N. I. and all such Prisoners as may be brought before it, and re-assembled at Cuttack, by order of His Excellency The Most Noble The Commander in Chief, on the 29th day of November 1819, for the trial of Jankee Sing, Sepoy 1st Battalion 30th Regiment Native Infantry.

President.—Sooknundum Sing, Subadar Major, 1st Battalion 30th N. I.

Officiating Deputy Judge Advocate.—Lieutenant J. O Beckett, 2d Battalion 22d N. I.

Interpreter.—Lieutenant Adam White, 1st Battalion 30th N. I.

CRIME.—Jankie Sing, Sepoy 1st Battalion 30th Regiment N. I. confined on the following Charge, in breach of the Articles of War.

For having on the 18th of September last, with a view to injure the character of Subadar Mirzakhoda Dad Beg of the 1st Battalion 30th Regiment N. I. his superior Officer, falsely and malignantly asserted, that the Subadar had attempted to bribe him to make a false statement of the conduct of Kissoon Sing, Sepoy of the same Corps.

By order of His Excellency The Most Noble The Commander in Chief.
(Signed) JAMES NICOL,
Adjutant General of the Army.

Adjt. General's Office: Presidency Fort William, 22d November 1819.

SENTENCE.—The Court having duly considered what has appeared before it, both on the part of the prosecution and defence, is of opinion, that the Prisoner Jankie Sing, Sepoy 1st Battalion 30th Regiment N. I. is not guilty of having falsely and maliguantly asserted, with a view to injure the character of Subadar Mirzakhoda Dad Beg his superior Officer, that the said Subadar had attempted to bribe him to make a false statement of the conduct of Kissoon Sing, Sepoy of the same Corps. The Court consequently acquits the Prisoner, Jankie Sing, of the crime laid to his Charge.

(Signed) J. O. BECKETT, Lieut. (Signed) SOOKNUNDUM SING, his X mark, Officiating Deputy Judge Advocate. Subadar Major, and President.

CONFIRMED.
(Signed) HASTINGS.
(A true Extract) (Signed) C. J. DOYLE, Lt. Col.
Military Secretary.

The judgment of the Court is contrary to the tenor of the defence made by the Prisoner, who in the course of it re-affirmed, that the Subadar had used expressions to him tantamount to the offer of a bribe for his (Jankie Sing) giving a proposed testimony ; the Court must, therefore, have believed that there had been an improper endeavour on the part of the Subadar to influence the Prisoner; in which case the reason for the Court's verdict ought to have been specified ; as at present the finding, by purporting that Jankie Sing did not make the Charge, is irreconcileable to the evidence on the Proceedings. The Commander in Chief construing the impression on the mind of the Court to have been what is above explained, confirms the sentence.

(By Command.) (Signed) C. J. DOYLE, Lieut. Col.
Military Secretary.

Extract from the Proceedings of a Native General Court Martial, assembled at Hussingabad, on the 10th day of November 1819, by order of Lieutenant Colonel Adams, c. b. Commander in Chief of all the Forces in India, &c. &c. &c. for the trial of Bulbudhoor Sing, Sepoy 1st Battalion 8th Regiment N. I. and such other Prisoners as may be brought before it.

Interpreter.—Brevet Captain Baldwin, 1st Battalion 2d N. I.

HUSSINGABAD: 24th October 1819. (Signed) S. NATION, Major,
Comg. 1st Battalion 8th Regiment N. I.

4th Charge.—For unofficerlike conduct and exhibiting a great want of zeal for the Service, on or about the 16th February 1818, by remaining in the lines at Bedamy under a pretence of indisposition, when a Squadron of the Detachment under his Command was ordered out with His Majesty's 22d Dragoons, after a body of Horse in front of our lines.

5th Charge.—For conduct highly improper in an Officer in Command of a Detachment, prejudicial and contrary to the Regulations of the Service, in allowing an improper use to be made of the Horses of the Detachment under his Command on frequent occasions in the month of February 1818.

6th Charge.—For conduct derogatory to the character of an Officer Commanding a Detachment, in making use of the authority invested in him subservient to his private purposes, and taking advantage of his situation as Commanding Officer and insulting and injuring my feelings in the presence of several Officers, on or about the 22d February and on the 16th April 1818.

7th Charge.—For conduct unbecoming and degrading to the character of an Officer and a Gentleman, in asserting a direct falsehood against me to Lieutenant Mercier of the Pioneers, he knowing the same to be false, on or about the 23d of April 1818.

10th Charge.—For unofficerlike conduct, in beating and ill-treating several of the Sepoys and others of the Detachment under his immediate orders, as also a Non-commissioned Officer.

11th Charge.—For conduct unbecoming the situation of an Officer Commanding a Detachment, contrary to the Articles of War, in refusing on or about the 16th of April 1818, to allow a Public Follower of the Detachment to be brought forward, against whom I forwarded a Crime.

Opinion and Sentence.—The Court having considered the evidence on the prosecution and defence, are of opinion as follows.

On the first Charge.—That the Prisoner is not guilty, and do therefore fully and honorably acquit him thereof.

On the second Charge.—That the Prisoner is not guilty, and do therefore fully and honorably acquit him thereof.

On the third Charge.—That the Prisoner is not guilty, and do therefore fully and honorably acquit him thereof.

On the fourth Charge.—That the Prisoner is not guilty, and do therefore fully and honorably acquit him thereof.

On the fifth Charge.—The Court find that use, but not an improper use, had been made of Horses on frequent occasions, and do therefore fully and honorably acquit the Prisoner of conduct highly improper in an Officer in Command of a Detachment, prejudicial and contrary to the Regulations of the Service.

On the sixth Charge.—The Court find that the Prisoner is not guilty, and do therefore fully and honorably acquit him thereof.

On the seventh Charge.—That the Prisoner is not guilty, and do honorably acquit him thereof.

On the tenth Charge.—That there being no prosecution on the Charge, the Prisoner is not guilty, and is acquitted accordingly.

On the eleventh Charge.—The Court find from circumstances which have appeared, that trial, tho' withheld, was so on grounds perfectly justifiable, they find the Prisoner not guilty, and acquit him accordingly.

The Court before closing their Proceedings, deem it a justice to the Service to declare, that they have looked in vain for the zeal and public spirit, which the Prosecutor claims as having been the actuating motive for his bringing forward those very serious Charges against his Commanding Officer, and they are sorry to add, that they have found only a factious and malicious disposition, set in action by a spirit of insubordination.

2d.—For conduct subversive of good order and military discipline, and highly prejudicial to the Service in the above instances.

ADJT. GENERAL'S OFFICE:
CHOULTRY PLAIN,
10th March 1819.

BY ORDER.
(Signed) T. H. S. CONWAY,
Adjutant General of the Army.

The Court after most mature deliberation on the Prosecution as well as what the Prisoner has urged in his defence, is of opinion that,

The Prisoner, Lieutenant and Brevet Captain Robert Crowther, 5th Regiment Light Cavalry, is guilty of so much of the first Instance of the Charge, as relates to factious and insubordinate conduct, such as is unbecoming the character of an Officer.

The Court find the Prisoner also guilty of so much of the 2d Instance, as relates to conduct subversive of good order and military discipline, and highly prejudicial to the Service.

The Court having found the Prisoner, Lieutenant and Brevet Captain Robert Crowther, 5th Regiment Light Cavalry guilty as above, does sentence him to be dismissed the Honorable Company's Service.

APPROVED AND CONFIRMED.

Lieutenant General.

In publishing the above Crime and Sentence, The Commander in Chief deems it proper to state to the Army, that the delay which has arisen in promulgating the opinion and finding of the Court, upon the trial of Brevet Captain Crowther of the 5th Regiment Light Cavalry, has been occasioned by the several references which His Excellency has deemed it necessary, for his own satisfaction, to make upon points connected with the Proceedings.

The name of Lieutenant and Brevet Captain Crowther of the 5th Regiment Light Cavalry, is to be discontinued from the List of the Army from this date.

By order of the Right Honorable the Governor in Council.

SEC. TO GOVERNMENT.

BY ORDER OF THE COMMANDER IN CHIEF.

T. H. S. CONWAY,
Adjutant General of the Army.

GENERAL ORDERS,

HEAD-QUARTERS:

CHOULTRY PLAIN, 14*th April* 1820.

G. O. By the Commander in Chief.

The following Extracts from G. O. issued by His Excellency the Most Noble the Commander in Chief in India, are, by His Excellency's Orders, published to the Army serving under this Presidency.

Extract from the Proceedings of a Native General Court Martial assembled at Hussingabad on the 10th and 22d of November 1819, and re-assembled on the 10th of January 1820, by order of Lieutenant Colonel Adams, C. B. Commanding the Nurbuddah Field Force, and by virtue of a warrant from the Most Noble the Marquis of Hastings, K. G. Commander in Chief of all the Forces in India, for the trial of Madhoo Ram, Gun Lascar, and such other Prisoners as may be brought before it.

President.—Poorun Sing, Subadar 1st Battalion 15th Regiment Native Infantry.

Officiating Deputy Judge Advocate.—Lieutenant Weston 1st Battalion 15th Native Infantry.

Interpreter.—Brevet Captain Baldwin, 1st Battalion 2d Native Infantry.

CHARGE.—Madhoo Ram, Lascar 4th Company, attached to the Artillery Details at Bartool, confined by Lieutenant Colonel Comyn, Commanding at Bartool, for conduct highly unmilitary and unbecoming a Soldier, in assaulting and severely wounding with a sword a Woman named Phoondya, on the morning of the 25th Instant.

For subsequently attempting his own life with the same sword, and wounding Lall Sing and Ram Juwan, Gun Lascars, who wrested the sword from him.

Bartool, November 29, 1819 } (Signed) J. VYSE, Captain, Detachment Staff.

FINDING and SENTENCE.—The Court having maturely weighed the evidence for the prosecution together with what the Prisoner has urged in his defence, is of opinion that he, Madhoo Ram, Gun Lascar, is guilty of the first part of the charge, viz. Assaulting and severely wounding with a sword a woman called Phoondya.

With regard to the attempt upon his own life (whether real or feigned), the Court not conceiving the crime to be cognizable by martial law, comes to no decision upon it.

The Court acquits the Prisoner of intentionally wounding Ram Juwan and Lall Sing, Gun Lascars, who wrested the sword from him.

The Prisoner having been found guilty of the first part of the charge exhibited against him, the Court sentences him to receive five hundred (500) lashes in the usual manner, at such time and place as His Excellency The Most Noble the Commander in Chief may be pleased to direct.

(Signed) H. WESTON, Lieut. Officiating Deputy Judge Advocate.

(Signed) In Nagree character, POORUN SING, Subadar and President.

APPROVED.

(Signed) HASTINGS.

(A true Extract.)

(Signed) C. J. DOYDE, Lt. Col. Military Secretary.

Remarks by His Excellency The Most Noble The Commander in Chief.

The Commander in Chief has to observe on the Proceedings of the above Court Martial, the inconvenience of accumulating charges against a Prisoner, by making circumstances which are really complicated with the main offence, matter of separate arraignment. An acquittal on these subordinate accusations is calculated to excite a doubt whether the prosecution for the principal crime may not have been strained.

The punishment awarded the Prisoner is to be inflicted at such time and in such proportion, as the Officer Commanding the Nurbuddah Field Force shall think fit.

By Command,

(Signed) C. J. DOYLE, Lt. Col. Military Secretary.

Extract from the Proceedings of a General Court Martial assembled at Meerut, on Friday the 10th day of December 1819, by order of Major General Sir Dyson Marshall, K. C. B. Commanding the Field Army, and in virtue of a warrant under his hand and seal, for the trial of Lieutenant Alexander Francis Peter Macleod of the 2d Battalion 2d Regiment of Native Infantry, and such Prisoners as may be duly brought before it.

President.—Lieutenant Colonel H. Westenra, 8th K. R. I. Light Dragoons.

Judge Advocate.—Captain W. P. Cook, Deputy Judge Advocate General 2d and 3d Division Field Army.

Interpreter.—Lieutenant W. E. B. Leadbeater, 1st Battalion 27th Native Infantry.

CHARGE.—Preferred by Lieutenant Francis Robert Baumgardt of the 2d Battalion 2d Regiment of Native Infantry, against Lieutenant Alexander Francis Peter Macleod of the same Corps, viz.

"For conduct scandalous and unbecoming the character of an Officer and a Gentleman, in having "endeavoured to prejudice my character, and to stigmatize me with imputations of criminality of the "foulest nature in the following instances, viz.

1st.—In having at Delhi, on or about the 2d and 3d of June 1819, employed a man of the name of "Doonum, formerly my Servant, to make under his, the said Lieutenant Macleod's authority and "direction, inquiries into my private character by every means practicable, and to bring to him the "said Lieutenant Macleod, two of my domestic Servants, for the purpose of criminating my conduct " and ruining my character: He the said Lieutenant Macleod being at the time of his conduct above " stated, on terms, or apparently so, of intimate friendship with me.

2d.—" In having at Delhi, on or about the evening of the said 3d of June, assembled a meeting of " some of the Junior Officers of the Corps at his Bungalow, for the avowed purpose of witnessing the " examination of my Servants whom he had " without my knowledge, or consent, sent for, with " a view to impeach my character, and also in having on or about the night of the said 3d June, in " the presence and with the assistance of Lieutenant Oliphant of the same Corps," interrogated and " examined certain persons, by name Joomun a tailor, and Khyratee a matee, both in my Service, " relative to my conduct, and in having then and there, drawn up and signed a paper purporting to " contain the evidence of the said Joomun and Khyratee.

3d.—" In having at the time and place last aforesaid, detained my said Servants, Joomun and " Khyratee, or one of them, under restraint, with a view to obtain from them or him, information " prejudicial to my character.

MEERUT, 1st December 1819. (Signed) F. ROBERT BAUMGARDT, 2d Battalion 2d Regiment N. I.

FINDING.—The Court having maturely and deliberately weighed and considered the evidence for and against the Prisoner, together with what he has urged in his defence, do find him the said Lieutenant Alexander Francis Peter Macleod guilty of the charge exhibited against him, with the exception of the " scandalous" conduct, imputed in the charge, and of the 3d instance or count of the charge of which the Court acquit him.

SENTENCE.—The Court having found the Prisoner guilty of conduct unbecoming the character of an Officer and a Gentleman as aforesaid, do adjudge him to be discharged from the Service.

(Signed) W. P. COOK Captain, Deputy Judge Advocate General, 2d and 3d Division Field Army conducting the trial.

(Signed) H. WESTENRA, Lt. Col. 8th Dragoons, President.

APPROVED.

(Signed) HASTINGS.

(True Extract.)

(Signed) C. J. DOYLE, Lt. Col. Military Secretary.

The Commander in Chief approves the above sentence, because the Court have justly felt the necessity of impressing the caution which ought to be used in the mode of agitating any question, whereby the character of a brother Officer, may be affected. In the deviation from propriety which has subjected him to this award of penalty, Lieutenant Macleod does not appear to have been influenced by any spirit of malice, but to have obeyed a sentiment honorable in itself, tho' incorrectly acted upon: Therefore the Commander in Chief willingly adopts the recommendation of the Court, remits the punishment, and direct that Lieutenant Macleod shall forthwith return to his duty.

BY COMMAND.

(Signed) C. J. DOYLE, Lieut. Col. Military Secretary.

Remarks by His Excellency The Most Noble The Commander in Chief.

The contumacious and persevering refusal of the Prisoner to perform his duty in disobedience to the lawful orders of his Commanding Officer, having been distinctly proved, and not even controverted in the defence, it was not competent to the Court to decide the case upon a consideration of the erroneous conception by which the Prisoner was swayed. It was incumbent on the Court to pronounce an award apposite to the undisputed breach of the Articles of War; and then to have represented that it appeared to them that Prisoner had not acted from a refractory spirit, but from a mistaken persuasion that he was making an allowable appeal to the Commander in Chief.

This view on the part of the Court would have been of doubtful correctness.—Reference had been made to the General Officer Commanding in the Field, who with his usual patient kindness had caused the culpable insubordinacy of the Prisoner's conduct to be explained to him, with a warning of it's serious consequences if persisted in, while the resumption of his duties would not prevent his laying before the Commander in Chief any grievance he supposed himself to have suffered; little excuse, therefore, remained for the Prisoner on that head, a different plea in favour of the Prisoner is found on the proceedings. It appears that when the Prisoner was transfered to the Provincial Battalion, his former Commanding Officer through a mis-comprehension sent to the Officer at the head of that Corps a written intimation that the name of Jemadar Khoda Buksh was never to be submitted to the Commander in Chief for promotion.—This having been a real tho' unintentional injury, the Commander in Chief suffers it to weigh against the transgression of the Prisoner, whose confinement he will not prolong by such an additional term as would be entailed were he to direct the Court Martial to revise the sentence. Jemadar Khoda Buksh is to be released from his arrest, but he is to be informed that he cannot look to promotion till his further behaviour shall have satisfied the Commander in Chief that his late impropriety was not the result of perverse disposition—any future symptom of which will be visited with a severity in proportion to the lenity shown on the present occasion.

By Command.

Extract from the Proceedings of a General Court Martial assembled at Bhaugulpore, in obedience to General Orders of October 18, 1819, and to a circular order by Colonel Pine of December 3, and held by virtue of a warrant under the hand and seal of the Most Noble the Marquis of Hastings, K. G. and G. C. B. Commander in Chief of all the Forces in India.

Bhaugulpore, Saturday, December 4, 1819.

President.—Colonel G. H. Pine, 30th Regiment N. I.
Judge Advocate.—Captain G. Young, Deputy Judge Advocate General.
Interpreter.—Lieutenant Johnston, 1st Battalion 9th Regiment N. I.

CRIME.—Major William Joseph Matthews, of the 9th Regiment of Native Infantry, and Commanding the Bhaugulpore Hill Rangers, placed in arrest by order of His Excellency the Most Noble the Commander in Chief, on the following Charges.

1st.—That Major Matthews, Commanding the Hill Rangers, did, from on or about the commencement of the year 1818, down to on or about the end of June of the same year, appropriated to himself, the sum of six hundred and eleven Rupees two Annas (611 2) or nearly that amount, by withholding from certain Hindoostanee Sepoys of his Corps, then newly enlisted, their full pay as authorized and drawn by him, he Major Matthews, having in lieu of the same, only paid to these persons the daily sum of four pice each, during the time of their being employed in acquiring at Drill their usual exercise.

2d.—That Major Matthews, about the same period and under the same circumstances, appropriated to himself, the sum of Rupees 1709 8 or about that amount, by withholding from certain newly enlisted Hill Sepoys their full authorized pay.

3d.—That Major Matthews appropriated to his own use, during the period of about eighteen months ending about June 1819, the sum of Sicca Rupees 1125 6, or nearly to that amount, being the authorized pay by him drawn, for 15 Hindoostanee Sepoys, the pretended names of whom, were inserted by Major Matthews in his Muster Rolls; no such Sepoys, however, at the time, being entertained, and such names or a part of them, being wholly fictitious, and inserted to defraud the Government.

4th.—That Major Matthews appropriated to himself, about the same period, the sum of Sicca Rupees 4188, or nearly to that amount, by inserting in his Muster Rolls, and drawing for the pay of about 61 Hill Sepoys, not entertained in the Corps.

5th.—That Major Matthews, by withholding from the Buglemen actually entertained, a portion of their full authorized pay, and by entertaining one less than the proper complement, and the number inserted in his Muster Rolls and Abstracts, appropriated to himself during the period of ten months ending about June 1819, the sum of Rupees 240, or nearly to that amount, out of the sum total of pay drawn by him on account of the Buglemen of his Corps.

6th.—That Major Matthews, during the period of eighteen months ending about June 1819, having on different dates discharged six classies, continued notwithstanding, their names in his Muster Rolls, and thereby appropriated, within the period mentioned, for his own benefit the sum of Rupees 819, or about that sum, drawn for by him on account of the said classies.

7th.—That Major Matthews, during the period of eighteen months ending June 1819, appropriated to his own benefit the sum of Rupees 270, or about that sum, by not entertaining, but drawing the pay of the following workmen authorized on his Establishment, viz 1 Lohar, 1 Siculgur, and 1 Moochie, fictitious names, or the names of individuals who had filled those offices, who had died or been dismissed, continuing notwithstanding, to be inserted by Major Matthews in his Muster Rolls.

8th.—That down to the end of June 1819, Major Matthews appropriated to himself the sum of Rupees 69, or about that sum, out of the pay authorized and drawn for by him, on account of a Bazar Chowdry, by retaining monthly, a portion of the fixed salary previously to his discharging the individual who lately filled the office, and by receiving the whole salary for three months subsequently to the dismissal of that person, Major Matthews notwithstanding, still continuing to record as entertained the discharged Chowdry.

9th.—That during the period of about eighteen months, ending about June 1819, Major Matthews, under similar circumstances, and in the same way, appropriated the sum of Rupees 25 out of the authorized pay drawn for by him on account of a Bazar Mootsuddie.

10th.—That Major Matthews appropriated to himself the sum of Rupees 117, or nearly to that amount, being the amount of salary for about 13 months ending about June 1819, drawn for by him on account of three Jhunda Wallas, authorized for his Bazar Establishment, no individuals inserted as such by Major Matthews in his Muster Rolls, having been actually entertained or having received the fixed allowance.

11th.—That during the period of about eighteen months ending about June 1819, Major Matthews has occasioned, for his own fraudulent purposes, a loss to Government of Rupees 489 (being the amount over-drawn by the Surgeon of the Corps on account of his monthly allowance of 6 Annas per man), by certifying in the different monthly Bills of that person the complement of Sepoys and others attached to the Corps, as actually entertained and present, greater than it really was at the different times for which those Bills were prepared.

12th.—That Major Matthews appropriated to himself Rupees 915 9 1, or about that sum, out of the total of additional half batta due to, and by him drawn for, Detachments of his Corps employed in escorting Treasure during the months of April, May and June 1819.

13th.—That Major Matthews withheld totally the pay for June 1819, from the Sircars of his Establishment,

Upon which charges the Court came to the following decision.

FINDING AND SENTENCE.—The Court having fully considered the Evidence adduced before them, are of opinion,

With respect to the first, second and third Charges, that Major Matthews is guilty.

With respect to the fourth Charge, that Major Matthews is guilty of retaining on the Muster Rolls, during several months the names of men who had not been entertained, or who had deserted or died; but from the confused manner in which the Muster Rolls are drawn up, the Court cannot find the precise number of names and sums embezzled.

With respect to the fifth Charge, that Major Matthews is not guilty of entertaining one less than the proper complement of Buglers, but guilty of the rest of the Charge.

With respect to the sixth Charge, that Major Matthews is guilty of continuing on the Muster Rolls, fictitious names of 6 classies, and of appropriating to his own use the pay drawn for them, being about 619 Rupees.

With respect to the seventh Charge, that Major Matthews is not guilty.

With respect to the eighth and ninth Charges, that Major Matthews is guilty of retaining a part of the Bazar Chowdry's and Mootsuddie's pay up to the date of their discharge.

With respect to the tenth Charge, that Major Matthews is guilty.

With respect to the eleventh Charge, that Major Matthews is guilty of occasioning a loss to Government to the extent found on the third and fourth Charges.

With respect to the twelfth and thirteenth Charges, that Major Matthews is guilty.

The Court do therefore adjudge Major Matthews to be dismissed the Service.

Upon receiving this sentence, His Excellency The Most Noble The Commander in Chief was pleased to direct the following letter to be addressed to the Deputy Judge Advocate General conducting the trial.

To

CAPTAIN YOUNG,
Deputy Judge Advocate General.

SIR,

1.—Having submitted the Proceedings of the Court Martial on the trial of Major Matthews to The Most Noble The Commander in Chief, His Lordship has directed me to return them, that, with the communication of his sentiments, the Proceedings may be reconsidered by the Court.

2.—It appears to His Lordship, that the Court have inadvertently omitted to express their judgement on the concluding part of the 8th Charge, which embraces a distinct allegation of a specific offence, namely, "receiving "the whole salary for 3 months, subsequently to the discharge of that person (the Chowdry), Major Matthews, "notwithstanding, still continuing to record as entertained the discharged Chowdry." His Lordship conceives that the Court by confining their judgment to the first part of the Charge retaining a portion of the Chowdry's pay previously to his discharge, have not exhausted the whole charge of guilt imputed to Major Matthews, a duty required from every Court.

3.—The Court have found Major Matthews guilty of the 3d, 4th, 6th, 10th, and 11th Charges, the whole of which bring Major Matthews under the 44th Section of the Mutiny Act of the 58th of Geo. 3d, and the 3d Article of the 4th Section, entitled Musters and Furloughs, of the Articles of War, framed by its authority.

4.—By reference to the Section of the Mutiny Act, and to the Article of War, it will appear to the Court, that the adjudication of Dismissal is not the penalty the Statute enjoins. The penalty pronounced by Statute is peremptory to the very letter, and the Article of War has necessarily followed it by repeating the words to be Cashiered. Courts Martial are sworn to proceed by the Mutiny Act, as well as by the Articles of War, and having convicted Major Matthews of what this Mutiny Act has declared an offence, the judicial powers of the Court cease, and their subsequent duties are merely ministerial, in applying to the offender the penalty the law has ordained. In adjudging Major Matthews to be "Dismissed," the Court have deviated from the letter, and the spirit of the law; for, "to be Dismissed" are not the words used by the Statute, and the Articles of War; nor does the punishment, conveyed by these words, amount to the penalty of Cashiering, which superadds to Dismissal, disqualification for future employment.

5.—It may appear an ungracious duty thus exercised by His Lordship, in requiring the Court to pronounce a severer punishment than that which, it may be supposed, they have, on mature consideration, judged commensurate with the offence. But the law which binds the Court, is equally imperative on the Commander in Chief; and it would be a dereliction of the high duties imposed on His Lordship, were any deference to the judgment of the Court to prevent his bringing to their consideration his view of the peremptory letter of the law, and requiring from them a sterner duty than that which they have contemplated in their Sentence on Major Matthews.

6.—It is far from His Lordship's inclination, or intention, to oppose that merciful spirit which tempers our law, and to urge severity to Judges in whom is lodged the power of pronouncing on the different shades of guilt, and if, in the present case, that power had not been denied by the strict precision with which the penalty is defined in the Mutiny Act, His Lordship would have proceeded to take into consideration the Sentence of the Court, pronounced, it is to be supposed, on mature examination of the evidence, and conveying just apportionment of punishment to guilt.—But the power of mitigation thus denied to the Court, is confided to the Commander in Chief; and if the Court are of opinion, that the more rigorous punishment, which the law enjoins to be awarded to the proved transgression without regard to circumstances, would, from any extenuating ingredients in Major Matthews's case, pass the bounds of equitable infliction, it will be for the Commander in Chief to receive and to consider the sentiments of the Court, expressed separately from their revised Sentence.

7.—His Lordship has no doubt that the Court will concur with him, that the latter part of the 8th Charge still awaits their judgment; and that, having found Major Matthews guilty according to the purview of the 3d Article of the 4th Section of the Articles of War, they are bound to pronounce the letter of the law on that Officer, whatever be their sentiments of the adequacy of the punishment they have previously adjudged him.

J. A. GENL.'s OFFICE;
PRESIDENCY OF FORT WILLIAM,
the 30th December 1819.

I have the honor, to be,
Sir,
Your obedient Servant,
(Signed) J. BRYANT,
Judge Advocate General.

In reply to which, the following letter was received from the Deputy Judge Advocate General conducting the Trial.

To
Captain J. BRYANT,
Judge Advocate General.

SIR,

1.—I am directed by the Court Martial assembled for the trial of Major Matthews, to submit to you, for the information of the Most Noble the Commander in Chief, the grounds and reasons upon which they consider that they would have been justified in adhering to their Sentence, in as much as it is, in their judgment, conformable to the spirit and letter of the Mutiny Act.

2.—It appears to the Court, that the penalty inflicted by the word Dismissal is the same in all respects with that inflicted by the word Cashiering, the two words being perfectly synonymous; and that, therefore, the use of the one or of the other, is altogether arbitrary and indifferent.

3.—In support of this opinion, the Court beg leave respectfully to refer to all Dictionaries and Books on Military Law, wherein the meaning of the two words can be explained or illustrated.—In the 30th Article of the 16th Section the text says, that the offender therein described "shall be Discharged from our Service," and the marginal summary on the same article says, that he "shall be Cashiered:" importing, that the successive compilers of the Articles have in all times considered the two expressions to be equivalent. In the case of Captain Isaac Coffin, tried for false Musters, as reported by M'Arthur, the sentence was illegal because Captain Coffin, was only adjudged to "be dismissed the Ship;"—"soon after" says M'Arthur, "the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, under the "administration of Earl Howe, took into consideration the supposed lenity of this Sentence, and conceiving it was "deficient by not inflicting the punishment of Cashiering or Dismissal from His Majesty's Naval Service, agreeably "to the tenor of the 31st Article of War, under which the offence had fallen, their Lordships thought proper to "add to the punishment adjudged by the said Sentence, and accordingly effaced his name from the list of Captains, "and thereby virtually rendered him incapable of further employment in His Majesty's Service;" it is evident, that in the opinion of M'Arthur, and apparently in that of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, the Court would have complied with the letter of the law, if they had sentenced Captain Coffin to be Dismissed the Service, agreeably to the tenor of the 31st Article of War, in which, however, the word used is Cashiered; in the next page, M'Arthur says, "we find likewise, that in Military Courts Martial, the Articles of War "define the express punishment of Cashiering or Dismissal from His Majesty's Service for certain offences, "nearly similar to those enumerated in the Naval Articles, but of greater variety and extent," among these he proceeds to specify "false Musters," or signing "false Muster Rolls."

4.—It appears to the Court, that disqualification for future employment is not superadded by the mere use of the word Cashiered, if future disqualification were included in the term "Cashiered," it would not be expressed in some of the Articles as an additional penalty, and admitted in others; it is omitted in Article 2d of Section 4th, and in Article 29th of Section 16th, but in Article 3d of Section 4th, it is said, that the offender shall be "Cashiered, and suffer such other penalty as he is liable to by the Act for "punishing Mutiny and Desertion," which other penalty is expressed in the 44th Section, viz. that he shall "be displaced from such his office, and shall be thereby utterly disabled to "have or hold any Civil or Military office or employment within the United Kingdom of Great "Britain and Ireland, or in his Majesty's Service." The same disability is also expressly superadded to the penalty of being Cashiered in some of the Naval Articles, and in others it is omitted. In like manner, Courts Martial have occasionally thought it necessary to declare the disability in addition to their adjudication of Cashiering, and in other instances they have abstained from the mention of it; they declared it in the cases of Lord George Sackville and General Whitelocke, and they did not declare it in the case of Lieut. Colonel Johnstone of the New South Wales Regiment; the authority of Tytler on this point is very full and strong, he says "Cashiering" is sometimes done simpliciter, that is, without carrying in the Sentence any judgment against the offender of incapability to be restored afterwards to his military character, or with the addition of a judgment of the Court declaring the offender unworthy or unfit to serve His Majesty in any military capacity, which is the highest of the subordinate punishments that can be inflicted on a Commissioned Officer.

5.—But though for some offences as for Mutiny or misconduct in the Field, with conviction of which the Law has not inseparably connected disqualification for future employment, it may be proper expressly to assert such disqualification, yet in the case of false Musters, the Court are of opinion that it is unnecessary, because the disqualification attaches as a legal consequence of being convicted of, and Cashiered or Dismissed for, such offence, the offender being "thereby utterly disabled to have or hold, &c." according to the tenor of the 44th Section.

6.—At the same time the Court respectfully submit that the disability in question, whether expressly declared, or tacitly induced as a legal consequence, though announced as perpetual, yet being always remissible at the pleasure of the King or other competent authority, cannot be considered to constitute any real aggravation of punishment.

7.—Since the Court cannot resist the force of all these considerations, they do humbly submit that they are unconscious of having deviated from the Statute, or of having encroached on His Lordship's prerogative of mitigating punishments; nevertheless, in deference to His Lordship's judgment, the Court have substituted the word Cashiered for Dismissed, though, after mature reflection, they have been unable to recognize any difference in the significance and effect of the two words.

I have, &c.

(Signed) G. YOUNG,
Deputy Judge Advocate Genl.

BRAUGULPORE,
5th January 1820.

On the subject of the foregoing letter, His Excellency the Commander in Chief was pleased to direct the following answer to be returned to the Deputy Judge Advocate General conducting the trial, for the information of the Court.

No. 3.

CAPTAIN YOUNG,
Deputy Judge Advocate Genl.

SIR,

1.—The Proceedings of the Court Martial on the trial of Major Matthews, containing its revised Sentence, with the letter of the Court dated the 5th Instant, have been laid before The Most Noble the Commander in Chief.

2.—His Lordship has directed me to convey to you his observations on some opinions expressed by the Court, that, in the discharge of your office on future occasions, you may be in possession of His Lordship's sentiments on points of importance in the administration of military law.

3.—It is by no means His Lordship's intention that, by the remarks which follow, you are to consider yourself precluded from the fair and proper exercise of your opinion, formed from your study and research of the sentiments and practice of others; or from the expression of your individual judgment on the letter and spirit of the law and Regulations under which your official duties are discharged, but where there is a co-operative power in the infliction of punishment, it is necessary for the common exercise of justice, that the character of the penalty as understood by the authority which is to enforce it, should be clearly known to those who pronounce it, I am therefore to acquaint you, that His Lordship's construction of the words Cashiering and Dismissal, are to be regarded by you, as defined in His Lordship's orders in my letter of the 30th Ultimo, and as to be collected from my present communication.

4.—On paragraph the 2d, His Lordship has directed me to express, that he cannot assent to the declaration of the Court, that the use of words perfectly synonymous, is altogether arbitrary and indifferent, when the Sentence to be pronounced is in virtue of a Statute, which has used its own words to declare its own sense.

5.—On the 3d paragraph, noticing the word Cashiering being used in the marginal summary, and the word Discharged in the text, it is only necessary to observe that the text is the sole authority. The gloss of a Copyist, or publisher, cannot qualify an article which emanates from the King, and conveys a precise sense, in strict correspondence with the words used in the Statute, for the apparent purpose of precluding any latitude of interpretation.—This remark makes it almost superfluous to notice, that the Article alluded to (the 30th of the 16th Section), is one framed by His Majesty under the general powers of the Act, and not fashioned in conformity to a special enactment in the Statute.

6.—In the case of Captain Coffin, the illegality consisted in the deviation from the Statutory penalty, the jurisdiction of the Court in this case, as in the case of Major Matthews, originated in the Statute under whose provisions he came. The Court were bound to adhere to the letter, their Sentence was at variance with it. This was the foundation of the opinion of the Judges, though notions merely of its improper lenity may, or may not have influenced the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.

7.—The remaining part of the paragraph has no reference to the Mutiny Act which dictates the Sentence on Major Matthews; but it may be observed, that the Court's construction of their quotation to establish that the words "Cashiering or Dismissal" thus used, imply the writer's opinion that they have the same signification, must lead further than the Court contemplate, for among the examples immediately given, by the writer, of "Cashiering or Dismissal", are found to be "Discharged," to be "Displaced," it is obvious therefore, that the four words are thus accepted by the writer as conveying the same penalty. The Court would consequently be betrayed into the error of representing "to Cashier," as a term simply synonymous with "to Discharge or Displace," did it adopt the construction of the person on whose authority it is inclined to repose itself.

8.—In the fourth paragraph, the Court declare their opinion, that disqualification is not involved in the mere use of the word, Cashiered. It is difficult to say how this is to be maintained, when the 44th Section of the Mutiny Act appears not to have enacted a further penalty additional to Cashiering in the case under provision, but declares the effect and consequence of such Cashiering. A lax employment of the word "Cashier" instead of "Dismissal," by any authors, cannot effect an inference so strong as the above consideration presents; even were it to be overlooked, that the 4th and 5th Articles of the 8th Section apply the different penalties of Dismissal and Cashiering to lighter or more serious degrees of the same offence.

9.—In the observations, quoted in the concluding part of the paragraph now under review, Cashiering is evidently considered by the writer in its general vague sense of annihilating the bond of the Soldier to the Service; yet the enumeration of the several modes by which that separation is effected does not deny, though it does not specify, the character conferred on Cashiering by the Statute.

10.—On the 5th paragraph of the Court's letter, I am directed to observe, that it must be every where understood, that Cashiering does not always induce disqualification, for the King has the power to Cashier any Officer in his Service without the same incapacitations being annexed to such an exertion of His Majesty's pleasure, as is attached to the graver military offences contemplated by the Act of Parliament. But this obviously refers to the mere judgment of the King on the fitness of his Servant; and it is the exercise of his prerogative to discharge any Servant from his employ, with, doubtless the right of re-employing him whenever, in the Royal judgment, that unfitness no longer exists. In the case, however, before the Court, Cashiering assumes its character from the Statute which defines it, indeed, the Court now distinctly declare that Cashiering for false Musters has the legal consequence of disqualification; and the passage connected to Cashiering by "thereby," which hitherto has been declared by the Court to carry additional penalty to Cashiering, namely disqualification, is in this instance, accepted by the Court, as merely definitive of the necessary effect of the previously pronounced word.

11.—Yet with this full and distinct expression of the Court, they still support the propriety of their first Sentence of Dismissal, to which no such legal consequence does, by the letter of the Statute, attach.

12.—In the assertion of the Court, that Dismissal for false Musters equally embraces a legal disqualification, His Lordship is induced to accept that the word moral was intended to be expressed by the Court, for "thereby disabled" does not follow the word Dismissal, in the Section of the Mutiny Act, or in the sense of any one article of the Articles of War, under which the Court could have contemplated the offence of Major Matthews. It would be a questionable assumption of authority which should pronounce incapacitation as following a Sentence of Dismissal for false Musters; and the intention of the law would be left incomplete.

13.—On the 6th paragraph, His Lordship may not accurately embrace the sense intended to be conveyed by the Court; but if it mean, that supplying the full penalty, because it is remissible, is not an aggravation of the minor punishment first pronounced, and that a moral conviction existed that the full penalty would not be inflicted to the letter, His Lordship dissents entirely from the Court. He accepts the Sentence now pronounced in its revised shape, as a positive aggravation of punishment, and holds any contemplation of equity or mercy dictating its remission, as resting on the sole judgment and act of the Commander in Chief; nor does His Lordship consider any Court whatever permitted to renounce the right which the King and the Public have in the due application of the law to an offender, merely from their own notions of its injustice, or severity, much less could he admit the latitude, if it proceeded from any conception of inutility of the provision grounded on supposed feelings in another quarter according with their own, and dictating that equity or mercy, which the Court, by this act, deny to the only competent expression of it. The law of Treason directs the mutilation of the body, and what Judge would omit in the Sentence he pronounces this express ordination, because he knows it will not be executed.

14.—The Court's letter concludes with the reception of their conviction, that the words Dismissed and Cashiered have no difference in their signification and effect. It will be for His Lordship to consider how he can best reconcile justice to the Public, and to the Prisoner, with this commentary of the Court on their own Sentence.

REVISED SENTENCE.—"The Court having in obedience to the orders of the Most Noble the Commander "in Chief, re-considered their Proceedings, adhere to their finding on all the Charges; and with respect "to the eighth Charge, having found Major Matthews guilty of retaining a part of the Boxer Chowdry's "pay, they acquit him of the latter part of the Charge.

"The Court do now adjudge Major Matthews to be Cashiered, though they cannot divest themselves "of an opinion, that their present adjudication essentially coincides in all respects with their former one.

Remarks and observations by His Excellency the Most Noble the Commander in Chief.

The Commander in Chief has deemed it necessary that the letters relative to the Sentence passed on Major Matthews, should be made public for the information of the Army on a point of much importance in the military administration of justice. A misconception respecting the comparative effect of the terms "Cashiering" and "Dismissal" might entail, on the one hand, a judgment not consonant to the provisions of the Mutiny Act, or on the other, an infliction upon the Prisoner beyond the purpose of the Court. Although these terms may be used as synonymous in common parlance, and even were the distinction between them less clearly marked by the Articles of War than the Commander in Chief apprehends it to be, an established construction in England makes a discrimination in their import, which might bear heavily on an Officer against whom Cashiering was awarded by his Judges without their intending to subject the individual to the extensive disadvantages which it would practically involve.

As to the case of Major Matthews, the Commander in Chief fulfilled a painful duty, when he called on the Court to go beyond their original Sentence, and to pronounce that severe decision which he thought imperatively required by the Law. He feels that he has thereby satisfied the enactment of the Legislature in holding forth the consequences of the delinquency which has been substantiated against Major Matthews; and he can have no disposition to enforce the full penalty. While he is confident there was not a particle of foundation for the plea advanced by Major Matthews, that he acted according to precedent in drawing pay for the complete establishment of the Corps, tho' they were severally short of their numbers, and for making the stoppages enumerated in the charges, His Lordship collects from the Proceedings of the trial circumstances which afford a degree of extenuation. It is evident that, on assuming the command of the Hill Rangers, Major Matthews recurred to the Sircar, and to the Serjeant Major for guidance as to his procedures. The Corps was of an anomalous nature, and strictly fashioned according to the Regulations of the Army, being at the same time allotted to the Police of the District under Civil authority; and it may be believed that, as certain allowances assigned for furnishing particular conveniences to Local Corps on the ordinary establishment, were not extended to the Hill Rangers on an equal scale, Major Matthews might be in some extent misled by the persons abovementioned to consider these irregular sources of accumulation admissible towards collecting a Fund for providing more competently, the objects in question. This supposition is strengthened by the fact that the Sircar never disclosed the circumstance, till he found that he and the Serjeant Major were not to participate in the sums so obtained, while, however, the Commander in Chief seeks to bring forward every palliation which the evidence recorded in the Proceedings can afford, His Lordship must still consider the conduct of Major Matthews, as having been decidedly culpable. Tho' it is proved that he did apply to the public purposes of the Corps a portion of the money illicitly collected by him, he converted to his own use a large balance. The retention of this he attempted to justify as a legitimate perquisite, whereas the pointed interdicts which have been repeatedly issued in the Honorable Company's Army, against the receipt of any species of perquisite (even when not tainted with the infraction of law which attends the one under review), unequivocally condemned and forbad such an appropriation. Moreover, had the whole amount been expended for the convenience of the Corps, the mode of raising the Fund led so obviously to abuse, that it was the indispensable duty of Major Matthews to represent to Government the irregularity of the practice which he was told existed in the Corps, and to solicit, that the deficiency in due provision, for the comfort of the Hill Rangers, might be remedied.

On these grounds, the Commander in Chief remits the penalty of being Cashiered; but His Lordship must hold it unfit that Major Matthews should remain in the active line of the Army, and the expediency of removing that Officer to the Pension List will be submitted to the consideration of Council.

As it appears that Serjeant Major Morley willfully connived at, if he did not actively encourage, the irregularities, the Commander in Chief is pleased to order his being displaced from his situation in the Hill Rangers.

By Command.

Remarks by the Commander in Chief.

The subject of the above Court Martial is a young man, who from motives of consideration for the merit of his father was placed, it seems too early, in a situation, which requires a more approved steadiness of conduct.

In the career he has now to enter upon, His Excellency trusts that Thomas Hannah will prove himself deserving of the favor of his superiors on his own merits.

GENERAL ORDERS,

HEAD QUARTERS:

CHOULTRY PLAIN, 15*th April* 1820.

G. O. By the Commander in Chief.

Colonel R. Scot, C. B. of the Madras European Regiment, having been appointed to Command the Cantonment of Secundrabad, is relieved from the Prize Committee assembled at the Presidency.

Lieutenant E. Macpherson of the 21st Regiment, is directed to continue to do duty with the Corps of Pioneers until relieved.

The Commander in Chief performs a gratifying duty by expressing his approbation in General Orders, of the distinguished zeal and unremitting attention evinced by Captain G. M. Stewart, Commanding 2d Extra Battalion, Captain Nixon, Commanding 4th Extra Battalion, and Captain Baker, Commanding the 5th Extra Battalion. These Officers have in a few months recruited and disciplined their respective Battalions in so satisfactory a manner, as to call forth the unqualified praise of Officers Commanding Divisions who have inspected and reported to Head Quarters, that the interior economy as well as precision in the Field Movements of these Battalions, is not inferior to old and long established Corps.

Great praise is also due to the exertions of Captain Charlesworth, who Commanded the 1st Extra Battalion, and subsequently to Lieutenant Rickard the Adjutant, who succeeded to the charge on Captain Charlesworth's services being required with his Corps in advance, Lieutenant Rickard's indefatigable zeal was most praiseworthy, and contributed in a great degree to the efficient and highly disciplined state in which the Corps was found on being inspected by the Officer Commanding the Ceded Districts.

Major General Dyce's report of the zeal and well directed ability which Lieutenant Wright the Adjutant of the 2d Extra Battalion employed in discharging his duties, is most creditable to the character of that Officer, and entitles him to the approbation of the Commander in Chief.

Assistant Surgeon G. B. Macdonald, is placed under the orders of the Superintending Surgeon with the Hydrabad Subsidiary Force.

Conductor J. Lafond is removed from Colonel Pritzler's Field Force in the Doab, and posted to the Arsenal at Trichinopoly.

The appointment by Major General Doveton, C. B. late Commanding the Hydrabad Subsidiary Force, of Corporal Nicholas Bergean of the 2d Battalion Artillery to act as Line Serjeant to that Force from the 1st of April 1820, and until relieved, is confirmed.

G. O. BY GOVERNMENT.

Referring to the G. O. by Government dated the 11th of January 1811, and 4th of February 1812, The Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to direct, that the following revised Regulation regarding the issue of Grain to Troops and Public Followers, on actual Field Service, shall have effect from the 1st of July next.

The issues of Grain to the Troops and Public Followers, in the Field, for payment, will continue to be made according to the provisions of Section XI of the Commissariat Regulations, as corrected by the G. O. of the 21st of January and 4th of February 1812, and 30th of April 1813, and when it may be deemed more advisable, the daily issues of half a seer per man per day, will be made gratis from the Public Stock in Camp, at the discretion of Commanding Officers, as directed by the G. O. of the 11th of January 1811, it being always understood, that such issues are only to be made on cases of absolute emergency.

But as it is of extreme importance to diminish as much as possible the number of hired Carriage Cattle on Field Service, and to encourage the Troops and Public Followers to subsist themselves from the Bazars, without issues from the Public Stock maintained in the Grain Department in Camp, which stock should always be considered as being kept in reserve to meet the exigencies of the Service, in cases of emergency, as above alluded to, compensation in money, in lieu of rice will be paid to the Troops and Followers in the Field, agreeably to the concluding paragraph of G. O. of the 5th of October 1813, that compensation being paid for the full allowance of one seer per man per day, for Troops and Followers alike, whenever the market price of the 3d sort of country Rice shall exceed (Pagodas 106 30 0) Madras Rupees 373 5 4 per Madras Garce.

The Honorable the Governor in Council having addressed the subjoined Orders to His Excellency the Commander in Chief, to be published to the Army, they are accordingly published in Military Orders.

FORT ST. GEORGE, 30*th June* 1820.

G. O. BY GOVERNMENT.

The following Clauses, Cap. 155 of the 53d George III, are published for the information of the Army.

CV. "And whereas His Majesty's British subjects resident in the British Territories in India without the Towns of Calcutta, Madras, and the Town and Island of Bombay, are now by Law subject only to the Jurisdiction of His Majesty's Courts at Calcutta, Madras and Bombay respectively, and are exempted from the Jurisdiction of the Courts established by the said United Company within the said Territories, to which all other Persons, whether Natives or others, Inhabitants in the said Territories without the limits of the Towns aforesaid are amenable:—And whereas it is expedient to provide more effectual redress for the Native Inhabitants of the said Territories, as well in the case of assault, forcible entry or other injury accompanied with force, which may be committed by British subjects at a distance from the Places where His Majesty's Courts are established, as in case of Civil controversies with such British subjects, be it therefore enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for any Native of India resident in the East Indies, or parts aforesaid, and without the said Towns, in case of any assault, forcible entry, or other injury accompanied with force, alleged to have been done against his person or property by a British subject, to complain of such assault, forcible entry or other injury accompanied with force, not being felony, to the Magistrate of the Zillah or District where the alleged offender shall be resident, or in which such offence shall have been committed; and that such Magistrate shall have power and authority, at the instance of the person so complaining, to take cognizance of such complaint, to hear parties, to examine witnesses, and having taken in writing the substance of the complaint, defence and evidence, to acquit or convict the person accused; and in case of conviction, to inflict upon such person a suitable punishment, by fine, not exceeding five hundred Rupees, to be levied in case of non-payment by warrant under the hand of the said Magistrate, and upon any property of the party so convicted, which may be found within the said District, and if no such property shall be found within the said District, then it shall be lawful for the said Magistrate by warrant, also under his hand, to commit such offender to some place of confinement within the said Zillah or District, which in the judgment of the said Magistrate, shall be fit for receiving such offender, or if there shall be no fit place of confinement, then to the Gaol of the Presidency, to remain there for a period not exceeding two months, unless such fine shall be sooner paid, and it shall be lawful for the said Magistrate to award the whole or any portion of such fine to the party aggrieved, by way of satisfaction for such injury: Provided always, that in all cases of conviction of a British subject under the Provision herein before contained, the Magistrate before whom such conviction shall take place shall forthwith transmit copies of such conviction, and of all depositions and other proceedings relative thereto, to the Government to which the place wherein the offence was committed is or shall be subordinate: Provided also that all such fines shall be paid in the first instance to the Magistrate, before whom the party offending shall be convicted, and the amount thereof after making such satisfaction to the party aggrieved, as aforesaid, if any shall be transmitted by such Magistrate to the Clerk of the Crown, or other Officer to whom it belongs, to receive Fines in His Majesty's Court of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery, for the Province within which the offence shall have been committed, and such fines shall and may be disposed of, in the same manner as other fines imposed by such Court of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery, provided also, that all such convictions shall and may be removable by writ of Certiorari into the said Courts of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery respectively, in the same manner, and upon the same terms and conditions, and shall be proceeded upon in the same manner in every respect as is directed in the said Act of the Thirty third year of His Majesty's Reign, with regard to other convictions before Justices of Peace in the British Settlement or Territories in India: Provided also, that nothing herein contained, shall extend or be construed to extend to prevent such Magistrate from committing or holding to bail any British subject charged with any such offence before him in the same manner as such British subject might have been committed or holden to bail if this Act had not been passed, where the offence charged shall appear to such Magistrate to be of so aggravated a nature, as to be a fit subject for Prosecution in any of His Majesty's Courts to which such British subject may be amenable.

CVI. And be it further enacted, that in all cases of debt not exceeding the sum of Fifty Rupees, alleged to be due from any British subjects to any Native of India, Resident in the East Indies, or parts aforesaid, and without the Jurisdiction of the several Courts of Request established at Calcutta, Madras and Bombay respectively, it shall and may be lawful for the Magistrate of the Zillah or District where such British subject shall be resident, or in which such debt shall have been contracted, to take cognizance of all such debts, and to examine witnesses upon oath, and in a summary way to decide between the parties, which decision shall be final and conclusive to all intents and purposes, and in all cases where any such debt shall be found to be due from any British subject to any such Native of India, the amount thereof shall and may be levied in the same manner, and subject to the same Regulations and Provisions, in respect to the commitment of the debtor, as are herein before made and provided, in respect to the levying fines in case of the conviction of a British subject before such Magistrate.

CVII. And be it further enacted, that all British subjects of His Majesty, as well the Servants of the said United Company as others who shall reside, or shall carry on trade or other business, or shall be in the occupation or possession of any immoveable property in any part of the British Territories in India at the distance of more than ten miles from the several Presidencies of Fort William, Fort St. George, and Bombay respectively, shall be subject to the Jurisdiction of all Courts, which now have, or hereafter may have cognizance of Civil suits or matters of Revenue, either originally or by way of appeal, within the Districts or places where such British subjects shall so reside or carry on trade or business, or possess or occupy immoveable Property, in all actions and proceedings of a Civil nature, and in all matters of Revenue (except as herein after excepted) in the like manner as Natives of India and other persons not British subjects, are now liable to the Jurisdiction of such Courts by and under the Regulations of the several Governments of Fort William, Fort St. George, and Bombay respectively: Provided always, that no British Subject shall be liable to be sued in any such Court in respect of residence, unless he shall have his residence within the Jurisdiction thereof, at the time of commencing the action or proceeding against him; or that the cause of suit shall have arisen within the Jurisdiction of the said Court, and the suit shall be commenced within two years after the cause thereof shall have arisen, and also within six months after the defendant shall have ceased to reside within such Jurisdiction; nor shall any British subject be liable to be sued in any such Court in respect of his carrying on trade or business within the Jurisdiction thereof, unless the cause of suit shall have arisen within such Jurisdiction, and shall relate to the trade or business so carried on, nor to be sued in respect of any immoveable property possessed or occupied by him unless such property shall be situated within the Jurisdiction of the Court in which he shall be so sued, and such suit shall be brought to recover the possession or occupation of such property, or for rent, or other demand arising out of the possession or occupation of such property, by such British subject, provided also, that where by the Laws or Regulations in force, or hereafter to be in force within the Provinces respectively, subject to the Governments of Fort William, Fort St. George and Bombay aforesaid, it would be competent to a party to any final judgment or decree of any subordinate, Civil, or Revenue Court of Judicature to appeal therefrom to the Sudder Dewanny Adawlut or other Court however denominated, exercising within those Provinces respectively, the highest appellate Jurisdiction in Civil suits, it shall be competent to British subjects of His Majesty, in suits commenced against them under the Provisions of this Act, instead of appealing to the said Sudder Dewanny Adawlut or other Court, so exercising the highest apellate Jurisdiction as aforesaid, to appeal to the Supreme Court of Judicature at Fort William or Fort St. George, or the Recorder's Court at Bombay, according as the suit may have been commenced in the Provinces subordinate to either of the said Presidencies, and such Court shall have the same powers as to suspending or allowing execution of the judgment or decree appealed against, and as to taking security for Costs, or for the performance of the decree or judgment of the said subordinate Courts as the said Sudder Dewanny Adawlut or other such Court as aforesaid, would have had, and shall also make rules of practice for the conduct of the said appeals in all other respects conforming in substance and effect as nearly as possible to the course of procedure of the said Sudder Dewanny Adawlut, or other such Courts as aforesaid, in cases of appeal: Provided also, that nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend to take away the Jurisdiction of the said Supreme Courts of Judicature at Fort William, and Madras, or the said Recorder's Court at Bombay respectively, but that all persons having cause of action against any British subject, may at their election instead of suing in such Provincial Courts as herein before provided, commence and prosecute their said suits in the said Supreme Courts of Judicature and the said Recorder's Court respectively, in the same manner as before the passing of this Act: Provided also, that nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend to authorize the holding or occupying of any Land or other immoveable Property, beyond the limits of the said several Presidencies, by any British subject of His Majesty, otherwise than under and according to the permission of the Governments of the said Presidencies.

CXIII. And whereas it is expedient that the Sudder Dewanny Adawlut and Nizamut Adawlut or other provincial Courts however denominated, exercising the highest Jurisdiction within the Provinces respectively subject to the Governments of Fort William, Fort Saint George, and Bombay, should have power and authority to execute process of arrest either Civil or Criminal, within the Towns of Calcutta and Madras, and the Town and Island of Bombay, notwithstanding the Jurisdiction of His Majesty's Courts established at those places respectively; be it therefore enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the said Court of Sudder Dewanny and Nizamut Adawlut, or other Provincial Courts aforesaid, to execute or cause to be executed upon all persons subject to the Jurisdiction of such Courts respectively, all manner of lawful process of Arrest within the respective limits of the Towns of Calcutta and Madras, and of the Town and Island of Bombay, in the same manner as the said Courts respectively may by virtue of any power now vested, or hereafter to be vested in them lawfully execute or cause to be executed, such process in any place situate without the said limits, any Act, Charter, or other matter or thing whatsoever to the contrary, notwithstanding: Provided always, that all such process which shall be executed within the limits aforesaid, shall be in writing, and shall have underwritten or indorsed thereon, or otherwise annexed thereto a translation thereof or of the substance thereof in the English Language and character, signed by one of the Judges of the Court, from whence the same shall issue.

By order of the Honorable the Governor in Council.
