CHOULTRY PLAIN, 1st August 1820.

The Honorable the Governor in Council having addressed the subjoined Orders to His Excellency the Commander in Chief, to be published to the Army, they are accordingly published in Military Orders.

FORT ST. GEORGE, 17th July 1820.

GENERAL ORDERS BY THE HONORABLE THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

To obviate, as far as practicable, the extreme inconvenience to which Officers are liable, on their first arrival in India, His Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to resolve, that an Officer shall be appointed under the immediate orders of the Town Major, with a monthly salary of two hundred Rupees, to receive charge of all Cadets arriving at the Presidency, and retain command of them, until they proceed, under orders from His Excellency the Commander in Chief, to join a Regiment.

It will be the special duty of this Officer to supply Cadets with Servants, to see that they are settled in quarters, and generally to protect them from the extortion and impositions of Native Agents.

On the arrival of a Vessel from England, this Officer will be immediately apprized of it, and of the number of Cadets on board, if any, in order that suitable arrangements may be made for their reception.

A set of Mess and Table Furniture, sufficient for 20 Cadets, will in the first instance, be procured by the Officer in charge, and paid for by Government, the stock being subsequently kept up, as hereafter directed, at the expense of Gentlemen deriving the benefit of the Mess.

An estimate of the probable expense of such permanent Mess Servants as may be absolutely required to be constantly retained in pay, will be submitted through the Town Major, by the Officer in charge, for the consideration and sanction of Government.

The Officer in charge shall consider it his duty to dine daily with the Cadets, and Breakfast with them, at least twice a week, for the purpose of keeping up that perfect regularity so essential to Mess Institutions, and in order to enable him to assist the Gentlemen Cadets in procuring Servants and such articles as may be necessary for their immediate comfort, the Presidency Paymaster is hereby authorized to advance Two Hundred Rupees on account of each Cadet, on the receipt of the Officer in charge, accompanied by a Certificate of arrival from the Town Major—the advance to be separately accounted for to each individual, and any balance remaining, to be finally made over on his quitting the Mess, the total advance being ultimately deducted in Monthly Instalments of 50 Rupees, by the Paymaster of the Division, within whose circle the Corps to which Cadets are attached may be respectively situated.

The Mess accounts and all details connected therewith, will be finally closed on each Party proceeding to join their Corps, and in addition to the actual expense incurred for Messing, a deduction not exceeding 10 Rupees shall be made from each Cadet, on his leaving the Mess, to form a fund to meet such expenses as may occur from breakage, losses, &c.

A set of Quarters and out-offices will be allotted for the permanent accommodation of the Cadets' Mess.

The above arrangements being made with the sole view of assisting Cadets on their first arrival in India, it will be entirely optional with them to avail themselves of it, and it is hereby intimated, that those who may have friends in Madras, are not required to join the Mess.

Military Secretary.

The Commander in Chief approves the sentence on Matadeen, Sheetal Sing, and Bejoo, and directs it to be carried into execution. His Lordship further approves the acquittal of Churn Sing, altho' the evidence against Isseree Sing, excites irresistible persuasion of his guilt, the Commander in Chief does not think it brings home the imputed Crime so positively, as to bear out the infliction of a degrading punishment. His Lordship therefore desires that Isseree Sing, may be simply dismissed from the Regiment.

Extract from the Proceedings of a Native General Court Martial, directed to assemble at Sumbhulpore on Thursday the 1st of June 1820, in pursuance of a warrant received under the hand and seal of His Excellency The Commander in Chief, for the trial of Emaum Buksh Khan, late Nuggarchee of the 1st Rassellah of Ramgur Frontier Horse.

Camp Sumbhulpore, 1st June 1820.

President,—Shamadhan Trebedheer, Subadar Major.
Judge Advocate,—Local Lieutenant W. Geo. Edgar, Judge Advocate.
Interpreter,—Captain Thomas Frobisher.

CRIME.—Emaum Buksh Khan, late Nuggarchee of the 1st Rassellah of Ramgur Frontier Horse, charged with murder, in wilfully and maliciously shooting to death, with a ball from a Pistol, between the hours of six and eight of the evening of the 2 [illegible] of May 1819, in the bed of the River Maha Nudder, opposite the Fort of Sumbhulpore, a Woman named Choshun, the daughter of Mudara Shah Faqueer.

Sumbhulpore, 29th May 1820

(Signed) E ROUGHSEDGE, Major
Commanding Ramgur Corps.

FINDING OF THE COURT.—The Court after the most mature deliberation on the evidence given in support of the prosecution, together with what the Prisoner has said in his defence, finds him guilty of that part of the Charge, viz.—For having shot to death with a ball from a Pistol, between the hours of six and eight of the evening of the second of May 1819, in the bed of the River Maha Nuddee, opposite the Fort of Sumbhulpore, the daughter of Mudara Shah Faqueer.—But the Court acquits the Prisoner in having wilfully and maliciously done so.

SENTENCE.—The Court having found the Prisoner guilty of that part of the Charge above stated, does sentence him, the said Emaum Buksh Khan, late Nuggarchee of the 1st Rassellah of Ramgur Frontier Horse, to be imprisoned for a period of six years.

In consideration of the Prisoner's long confinement in Irons since the 2d of May 1819, the Court most respectfully begs leave to recommend him to the clemency of the Commander in Chief, and that the period of imprisonment may commence from the above date.

Officiating Deputy Judge Advocate.

Military Secretary.

Remarks by His Excellency the Commander in Chief.

The Commander in Chief entirely disapproves the above Sentence.

The Prisoner Emaum Buksh Khan, was charged on circumstances furnishing strong suspicion with having deliberately murdered the Woman who lived with him.

The inference from those circumstances was, that he killed her to prevent her surviving him when he had determined to put himself to death, tho' his heart failed him at the latter purpose, and he did not carry it effectually into execution.

Against those particulars which seemed to fix the crime directly on the Prisoner, there is not a tittle of evidence adduced beyond his own assertion.—He states, that having resolved to put an end to himself he went to the bed of the River with that object, that the Woman suspecting his intention followed him silently and unperceived, lastly that in his preparing to use the Pistol against himself she suddenly seized it, which turned the muzzle towards her, and by the Pistols going off in the struggle she was accidentally killed.

The points of the defence are thus rebutted, by the pregnant fact of the Prisoner's having taken two ball cartridges with him, by the testimony of Peer Khan first witness for the prosecution, who swears that he saw the deceased walking towards the river about forty paces in front of the Prisoner, and of course in his view; by the testimony of Shaick Ainedeen second witness for the prosecution, who deposes that he heard Jemadar Mahomed Khan (since dead), ask the Prisoner where his Woman was, to which question Emaum Buksh answered that he had shot her, and that she was lying in the bed of the River.—The Commander in Chief is utterly at a loss how to reconcile to such evidence the finding of the Court that the Prisoner had not wilfully and maliciously shot the deceased.

Supposing the above conclusion of the Court to have been borne out by what appears on the Proceedings, then the sentence would be altogether inapposite. Six years imprisonment for an unintentional homicide, is a punishment too extravagant to admit a moment's countenance.

The finding on the charge of murder being an acquittal, the Commander in Chief will not direct the Court to revise its opinion. In other respects he must consider the Proceedings as too incorrect to have any validity attached to them; therefore the Commander in Chief orders the Prisoner Emaum Buksh to be liberated, but forbids his being retained in the Service or being re-admitted on any future occasion.

By Command.

BY ORDER OF THE COMMANDER IN CHIEF.

T. H. S. CONWAY,
Adjutant General of the Army.

GENERAL ORDERS,

HEAD QUARTERS:

CROULTRY PLAIN, 30*th August* 1820.

G. O. By the Commander in Chief.

His Excellency The Commander in Chief has directed the following General Order issued from the Horse Guards to be entered in the Standing Orders of the Army serving under this Presidency, and to enjoin Officers in Command to cause the same to be strictly obeyed.

'HORSE GUARDS,

'GENERAL ORDER. '18*th January* 1810.

'The Commander in Chief has directed the following Order issued by the General Officer Commanding His Majesty's Forces in North America, to be inserted in the General Orders of the Army.'

"GENERAL ORDER. "Quebec, 4*th October* 1809.

"The Commander of the Forces has lately had occasion to see in a Halifax Newspaper a Copy of an Address "presented by the Serjeants of the 1st Battalion Royal Fuzileers to Captain Orr, on that Officer relinquishing "the Adjutancy in consequence of being promoted to a Company.—So novel a circumstance could not fail to "draw the attention of His Excellency, it being the first of the kind that has come to his knowledge during the "Forty-six Years that he has been in the Service, and as the first instance has thus (so far as he is aware at "least,) occurred on the part of the Army, with the charge of which the King has been pleased to entrust him, "he feels himself called on by every obligation of duty to His Majesty and the Service, to bear his testimony "against it by a public expression of disapprobation.

"His Excellency does not mean in this instance to ascribe any improper motive to the Serjeants—He has no "doubt that their sole view was to express their regard and gratitude towards an Officer, who, in the intimate "connexion that had officially subsisted between them, had very commendably conducted himself with kindness "to them without departing from that strictness of discipline which was indispensable to the discharge of his "duty.

"But while His Excellency thus does justice to the intention of the Serjeants of the Royal Fuzileers, he desires "at the same time very seriously to observe to them, that in presuming to meet, in order to diliberate on the "conduct of their superior Officer, they have in fact, however unintentionally, been guilty of an act of great "insubordination.

"It matters not that the design of the Meeting, or in whatever manner the address was unanimously assented "to, was solely to express their respect and esteem, the very circumstance implies discussion, and by that "discussion they rendered themselves obnoxious to the imputation alluded to—Who indeed, shall say where "such a practice, if once introduced, shall end; if the Non-Commissioned Officers of a Regiment are permitted "to express their approbation of the conduct of the Adjutant, why may they not exercise the same right with "respect to their Commanding Officer; or what reason can be given why they should not be equally entitled "to express their disapprobation? Indeed should the practice become general, the merely withholding the "former would imply the latter.

"General Sir James Craig is the more desirous that his sentiments on this subject should be distinctly un-"derstood in the Fuzileers; because it appears on the face of the address of the Serjeants in question, that it has "been countenanced by the Officer who then commanded the Regiment. The Commander of the Forces does "no more than justice to the character and services of that Officer when he admits, that feeling as he does the "dangerous tendency of the practice which he is censuring, he also feels himself the more bound to oppose it, in "the first instance, from the strength which it might otherwise derive from the sanction which he appears to have "given to it.—Lieutenant Colonel Pankenham will however believe—that though it was impossible the General "should avoid the observation upon his error, yet his doing so can by no means detract from the esteem with "which he has been taught to view his character as an Officer, or the confidence which he should be disposed "to place in his Service."

"(Signed) EDWARD BAYNES,

"Adjutant General to the British Army serving in North America."

'The reason for which the Commander in Chief has directed the circulation of this Order, is that he may 'avail himself of this opportunity of declaring to the Army his most perfect concurrence in the sentiments therein 'expressed by the distinguished and experienced Officer by whom it was framed, on a subject which appears to 'have been by some very much misunderstood.—The circumstance of inferiors of any class of military men 'assembling for the purpose of bestowing praise and public marks of approbation on their superiors, implies a 'power of deliberation on their conduct which belongs to the King alone, or to those Officers to to whom His 'Majesty may be pleased to entrust the command and discipline of his Troops.

'It is a procedure equally objectionable whether in the higher or lower ranks of the Army, and as the 'Commander in Chief cannot but regard it as in principle subversive of all military discipline, he trusts it is a 'practice which will be for ever banished from the British Service, as deserving of the highest censure, and he 'directs Officers in command, to act accordingly.

By Command of the Right Honorable the Commander in Chief.

Adjutant General.

Remarks by His Excellency The Most Noble The Commander in Chief.

The Commander in Chief is of opinion that the Court has not duly weighed the aggravation which the theft committed by the Prisoner received from his having been one of the Guard under whose protection the Treasure was placed. A sentence of a more severe nature would have better suited the crime; nevertheless, The Commander in Chief confirms the present sentence, ordering the punishment to be inflicted at such time and in such proportion as the Officer Commanding at the Station may think fit. The Prisoner Itcher Sing is afterwards to be turned out of the Service.

By Command.

2d.—For subjecting himself to the degradation of having been seized by the Police Officers, as a public nuisance on the 2d of November 1819, and of being confined in the Congee House of the General Hospital; such conduct being disgraceful to an Officer and a Gentleman.

Adjutant General of the Army.

FINDING AND SENTENCE.—The Court having duly weighed and considered all that hath appeared in evidence before it, as well in support of the prosecution as on the part of the Prisoner, find that the whole of the facts contained in the Charges, and alleged against the Prisoner, have been fully proved, but the Court being of opinion that the Prisoner was, at the time he committed the acts charged, in a state of temporary insanity, they do acquit him of all guilt in the same, and he is hereby acquitted accordingly.

(A true Extract.)
(Signed) C. J. DOYLE, Lieut. Col.
Military Secretary.

Remarks by His Excellency The Most Noble The Commander in Chief.

The Commander in Chief confirms the above sentence, as it is an acquittal: But his Lordship feels himself under the necessity of remarking a grave error in a particular decision of the Court. The Prisoner having rested his defence on his being insane when he committed the indecency for which he was brought to trial, the Officiating Judge Advocate desired leave to rebut that plea by bringing witnesses to prove that such insanity did not arise from accidental illness, but was the consequence of the Prisoner's indulgence in strong Liquors, a consequence asserted to have been repeatedly experienced by the Prisoner without its restraining him in his unhappy propensity. The Court in over-ruling the proposal of the Officiating Judge Advocate, who had not felt himself at liberty to anticipate such a defence, evidently overlooked the legal difference of influence on the case between a derangement ascribable to constitutional malady and one which (had the Officiating Judge Advocate substantiated his point), was to be considered as wilfully and culpably incurred by the Prisoner.

BY COMMAND.

Military Secretary.

Extract from the Proceedings of an European General Court Martial, consisting of a President and fourteen Members, assembled at Neemuch, at 10 A. M. on the 17th May A. Commanding a Division in the Field, and to Neemuch Detachment Orders of the 15th Instant, and by virtue of warrant under the hand and seal of Major General Sir John Malcolm, K. C. B. and K. L. S. for the trial of Serjeant Major Robert Gibson of the 4th Regiment of Bengal Light Cavalry, and all such Prisoners as shall be brought before it.

CAMP NEEMUCH, 17th May 1820.

President,—Major W. C. Lewis Bird, 2d Battalion 2d Regiment N. I.
Officiating Deputy Judge Advocate General,—Lieutenant Richard Benson, 1st Bat. 5th Regt. N. I.
Interpreter,—Lieutenant William Mactier, 4th Regiment Light Cavalry.

CRIME.—Serjeant Major Robert Gibson of the 4th Regiment of Bengal Light Cavalry, confined by order of Captain H. Hawtrey, Commanding the Corps, for conduct highly unmilitary and insubordinate, as exhibited in the following Charges preferred against him (the said Serjeant Major Robert Gibson) by Mr. Riding Master C. T. Davis of the same Regiment, viz.

1st—For having come to my quarters at Neemuch, between the hours of one and two of the afternoon of the 11th Instant, and calling me out to fight him, (Serjeant Major Gibson,) or words to that effect.

2d.—For having on the evening of the 11th Instant, called me by the appellation of a Cooley and a shop boy; and stating to the Quarter Master Serjeant of the Horse Brigade, that he (Serjeant Major Gibson) would report me to the Adjutant, and that he (Serjeant Major Gibson) would keep me to my trumps and annoy me by every means in his power, or words to that effect.

3d.—For having on the morning of the 12th Instant, in the verandah of the Bungalow of the Quarter Master Serjeant, and in presence of the Serjeant Major and Quarter Master Serjeant of the Horse Brigade, called me a spiteful rascal and a cooley, or words to that effect.

NEEMUCH, 13th March 1820.

(Signed) C. T. DAVIS, Riding Master,
4th Light Cavalry.

The whole or any part of such conduct being in violation of the Articles of War, subversive of military discipline, and highly disgraceful in a Non-Commissioned Officer.

(Signed) W. BURLTON,
Adjutant 4th Light Cavalry.

NEEMUCH, March 13, 1820.

(Signed) H. HAWTREY, Captain,
Commanding 4th Light Cavalry.

FINDING AND SENTENCE.—The Court having deliberated on the evidence for the prosecution, on the defence, and on the evidence adduced in support thereof, find the prisoner, Serjeant Major Robert Gibson of the 4th Regiment Light Cavalry, guilty of the first Charge.

The Court acquit the prisoner of the second Charge.

On the third Charge the Court acquit the Prisoner of having "called me a spiteful rascal and a cooley," but find him guilty of having used the terms spiteful, and cooley looking rascal, in the presence of the Serjeant Major and Quarter Master Serjeant of the Horse Brigade, when speaking of the prosecutor Mr. Riding Master C. T. Davis, but not in his presence.

The Court having found the prisoner guilty of so much of the Charges preferred against him, adjudge him to be reprimanded in such manner as His Excellency The Most Noble The Commander in Chief may direct.

(Signed) R. BENSON, Lieut. (Signed) W. C. LEWIS BIRD, Major,
Officating Deputy Judge Advocate Genl. President.

DISAPPROVED.
(Signed) HASTINGS.
(A true Extract.)
(Signed) C. J. DOYLE,
Military Secretary.

The Commander in Chief disapproves the above decision, not from any defect in its justice, but from inaccuracy in the terms of the sentence.

The Court having found the Prisoner guilty of the first Charge, purporting that he had challenged his superior Officer to fight, and having found the Prisoner partially guilty of the third Charge, have adjudged the said Serjeant Major Robert Gibson to be reprimanded in such manner as the Commander in Chief shall think fit. In the first place, a reprimand from the head of the Army to a Non-Commissioned Officer is not suited to the situation of the latter. The efficacy of such a reproof to a Commissioned Officer depends on his feelings, that as it is rarely resorted to, and thence implies serious misbehaviour in him to whom it is addressed, it will materially affect him in the estimation of the Society in which he moves, the application, therefore, of a reprimand to a Non-Commissioned Officer is not only objectionable from rendering it common, but is idle with regard to an individual whom it will little disparage in his humbler circle of acquaintance. There is however more than simple unsuitableness in the sentence. It is inconsistent with the Articles of War—in declaring the Prisoner guilty of the Charge, the Court must have founded his criminality on the breach of the 2d Article of the 6th Section of the Articles of War for the Honorable Company's Forces. The penalty awarded by that Article against any Non-Commissioned Officer or Soldier who shall challenge a superior is corporal punishment. The Court probably regarded the language of the Prisoner as coming only by a considerably forced construction within the meaning of the Charge; in which view the Commander in Chief concurs; but when the Court pronounced the Prisoner guilty, the nature of the punishment did not rest with them, the amount alone was left to their discretion.

On the second Charge the Court have very properly acquitted the Prisoner, by the wording, it was evidently meant to be understood, that the offensive expressions had been used directly to the prosecutor; it must have been under this impression that the Officer Commanding the Regiment was induced to usher such a Charge, which observation is made by the Commander in Chief in order that it may be remarked how much inconvenience to the Service, by assembling a General Court Martial at a distant Station, would have been avoided, had a previous investigation taken place in the Regiment. The true state of the case would have been immediately apparent, and matter so comparatively frivolous, as that which was the foundation of this trial would have been far better dealt with by reprehension from the Officer at the head of the Corps. From the evidence on the proceedings it appears, that if there was intemperance in the conduct of the Prisoner, there was much wish to provoke it on the part of the Prosecutor. It is incumbent on the Commanding Officer of the Regiment to warn both parties, that any future indication of such dispositions in either will be severely noticed. Serjeant Major Robert Gibson may be released, and return to his duty.

Extract from the Proceedings of an European General Court Martial, ordered to assemble at Saugor by Lieutenant Colonel Burnet, C. B. Commanding the Saugor Field Force, under a general warrant from, and agreeably to instructions by His Excellency the Most Noble The Commander in Chief, bearing date the 2d June 1820, for the trial of Gunner Reppington of the 1st Company 1st Battalion of Artillery, and all such prisoners as may be brought before it; and continued by adjournment to the 22d day of June 1820.

SAUGOR, June 16, 1820.

President.—Major Ahmuty, Commanding Artillery, Saugor.
Officiating Deputy Judge Advocate.—Lieutenant C. W. Turner.

CHARGE.—Gunner Reppington of the 1st Company 1st Battalion of Artillery, attached to the Saugor Field Force, confined for having on the evening of the 7th of May last wilfully set fire to the temporary Barrack of the Artillery at Saugor, by which the Building and Public Stores of the Detachment were destroyed.

PRESIDENCY FORT WILLIAM,
2d June 1820.

(Signed) J. NICOL,
Adjutant General of the Army.

SENTENCE.—The Court having maturely considered and weighed the evidence for the Prosecution, together with what the Prisoner has urged in his defence, is of opinion, that the Prisoner Gunner Reppington, 1st Company 1st Battalion of Artillery, is not guilty of that Crime, viz. of wilfully setting fire to the temporary Barrack of the Artillery at Saugor, by which the Building and Public Stores of the Detachment were destroyed on the evening of the 7th of May last, and do accordingly acquit him thereof.

Remarks by His Excellency the Most Noble The Commander in Chief.

The Commander in Chief disapproves the above Finding, because the acquittal is pronounced in direct opposition to uncontradicted and unimpeachable evidence, establishing that the Prisoner Reppington, after a declaration of his purpose, did deliberately and therefore wilfully apply a lamp to the thatch of the Barrack.

It is clear that the Court must have acted under an opinion of the Prisoner's insanity at the moment of perpetrating the Crime; but such an insanity in the Prisoner as could justifiably influence the Court, ought to have been specified in the Finding; and Sentence should have been professedly forborne on that ground, instead of a negative being recorded to a fact undeniably proved.

The insanity however was evidently of a nature which the Court could not legitimately take into consideration in forming its judgment, though representation might have been made to the Commander in Chief, in extenuation of the offence committed by the Prisoner.—By the testimony of the witnesses for the Prisoner it appears, that he is a regular well behaved Soldier, not manifesting any symptom of mental derangement except when in a state of ebriety: a wound which he formerly received in the head is supposed to be the cause of his being frantic when he has indulged in much liquor—The law permits in no case intoxication to be advanced as an excuse or palliative of a crime; and it ought to be more pointedly disallowed with regard to an individual who has had experience of the lamentable effects of intemperance on his senses.

The witnesses have referred to various antecedent instances in which the Prisoner Reppington has committed extravagances when drunk; thereby indicating that the being so, is not unfrequent with him. The Commander in Chief deems it improper that a man so prone to intoxication, and whose infirmity in that state is so dangerous, should be continued in the Service—His Lordship consequently directs that the Prisoner Reppington be released from his present confinement, but that he be brought down to Calcutta by the first convenient opportunity, in order that he may be kept under strict inspection at Head Quarters.

Remarks by His Excellency The Most Noble The Commander in Chief.

The Commander in Chief is obliged to disapprove both of the above Sentences. The Prisoners as the proceedings show, were each of them informed previously to his coming into Court, that he could not call for the testimony of the other.—This was erroneous. Lieutenants Jover and Crane, being reciprocally legal witnesses, whatsoever might be the weight which the Court would attach to evidence so circumstanced. The Prisoners were thro' this mistake, not allowed to make the best defence they could have offered.—On this ground the Commander in Chief does not think himself entitled to confirm the sentence against them. His Lordship therefore directs Lieutenants Jover and Crane to be released from their arrest. But he hereby pronounces his severest reprehension on their conduct in advancing against Major Campbell a degrading charge, a charge not only devoid of all colour of likelihood from the known character of that Officer, but unsupported by the statement of any equivocal particulars and apparently not occuring to Lieutenants Jover and Crane till they had tardily worked themselves up to harbour an extravagant suspicion.

(in obedience to instructions received from The Most Noble The Commander in Chief) for the trial of Emaum Buksh Khan, Subadar 1st Battalion 26th Regiment N. I. and all other Prisoners duly brought before it.

President.—Soobah Sing, Subadar Major 1st Battalion 26th Regiment N. I.

Officiating Deputy-Judge Advocate,—Captain Edward Day, 1st Battalion 26th Regiment N. I.

Interpreter,—Lieutenant W. C. Barnard, 1st Battalion 26th Regiment N. I.

1st.—For having on the night of the 12th of May 1820, whilst on command under my orders, refused to go to the rear of the Company, which at the time was in Columns of March in Sections.

CAMP, BEHADURGUR, May 13, 1820.

(Signed) G. S. BLUNDELL, Lieut.
1st Bat. 26th N. I. Comg. a Detacht.

SENTENCE.—The Court having maturely and deliberately considered the evidence for and against the Prisoner, Emaum Buksh Khan, together with his defence, is of opinion that he is guilty of the 1st Charge, viz. refusing to go to the rear of the Company. "The Court is further of opinion that the 2d part of the 2d Charge, viz. taking off his Sword and Sash and sending them by a Havildar," is proved; but the Court acquits him of throwing his Sword and Sash on the ground. Of the 3d Charge, for having refused to take back his Sword and Sash when they were returned to him by Lieutenant Blundell through the Havildar who brought them, "the Court is of opinion that he is not guilty; as it is proved that he not only received the Sash and Sword, but put them on immediately: why the Prisoner afterwards returned them back to Lieutenant Blundell, or the cause for so doing, does not appear in evidence before the Court.

The 1st Charge and part of the 2d being proved, the Prisoner, Emaum Buksh Khan, is therefore sentenced to be suspended from the rank and pay of Subadar for the space of two (2) months.

The Commander in Chief after an attentive perusal of the evidence produced on the trial of Mootoo, Camp Follower, does not feel convinced of the Prisoner's guilt, and as the Court has earnestly recommended him to mercy, on the plea of his not having borne the slightest malice to the unfortunate woman, and also in consideration of his former good character, which is recorded in the Proceedings in such strong terms—His Excellency considers the verdict pronounced by the Court, to be given on a mistaken principle, and that the Prisoner is not guilty of murder. The following Extracts from the confirmed Proceedings of a General Court Martial assembled at Bangalore, on Monday the 16th day of October 1820, (and which re-assembled on Tuesday the 5th day of December 1820) by virtue of a warrant from His Excellency Lieutenant General Sir Thomas Hislop, Bart. & G. C. B. Commander in Chief of the Forces serving under the Presidency of Fort St. George, dated Fort St George the 26th day of September 1820, and addressed to Colonel J. H. Dunkin, C.B. CHARGE.—I charge Ensign J. Goold of the Rifle Corps, (on the complaint of Ensign Edward Horne, and of Ensign Oliver St. John, both attached to do duty with the 1st Battalion 5th Regiment N. I.) with scandalous and infamous conduct, such as is unbecoming an Officer and a Gentleman, and with a violation of the Rules and Articles of War, as set forth in the following instances, viz.

1st.—Having entered the house at Bangalore of the said Ensign Edward Horne, between the hours of four and five in the afternoon of the 18th day of October 1820, and then and there conducting himself in an outrageous manner by assaulting, with a large stick, the person of the said Ensign Edward Horne: also by breaking, and destroying, articles of furniture, in that house; and having shamefully insulted Ensign Edward Horne by repeatedly calling him "A SON OF A WHORE" and "a damned coward," and further, having refused to make any apology when called upon to do so, for such unwarrantable conduct.

23*d November* 1820.

OPINION AND SENTENCE.—The Court having duly examined all that has appeared on the part of the prosecution, as well as what the Prisoner Ensign H. Goold of the Rifle Corps has stated in his defence, form their opinion as follows:—

That the Prisoner, Ensign H. Goold of the Rifle Corps, is guilty of all and every part of the Charge preferred against him, and they do therefore sentence him to be discharged from the Honorable Company's Service.

(Signed) J. WILSON, Captain,
Officiating Deputy Judge Advocate.

(Signed) J. H. DUNKIN, Lt. Col.
34th Regt. Colonel, and President.

APPROVED AND CONFIRMED.

(Signed) T. HISLOP,
Lieutenant General.

The Commander in Chief having approved, and confirmed the Sentence passed on Ensign Goold of the Rifle Corps, is pleased in reference to the recommendation of the Court, to remit the sentence, and it is hereby remitted accordingly—Ensign Goold is released from arrest, and will return to his duty.

The plea of youth and inexperience has in this instance operated in favour of the Prisoner, and saved his Commission, which had rightly been forfeited by the undeniable proof of his unjustifiable conduct, but the plea which has now influenced the Commander in Chief can never again be admissible in reference to this Officer; His Excellency therefore trusts, that the result of his lenity will be beneficial to Ensign Goold's future career in the Service, and that however painful the reflection, that Officer will learn from the example before him to govern his temper, and conduct himself with that decorum and propriety, which alone can ensure him respect, and entitle him to the character which every member of the Army is bound to uphold.

Remarks by His Excellency The Most Noble The Commander in Chief.

The Commander in Chief most seriously admonishes Major Alexander Campbell, against any future misapplication of his authority when he may be in the Command of a Battalion, since such an instance as is recorded in the proceedings of the Court Martial, unavoidably affects the reverence with which Officers should be accustomed to view the powers lodged in their Commandant for the purposes of discipline.

(Signed) C. COLVILLE,
Lieutenant General.

Remarks by His Excellency The Commander in Chief.

In publishing his Confirmation of the above Sentence, The Commander in Chief finds it necessary to say, that he is far from approving of it, and that he would probably have ordered the Court to re-assemble for its revision, but for the march from Malligaum of one of the Battalions, to which several Members of the Court belonged.

It is His Excellency's firm belief that had an European Officer stood under the circumstances of Jemadar Chinnoo, and been tried by a Court of European Officers, he would have been found guilty of having by his intemperance, unfitted himself for the discharge of the most solemn and important duties that could be confided to him, and for which he had been warned the day before.

The Commander in Chief regrets to learn the indifference that is gaining ground in some classes of Native Officers, in regard of dram drinking: and cautions the Members of this Court in particular, against the dangerous subtlety of distinguishing between a person actually intoxicated, or only altered in appearance and conduct by the effects of Liquor; such distinctions can only aid in the disgrace of persons making them, and in the injury of the Service.

BY COMMAND.
