The Court are further of opinion, that the Prisoner, Gungah Sing, is guilty of grossly abusing Subadar Meer Mahomed Allie, and do sentence him to be dismissed the Service.

The Court cannot record a Sentence implicating as it does the characters of so many of the Witnesses, without respectfully soliciting the attention of His Excellency The Commander in Chief to the contradictory evidence recorded on the Proceedings, as well as to the motives which have induced Subadar Meer Mahomed Allie to magnify the offence, inadvertently committed by the Prisoner, at a moment of indignant irritation arising from the personal violence and highly insulting language used towards him, by the Subadar, on an occasion wholly unconnected with military duty, and without the smallest provocation, into a heavy charge, affecting in its fullest extent the life of the Prisoner.

The conduct of the Prosecutor, Subadar Meer Mahomed Allie, appears from the Proceedings to have been so highly improper, that The Commander in Chief directs the Commanding Officer of the Regiment to signify to the said Subadar, on the Public Parade of the Regiment, His Lordship's strong displeasure at the unworthy motives which it is evident actuated the Subadar in instituting the prosecution, and His Lordship further desires that this reprehension may be recorded in the Orderly Book of the Battalion.

FORT ST. GEORGE, 6*th December* 1819.

G. O. BY GOVERNMENT.

The Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to direct, that the following rules shall be observed whenever any Commissariat Stores may be lost, stolen, or accidentally destroyed.—In all such cases it shall be the duty of the Commissariat Officer in charge to apply to the Commanding Officer for the assembly of a Committee of European Officers, at the time and on the spot, by whom the circumstances will be investigated as they may have occurred. The Committee will ascertain the exact extent of the loss, and will record their opinion whether every proper degree of vigilance, care, and attention had been observed by the Officer in charge; whether Sentinels were duly posted for the protection of the Stores, and whether in short, the accident may, or may not be viewed, as having happened unavoidably. The proceedings of the Committee are to be forwarded by the Officer Commanding to the Commissary General of the Army, who will also receive a full explanation from the Officer of his department.—The Commissary General will then submit the original proceedings, with a report to Government, with the least practicable delay, in order that the Governor in Council may determine how far the Officer of custody or any other person, shall or shall not be held responsible for the loss; while it is to be clearly understood, that no Articles will ever be allowed to be written off as stolen, lost, or destroyed, unless the most satisfactory evidence be afforded in the manner above described, that no precaution was omitted for the due security of the public property.

This Order, however, is not meant to disturb the existing Regulations, when Commissariat Stores are damaged by weather, lost on a march, taken by the enemy, or rendered useless by any unforeseen or unavoidable accident on Field Service.

By order of the Right Honorable the Governor in Council.

ACTING CHIEF SECRETARY.

G. O. BY GOVERNMENT.

Ordered that the following Extract from the Honorable Company's General Letter in the Military Department, dated the 16th June 1815, be re-published in General Orders.

Para. 139. In consequence of the numerous applications, which have been preferred to us by our Servants, on leave of absence in this Country, for advances of money on loans, we think it proper to recal your attention to our Orders in the Military Department of the 26th February 1808, upon this subject. Those Orders declared our determination not to make any pecuniary advances to Officers at home, beyond what they are allowed by the existing Regulations of the Service, and you were required to publish them in General Orders to the Army; but as a resolution of this description, in order to be generally known to a body which is continually receiving an accession of new Members, should be occasionally re-published, and being fully persuaded that a strict observance of this resolution, will prevent much trouble and inconvenience, besides loss to the Company, we direct that our Orders above adverted to, be in future circulated for the information of the Army, in the month of January in every year, and we shall take the necessary steps for reminding Officers who may arrive in England upon furlough, of our determination upon the subject in question."

By order of the Right Honorable the Governor in Council.

GENERAL ORDERS,

HEAD QUARTERS:

CHOULTRY PLAIN, 2d February 1820.

G. O. By the Commander in Chief.

The following Extracts from General Orders issued by His Excellency The Most Noble The Commander in Chief in India, are, by His Excellency's Orders, published to the Army serving under this Presidency.

Extract from the Proceedings of an European General Court Martial, assembled at the Fort of Allahabad, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, on Wednesday the 10th day of November 1819, and continued by adjournment until the 15th of the same month, in obedience to the Garrison Orders of Major General Marley, Commandant, and by virtue of a warrant under the hand and seal of His Excellency The Most Noble The Marquis of Hastings, K. G. and G. C. B. Commander in Chief of all the Forces in India, on Gunner John Lowe of the 1st Battalion Artillery, who appealed from the Sentence of a Garrison Court Martial held at that Station on the 13th September last, and such other Prisoners as may be brought before it.

President.—Lieutenant Colonel Thomas Fetherstone, 1st Battalion Native Infantry.

Officiating Deputy Judge Advocate General.—Lieutenant Henry M'Kenley, 2d Battalion 21st Regiment N. I.

CRIME.—Gunner Lowe, 2d Company 1st Battalion Artillery, confined for making use of highly disrespectful language to me on the afternoon of the 9th Instant.

Allahabad, 9th September 1819. (Signed) H. TIMINGS, Lieut. In charge of 2d Company 1st Battalion Artillery.

FINDING and SENTENCE.—The Court having duly weighed and considered what has appeared before them, are of opinion, that the decision of the Garrison Court Martial, from which the Prisoner has appealed, finding him Guilty, is not borne out by the evidence recorded in the Proceedings, and that consequently, the sentence of the Court is unjust; The Court being of this opinion, do therefore acquit the Prisoner, Gunner John Lowe, of the Crime alleged against him.

Allahabad, 15th November 1819. (Signed) T. FETHERSTONE, Lt. Col. President.

(Signed) H. M'KENLY, Lieut.
2d Battalion 21st Regiment N. I.
Officiating Deputy Judge Advocate General.

Confirmed:
(Signed) HASTINGS.

(A true Extract.)
(Signed) C. J. DOYLE, Lieut. Col.
Military Secretary.

The Commander in Chief confirms the decision of the Court; the passage in the Finding which says, that the judgment of the former Court "was not borne out by the evidence," leaving it uncertain on what particulars of testimony the opinion is founded; The Commander in Chief persuades himself, the General Court Martial did not admit the plea of the Prisoner, that the posture in which he stood, or the tone of voice which he used, when addressing his Officer, were unfitly taken into consideration by the Court from which he appealed; the Charge against him having been for "highly disrespectful language,"—it is obvious, that the tone and manner may give to language an unquestionable character of disrespect, while the words simply would be equivocal.

By Command.
(Signed) C. J. DOYLE, Lieut. Col.
Military Secretary.

Extract from the Proceedings of a Native General Court Martial held under authority of a warrant, signed by His Excellency The Most Noble Francis, Marquis of Hastings, K. G & G. C. B. Commander in Chief of all the Forces in India, for the trial of Subadar Shrei-kishun Sing, 1st Battalion 30th Regiment N. I. and all such Prisoners as may be brought before it, and re-assembled at Cuttack, by order of His Excellency The Most Noble The Commander in Chief, on the 29th day of November 1819, for the trial of Jankei Sing, Sepoy 1st Battalion 30th Regiment Native Infantry.

President.—Sooknundum Sing, Subader Major, 1st Battalion 30th N. I.

Officiating Deputy Judge Advocate.—Lieutenant J. O. Beckett, 2d Battalion 22d N. I.

Interpreter.—Lieutenant Adam White, 1st Battalion 30th N. I.

CRIME.—Jankie Sing, Sepoy 1st Battalion 30th Regiment N. I. confined on the following Charge, in breach of the Articles of War.

For having on the 18th of September last, with a view to injure the character of Subadar Mirzakhoda Dad Beg of the 1st Battalion 30th Regiment N. I. his superior Officer, falsely and malignantly asserted, that the Subadar had attempted to bribe him to make a false statement of the conduct of Kissoon Sing, Sepoy of the same Corps.

By order of His Excellency The Most Noble The Commander in Chief.

Adjt. General's Office: Presidency Fort William, 22d November 1819. (Signed) JAMES NICOL, Adjutant General of the Army.

SENTENCE.—The Court having duly considered what has appeared before it, both on the part of the prosecution and defence, is of opinion, that the Prisoner Jankie Sing, Sepoy 1st Battalion 30th Regiment N. I. is not guilty of having falsely and malignantly asserted, with a view to injure the character of Subadar Mirzakhoda Dad Beg his superior Officer, that the said Subadar had attempted to bribe him to make a false statement of the conduct of Kissoon Sing, Sepoy of the same Corps. The Court consequently acquits the Prisoner, Jankie Sing, of the crime laid to his Charge.

(Signed) J. O. BECKETT, Lieut. Officiating Deputy Judge Advocate.

(Signed) SOOKNUNDUM SING, his X mark, Subadar Major, and President.

CONFIRMED.

(Signed) HASTINGS.

(A true Extract) (Signed) C. J. DOYLE, Lt. Col. Military Secretary.

The judgment of the Court is contrary to the tenor of the defence made by the Prisoner, who in the course of it re-affirmed, that the Subadar had used expresssions to him tantamount to the offer of a bribe for his (Jankie Sing) giving a proposed testimony ; the Court must, therefore, have believed that there had been an improper endeavour on the part of the Subadar to influence the Prisoner; in which case the reason for the Court's verdict ought to have been specified ; as at present the finding, by purporting that Jankie Sing did not make the Charge, is irreconcileable to the evidence on the Proceedings. The Commander in Chief construing the impression on the mind of the Court to have been what is above explained, confirms the sentence.

(By Command.) (Signed) C. J. DOYLE, Lieut. Col. Military Secretary.

Extract from the Proceedings of a Native General Court Martial, assembled at Hussingabad, on the 10th day of November 1819, by order of Lieutenant Colonel Adams, C. B. Commanding the Nurbuddah Field Force, and by virtue of a warrant from the Most Noble the Marquis of Hastings, K. G. Commander in Chief of all the Forces in India, &c. &c. &c. for the trial of Bulbudhoor Sing, Sepoy 1st Battalion 8th Regiment N. I. and such other Prisoners as may be brought before it.

President.—Poorun Sing, Subadar 1st Battalion 15th Regiment N. I.

Officiating Deputy Judge Advocate.—Lieutenant Weston, 1st Battalion 15th N. I.

Interpreter.—Brevet Captain Baldwin, 1st Battalion 2d N. I.

CHARGE.—Bulbudhoor Sing, Sepoy 6th Company 1st Battalion 8th Regiment N. I. confined by me in the line Guard for deserting from the Corps at the Village of Pipraje, on or about the 10th of May 1816, and not returning to it until brought back a Prisoner on the 24th Instant.

HUSSINGABAD: 24th October 1819

(Signed) S. NATION, Major, Comg. 1st Battalion 8th Regiment N. I.

FINDING AND SENTENCE.—The Court having maturely considered the evidence before them, are of opinion, that the prisoner Bulbudhoor Sing, is guilty of the crime laid to his Charge, and sentence him to receive five hundred (500) lashes on his bare back, at such time and place as His Excellency The Most Noble The Commander in Chief may be pleased to direct.

(Signed) H. WESTON, Lieut. 1st Bat. 15th Regiment N. I. Offg. Deputy Judge Advocate.

(Signed) In Nagree character, POORUN SING, Subadar, 1st Bat. 15th N. I. & President.

APPROVED.

(Signed) HASTINGS.

(A true Extract.) (Signed) C. J. DOYLE, Lt. Col. Military Secretary.

The Commander in Chief in compliance with the wishes of the Court, is pleased to remit the punishment, and to order that Bulbudhoor Sing, shall return to his duty.

(By Command.)

(Signed) C. J. DOYLE, Lt. Col. Military Secretary.

Extract from the Proceedings of a Native General Court Martial, assembled at Hussingabad, on the 10th, and re-assembled on the 22d of November 1819, by order of Lieutenant Colonel Adams, C. B. Commanding the Nurbuddah Field Force, and by virtue of a warrant from the Most Noble The Marquis of Hastings, K. G. HUSSINGABAD, 30th September 1819

(Signed) R. G. STERLING, Major, Comg. 7th Light Cavalry.

FINDING AND SENTENCE.—The Court having maturely weighed the evidence, both for the prosecution and for the Prisoner, is of opinion, that he left his Corps in a state of mental derangement, but from the circumstance of his writing to the Captain of his Troop, and returning to his Corps of his own accord, acquits him, Huckdad Khan Trooper, 5th Troop 7th Regiment Light Cavalry of the crime of Desertion.

5th Charge.—For conduct highly improper in an Officer in Command of a Detachment, prejudicial and contrary to the Regulations of the Service, in allowing an improper use to be made of the Horses of the Detachment under his Command on frequent occasions in the month of February 1818.

6th Charge.—For conduct derogatory to the character of an Officer Commanding a Detachment, in making use of the authority invested in him subservient to his private purposes, and taking advantage of his situation as Commanding Officer and insulting and injuring my feelings in the presence of several Officers, on or about the 22d February and on the 16th April 1818.

7th Charge.—For conduct unbecoming and degrading to the character of an Officer and a Gentleman, in asserting a direct falsehood against me to Lieutenant Mercier of the Pioneers, he knowing the same to be false, on or about the 23d of April 1818.

10th Charge.—For unofficerlike conduct, in beating and ill-treating several of the Sepoys and others of the Detachment under his immediate orders, as also a Non-commissioned Officer.

11th Charge.—For conduct unbecoming the situation of an Officer Commanding a Detachment, contrary to the Articles of War, in refusing on or about the 16th of April 1818, to allow a Public Follower of the Detachment to be brought forward, against whom I forwarded a Crime.

Opinion and Sentence.—The Court having considered the evidence on the prosecution and defence, are of opinion as follows.

On the first Charge.—That the Prisoner is not guilty, and do therefore fully and honorably acquit him thereof.

On the second Charge.—That the Prisoner is not guilty, and do therefore fully and honorably acquit him thereof.

On the third Charge.—That the Prisoner is not guilty, and do therefore fully and honorably acquit him thereof.

On the fourth Charge.—That the Prisoner is not guilty, and do therefore fully and honorably acquit him thereof.

On the fifth Charge.—The Court find that use, but not an improper use, had been made of Horses on frequent occasions, and do therefore fully and honorably acquit the Prisoner of conduct highly improper in an Officer in Command of a Detachment, prejudicial and contrary to the Regulations of the Service.

On the sixth Charge.—The Court find that the Prisoner is not guilty, and do therefore fully and honorably acquit him thereof.

On the seventh Charge.—That the Prisoner is not guilty, and do honorably acquit him thereof.

On the tenth Charge.—That there being no prosecution on the Charge, the Prisoner is not guilty, and is acquitted accordingly.

On the eleventh Charge.—The Court find from circumstances which have appeared, that trial, tho' withheld, was so on grounds perfectly justifiable, they find the Prisoner not guilty, and acquit him accordingly.

The Court before closing their Proceedings, deem it a justice to the Service to declare, that they have looked in vain for the zeal and public spirit, which the Prosecutor claims as having been the actuating motive for his bringing forward those very serious Charges against his Commanding Officer, and they are sorry to add, that they have found only a factious and malicious disposition, set in action by a spirit of insubordination.

2d.—For conduct subversive of good order and military discipline, and highly prejudicial to the Service in the above instances.

ADJT. GENERAL'S OFFICE:
CHOULTRY PLAIN,
10th March 1819.

BY ORDER.
(Signed) T. H. S. CONWAY,
Adjutant General of the Army.

The Court after most mature deliberation on the Prosecution as well as what the Prisoner has urged in his defence, is of opinion that,

The Prisoner, Lieutenant and Brevet Captain Robert Crowther, 5th Regiment Light Cavalry, is guilty of so much of the first Instance of the Charge, as relates to factious and insubordinate conduct, such as is unbecoming the character of an Officer.

The Court find the Prisoner also guilty of so much of the 2d Instance, as relates to conduct subversive of good order and military discipline, and highly prejudicial to the Service.

The Court having found the Prisoner, Lieutenant and Brevet Captain Robert Crowther, 5th Regiment Light Cavalry guilty as above, does sentence him to be dismissed the Honorable Company's Service.

APPROVED AND CONFIRMED.
(Signed) T. HISLOP,
Lieutenant General.

In publishing the above Crime and Sentence, The Commander in Chief deems it proper to state to the Army, that the delay which has arisen in promulgating the opinion and finding of the Court, upon the trial of Brevet Captain Crowther of the 5th Regiment Light Cavalry, has been occasioned by the several references which His Excellency has deemed it necessary, for his own satisfaction, to make upon points connected with the Proceedings.

The name of Lieutenant and Brevet Captain Crowther of the 5th Regiment Light Cavalry, is to be discontinued from the List of the Army from this date.

GENERAL ORDERS,

HEAD QUARTERS:

CHOULTRY PLAIN, 14th April 1820.

G. O. By the Commander in Chief.

The following Extracts from G. O. issued by His Excellency the Most Noble the Commander in Chief in India, are, by His Excellency's Orders, published to the Army serving under this Presidency.

Extract from the Proceedings of a Native General Court Martial assembled at Hussingabad on the 10th and 22d of November 1819, and re-assembled on the 10th of January 1820, by order of Lieutenant Colonel Adams, C. B. Commanding the Nurbuddah Field Force, and by virtue of a warrant from the Most Noble the Marquis of Hastings, K. G. Commander in Chief of all the Forces in India, for the trial of Madhoo Ram, Gun Lascar, and such other Prisoners as may be brought before it.

President.—Poorun Sing, Subadar 1st Battalion 15th Regiment Native Infantry.

Officiating Deputy Judge Advocate.—Lieutenant Weston 1st Battalion 15th Native Infantry.

Interpreter.—Brevet Captain Baldwin, 1st Battalion 2d Native Infantry.

CHARGE.—Madhoo Ram, Lascar 4th Company, attached to the Artillery Details at Bartool, confined by Lieutenant Colonel Comyn, Commanding at Bartool, for conduct highly unmilitary and unbecoming a Soldier, in assaulting and severely wounding with a sword a Woman named Phoondya, on the morning of the 25th Instant.

For subsequently attempting his own life with the same sword, and wounding Lall Sing and Ram Juwan, Gun Lascars, who wrested the sword from him.

Bartool, November 29, 1819. } (Signed) J. VYSE, Captain, Detachment Staff.

FINDING and SENTENCE.—The Court having maturely weighed the evidence for the prosecution together with what the Prisoner has urged in his defence, is of opinion that he, Madhoo Ram, Gun Lascar, is guilty of the first part of the charge, viz. Assaulting and severely wounding with a sword a woman called Phoondya.

With regard to the attempt upon his own life (whether real or feigned), the Court not conceiving the crime to be cognizable by martial law, comes to no decision upon it.

The Court acquits the Prisoner of intentionally wounding Ram Juwan and Lall Sing, Gun Lascars, who wrested the sword from him.

The Prisoner having been found guilty of the first part of the charge exhibited against him, the Court sentences him to receive five hundred (500) lashes in the usual manner, at such time and place as His Excellency The Most Noble the Commander in Chief may be pleased to direct.

(Signed) H. WESTON, Lieut. Officiating Deputy Judge Advocate.

(Signed) In Nagree character, POORUN SING, Subadar and President.

APPROVED.

(A true Extract.)

Remarks by His Excellency The Most Noble The Commander in Chief.

The Commander in Chief has to observe on the Proceedings of the above Court Martial, the inconvenience of accumulating charges against a Prisoner, by making circumstances which are really complicated with the main offence, matter of separate arraingnment. An acquittal on these subordinate accusations is calculated to excite a doubt whether the prosecution for the principal crime may not have been strained.

The punishment awarded the Prisoner is to be inflicted at such time and in such proportion, as the Officer Commanding the Nurbuddah Field Force shall think fit.

By Command.

(Signed) C. J. DOYLE, Lt. Col. Military Secretary.

Extract from the Proceedings of a General Court Martial assembled at Meerut, on Friday the 10th day of December 1819, by order of Major General Sir Dyson Marshall, K. C. B. Commanding the Field Army, and in virtue of a warrant under his hand and seal, for the trial of Lieutenant Alexander Francis Peter Macleod of the 2d Battalion 2d Regiment of Native Infantry, and such Prisoners as may be duly brought before it.

President.—Lieutenant Colonel H. Westenra, 8th K. R. I. Light Dragoons.

Judge Advocate.—Captain W. P. Cook, Deputy Judge Advocate General 2d and 3d Division Field Army.

Interpreter.—Lieutenant W. E. B. Leadbeater, 1st Battalion 27th Native Infantry.

CHARGE.—Preferred by Lieutenant Francis Robert Baumgardt of the 2d Battalion 2d Regiment of Native Infantry, against Lieutenant Alexander Francis Peter Macleod of the same Corps, viz.

"For conduct scandalous and unbecoming the character of an Officer and a Gentleman, in having "endeavoured to prejudice my character, and to stigmatize me with imputations of criminality of the "foulest nature in the following instances, viz.

1st.—In having at Delhi, on or about the 2d and 3d of June 1819, employed a man of the name of "Doonum, formerly my Servant, to make under his, the said Lieutenant Macleod's authority and "direction, inquiries into my private character by every means practicable, and to bring to him the "said Lieutenant Macleod, two of my domestic Servants, for the purpose of criminating my conduct " and ruining my character: He the said Lieutenant Macleod being at the time of his conduct above " stated, on terms, or apparently so, of intimate friendship with me.

2d.—" In having at Delhi, on or about the evening of the said 3d of June, assembled a meeting of " some of the Junior Officers of the Corps at his Bungalow, for the avowed purpose of witnessing the " examination of my Servants whom he had " without my knowledge, or consent, sent for, with " a view to impeach my character, and also in having on or about the night of the said 3d June, in " the presence and with the assistance of Lieutenant Oliphant of the same Corps," interrogated and " examined certain persons, by name Joomun a tailor, and Khyratee a matee, both in my Service, " relative to my conduct, and in having then and there, drawn up and signed a paper purporting to " contain the evidence of the said Joomun and Khyratee.

3d.—" In having at the time and place last aforesaid, detained my said Servants, Joomun and " Khyratee, or one of them, under restraint, with a view to obtain from them or him, information " prejudicial to my character.

MEERUT, 1st December 1819. } (Signed) F. ROBERT BAUMGARDT, 2d Battalion 2d Regiment N. I.

FINDING.—The Court having maturely and deliberately weighed and considered the evidence for and against the Prisoner, together with what he has urged in his defence, do find him the said Lieutenant Alexander Francis Peter Macleod guilty of the charge exhibited against him, with the exception of the " scandalous" conduct, imputed in the charge, and of the 3d instance or count of the charge of which the Court acquit him.

SENTENCE.—The Court having found the Prisoner guilty of conduct unbecoming the character of an Officer and a Gentleman as aforesaid, do adjudge him to be discharged from the Service.

(Signed) W. P. COOK Captain, Deputy Judge Advocate General, 2d and 3d Division Field Army conducting the trial.

(Signed) H. WESTENRA, Lt. Col. 8th Dragoons, President.

APPROVED.

(Signed) HASTINGS.

(True Extract.)

(Signed) C. J. DOYLE, Lt. Col. Military Secretary.

The Commander in Chief approves the above sentence, because the Court have justly felt the necessity of impressing the caution which ought to be used in the mode of agitating any question, whereby the character of a brother Officer, may be affected. In the deviation from propriety which has subjected him to this award of penalty, Lieutenant Macleod does not appear to have been influenced by any spirit of malice, but to have obeyed a sentiment honorable in itself, tho' incorrectly acted upon: Therefore the Commander in Chief willingly adopts the recommendation of the Court, remits the punishment, and direct that Lieutenant Macleod shall forthwith return to his duty.

BY COMMAND.

Remarks by His Excellency The Most Noble The Commander in Chief.

The contumacious and persevering refusal of the Prisoner to perform his duty in disobedience to the lawful orders of his Commanding Officer, having been distinctly proved, and not even controverted in the defence, it was not competent to the Court to decide the case upon a consideration of the erroneous conception by which the Prisoner was swayed. It was incumbent on the Court to pronounce an award apposite to the undisputed breach of the Articles of War; and then to have represented that it appeared to them that Prisoner had not acted from a refractory spirit, but from a mistaken persuasion that he was making an allowable appeal to the Commander in Chief.

This view on the part of the Court would have been of doubtful correctness.—Reference had been made to the General Officer Commanding in the Field, who with his usual patient kindness had caused the culpable insubordinacy of the Prisoner's conduct to be explained to him, with a warning of it's serious consequences if persisted in, while the resumption of his duties would not prevent his laying before the Commander in Chief any grievance he supposed himself to have suffered; little excuse, therefore, remained for the Prisoner on that head, a different plea in favour of the Prisoner is found on the proceedings. It appears that when the Prisoner was transfered to the Provincial Battalion, his former Commanding Officer through a mis-comprehension sent to the Officer at the head of that Corps a written intimation that the name of Jemadar Khoda Buksh was never to be submitted to the Commander in Chief for promotion.—This having been a real tho' unintentional injury, the Commander in Chief suffers it to weigh against the transgression of the Prisoner, whose confinement he will not prolong by such an additional term as would be entailed were he to direct the Court Martial to revise the sentence. Jemadar Khoda Buksh is to be released from his arrest, but he is to be informed that he cannot look to promotion till his further behaviour shall have satisfied the Commander in Chief that his late impropriety was not the result of perverse disposition—any future symptom of which will be visited with a severity in proportion to the lenity shown on the present occasion.

By Command.

Extract from the Proceedings of a General Court Martial assembled at Bhaugulpore, in obedience to General Orders of October 18, 1819, and to a circular order by Colonel Pine of December 3, and held by virtue of a warrant under the hand and seal of the Most Noble the Marquis of Hastings, K. G. and G. C. B. Commander in Chief of all the Forces in India.

Bhaugulpore, Saturday, December 4, 1819.

President,—Colonel G. H. Pine, 30th Regiment N. I.
Judge Advocate,—Captain G. Young, Deputy Judge Advocate General.
Interpreter,—Lieutenant Johnston, 1st Battalion 9th Regiment N. I.

CRIME.—Major William Joseph Matthews, of the 9th Regiment of Native Infantry, and Commanding the Bhaugulpore Hill Rangers, placed in arrest by order of His Excellency the Most Noble the Commander in Chief, on the following Charges.

1st,—That Major Matthews, Commanding the Hill Rangers, did, from on or about the commencement of the year 1818, down to on or about the end of June of the same year, appropriated to himself, the sum of six hundred and eleven Rupees two Annas (611 2) or nearly that amount, by withholding from certain Hindoostanee Sepoys of his Corps, then newly enlisted, their full pay as authorized and drawn by him, he Major Matthews, having in lieu of the same, only paid to these persons the daily sum of four pice each, during the time of their being employed in acquiring at Drill their usual exercise.

2d.—That Major Matthews, about the same period and under the same circumstances, appropriated to himself, the sum of Rupees 1709 8 or about that amount, by withholding from certain newly enlisted Hill Sepoys their full authorized pay.

3d.—That Major Matthews appropriated to his own use, during the period of about eighteen months ending about June 1819, the sum of Sicca Rupees 1125 6, or nearly to that amount, being the authorized pay by him drawn, for 15 Hindoostanee Sepoys, the pretended names of whom, were inserted by Major Matthews in his Muster Rolls; no such Sepoys, however, at the time, being entertained, and such names or a part of them, being wholly fictitious, and inserted to defraud the Government.

4th.—That Major Matthews appropriated to himself, about the same period, the sum of Sicca Rupees 4188, or nearly to that amount, by inserting in his Muster Rolls, and drawing for the pay of about 61 Hill Sepoys, not entertained in the Corps.

5th.—That Major Matthews, by withholding from the Buglemen actually entertained, a portion of their full authorized pay, and by entertaining one less than the proper complement, and the number inserted in his Muster Rolls and Abstracts, appropriated to himself during the period of ten months ending about June 1819, the sum of Rupees 240, or nearly to that amount, out of the sum total of pay drawn by him on account of the Buglemen of his Corps.

6th.—That Major Matthews, during the period of eighteen months ending about June 1819, having on different dates discharged six classies, continued notwithstanding, their names in his Muster Rolls, and thereby appropriated, within the period mentioned, for his own benefit the sum of Rupees 619, or about that sum, drawn for by him on account of the said classies.

7th.—That Major Matthews, during the period of eighteen months ending June 1819, appropriated to his own benefit the sum of Rupees 270, or about that sum, by not entertaining, but drawing the pay of the following workmen authorized on his Establishment, viz. 1 Lohar, 1 Siculgur, and 1 Moochie, fictitious names, or the names of individuals who had filled those offices, who had died or been dismissed, continuing notwithstanding, to be inserted by Major Matthews in his Muster Rolls.

8th.—That down to the end of June 1819, Major Matthews appropriated to himself the sum of Rupees 60, or about that sum, out of the pay authorized and drawn for by him, on account of a Bazar Chowdry, by retaining monthly, a portion of the fixed salary previously to his discharging the individual who lately filled the office, and by receiving the whole salary for three months subsequently to the dismissal of that person, Major Matthews notwithstanding, still continuing to record as entertained the discharged Chowdry.

9th.—That during the period of about eighteen months, ending about June 1819, Major Matthews, under similar circumstances, and in the same way, appropriated the sum of Rupees 25 out of the authorized pay drawn for by him on account of a Bazar Mootsuddie.

10th.—That Major Matthews appropriated to himself the sum of Rupees 117, or nearly to that amount, being the amount of salary for about 13 months ending about June 1819, drawn for by him on account of three Jhunda Wallas, authorized for his Bazar Establishment, no individuals inserted as such by Major Matthews in his Muster Rolls, having been actually entertained or having received the fixed allowance.

11th.—That during the period of about eighteen months ending about June 1819, Major Matthews has occasioned, for his own fraudulent purposes, a loss to Government of Rupees 459 (being the amount over-drawn by the Surgeon of the Corps on account of his monthly allowance of 6 Annas per man), by certifying in the different monthly Bills of that person the complement of Sepoys and others attached to the Corps, as actually entertained and present, greater than it really was at the different times for which those Bills were prepared.

12th.—That Major Matthews appropriated to himself Rupees 915 9 1, or about that sum, out of the total of additional half batta due to, and by him drawn for, Detachments of his Corps employed in escorting Treasure during the months of April, May and June 1819.

13th.—That Major Matthews withheld totally the pay for June 1819, from the Sircars of his Establishment,

Upon which charges the Court came to the following decision.

FINDING AND SENTENCE.—The Court having fully considered the Evidence adduced before them, are of opinion,

With respect to the first, second and third Charges, that Major Matthews is guilty.

With respect to the fourth Charge, that Major Matthews is guilty of retaining on the Muster Rolls, during several months the names of men who had not been entertained, or who had deserted or died; but from the confused manner in which the Muster Rolls are drawn up, the Court cannot find the precise number of names and sums embezzled.

With respect to the fifth Charge, that Major Matthews is not guilty of entertaining one less than the proper complement of Buglers, but guilty of the rest of the Charge.

With respect to the sixth Charge, that Major Matthews is guilty of continuing on the Muster Rolls, fictitious names of 6 classies, and of appropriating to his own use the pay drawn for them, being about 619 Rupees.

With respect to the seventh Charge, that Major Matthews is not guilty.

With respect to the eighth and ninth Charges, that Major Matthews is guilty of retaining a part of the Bazar Chowdry's and Mootsuddie's pay up to the date of their discharge.

With respect to the tenth Charge, that Major Matthews is guilty.

With respect to the eleventh Charge, that Major Matthews is guilty of occasioning a loss to Government to the extent found on the third and fourth Charges.

With respect to the twelfth and thirteenth Charges, that Major Matthews is guilty.

The Court do therefore adjudge Major Matthews to be dismissed the Service.

Upon receiving this sentence, His Excellency The Most Noble The Commander in Chief was pleased to direct the following letter to be addressed to the Deputy Judge Advocate General conducting the trial.

To

CAPTAIN YOUNG,

Deputy Judge Advocate General.

SIR,

1.—Having submitted the Proceedings of the Court Martial on the trial of Major Matthews to The Most Noble The Commander in Chief, His Lordship has directed me to return them, that, with the communication of his sentiments, the Proceedings may be reconsidered by the Court.

2.—It appears to His Lordship, that the Court have inadvertently omitted to express their judgement on the concluding part of the 8th Charge, which embraces a distinct allegation of a specific offence, namely, "receiving "the whole salary for 3 months, subsequently to the discharge of that person (the Chowdry), Major Matthews, "notwithstanding, still continuing to record as entertained the discharged Chowdry." His Lordship conceives that the Court by confining their judgment to the first part of the Charge retaining a portion of the Chowdry's pay previously to his discharge, have not exhausted the whole charge of guilt imputed to Major Matthews, a duty required from every Court.

3.—The Court have found Major Matthews guilty of the 3d, 4th, 6th, 10th, and 11th Charges, the whole of which bring Major Matthews under the 44th Section of the Mutiny Act of the 58th of Geo. 3d, and the 3d Article of the 4th Section, entitled Musters and Furloughs, of the Articles of War, framed by its authority.

4.—By reference to the Section of the Mutiny Act, and to the Article of War, it will appear to the Court, that the adjudication of Dismissal is not the penalty the Statute enjoins. The penalty pronounced by Statute is peremptory to the very letter, and the Article of War has necessarily followed it by repeating the words to be Cashiered. Courts Martial are sworn to proceed by the Mutiny Act, as well as by the Articles of War, and having convicted Major Matthews of what this Mutiny Act has declared an offence, the judicial powers of the Court cease, and their subsequent duties are merely ministerial, in applying to the offender the penalty the law has ordained. In adjudging Major Matthews to be "Dismissed," the Court have deviated from the letter, and the spirit of the law; for, "to be Dismissed" are not the words used by the Statute, and the Articles of War; nor does the punishment, conveyed by these words, amount to the penalty of Cashiering, which superadds to Dismissal, disqualification for future employment.

5.—It may appear an ungracious duty thus exercised by His Lordship, in requiring the Court to pronounce a severer punishment than that which, it may be supposed, they have, on mature consideration, judged commensurate with the offence. But the law which binds the Court, is equally imperative on the Commander in Chief; and it would be a direliction of the high duties imposed on His Lordship, were any deference to the judgment of the Court to prevent his bringing to their consideration his view of the peremptory letter of the law, and requiring from them a sterner duty than that which they have contemplated in their Sentence on Major Matthews.

6.—It is far from His Lordship's inclination, or intention, to oppose that merciful spirit which tempers our law, and to urge severity to Judges in whom is lodged the power of pronouncing on the different shades of guilt, and if, in the present case, that power had not been denied by the strict precision with which the penalty is defined in the Mutiny Act, His Lordship would have proceeded to take into consideration the Sentence of the Court, pronounced, it is to be supposed, on mature examination of the evidence, and conveying just apportionment of punishment to guilt.—But the power of mitigation thus denied to the Court, is confided to the Commander in Chief; and if the Court are of opinion, that the more rigorous punishment, which the law enjoins to be awarded to the proved transgression without regard to circumstances, would, from any extenuating ingredients in Major Matthews's case, pass the bounds of equitable infliction, it will be for the Commander in Chief to receive and to consider the sentiments of the Court, expressed separately from their revised Sentence.

7.—His Lordship has no doubt that the Court will concur with him, that the latter part of the 8th Charge still awaits their judgment; and that, having found Major Matthews guilty according to the purview of the 3d Article of the 4th Section of the Articles of War, they are bound to pronounce the letter of the law on that Officer, whatever be their sentiments of the adequacy of the punishment they have previously adjudged him.

J. A. GENL.'s OFFICE;
PRESIDENCY OF FORT WILLIAM,
the 30th December 1819.

I have the honor, to be,
Sir,
Your obedient Servant.
(Signed) J. BRYANT,
Judge Advocate General.

In reply to which, the following letter was received from the Deputy Judge Advocate General conducting the Trial.

To
Captain J. BRYANT,
Judge Advocate General.

SIR,

1.—I am directed by the Court Martial assembled for the trial of Major Matthews, to submit to you, for the information of the Most Noble the Commander in Chief, the grounds and reasons upon which they consider that they would have been justified in adhering to their Sentence, in as much as it is, in their judgment, conformable to the spirit and letter of the Mutiny Act.

2.—It appears to the Court, that the penalty inflicted by the word Dismissal is the same in all respects with that inflicted by the word Cashiering, the two words being perfectly synonymous; and that, therefore, the use of the one or of the other, is altogether arbitrary and indifferent.

3.—In support of this opinion, the Court beg leave respectfully to refer to all Dictionaries and Books on Military Law, wherein the meaning of the two words can be explained or illustrated.—In the 30th Article of the 16th Section the text says, that the offender therein described "shall be Discharged from our Service," and the marginal summary on the same article says, that he shall be Cashiered:" importing, that the successive compilers of the Articles have in all times considered the two expressions to be equivalent. In the case of Captain Isaac Coffin, tried for false Musters, as reported by M'Arthur, the sentence was illegal because Captain Coffin, was only adjudged to "be dismissed the Ship;"—"soon after" says M'Arthur, "the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty under the "administration of Earl Howe, took into consideration the supposed lenity of this Sentence, and conceiving it was "deficient by not inflicting the punishment of Cashiering or Dismissal from His Majesty's Naval Service, agreeably "to the tenor of the 31st Article of War, under which the offence had fallen, their Lordships thought proper to "add to the punishment adjudged by the said Sentence, and accordingly effaced his name from the list of Captains, "and thereby virtually rendered him incapable of further employment in His Majesty's Service;" it is evident, that in the opinion of M'Arthur, and apparently in that of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, the Court would have complied with the letter of the law, if they had sentenced Captain Coffin to be Dismissed the Service, agreeably to the tenor of the 31st Article of War, in which, however, the word used is Cashiered; in the next page, M'Arthur says, "we find likewise, that in Military Courts Martial, the Articles of War "define the express punishment of Cashiering or Dismissal from His Majesty's Service for certain offences, "nearly similar to those enumerated in the Naval Articles, but of greater variety and extent," among these he proceeds to specify "false Musters," or signing "false Muster Rolls."

4.—It appears to the Court, that disqualification for future employment is not superadded by the mere use of the word Cashiered, if future disqualification were included in the term "Cashiered," it would not be expressed in some of the Articles as an additional penalty, and admitted in others; it is omitted in Article 2d of Section 4th, and in Article 29th of Section 16th, but in Article 3d of Section 4th, it is said, that the offender shall be "Cashiered, and suffer such other penalty as he is liable to by the Act for "punishing Mutiny and Desertion," which other penalty is expressed in the 44th Section, viz. that he shall "be displaced from such his office, and shall be thereby utterly disabled to "have or hold any Civil or Military office or employment within the United Kingdom of Great "Britain and Ireland, or in his Majesty's Service." The same disability is also expressly superadded to the penalty of being Cashiered in some of the Naval Articles, and in others it is omitted. In like manner, Courts Martial have occasionally thought it necessary to declare the disability in addition to their adjudication of Cashiering, and in other instances they have abstained from the mention of it; they declared it in the cases of Lord George Sackville and General Whitelocke, and they did not declare it in the case of Lieut. Colonel Johnstone of the New South Wales Regiment; the authority of Tytler on this point is very full and strong, he says "Cashiering" is sometimes done simpliciter, that is, without carrying in the Sentence any judgment against the offender of incapability to be restored afterwards to his military character, or with the addition of a judgment of the Court declaring the offender unworthy or unfit to serve His Majesty in any military capacity, which is the highest of the subordinate punishments that can be inflicted on a Commissioned Officer.

5.—But though for some offences as for Mutiny or misconduct in the Field, with conviction of which the Law has not inseparably connected disqualification for future employment, it may be proper expressly to assert such disqualification, yet in the case of false Musters, the Court are of opinion that it is unnecessary, because the disqualification attaches as a legal consequence of being convicted of, and Cashiered or Dismissed for, such offence, the offender being "thereby utterly disabled to have or hold, &c." according to the tenor of the 44th Section.

6.—At the same time the Court respectfully submit that the disability in question, whether expressly declared, or tacitly induced as a legal consequence, though announced as perpetual, yet being always remissible at the pleasure of the King or other competent authority, cannot be considered to constitute any real aggravation of punishment.

7.—Since the Court cannot resist the force of all these considerations, they do humbly submit that they are unconscious of having deviated from the Statute, or of having encroached on His Lordship's prerogative of mitigating punishments; nevertheless, in deference to His Lordship's judgment, the Court have substituted the word Cashiered for Dismissed, though, after mature reflection, they have been unable to recognize any difference in the signification and effect of the two words.

I have, &c.

(Signed) G. YOUNG,
Deputy Judge Advocate Genl.

BHAUGULPORE,
5th January 1820.

On the subject of the foregoing letter, His Excellency the Commander in Chief was pleased to direct the following answer to be returned to the Deputy Judge Advocate General conducting the trial, for the information of the Court.

No. 3.

CAPTAIN YOUNG,
Deputy Judge Advocate Genl.

SIR,

1.—The Proceedings of the Court Martial on the trial of Major Matthews, containing its revised Sentence, with the letter of the Court dated the 5th Instant, have been laid before The Most Noble the Commander in Chief.

2.—His Lordship has directed me to convey to you his observations on some opinions expressed by the Court, that, in the discharge of your office on future occasions, you may be in possession of His Lordship's sentiments on points of importance in the administration of military law.

3.—It is by no means His Lordship's intention that, by the remarks which follow, you are to consider yourself precluded from the fair and proper exercise of your opinion, formed from your study and research of the sentiments and practice of others; or from the expression of your individual judgment on the letter and spirit of the law and Regulations under which your official duties are discharged, but where there is a co-operative power in the infliction of punishment, it is necessary for the common exercise of justice, that the character of the penalty as understood by the authority which is to enforce it, should be clearly known to those who pronounce it, I am therefore to acquaint you, that His Lordship's construction of the words Cashiering and Dismissal are to be regarded by you, as defined in His Lordship's orders in my letter of the 30th Ultimo, and as to be collected from my present communication.

4.—On paragraph the 2d, His Lordship has directed me to express, that he cannot assent to the declaration of the Court, that the use of words perfectly synonymous, is altogether arbitrary and indifferent, when the Sentence to be pronounced is in virtue of a Statute, which has used its own words to declare its own sense.

5.—On the 3d paragraph, noticing the word Cashiering being used in the marginal summary, and the word Discharged in the text, it is only necessary to observe that the text is the sole authority. The gloss of a Copyist, or publisher, cannot qualify an article which emanates from the King, and conveys a precise sense, in strict correspondence with the words used in the Statute, for the apparent purpose of precluding any latitude of interpretation.—This remark makes it almost superfluous to notice, that the Article alluded to (the 30th of the 16th Section), is one framed by His Majesty under the general powers of the Act, and not fashioned in conformity to a special enactment in the Statute.

6.—In the case of Captain Coffin, the illegality consisted in the deviation from the Statutory penalty, the jurisdiction of the Court in this case, as in the case of Major Matthews, originated in the Statute under whose provisions he came. The Court were bound to adhere to the letter, their Sentence was at variance with it. This was the foundation of the opinion of the Judges, though notions merely of its improper lenity may, or may not have influenced the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.

7.—The remaining part of the paragraph has no reference to the Mutiny Act which dictates the Sentence on Major Matthews; but it may be observed, that the Court's construction of their quotation to establish that the words "Cashiering or Dismissal" thus used, imply the writer's opinion that they have the same signification, must lead further than the Court contemplate, for among the examples immediately given, by the writer, of "Chashiering or Dismissal" are found to be "Discharged," to be "Displaced," it is obvious therefore, that the four words are thus accepted by the writer as conveying the same penalty. The Court would consequently be betrayed into the error of representing "to Cashier," as a term simply synonymous with "to Discharge or Displace," did it adopt the construction of the person on whose authority it is inclined to repose itself.

8.—In the fourth paragraph, the Court declare their opinion, that disqualification is not involved in the mere use of the word, Cashiered. It is difficult to say how this is to be maintained, when the 44th Section of the Mutiny Act appears not to have enacted a further penalty additional to Cashiering in the case under provision, but declares the effect and consequence of such Cashiering. A lax employment of the word "Cashier" instead of "Dismissal," by any authors, cannot effect an inference so strong as the above consideration presents; even were it to be overlooked, that the 4th and 5th Articles of the 8th Section apply the different penalties of Dismissal and Cashiering to lighter or more serious degrees of the same offence.

9.—In the observations, quoted in the concluding part of the paragraph now under review, Cashiering is evidently considered by the writer in its general vague sense of annihilating the bond of the Soldier to the Service; yet the enumeration of the several modes by which that separation is effected does not deny, though it does not specify, the character conferred on Cashiering by the Statute.

10.—On the 5th paragraph of the Court's letter, I am directed to observe, that it must be every where understood, that Cashiering does not always induce disqualification, for the King has the power to Cashier any Officer in his Service without the same incapacitations being annexed to such an exertion of His Majesty's pleasure, as is attached to the graver military offences contemplated by the Act of Parliament. But this obviously refers to the mere judgment of the King on the fitness of his Servant; and it is the exercise of his prerogative to discharge any Servant from his employ, with, doubtless the right of re-employing him whenever, in the Royal judgment, that unfitness no longer exists. In the case, however, before the Court, Cashiering assumes its character from the Statute which defines it, indeed, the Court now distinctly declare that Cashiering for false Musters has the legal consequence of disqualification; and the passage connected to Cashiering by "thereby," which hitherto has been declared by the Court to carry additional penalty to Cashiering, namely disqualification, is in this instance, accepted by the Court, as merely definitive of the necessary effect of the previously pronounced word.

11.—Yet with this full and distinct expression of the Court, they still support the propriety of their first Sentence of Dismissal, to which no such legal consequence does, by the letter of the Statute, attach.

12.—In the assertion of the Court, that Dismissal for false Musters equally embraces a legal disqualification, His Lordship is induced to accept that the word moral was intended to be expressed by the Court, for "thereby disabled" does not follow the word Dismissal, in the Section of the Mutiny Act, or in the sense of any one article of the Articles of War, under which the Court could have contemplated the offence of Major Matthews. It would be a questionable assumption of authority which should pronounce incapacitation as following a Sentence of Dismissal for false Musters; and the intention of the law would be left incomplete.

13.—On the 6th paragraph, His Lordship may not accurately embrace the sense intended to be conveyed by the Court; but if it mean, that supplying the full penalty, because it is remissible, is not an aggravation of the minor punishment first pronounced, and that a moral conviction existed that the full penalty would not be inflicted to the letter, His Lordship dissents entirely from the Court. He accepts the Sentence now pronounced in its revised shape, as a positive aggravation of punishment, and holds any contemplation of equity or mercy dictating its remission, as resting on the sole judgment and act of the Commander in Chief; nor does His Lordship consider any Court whatever permitted to renounce the right which the King and the Public have in the due application of the law to an offender, merely from their own notions of its injustice, or severity, much less could he admit the latitude, if it proceeded from any conception of inutility of the provision grounded on supposed feelings in another quarter according with their own, and dictating that equity or mercy, which the Court, by this act, deny to the only competent expression of it. The law of Treason directs the mutilation of the body, and what Judge would omit in the Sentence he pronounces this express ordination, because he knows it will not be executed.

14.—The Court's letter concludes with the reception of their conviction, that the words Dismissed and Cashiered have no difference in their signification and effect. It will be for His Lordship to consider how he can best reconcile justice to the Public, and to the Prisoner, with this commentary of the Court on their own Sentence.

REVISED SENTENCE.—"The Court having in obedience to the orders of the Most Noble the Commander "in Chief, re-considered their Proceedings, adhere to their finding on all the Charges; and with respect "to the eighth Charge, having found Major Matthews guilty of retaining a part of the Bazar Chowdry's "pay, they acquit him of the latter part of the Charge.

"The Court do now adjudge Major Matthews to be Cashiered, though they cannot divest themselves "of an opinion, that their present adjudication essentially coincides in all respects with their former one.

Remarks and observations by His Excellency the Most Noble the Commander in Chief.

The Commander in Chief has deemed it necessary that the letters relative to the Sentence passed on Major Matthews, should be made public for the information of the Army on a point of much importance in the military administration of justice. A misconception respecting the comparative effect of the terms "Cashiering" and "Dismissal" might entail, on the one hand, a judgment not consonant to the provisions of the Mutiny Act, or on the other, an infliction upon the Prisoner beyond the purpose of the Court. Although these terms may be used as synonymous in common parlance, and even were the distinction between them less clearly marked by the Articles of War than the Commander in Chief apprehends it to be, an established construction in England makes a discrimination in their import, which might bear heavily on an Officer against whom Cashiering was awarded by his Judges without their intending to subject the individual to the extensive disadvantages which it would practically involve.

As to the case of Major Matthews, the Commander in Chief fulfilled a painful duty, when he called on the Court to go beyond their original Sentence, and to pronounce that severe decision which he thought imperatively required by the Law. He feels that he has thereby satisfied the enactment of the Legislature in holding forth the consequences of the delinquency which has been substantiated against Major Matthews; and he can have no disposition to enforce the full penalty. While he is confident there was not a particle of foundation for the plea advanced by Major Matthews, that he acted according to precedent in drawing pay for the complete establishment of the Corps, tho' they were severally short of their numbers, and for making the stoppages enumerated in the charges, His Lordship collects from the Proceedings of the trial circumstances which afford a degree of extenuation. It is evident that, on assuming the command of the Hill Rangers, Major Matthews recurred to the Sircar, and to the Serjeant Major for guidance as to his procedures. The Corps was of an anomalous nature, and strictly fashioned according to the Regulations of the Army, being at the same time allotted to the Police of the District under Civil authority; and it may be believed that, as certain allowances assigned for furnishing particular conveniences to Local Corps on the ordinary establishment, were not extended to the Hill Rangers on an equal scale, Major Matthews might be in some extent misled by the persons abovementioned to consider these irregular sources of accumulation admissible towards collecting a Fund for providing more competently, the objects in question. This supposition is strengthened by the fact that the Sircar never disclosed the circumstance, till he found that he and the Serjeant Major were not to participate in the sums so obtained, while, however, the Commander in Chief seeks to bring forward every palliation which the evidence recorded in the Proceedings can afford, His Lordship must still consider the conduct of Major Matthews, as having been decidedly culpable. Tho' it is proved that he did apply to the public purposes of the Corps a portion of the money illicitly collected by him, he converted to his own use a large balance. The retention of this he attempted to justify as a legitimate perquisite, whereas the pointed interdicts which have been repeatedly issued in the Honorable Company's Army, against the receipt of any species of perquisite, (even when not tainted with the infraction of law which attends the one under review), unequivocally condemned and forbad such an appropriation. Moreover, had the whole amount been expended for the convenience of the Corps, the mode of raising the Fund led so obviously to abuse, that it was the indispensable duty of Major Matthews to represent to Government the irregularity of the practice which he was told existed in the Corps, and to solicit, that the deficiency in due provision, for the comfort of the Hill Rangers, might be remedied.

On these grounds, the Commander in Chief remits the penalty of being Cashiered; but His Lordship must hold it unfit that Major Matthews should remain in the active line of the Army, and the expedience of removing that Officer to the Pension List will be submitted to the consideration of Council.

As it appears that Serjeant Major Morley wilfully connived at, if he did not actively encourage, the irregularities, the Commander in Chief is pleased to order his being displaced from his situation in the Hill Rangers.

By Command.

Remarks by the Commander in Chief.

The subject of the above Court Martial is a young man, who from motives of consideration for the merit of his father was placed, it seems too early, in a situation, which requires a more approved steadiness of conduct.

In the career he has now to enter upon, His Excellency trusts that Thomas Hannah will prove himself deserving of the favor of his superiors on his own merits.

GENERAL ORDERS,

HEAD QUARTERS:

CHOULTRY PLAIN, 15*th April* 1820.

G. O. By the Commander in Chief.

Colonel R. Scot, C. B. of the Madras European Regiment, having been appointed to Command the Cantonment of Secundrabad, is relieved from the Prize Committee assembled at the Presidency.

Lieutenant E. Macpherson of the 21st Regiment, is directed to continue to do duty with the Corps of Pioneers until relieved.

The Commander in Chief performs a gratifying duty by expressing his approbation in General Orders, of the distinguished zeal and unremitting attention evinced by Captain G. M. Stewart, Commanding 2d Extra Battalion, Captain Nixon, Commanding 4th Extra Battalion, and Captain Baker, Commanding the 5th Extra Battalion. These Officers have in a few months recruited and disciplined their respective Battalions in so satisfactory a manner, as to call forth the unqualified praise of Officers Commanding Divisions who have inspected and reported to Head Quarters, that the interior economy as well as precision in the Field Movements of these Battalions, is not inferior to old and long established Corps.

Great praise is also due to the exertions of Captain Charlesworth, who Commanded the 1st Extra Battalion, and subsequently to Lieutenant Rickard the Adjutant, who succeeded to the charge on Captain Charlesworth's services being required with his Corps in advance, Lieutenant Rickard's indefatigable zeal was most praiseworthy, and contributed in a great degree to the efficient and highly disciplined state in which the Corps was found on being inspected by the Officer Commanding the Ceded Districts.

Major General Dyce's report of the zeal and well directed ability which Lieutenant Wright the Adjutant of the 2d Extra Battalion employed in discharging his duties, is most creditable to the character of that Officer, and entitles him to the approbation of the Commander in Chief.

Assistant Surgeon G. B. Macdonald, is placed under the orders of the Superintending Surgeon with the Hydrabad Subsidiary Force.

Conductor J. Lafond is removed from Colonel Pritzler's Field Force in the Doab, and posted to the Arsenal at Trichinopoly.

Conductor J. Cunningham is posted to the Field Force in the Doab.

Private George Adie of the Madras European Regiment, is transferred to the Effective Supernumeraries, promoted to Serjeant, and appointed Quarter Master Serjeant to the 1st Battalion 24th Regiment.

The leave of absence granted to Major Andrews of the Madras European Regiment in General Orders of the 20th March last, is cancelled at that Officer's request.

The appointment by Major General Doveton, C. B. late Commanding the Hydrabad Subsidiary Force, of Corporal Nicholas Bergean of the 2d Battalion Artillery to act as Line Serjeant to that Force from the 1st of April 1820, and until relieved, is confirmed.

G. O. BY GOVERNMENT.

Referring to the G. O. by Government dated the 11th of January 1811, and 4th of February 1812, The Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to direct, that the following revised Regulation regarding the issue of Grain to Troops and Public Followers, on actual Field Service, shall have effect from the 1st of July next.

The issues of Grain to the Troops and Public Followers, in the Field, for payment, will continue to be made according to the provisions of Section XI of the Commissariat Regulations, as corrected by the G. O. of the 21st of January and 4th of February 1812, and 30th of April 1813, and when it may be deemed more advisable, the daily issues of half a seer per man per day, will be made gratis from the Public Stock in Camp, at the discretion of Commanding Officers, as directed by the G. O. of the 11th of January 1811, it being always understood, that such issues are only to be made on cases of absolute emergency.

But as it is of extreme importance to diminish as much as possible the number of hired Carriage Cattle on Field Service, and to encourage the Troops and Public Followers to subsist themselves from the Bazars, without issues from the Public Stock maintained in the Grain Department in Camp, which stock should always be considered as being kept in reserve to meet the exigencies of the Service, in cases of emergency, as above alluded to, compensation in money, in lieu of rice will be paid to the Troops and Followers in the Field, agreeably to the concluding paragraph of G. O. of the 5th of October 1813, that compensation being paid for the full allowance of one seer per man per day, for Troops and Followers alike, whenever the market price of the 3d sort of country Rice shall exceed (Pagodas 106 30 0) Madras Rupees 373 5 4 per Madras Garce.

FORT ST. GEORGE, 20*th June* 1820.

G. O. BY GOVERNMENT.

The following Clauses, Cap. 155 of the 53d George III, are published for the information of the Army.

CV. "And whereas His Majesty's British subjects resident in the British Territories in India without the Towns of Calcutta, Madras, and the Town and Island of Bombay, are now by Law subject only to the Jurisdiction of His Majesty's Courts at Calcutta, Madras and Bombay respectively, and are exempted from the Jurisdiction of the Courts established by the said United Company within the said Territories, to which all other Persons, whether Natives or others, Inhabitants in the said Territories without the limits of the Towns aforesaid are amenable:—And whereas it is expedient to provide more effectual redress for the Native Inhabitants of the said Territories, as well in the case of assault, forcible entry or other injury accompanied with force, which may be committed by British subjects at a distance from the Places where His Majesty's Courts are established, as in case of Civil controversies with such British subjects, be it therefore enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for any Native of India resident in the East Indies, or parts aforesaid, and without the said Towns, in case of any assault, forcible entry, or other injury accompanied with force, alleged to have been done against his person or property by a British subject, to complain of such assault, forcible entry or other injury accompanied with force, not being felony, to the Magistrate of the Zillah or District where the alleged offender shall be resident, or in which such offence shall have been committed; and that such Magistrate shall have power and authority, at the instance of the person so complaining, to take cognizance of such complaint, to hear parties, to examine witnesses, and having taken in writing the substance of the complaint, defence and evidence, to acquit or convict the person accused; and in case of conviction, to inflict upon such person a suitable punishment, by fine, not exceeding five hundred Rupees, to be levied in case of non-payment by warrant under the hand of the said Magistrate, and upon any property of the party so convicted, which may be found within the said District, and if no such property shall be found within the said District, then it shall be lawful for the said Magistrate by warrant, also under his hand, to commit such offender to some place of confinement within the said Zillah or District, which in the judgment of the said Magistrate, shall be fit for receiving such offender, or if there shall be no fit place of confinement, then to the Gaol of the Presidency, to remain there for a period not exceeding two months, unless such fine shall be sooner paid, and it shall be lawful for the said Magistrate to award the whole or any portion of such fine to the party aggrieved, by way of satisfaction for such injury: Provided always, that in all cases of conviction of a British subject under the Provision herein before contained, the Magistrate before whom such conviction shall take place shall forthwith transmit copies of such conviction, and of all depositions and other proceedings relative thereto, to the Government to which the place wherein the offence was committed is or shall be subordinate: Provided also that all such fines shall be paid in the first instance to the Magistrate, before whom the party offending shall be convicted, and the amount thereof after making such satisfaction to the party aggrieved, as aforesaid, if any shall be transmitted by such Magistrate to the Clerk of the Crown, or other Officer to whom it belongs, to receive Fines in His Majesty's Court of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery, for the Province within which the offence shall have been committed, and such fines shall and may be disposed of, in the same manner as other fines imposed by such Court of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery, provided also, that all such convictions shall and may be removable by writ of Certiorari into the said Courts of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery respectively, in the same manner, and upon the same terms and conditions, and shall be proceeded upon in the same manner in every respect as is directed in the said Act of the Thirty third year of His Majesty's Reign, with regard to other convictions before Justices of Peace in the British Settlement or Territories in India: Provided also, that nothing herein contained, shall extend or be construed to extend to prevent such Magistrate from committing or holding to bail any British subject charged with any such offence before him in the same manner as such British subjects might have been committed or holden to bail if this Act had not been passed, where the offence charged shall appear to such Magistrate to be of so aggravated a nature, as to be a fit subject for Prosecution in any of His Majesty's Courts to which such British subject may be amenable.

CVI. And be it further enacted, that in all cases of debt not exceeding the sum of Fifty Rupees, alleged to be due from any British subjects to any Native of India, Resident in the East Indies, or parts aforesaid, and without the Jurisdiction of the several Courts of Request established at Calcutta, Madras and Bombay respectively, it shall and may be lawful for the Magistrate of the Zillah or District where such British subject shall be resident, or in which such debt shall have been contracted, to take cognizance of all such debts, and to examine witnesses upon oath, and in a summary way to decide between the parties, which decision shall be final and conclusive to all intents and purposes, and in all cases where any such debt shall be found to be due from any British subject to any such Native of India, the amount thereof shall and may be levied in the same manner, and subject to the same Regulations and Provisions, in respect to the commitment of the debtor, as are herein before made and provided, in respect to the levying fines in case of the conviction of a British subject before such Magistrate.

CVII. And be it further enacted, that all British subjects of His Majesty, as well the Servants of the said United Company as others who shall reside, or shall carry on trade or other business, or shall be in the occupation or possession of any immoveable property in any part of the British Territories in India at the distance of more than ten miles from the several Presidencies of Fort William, Fort St. George, and Bombay respectively, shall be subject to the Jurisdiction of all Courts, which now have, or hereafter may have cognizance of Civil suits or matters of Revenue, either originally or by way of appeal, within the Districts or places where such British subjects shall so reside or carry on trade or business, or possess or occupy immoveable Property, in all actions and proceedings of a Civil nature, and in all matters of Revenue (except as herein after excepted) in the like manner as Natives of India and other persons not British subjects, are now liable to the Jurisdiction of such Courts by and under the Regulations of the several Governments of Fort William, Fort St. George, and Bombay respectively: Provided always, that no British Subject shall be liable to be sued in any such Court in respect of residence, unless he shall have his residence within the Jurisdiction thereof, at the time of commencing the action or proceeding against him; or that the cause of suit shall have arisen within the Jurisdiction of the said Court, and the suit shall be commenced within two years after the cause thereof shall have arisen, and also within six months after the defendant shall have ceased to reside within such Jurisdiction; nor shall any British subject be liable to be sued in any such Court in respect of his carrying on trade or business within the Jurisdiction thereof, unless the cause of suit shall have arisen within such Jurisdiction, and shall relate to the trade or business so carried on, nor to be sued in respect of any immoveable property possessed or occupied by him unless such property shall be situated within the Jurisdiction of the Court in which he shall be so sued, and such suit shall be brought to recover the possession or occupation of such property, or for rent, or other demand arising out of the possession or occupation of such property, by such British subject, provided also, that where by the Laws or Regulations in force, or hereafter to be in force within the Provinces respectively, subject to the Governments of Fort William, Fort St. George and Bombay aforesaid, it would be competent to a party to any final judgment or decree of any subordinate, Civil, or Revenue Court of Judicature to appeal therefrom to the Sudder Dewanny Adawlut or other Court however denominated, exercising within those Provinces respectively, the highest appellate Jurisdiction in Civil suits, it shall be competent to British subjects of His Majesty, in suits commenced against them under the Provisions of this Act, instead of appealing to the said Sudder Dewanny Adawlut or other Court, so exercising the highest apellate Jurisdiction as aforesaid, to appeal to the Supreme Court of Judicature at Fort William or Fort St. George, or the Recorder's Court at Bombay, according as the suit may have been commenced in the Provinces subordinate to either of the said Presidencies, and such Court shall have the same powers as to suspending or allowing execution of the judgment or decree appealed against, and as to taking security for Costs, or for the performance of the decree or judgment of the said subordinate Courts as the said Sudder Dewanny Adawlut or other such Court as aforesaid, would have had, and shall also make rules of practice for the conduct of the said appeals in all other respects conforming in substance and effect as nearly as possible to the course of procedure of the said Sudder Dewanny Adawlut, or other such Courts as aforesaid, in cases of appeal: Provided also, that nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend to take away the Jurisdiction of the said Supreme Courts of Judicature at Fort William, and Madras, or the said Recorder's Court at Bombay respectively, but that all persons having cause of action against any British subject, may at their election instead of suing in such Provincial Courts as herein before provided, commence and prosecute their said suits in the said Supreme Courts of Judicature and the said Recorder's Court respectively, in the same manner as before the passing of this Act: Provided also, that nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend to authorize the holding or occupying of any Land or other immoveable Property, beyond the limits of the said several Presidencies, by any British subject of His Majesty, otherwise than under and according to the permission of the Governments of the said Presidencies.

CXIII. And whereas it is expedient that the Sudder Dewanny Adawlut and Nizamut Adawlut or other provincial Courts however denominated, exercising the highest Jurisdiction within the Provinces respectively subject to the Governments of Fort William, Fort Saint George, and Bombay, should have power and authority to execute process of arrest either Civil or Criminal, within the Towns of Calcutta and Madras, and the Town and Island of Bombay, notwithstanding the Jurisdiction of His Majesty's Courts established at those places respectively; be it therefore enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the said Court of Sudder Dewanny and Nizamut Adawlut, or other Provincial Courts aforesaid, to execute or cause to be executed upon all persons subject to the Jurisdiction of such Courts respectively, all manner of lawful process of Arrest within the respective limits of the Towns of Calcutta and Madras, and of the Town and Island of Bombay, in the same manner as the said Courts respectively may by virtue of any power now vested, or hereafter to be vested in them lawfully execute or cause to be executed, such process in any place situate without the said limits, any Act, Charter, or other matter or thing whatsoever to the contrary, notwithstanding: Provided always, that all such process which shall be executed within the limits aforesaid, shall be in writing, and shall have underwritten or indorsed thereon, or otherwise annexed thereto a translation thereof or of the substance thereof in the English Language and character, signed by one of the Judges of the Court, from whence the same shall issue.

That part of the Dress Uniform established for the Corps of Engineers, viz. Jacket and Chacko is only to be worn by Officers attached to the Sappers and Miners, the other Officers of the Engineer Corps will wear the plain Coat, Cocked Hat, with Regulation Feather and laced loop as their Dress Uniform, with the other particulars of Dress described under that head in page 5995, in the General Orders of 1st June.

GENERAL ORDERS,

HEAD QUARTERS:

CHOULTRY PLAIN, 1st August 1820.

The Honorable the Governor in Council having addressed the subjoined Orders to His Excellency the Commander in Chief, to be published to the Army, they are accordingly published in Military Orders.

FORT ST. GEORGE, 18*th July* 1820.

GENERAL ORDERS BY THE HONORABLE THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

To obviate, as far as practicable, the extreme inconvenience to which Cadets are liable, on their first arrival in India, the Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to resolve, that an Officer shall be appointed under the immediate orders of the Town Major, with a monthly salary of two hundred Rupees, to receive charge of all Cadets arriving at the Presidency, and retain command of them, until they proceed, under orders from His Excellency the Commander in Chief, to join a Regiment.

It will be the special duty of this Officer to supply Cadets with Servants, to see that they are settled in quarters, and generally to protect them from the extortion and impositions of Native Agents.

On the arrival of a vessel from England, this Officer will be immediately apprized of it, and of the number of Cadets on board, if any, in order that suitable arrangements may be made for their reception.

A set of Mess and Table Furniture, sufficient for 20 Cadets, will in the first instance, be procured by the Officer in charge, and paid for by Government, the stock being subsequently kept up, as hereafter directed, at the expense of Gentlemen deriving the benefit of the Mess.

An estimate of the probable expense of such permanent Mess Servants as may be absolutely required to be constantly retained in pay, will be submitted through the Town Major, by the Officer in charge, for the consideration and sanction of Government.

The Officer in charge shall consider it his duty to dine daily with the Cadets, and Breakfast with them, at least twice a week, for the purpose of keeping up that perfect regularity so essential to Mess Institutions, and in order to enable him to assist the Gentlemen Cadets in procuring Servants and such articles as may be necessary for their immediate comfort, the Presidency Paymaster is hereby authorized to advance Two Hundred Rupees on account of each Cadet, on the receipt of the Officer in charge, accompanied by a Certificate of arrival from the Town Major—this advance to be separately accounted for to each Individual, and any balance remaining, to be finally made over on his quitting the Mess, the total advance being ultimately deducted in Monthly Instalments of 50 Rupees, by the Paymaster of the Division, within whose circle the Corps to which Cadets are attached may be respectively situated.

The Mess accounts and all details connected therewith, will be finally closed on each Party proceeding to join their Corps, and in addition to the actual expense incurred for Messing, a deduction not exceeding 10 Rupees shall be made from each Cadet, on his leaving the Mess, to form a fund to meet such expenses as may occur from breakage, losses, &c.

A set of Quarters and out-offices will be allotted for the permanent accommodation of the Cadets' Mess.

The above arrangements being made with the sole view of assisting Cadets on their first arrival in India, it will be entirely optional with them to avail themselves of it, and it is hereby intimated, that those who may have friends in Madras, are not required to join the Mess.

Extract from the Proceedings of a Native General Court Martial, directed to assemble at Sumbhulpore on Thursday the 1st of June 1820, in pursuance of a warrant received under the hand and seal of His Excellency The Commander in Chief, for the trial of Emaum Buksh Khan, late Nuggarchee of the 1st Rassellah of Ramgur Frontier Horse.

CRIME.—Emaum Buksh Khan, late Nuggarchee of the 1st Rassellah of Ramgur Frontier Horse, charged with murder, in wilfully and maliciously shooting to death, with a ball from a Pistol, between the hours of six and eight of the evening of the 2d of May 1819, in the bed of the River Maha Nudder, opposite the Fort of Shumbhulpore, a Woman named Choohun, the daughter of Mudara Shah Faqueer.

Sumbhulpore, 29th May 1820

(Signed) E. ROUGHSEDGE, Major,

FINDING of the COURT.—The Court after the most mature deliberation on the evidence given in support of the prosecution, together with what the Prisoner has said in his defence, finds him guilty of that part of the Charge, viz.—For having shot to death with a ball from a Pistol, between the hours of six and eight of the evening of the second of May 1819, in the bed of the River Maha Nuddee, opposite the Fort of Sumbhulpore, the daughter of Mudara Shah Faqueer.—But the Court acquits the Prisoner in having wilfully and maliciously done so.

Remarks by His Excellency the Commander in Chief.

The Commander in Chief entirely disapproves the above Sentence.

The Prisoner Emaum Buksh Khan, was charged on circumstances furnishing strong suspicion with having deliberately murdered the Woman who lived with him.

The inference from those circumstances was, that he killed her to prevent her surviving him when he had determined to put himself to death, tho' his heart failed him at the latter purpose, and he did not carry it effectually into execution.

Against those particulars which seemed to fix the crime directly on the Prisoner, there is not a tittle of evidence adduced beyond his own assertion.—He states, that having resolved to put an end to himself he went to the bed of the River with that object, that the Woman suspecting his intention followed him silently and unperceived, lastly that in his preparing to use the Pistol against himself she suddenly seized it, which turned the muzzle towards her, and by the Pistols going off in the struggle she was accidentally killed.

The points of the defence are thus rebutted, by the pregnant fact of the Prisoner's having taken two ball cartridges with him, by the testimony of Peer Khan first witness for the prosecution, who swears that he saw the deceased walking towards the river about forty paces in front of the Prisoner, and of course in his view; by the testimony of Shaick Ainodeen second witness for the prosecution, who deposes that he heard Jemadar Mahomed Khan (since dead), ask the Prisoner where his Woman was, to which question Emaum Buksh answered that he had shot her, and that she was lying in the bed of the River.—The Commander in Chief is utterly at a loss how to reconcile to such evidence the finding of the Court that the Prisoner had not wilfully and maliciously shot the deceased.

Supposing the above conclusion of the Court to have been borne out by what appears on the Proceedings, then the sentence would be altogether inapposite. Six years imprisonment for an unintentional homicide, is a punishment too extravagant to admit a moment's countenance.

The finding on the charge of murder being an acquittal, the Commander in Chief will not direct the Court to revise its opinion. In other respects he must consider the Proceedings as too incorrect to have any validity attached to them; therefore the Commander in Chief orders the Prisoner Emaum Buksh to be liberated, but forbids his being retained in the Service or being re-admitted on any future occasion.

By Command.

GENERAL ORDERS,

HEAD QUARTERS:

CHOULTRY PLAIN, 30th August 1820.

G. O. By the Commander in Chief.

His Excellency The Commander in Chief has directed the following General Order issued from the Horse Guards to be entered in the Standing Orders of the Army serving under this Presidency, and to enjoin Officers in Command to cause the same to be strictly obeyed.

'HORSE GUARDS,
'18th January 1810.

'GENERAL ORDER.

'The Commander in Chief has directed the following Order issued by the General Officer Commanding His 'Majesty's Forces in North America, to be inserted in the General Orders of the Army.'

"GENERAL ORDER. "QUEBEC, 4th October 1809.

"The Commander of the Forces has lately had occasion to see in a Halifax Newspaper a Copy of an Address "presented by the Serjeants of the 1st Battalion Royal Fuzileers to Captain Orr, on that Officer relinquishing "the Adjutancy in consequence of being promoted to a Company.—So novel a circumstance could not fail to "draw the attention of His Excellency, it being the first of the kind that has come to his knowledge during the "Forty-six Years that he has been in the Service, and as the first instance has thus (so far as he is aware at "least,) occurred on the part of the Army, with the charge of which the King has been pleased to entrust him, "he feels himself called on by every obligation of duty to His Majesty and the Service, to bear his testimony "against it by a public expression of disapprobation.

"His Excellency does not mean in this instance to ascribe any improper motive to the Serjeants—He has no "doubt that their sole view was to express their regard and gratitude towards an Officer, who, in the intimate "connexion that had officially subsisted between them, had very commendably conducted himself with kindness "to them without departing from that strictness of discipline which was indispensable to the discharge of his "duty.

"But while His Excellency thus does justice to the intention of the Serjeants of the Royal Fuzileers, he desires "at the same time very seriously to observe to them, that in presuming to meet, in order to diliberate on the "conduct of their superior Officer, they have in fact, however unintentionally, been guilty of an act of great "insubordination.

"It matters not that the design of the Meeting, or in whatever manner the address was unanimously assented "to, was solely to express their respect and esteem, the very circumstance implies discussion, and by that "discussion they rendered themselves obnoxious to the imputation alluded to—Who indeed, shall say where "such a practice, if once introduced, shall end; if the Non-Commissioned Officers of a Regiment are permitted "to express their approbation of the conduct of the Adjutant, why may they not exercise the same right with "respect to their Commanding Officer; or what reason can be given why they should not be equally entitled "to express their disapprobation? Indeed should the practice become general, the merely withholding the "former would imply the latter.

"General Sir James Craig is the more desirous that his sentiments on this subject should be distinctly un-"derstood in the Fuzileers; because it appears on the face of the address of the Serjeants in question, that it has "been countenanced by the Officer who then commanded the Regiment. The Commander of the Forces does "no more than justice to the character and services of that Officer when he admits, that feeling as he does the "dangerous tendency of the practice which he is censuring, he also feels himself the more bound to oppose it, in "the first instance, from the strength which it might otherwise derive from the sanction which he appears to have "given to it.—Lieutenant Colonel Pankenham will however believe—that though it was impossible the General "should avoid the observation upon his error, yet his doing so can by no means detract from the esteem with "which he has been taught to view his character as an Officer, or the confidence which he should be disposed "to place in his Service."

"(Signed) EDWARD BAYNES,
"Adjutant General to the British Army serving in North America."

'The reason for which the Commander in Chief has directed the circulation of this Order, is that he may 'avail himself of this opportunity of declaring to the Army his most perfect concurrence in the sentiments therein 'expressed by the distinguished and experienced Officer by whom it was framed, on a subject which appears to 'have been by some very much misunderstood.—The circumstance of inferiors of any class of military men 'assembling for the purpose of bestowing praise and public marks of approbation on their superiors, implies a 'power of deliberation on their conduct which belongs to the King alone, or to those Officers to to whom His 'Majesty may be pleased to entrust the command and discipline of his Troops.

'It is a procedure equally objectionable whether in the higher or lower ranks of the Army, and as the 'Commander in Chief cannot but regard it as in principle subversive of all military discipline, he trusts it is a 'practice which will be for ever banished from the British Service, as deserving of the highest censure, and he 'directs Officers in command, to act accordingly.

By Command of the Right Honorable the Commander in Chief.

Adjutant General.

CHOULTRY PLAIN, 10*th October* 1820.

G. O. By the Commander in Chief.

Extract from the Proceedings of a Native General Court Martial held at Saugor on Wednesday the twenty-fourth day of May 1820, by order and in virtue of a warrant under the hand and seal of Major General Charles Stuart, Commanding Saugor Field Force, bearing date the twenty second day of May 1820, being thereunto authorized by a warrant from His Excellency The Most Noble The Marquess of Hastings, Commander in Chief of all the Forces in India, bearing date the twenty ninth day of April 1820, for the Trial of Itcher Sing, Sepoy 2d Battalion 1st Regiment Native Infantry, and such Prisoners as may be brought before it.

President.—Gopaul Sing, Subadar Major, 2d Bat. 9th Regt.
Judge Advocate.—Lieut. H. S. Reid, 2d Bat. 17th Regt. N. I.
Interpreter.—Lieutenant Drummond, 2d Bat. 3d Regt. N. I.

CRIME.—Itcher Sing, Sepoy 2d Battalion 1st Native Infantry, confined on the following charge.

For having on or about the 15th November last, at Hattah, taken away, and appropriated to his own use a Bag of Money belonging to the State, amounting to about two thousand five hundred and forty Rupees, while he was on duty, as one of the Guard placed for the protection of the Public Treasure, of which the above sum was a part.

Remarks by His Excellency The Most Noble The Commander in Chief.

The Commander in Chief is of opinion that the Court has not duly weighed the aggravation which the theft committed by the Prisoner received from his having been one of the Guard under whose protection the Treasure was placed. A sentence of a more severe nature would have better suited the crime; nevertheless, The Commander in Chief confirms the present sentence, ordering the punishment to be inflicted at such time and in such proportion as the Officer Commanding at the Station may think fit. The Prisoner Itcher Sing is afterwards to be turned out of the Service.

By Command.

G. and G. C. B. &c. &c. &c. Commander in Chief of all the Forces in India, dated 5th Instant.

CHARGES against Lieutenant William Senior, of the 20th Regiment Bengal Native Infantry.

1st.—With breach of his arrest, and conduct disgraceful to an Officer and a Gentleman in having been found on the afternoon of the 2d of November 1819, in a most indecent state, nearly naked on the high road or open plain near the General Hospital at the Presidency.

2d.—For subjecting himself to the degradation of having been seized by the Police Officers, as a public nuisance on the 2d of November 1819, and of being confined in the Congee House of the General Hospital; such conduct being disgraceful to an Officer and a Gentleman.

Military Secretary.

Remarks by His Excellency The Most Noble The Commander in Chief.

The Commander in Chief confirms the above sentence, as it is an acquittal: But his Lordship feels himself under the necessity of remarking a grave error in a particular decision of the Court. The Prisoner having rested his defence on his being insane when he committed the indecency for which he was brought to trial, the Officiating Judge Advocate desired leave to rebut that plea by bringing witnesses to prove that such insanity did not arise from accidental illness, but was the consequence of the Prisoner's indulgence in strong Liquors, a consequence asserted to have been repeatedly experienced by the Prisoner without its restraining him in his unhappy propensity. The Court in over-ruling the proposal of the Officiating Judge Advocate, who had not felt himself at liberty to anticipate such a defence, evidently overlooked the legal difference of influence on the case between a derangement ascribable to constitutional malady and one which (had the Officiating Judge Advocate substantiated his point), was to be considered as wilfully and culpably incurred by the Prisoner.

Military Secretary.

Extract from the Proceedings of an European General Court Martial, consisting of a President and fourteen Members, assembled at Neemuch, at 10 A. M. on the 17th May A. Hawtrey, Commanding the Corps, for conduct highly unmilitary and insubordinate, as exhibited in the following Charges preferred against him (the said Serjeant Major Robert Gibson) by Mr. Riding Master C. T. Davis of the same Regiment, viz.

1st—For having come to my quarters at Neemuch, between the hours of one and two of the afternoon of the 11th Instant, and calling me out to fight him, (Serjeant Major Gibson,) or words to that effect.

2d.—For having on the evening of the 11th Instant, called me by the appellation of a Cooley and a shop boy; and stating to the Quarter Master Serjeant of the Horse Brigade, that he (Serjeant Major Gibson) would report me to the Adjutant, and that he (Serjeant Major Gibson) would keep me to my trumps and annoy me by every means in his power, or words to that effect.

3d.—For having on the morning of the 12th Instant, in the verandah of the Bungalow of the Quarter Master Serjeant, and in presence of the Serjeant Major and Quarter Master Serjeant of the Horse Brigade, called me a spiteful rascal and a cooley, or words to that effect.

FINDING AND SENTENCE.—The Court having deliberated on the evidence for the prosecution, on the defence, and on the evidence adduced in support thereof, find the prisoner, Serjeant Major Robert Gibson of the 4th Regiment Light Cavalry, guilty of the first Charge.

The Court acquit the prisoner of the second Charge.

On the third Charge the Court acquit the Prisoner of having "called me a spiteful rascal and a cooley," but find him guilty of having used the terms spiteful, and cooley looking rascal, in the presence of the Serjeant Major and Quarter Master Serjeant of the Horse Brigade, when speaking of the prosecutor Mr. Riding Master C. T. Davis, but not in his presence.

The Court having found the prisoner guilty of so much of the Charges preferred against him,

DISAPPROVED.

(Signed) HASTINGS.

(A true Extract.)

(Signed) C. J. DOYLE,
Military Secretary.

The Commander in Chief disapproves the above decision, not from any defect in its justice, but from inaccuracy in the terms of the sentence.

The Court having found the Prisoner guilty of the first Charge, purporting that he had challenged his superior Officer to fight, and having found the Prisoner partially guilty of the third Charge, have adjudged the said Serjeant Major Robert Gibson to be reprimanded in such manner as the Commander in Chief shall think fit. In the first place, a reprimand from the head of the Army to a Non-Commissioned Officer is not suited to the situation of the latter. The efficacy of such a reproof to a Commissioned Officer depends on his feelings, that as it is rarely resorted to, and thence implies serious misbehaviour in him to whom it is addressed, it will materially affect him in the estimation of the Society in which he moves, the application, therefore, of a reprimand to a Non-Commissioned Officer is not only objectionable from rendering it common, but is idle with regard to an individual whom it will little disparage in his humbler circle of acquaintance. There is however more than simple unsuitableness in the sentence. It is inconsistent with the Articles of War—in declaring the Prisoner guilty of the Charge, the Court must have founded his criminality on the breach of the 2d Article of the 6th Section of the Articles of War for the Honorable Company's Forces. The penalty awarded by that Article against any Non-Commissioned Officer or Soldier who shall challenge a superior is corporal punishment. The Court probably regarded the language of the Prisoner as coming only by a considerably forced construction within the meaning of the Charge; in which view the Commander in Chief concurs; but when the Court pronounced the Prisoner guilty, the nature of the punishment did not rest with them, the amount alone was left to their discretion.

On the second Charge the Court have very properly acquitted the Prisoner, by the wording, it was evidently meant to be understood, that the offensive expressions had been used directly to the prosecutor; it must have been under this impression that the Officer Commanding the Regiment was induced to usher such a Charge, which observation is made by the Commander in Chief in order that it may be remarked how much inconvenience to the Service, by assembling a General Court Martial at a distant Station, would have been avoided, had a previous investigation taken place in the Regiment. The true state of the case would have been immediately apparent, and matter so comparatively frivolous, as that which was the foundation of this trial would have been far better dealt with by reprehension from the Officer at the head of the Corps. From the evidence on the proceedings it appears, that if there was intemperance in the conduct of the Prisoner, there was much wish to provoke it on the part of the Prosecutor. It is incumbent on the Commanding Officer of the Regiment to warn both parties, that any future indication of such dispositions in either will be severely noticed. Serjeant Major Robert Gibson may be released, and return to his duty.

Extract from the Proceedings of an European General Court Martial, ordered to assemble at Saugor by Lieutenant Colonel Burnet, C. B. Commanding the Saugor Field Force, under a general warrant from, and agreeably to instructions by His Excellency the Most Noble The Commander in Chief, bearing date the 2d June 1820, for the trial of Gunner Reppington of the 1st Company 1st Battalion of Artillery, and all such prisoners as may be brought before it; and continued by adjournment to the 22d day of June 1820.

Saugor, June 16, 1820.

President.—Major Ahmuty, Commanding Artillery, Saugor.
Officiating Deputy Judge Advocate.—Lieutenant C. W. Turner.

CHARGE.—Gunner Reppington of the 1st Company 1st Battalion of Artillery, attached to the Saugor Field Force, confined for having on the evening of the 7th of May last wilfully set fire to the temporary Barrack of the Artillery at Saugor, by which the Building and Public Stores of the Detachment were destroyed.

By order of His Excellency The Most Noble the Commander in Chief.

Presidency Fort William,
2d June 1820.

(Signed) J. NICOL,
Adjutant General of the Army.

SENTENCE.—The Court having maturely considered and weighed the evidence for the Prosecution, together with what the Prisoner has urged in his defence, is of opinion, that the Prisoner Gunner Reppington, 1st Company 1st Battalion of Artillery, is not guilty of that Crime, viz. of wilfully setting fire to the temporary Barrack of the Artillery at Saugor, by which the Building and Public Stores of the Detachment were destroyed on the evening of the 7th of May last, and do accordingly acquit him thereof.

Remarks by His Excellency the Most Noble The Commander in Chief.

The Commander in Chief disapproves the above Finding, because the acquittal is pronounced in direct opposition to uncontradicted and unimpeachable evidence, establishing that the Prisoner Reppington, after a declaration of his purpose, did deliberately and therefore wilfully apply a lamp to the thatch of the Barrack.

It is clear that the Court must have acted under an opinion of the Prisoner's insanity at the moment of perpetrating the Crime; but such an insanity in the Prisoner as could justifiably influence the Court, ought to have been specified in the Finding; and Sentence should have been professedly forborne on that ground, instead of a negative being recorded to a fact undeniably proved.

The insanity however was evidently of a nature which the Court could not legitimately take into consideration in forming its judgment, though representation might have been made to the Commander in Chief, in extenuation of the offence committed by the Prisoner.—By the testimony of the witnesses for the Prisoner it appears, that he is a regular well behaved Soldier, not manifesting any symptom of mental derangement except when in a state of ebriety: a wound which he formerly received in the head is supposed to be the cause of his being frantic when he has indulged in much liquor—The law permits in no case intoxication to be advanced as an excuse or palliative of a crime; and it ought to be more pointedly disallowed with regard to an individual who has had experience of the lamentable effects of intemperance on his senses.

The witnesses have referred to various antecedent instances in which the Prisoner Reppington has committed extravagances when drunk; thereby indicating that the being so, is not unfrequent with him. The Commander in Chief deems it improper that a man so prone to intoxication, and whose infirmity in that state is so dangerous, should be continued in the Service—His Lordship consequently directs that the Prisoner Reppington be released from his present confinement, but that he be brought down to Calcutta by the first convenient opportunity, in order that he may be kept under strict inspection at Head Quarters.

Remarks by His Excellency The Most Noble The Commander in Chief.

The Commander in Chief is obliged to disapprove both of the above Sentences. The Prisoners as the proceedings show, were each of them informed previously to his coming into Court, that he could not call for the testimony of the other.—This was erroneous. Lieutenants Jover and Crane, being reciprocally legal witnesses, whatsoever might be the weight which the Court would attach to evidence so circumstanced. The Prisoners were thro' this mistake, not allowed to make the best defence they could have offered.—On this ground the Commander in Chief does not think himself entitled to confirm the sentence against them. His Lordship therefore directs Lieutenants Jover and Crane to be released from their arrest. But he hereby pronounces his severest reprehension on their conduct in advancing against Major Campbell a degrading charge, a charge not only devoid of all colour of likelihood from the known character of that Officer, but unsupported by the statement of any equivocal particulars and apparently not occuring to Lieutenants Jover and Crane till they had tardily worked themselves up to harbour an extravagant suspicion.

(in obedience to instructions received from The Most Noble The Commander in Chief) for the trial of Emaum Buksh Khan, Subadar 1st Battalion 26th Regiment N.I. and all other Prisoners duly brought before it.

President.—Soobah Sing, Subadar Major 1st Battalion 26th Regiment N.I.

Officiating Deputy Judge Advocate,—Captain Edward Day, 1st Battalion 26th Regiment N. I.

CRIME.—Emaum Buksh Khan, Subadar 6th Company 1st Battalion 26th Regiment Native Infantry, placed in arrest by me on the following Charges.

1st.—For having on the night of the 12th of May 1820, whilst on command under my orders, refused to go to the rear of the Company, which at the time was in Columns of March in Sections.

CAMP, BEHADURGUR, May 13, 1820.

(Signed) G. S. BLUNDELL, Lieut.
1st Bat. 26th N. I. Comg. a Detacht.

SENTENCE.—The Court having maturely and deliberately considered the evidence for and against the Prisoner, Emaum Buksh Khan, together with his defence, is of opinion that he is guilty of the 1st Charge, viz. refusing to go to the rear of the Company. "The Court is further of opinion that the 2d part of the 2d Charge, viz. taking off his Sword and Sash and sending them by a Havildar," is proved; but the Court acquits him of throwing his Sword and Sash on the ground. Of the 3d Charge, for having refused to take back his Sword and Sash when they were returned to him by Lieutenant Blundell through the Havildar who brought them, "the Court is of opinion that he is not guilty; as it is proved that he not only received the Sash and Sword, but put them on immediately: why the Prisoner afterwards returned them back to Lieutenant Blundell, or the cause for so doing, does not appear in evidence before the Court.

The 1st Charge and part of the 2d being proved, the Prisoner, Emaum Buksh Khan, is therefore sentenced to be suspended from the rank and pay of Subadar for the space of two (2) months.

OPINION and SENTENCE.—The Court having duly weighed and considered the evidence in support of the charges, together with what the Prisoner has urged in his defence, are of opinion, that he, Gunner Samuel Jones, of A Company, 2d Battalion of Artillery, is guilty of the whole of the charges preferred against him, which being in breach of the Articles of War, "for the better Government of the Officers and Soldiers in the Service of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies," do therefore sentence him to six (6) months solitary confinement, at such time and in such place as His Excellency the Commander in Chief may please to direct.

FINDING and SENTENCE.—The Court finds the Prisoner Guilty of the Crime he is charged with, which being to the prejudice of good order; the Court does therefore, by virtue of the Articles of War, sentence and adjudge the Prisoner Mootoo, Camp Follower, Madras European Regiment, to suffer Death by being hanged by the neck, at such time and place, as His Excellency the Commander in Chief may be pleased to direct.

Disapproved.

(Signed) T. HISLOP, Lieutenant General.

The Commander in Chief after an attentive perusal of the evidence produced on the trial of Mootoo, Camp Follower, does not feel convinced of the Prisoner's guilt, and as the Court has earnestly recommended him to mercy, on the plea of his not having borne the slightest malice to the unfortunate woman, and also in consideration of his former good character, which is recorded in the Proceedings in such strong terms—His Excellency considers the verdict pronounced by the Court, to be given on a mistaken principle, and that the Prisoner is not guilty of murder; The Commander in Chief has therefore disapproved of the Sentence passed on Mootoo, Camp Follower, and directs he may be released from confinement.

OPINION AND SENTENCE.—The Court having duly examined all that has appeared on the part of the prosecution, as well as what the Prisoner Ensign H. Goold of the Rifle Corps has stated in his defence, form their opinion as follows :—

That the Prisoner, Ensign H. Goold of the Rifle Corps, is guilty of all and every part of the Charge preferred against him, and they do therefore sentence him to be discharged from the Honorable Company's Service.

Officiating Deputy Judge Advocate.

(Signed) J. H. DUNKIN, Lt. Col.
34th Regt. Colonel, and President.

(Signed) T. HISLOP,
Lieutenant General.

The Commander in Chief having approved, and confirmed the Sentence passed on Ensign Goold of the Rifle Corps, is pleased in reference to the recommendation of the Court, to remit the sentence, and it is hereby remitted accordingly—Ensign Goold is released from arrest, and will return to his duty.

The plea of youth and inexperience has in this instance operated in favour of the Prisoner, and saved his Commission, which had rightly been forfeited by the undeniable proof of his unjustifiable conduct, but the plea which has now influenced the Commander in Chief can never again be admissible in reference to this Officer; His Excellency therefore trusts, that the result of his lenity will be beneficial to Ensign Goold's future career in the Service, and that however painful the reflection, that Officer will learn from the example before him to govern his temper, and conduct himself with that decorum and propriety, which alone can ensure him respect, and entitle him to the character which every member of the Army is bound to uphold.

Remarks by His Excellency The Most Noble The Commander in Chief.

The Commander in Chief most seriously admonishes Major Alexander Campbell, against any future misapplication of his authority when he may be in the Command of a Battalion, since such an instance as is recorded in the proceedings of the Court Martial, unavoidably affects the reverence with which Officers should be accustomed to view the powers lodged in their Commandant for the purposes of discipline.

(Signed) C. COLVILLE,
Lieutenant General.

Remarks by His Excellency The Commander in Chief.

In publishing his Confirmation of the above Sentence, The Commander in Chief finds it necessary to say, that he is far from approving of it, and that he would probably have ordered the Court to re-assemble for its revision, but for the march from Malligaum of one of the Battalions, to which several Members of the Court belonged.

It is His Excellency's firm belief that had an European Officer stood under the circumstances of Jemadar Chinnoo, and been tried by a Court of European Officers, he would have been found guilty of having by his intemperance, unfitted himself for the discharge of the most solemn and important duties that could be confided to him, and for which he had been warned the day before.

The Commander in Chief regrets to learn the indifference that is gaining ground in some classes of Native Officers, in regard of dram drinking: and cautions the Members of this Court in particular, against the dangerous subtlety of distinguishing between a person actually intoxicated, or only altered in appearance and conduct by the effects of Liquor; such distinctions can only aid in the disgrace of persons making them, and in the injury of the Service.

BY COMMAND.

Ordered that the following Extract from the Honorable Company's General Letter in the Military Department, dated the 16th June 1815, be republished in General Orders.

Para 139. In consequence of the numerous applications which have been preferred to us by our Servants, on leave of absence in this Country, for advances of money on loans, we think it proper to recal your attention to our Orders in the Military Department of the 26th February 1808, upon this subject. Those Orders declared our determination not to make any pecuniary advances to Officers at home, beyond what they are allowed by the existing Regulations of the Service, and you were required to publish them in General Orders to the Army; but as a resolution of this description, in order to be generally known to a body which is continually receiving an accession of new members, should be occasionally republished, and being fully persuaded that a strict observance of this resolution, will prevent much trouble and inconvenience, besides loss to the Company, we direct that our orders above adverted to, be in future circulated for the information of the Army in the month of January in every year, and we shall take the necessary steps for reminding Officers who may arrive in England upon furlough, of our determination upon the subject in question."

Lieutenant Colonel V. Blacker, C. B. Quarter Master General of the Army, having reported his intention to embark for Europe in the Ship Golconda in pursuance of the leave granted him in Government General Orders of the 9th Ultimo,

His Excellency the Commander in Chief avails himself of the occasion to record in this public manner the high opinion he entertains of that Officer's public and private character, and the esteem in which he holds his public services.

During an active and distinguished military career of twenty-two years, ten of which Lieutenant Colonel V. Blacker, C. B. has filled the important station of Quarter Master General of the Army, every record will be found to speak in terms of praise, the ability with which this distinguished Officer has conducted the duties from time to time devolving on him, but His Excellency the Commander in Chief, can speak from personal knowledge both in peace and war of the devoted zeal and gallantry which his experience, science and general professional talents have been directed in the furtherance of the public service.—His Excellency Sir Thomas Hislop feels greatly indebted to Lieutenant Colonel Blacker for the assistance and support he has on all occasions received from him, and laments that he is now to be deprived of him, but the Lieutenant General cannot refrain in taking leave of an Officer so justly entitled to his best public and private feelings, to offer him the expression of his anxious hope, that the sacrifice he makes of returning to Europe at the present moment, will restore him to health, and at no distant period, enable Lieutenant Colonel Blacker to rejoin that gallant Army to which he belongs, and in which he has served with so much distinction and advantage to the public service.

GENERAL ORDERS,

HEAD QUARTERS:

CHOULTRY PLAIN, 16*th February* 1821.

G. O. By the Commander in Chief.

The Honorable the Governor in Council having directed the publication in General Orders of the annexed Extract from the Minutes of Consultation in the Military Department, dated 29th December last, His Excellency The Commander in Chief deems it important to the interests of the Army, to desire, that the order be read by Commanding Officers respectively to the Officers of their Corps—It is at all times painful to The Commander in Chief to address the Officers of the Army under his command in terms of censure, but it is a necessary feature in the subordination of an Army, that all ranks should patiently endure the vicissitudes of a Soldier's life, and the example of the Officers is so necessary in the practice of this virtue, that Commanding Officers must be sensible how weighty a responsibility they undertake if they suffer themselves, under any circumstances, to depart from a temperate and just practice of the obligations which every Soldier owes to the preservation of property, the protection of the country, and the safety of its inhabitants from oppression or ill-usage of any sort.

It is the duty of every Officer to be provided with Carriage of every description that he may require, and the failure of his resources is no argument why he should deprive the Inhabitants of the country of their's, or subject them even to a temporary inconvenience, by forcing them, or their Cattle into his service even for a remuneration which may be very inadequate to the inconvenience that such oppression produces.

It is also the duty of every Commanding Officer to provide for the contingencies, and difficulties of a march, and the experience of every Officer who attains command, ought to suggest the means.

The establishment of Regimental Bazars was made with this view, and the intelligence and information of Commanding Officers should suggest to them when it is necessary to have recourse to expedients to remedy the inconveniences which must frequently arise from Villages not being prepared with supplies, or inability to provide them—Enquiry should prepare a Commanding Officer for such occurrences, and under those circumstances the obvious remedy is to warn the Soldiers and followers of the necessity to provide, and carry supplies to meet their wants on such occasions.

The application of military force to destrain from the Inhabitants supplies is as unwarrantable, as inflicting punishment on any public functionaries, whatever their station or conduct may have been—representation is always open, and is the only legitimate means by which an Officer or Soldier has a right to expect redress in any case where the servants of the Civil authorities may be guilty of neglect, or impropriety of conduct of any description; and The Commander in Chief trusts, that the censure passed on Major Kelly's conduct on these subjects will have due weight in restraining Officers in future from incurring the responsibility which must attach to any Officer who may be guilty of such oppression on any future occasion.

Extract from the Minutes of The Honorable The Governor in Council, 29th December 1820.

"Resolved to acquaint The Commander in Chief, that the answers which Captain Ogilvie and Major Kelly "were required by His Excellency to make to the charges preferred against them by the Collector of "Bellary, of ill-treating the inhabitants of his District, have been attentively examined; and that after "making full allowance for the probable exaggerations of the sufferers, the Board find but little in them to "vindicate the conduct of those Officers.

"It does not appear that the inhabitants suffered any personal injury from Captain Ogilvie, but they "suffered in their property by their Cattle being taken from them and carried to Hyderabad—Captain "Ogilvie's own statement that the Bullocks and Buffaloes were brought on, because the owners did not "appear, is a plain enough indication of their having been taken by force; Buffaloes are certainly no part "of the equipment of a Corps, nor has Captain Ogilvie explained how they came to be so in his—It was "his duty to have had a proper supply of Carriage when he marched; and, if it had been lessened by "casualties, to have replaced the deficiency by voluntary purchase and paying on the spot—The forcible "carrying away of Cattle without payment, however it may be softened under the name of hire, can be "regarded in no other light than that of marrauding."

"But the conduct of Major Kelly, The Governor in Council observes, is much more reprehensible than "that of Captain Ogilvie—for the outrages committed by him were upon the persons of the inhabitants for "not furnishing supplies which they had received no instructions to provide—He had received no communication "from the Collector, and he had no cause to believe that supplies would have been ready for him at every "stage on his route. It was his duty to have had one or two days supply of grain with him in order to have "guarded against any accidental failure—He had been authorized by the G. O. to establish a Regimental "Bazar, and if he had not made so much progress in it as to have been able to carry two days subsistence, "he ought to have directed the Sepoys to provide it themselves—He seems after his twenty-two years "service to have acquired no knowledge of the most common means of obviating the occurrence of distress, "and to have thought that his own want of precaution might always be remedied by beating the inhabitants "—He ought to have known that many small villages can furnish no supplies, and that when supplies are "furnished by the Collector, they are generally drawn from several villages at some miles distance—His "beating the Potails, and his ordering the Zillahdar to be rattaned, to be marched as a prisoner for two days, "and to be dismounted from the Tattoo which had been lent to him, are such wanton acts of oppression as "to call for the severest censure."

"Ordered that Copy of the foregoing resolutions be transmitted to The Commander in Chief from the "Military Department, and that His Excellency be requested, in conformity with the view therein taken "of the cases under consideration as explained in the papers which accompanied the Adjutant General's

" letter of the 18th Instant, recorded above,—to notify in G. O. to the Officers concerned, the sense which
" is entertained of their conduct on the occasions in question."

(Signed) J. FERRIS, Captain, Honorable Company's Bengal Artillery.

By order of His Excellency The Commander in Chief.

Adjutant General's Office, Presidency of Fort William, the 13th October 1820.

(Signed) J. NICOL, Adjutant General of the Army.

SENTENCE.—The Court are of opinion, that the Prisoner Captain Alexander Brown, is guilty of scandalous and infamous conduct in the following instances.

First, of having violently entered Captain J. Ferris' private sleeping apartments at Chowringhee, although the doors were locked and bolted, for security against intrusion, (Captain Ferris having retired to his family being an invalid) and thereby alarming Captain Ferris' family, by forcibly breaking open bolts and locks, on the afternoon of the 9th October 1820.

APPROVED.

(A true Extract.)

(Signed) C. J. DOYLE, Lt. Col. Military Secretary.

Remarks by His Excellency The Most Noble The Commander in Chief.

The Court has solicited lenity towards Captain Alexander Brown on account of his length of Service and his wounds, as well as from the circumstance that he committed the outrage under feelings violently irritated through false representations.—The Commander in Chief gives full weight to the recommendation of the Court, which is strengthened by his own considerations of the gallantry shown by Captain Brown on Service: But he could not reconcile it to himself to remit the penalty of the sentence (which he hereby does) without pointedly censuring the vindication attempted by Captain Brown. Instead of resting on the natural and true extenuation of his conduct, that Officer has made his defence the vehicle for gross imputations on the Reverend Gentleman whom he is pronounced by the Court to have brutally ill-treated. Those charges, extravagant in themselves, were supported by the testimony of witnesses, the two principal of whom deposed positively to their having been present at the transaction, and who were proved satisfactorily to the Court not to have been near the place. The adduction of such witnesses to maintain an incorrect endeavour is a substantive transgression, established on the Proceedings of the Court, which the Commander in Chief thus marks with strong reprehension.

By Command.

(Signed) C. J. DOYLE, Lt. Col. Military Secretary.

Extract from the Proceedings of a General Court Martial assembled at Bombay on Monday the 18th day of September 1820, by virtue of a warrant from His Excellency Lieutenant General The Honorable Sir Charles Colville, G. C. B. Commanding His Majesty's and the Honorable Company's Forces under the Presidency of Bombay, of which Lieutenant Colonel Robert Lewis is President, and Major Vans Kennedy, Judge Advocate General. Lieutenant Colonel Henry William Sealy, of the Bombay Regiment of Artillery was arraigned upon the undermentioned charge preferred against him by Major General John Bailie, Commandant of Artillery.

Lieutenant Colonel Henry William Sealy of the Bombay Regiment of Artillery, placed in arrest by me on the following charge.

CHARGE.—For highly scandalous and disgraceful conduct, unbecoming the character of an Officer and a Gentleman, in having had criminal intimacy with Miss Sophia Prince, the unmarried sister of his late wife, whilst residing with him under his immediate protection, between the 15th August 1819, on or about which day his Wife died, and the latter end of July 1820, about which time the said Miss Sophia Prince was delivered of a child in his, Lieutenant Colonel Sealy's house.

BOMBAY,
ADJT. GENL.'S OFFICE,
13th September 1820.

By order of His Excellency The Commander in Chief.
(Signed) D. LEIGHTON,
Adjutant General of the Army.

Upon which charge the Court came to the following decision.

FINDING AND SENTENCE.—The Court having maturely and deliberately weighed and considered all that has been adduced in support of the Prosecution as well as what has been brought forward on the defence, are of opinion, that the Prisoner Lieutenant Colonel Henry William Sealy of the Bombay Regiment of Artillery, is not Guilty of the charge preferred against him, and they do therefore acquit him of the same.

(Signed) V. KENNEDY,
Judge Advocate General.

(Signed) R. LEWIS, Lieut. Col.
and President.

Of this the Commander in Chief did not approve, and ordering the Court to re-assemble for revision they on the 12th Instant met, and after having laid before them a letter from the Commander in Chief of the 10th October instant, the following revised Sentence was passed.

REVISED FINDING.—The Court having maturely weighed and considered all that has been adduced in support of the prosecution, as well as what has been brought forward on the defence, are of opinion that the intimacy whilst Miss Sophia Prince was residing with Lieutenant Colonel Sealy, and the birth of a Child has been proved, but they are at the same time of opinion that the intimacy did not commence until solemn marriage engagements had taken place between the parties, and that the affinity has not been proved, they do not attach any criminality to these circumstances, and therefore acquit the Prisoner Lieutenant Colonel Henry William Sealy of the Bombay Regiment of Artillery of the charge which has been preferred against him.

(Signed) V. KENNEDY,
Judge Advocate General.

(Signed) R. LEWIS, Lt. Col.
and President.

The above revised Sentence is confirmed, and Lieutenant Colonel Sealy to be released from arrest and return to his duty.

The case however embracing considerations of the most serious importance to the best interests of the Army will be specially submitted for the judgment of The Most Noble The Commander in Chief in India.

An incorrectness appears in the framing of the above charges in the want of specified dates, as they stand it would seem that the three points of accusation had relation to the same day instead of the distant ones of 28th August and 16th and 17th September.

GENERAL ORDERS,

HEAD QUARTERS:

CHOULTRY PLAIN, 12*th March* 1821.

The Honorable the Governor in Council having addressed the subjoined Orders to His Excellency the Commander in Chief, to be published to the Army, they are accordingly published in Military Orders.

FORT ST. GEORGE, 16*th February* 1821.

G. O. BY GOVERNMENT.

The following Extracts from Letters from the Honorable the Court of Directors in the Military Department, under dates the 19th of July and the 13th and 20th of September 1820, are published in General Orders.

Letter dated 19th July 1820.

Para. 2d. "We have appointed Mr. Robert Greig, M. D. now at your Presidency in His Majesty's 22d Regiment of Light Dragoons, an Assistant Surgeon upon your Establishment, provided he is not the Son of a Native Indian, that he is not under the age of twenty years, or exceptionable in any other respect, and subject also to his being examined, and found qualified for his profession by the Medical Board at your Presidency; upon your being satisfied as to the several conditions before stated, you will admit him to practice in the line of his profession, and administer to him the usual Oath of fidelity to the Company—His order of rank will be transmitted you at an early opportunity."

Letter dated 13th September 1820.

13th. "Captain Josias Torriano, late of your Establishment, has resigned the Company's Service with our permission, from the 27th February 1820.

14th. We have admitted Lieutenant John Newall late of your Establishment, a Pensioner on Lord Clive's Fund, from the 7th July 1819.

15th. The undermentioned Officers have our permission to return to their duty upon your Establishment, viz.

Captain William Kelso,
Assistant Surgeon William S. Anderson.

16th. Major General William Macleod, of your Establishment, has our permission to return to Madras, the Board of Commissioners for the affairs of India having concurred therein, agreeably to the Act of the 53d Geo. 3, Cap. 155, Sec. 84.

17th. We have permitted Lieutenant Colonel Francis A. Daniell, to return with his rank on your Establishment, notwithstanding he will have been more than five years absent from his duty, it appearing that he has been prevented from returning by sickness, which permission has been sanctioned by the approbation and concurrence of the Board of Commissioners for the affairs of India, agreeably to the Act of the 33d Geo. 3, Cap. 52, Sec. 70.

18th. We have permitted the undermentioned Officers to return to their duty upon your Establishment, viz.

Major William C. Oliver,
Captain William M. Robertson.

19th. Mr. William Ker Hay has our permission to proceed to your Presidency to practice as a Surgeon: and we direct that he succeed as an Assistant Surgeon upon your Establishment.—His rank will be settled at a future time.

20th. Upon referring to our List of Rank No. 1 of 1817, dated February 1818, we perceive that Mr. John Pinchard who passed his public examination for the Artillery at the same time as Mr. David Boyd Dighton, has not the rank which ought to have been assigned to him, we desire you will correct this mistake by causing Mr. Pinchard to be placed next above Mr. Dighton in the list of Rank beforementioned."

23d. We have received an application from Surgeon William Haines of your Establishment, representing that on his passage to India in 1805, he served with the Troops employed at the reduction of the Cape, and that his arrival at Madras was in consequence delayed considerably beyond the usual period of an outward bound voyage; requesting therefore, that the commencement of his service shall be reckoned from the date at which he should probably have arrived, had he not been detained on Service, instead of the date at which he actually arrived.

24th. Refering to the decision passed by us in favour of the Officers on the Bengal Establishment, who were detained on the same occasion, we have resolved that the same indulgence shall be granted to those Officers and Surgeons of the Establishment of your Presidency, who were employed at the reduction of the Cape when proceeding as Cadets and Assistant Surgeons; and we accordingly authorize you to calculate the commencement of their Service from the 23d of November 1805 being the date of the order, appointing the Cadets to serve with the Detachment of Recruits.

34th. We have permitted the undermentioned Persons to proceed to your Presidency to practice as Surgeons, and we direct that they succeed as Assistant Surgeons upon your Establishment; their rank will be settled at a future time, viz.

Mr. George Gleig,
" William Bruce Jack,
" Charles Mayo.

35th. "In the 4th para. of our Letter to you in this Department, dated the 21st January last, you were apprized of the appointment of Mr. A. R. Taylor, as a Cadet for the Cavalry upon your Establishment—

At that time, it was understood that Mr. Taylor was in India, and his name was accordingly included in the List No. 1, of the Rank of Cadets of the Season 1819.

36th. Mr. Taylor however has since arrived in this Country, having quitted India before the notification of his appointment had reached you.

37th. He will therefore be again ranked (agreeably to the practice which we have adopted) next below the Cadets ranked previously to the 9th August last; the day on which we resolved to confirm Mr. Taylor in his appointment.

38th. In compliance with Mr. Taylor's request, we have permitted him to proceed to his duty overland, but should he fail to arrive at your Presidency within the period of twelve months, from the date when this permission was granted to him, which will expire on the 9th August 1821, we direct that he take Rank next below those Cadets, who may have been ranked twelve months before his arrival at Madras.

Letter dated 20th September 1820.

2d. "In the 18th Paragraph of our Letter to you in this Department, dated 13th Instant, you were advised of our having permitted Captain William M. Robertson to return to his duty upon your establishment.

3d. Anticipating the probability of Captain Robertson's failing to arrive at Madras within the prescribed term of five years, which will expire on the 27th January next, we have taken into our consideration the circumstances which have prevented his return to India at an earlier period.

4th. From a perusal of the applications which this Officer has, from time to time, made to us for an extension of his furlough, and of the Medical Certificates which accompanied them, we are satisfied that if he shall not arrive at your Presidency within the said term of five years, (provided he proceeds on the "Forbes" on which ship he has taken his passage, and no delay which he may have been able to avoid, shall have arisen in the course of the voyage) his absence will have been occasioned by sickness, within the meaning of the Act of the 33d George 3, Cap. 52, Sec. 70.

5th. We therefore direct that with the abovementioned proviso, you consider Captain Robertson, on his arrival at Madras, as still in the Company's Service.

6th. We have appointed Mr. Richard Rodney Rickets now at your Presidency, a Cadet of Infantry upon your Establishment, the friends of Mr. Ricketts have produced to us the required Certificates of his age, we therefore direct you will admit him a Cadet of Infantry accordingly, and administer to him the usual Oath of Fidelity to the Company.

7th. His order of rank will be forwarded you at an early opportunity.

By order of the Honorable the Governor in Council.

S. O. in charge 2d L. C

BY ORDER. (Signed) E. W. SNOW,
Dep. Adjt. Genl. of the Army.

OPINION AND SENTENCE.—The Court having considered the evidence for the Prosecution and defence, are of opinion as follows.

On the 1st charge preferred by Captain M'Queen, that the Prisoner Lieutenant Brunton is not guilty of scandalous and infamous or cowardly conduct; but they find him guilty of having reflected in an improper and unbecoming manner upon Captain M'Queen's character as an Officer and a Gentleman, in the letter which he addressed to the Officer Commanding the 2d Regiment Light Cavalry on the 5th November 1820.

On the 2d charge preferred against him by Captain M'Queen that he is "not guilty," and the Court do therefore acquit him thereof.

On the 1st charge preferred against him by Assistant Surgeon Turnbull, the Court find the Prisoner "not guilty" and do therefore honorably acquit him thereof.

On the 2d charge preferred by Assistant Surgeon Turnbull, that he is "not guilty" and do therefore fully and honorably acquit him thereof.

The Court having found the Prisoner, Lieutenant Brunton, guilty in part of the 1st charge preferred against him by Captain M'Queen, viz. "of having reflected in an improper and "unbecoming manner upon Captain M'Queen's character as an Officer and a Gentleman, in the "letter which he addressed to the Officer Commanding the 2d Regiment Light Cavalry on the "5th November 1820," they do therefore sentence him, Lieutenant Brunton, to be reprimanded in such manner as His Excellency the Commander in Chief may be pleased to direct.

The Court before closing their proceedings, consider it their duty to notice the motives which have led the Prosecutor Captain M'Queen to prefer the 2d charge against the Prisoner, which as admitted by the Prosecutor himself have arisen from feelings of private resentment, and not from any regard to the good of the Service.

Extract from the confirmed proceedings of a General Court Martial which assembled at Quilon on the 1st day of January 1821, by virtue of a warrant from His Excellency Lieutenant General Sir Thomas Hislop, Baronet, G. C. B. Commander in Chief, are published.

CHARGES.—I charge Sullymaun Cawn, Subadar Major of the 1st Battalion 23d Native Regiment, with disgraceful conduct unbecoming an Officer, and in violation of the Regulations of the Service, in the following instances.

1st.—In quitting his party without leave, with which he was ordered to proceed from Vizianagram to the Head Quarters of the Corps, for the purpose of purchasing for future sale, articles of merchandize at different places, particularly at the village of Sherah, and not joining his party until it arrived at Ongole.

2d.—In detaching one Havildar, and some Sepoys (six) on his own private affairs to Madras, that is, for the purpose of procuring Bandies to transport the merchandize purchased as abovementioned.

3d.—In availing himself of two Sepoys going on furlough to employ them in bringing merchandize, by which means one of them was loaded with a large bundle from Masulipatam to Madura.

4th.—In employing an Havildar and several Privates of his party at different times in driving the Bandies loaded with his merchandize, standing sentries over, and escorting them.

5th.—In employing at least two Sepoys of his party in driving Sheep, which he bought for sale, and did actually sell at Quilon, and other places.

6th.—In purchasing or causing to be purchased by his Brother-in-law Sabash Cawn, Havildar, as his agent and packer, some red handkerchiefs at Madura, and selling them afterwards partly by the assistance of the said Sabash Cawn to the recruits at a profit.

7th.—In taking Chingleput in his way to Head Quarters, this place as is supposed not having been mentioned in the route officially furnished to him, and halting there fourteen days unnecessarily.

8th.—In halting at the Arambooly Gate for the sole purpose of settling the Customs on his merchandize, there being no necessity of a public nature for such a delay.

9th.—In not having given over a balance of four Pagodas, and having been utterly silent on the circumstance till this day, which sum was placed in his hands by Ramasamy Havildar, and arose out of ten Pagodas originally given him, Ramasamy, by Lieutenant Wootton, thereby exciting a strong suspicion that he intended to appropriate this balance to his own use.

10th.—In denying that he had any money whatever belonging to the Recruits or the Party, when in fact he had that balance of four Pagodas.

OPINION AND SENTENCE.—The Court having maturely considered the evidence in support of the prosecution as well as what the Prisoner Subadar Major Sullymaun Cawn has urged in his defence, is of opinion as follows.

That on the 1st Charge he is not Guilty, it therefore acquits him.

On the 2d Charge that he is not Guilty, it therefore acquits him.

On the 3d Charge the Court is of opinion, that he did avail himself of a Sepoy going on furlough, by employing him to bring a small bundle of Handkerchiefs and Chintz from Masulipatam to Madura, but as the Sepoy brought it, with his own consent, the Court does not attach any criminality to the Prisoner in having done so.

On the 4th Charge that he is not Guilty, it therefore acquits him.

On the 5th Charge that he is not Guilty, it therefore acquits him.

On the 6th Charge that he is not Guilty, it therefore acquits him.

Lieutenant General.

In publishing the foregoing sentence His Excellency is impelled by an act of duty to express his regret, that an Officer whose rank and character had for a series of years stood so high as that of Subadar Major Sullymaun Cawn of the 1st Battalion 23d Regiment should have been exposed to the obloquy of an arrest and trial upon such numerous Charges as have been exhibited against him on such very insufficient grounds —his having been acquitted of every Charge will restore him to the same respect and confidence he ever held in the Corps, and the Commander in Chief directs that he may be forthwith released from arrest and return to his duty.

Company a much larger sum monthly, than was necessary for the purchase of materials for cleaning their Accoutrements, &c. and appropriating for many months to his own use, the balance of money, the property of the Sepoys, thereby causing murmuring and discontent most prejudicial to the Service, and contrary to good order, and military discipline.

Adjutant General of the Army,

SENTENCE.—The Court having duly weighed the evidence in support of the prosecution, as well as what the Prisoner has urged in defence, is of opinion that he, Subadar Mahomed Gallop is guilty of so much of the 1st Charge as in taking from the men of B. Company a much larger sum monthly than was necessary for the purchase of materials for cleaning their Accoutrements, &c. but it is not proved that the Prisoner appropriated the surplus to his own use, and therefore acquit him of the same.

The Court is further of opinion, that the Prisoner Subadar Mahomed Gallop is guilty of the 1st part of the 2d Charge, viz. "for Drunkenness" but in a very inferior degree, and acquit him of the remaining part of the 2d Charge.

The Court having found the Prisoner guilty in part of the 1st and 2d Charges, do sentence him to be suspended from Rank and Pay for the space of four Calendar Months, from the date of these proceedings being confirmed.

BANGALORE, 16*th November* 1820.

SENTENCE.—The Court having maturely weighed the evidence brought forward in support of the prosecution, as well as what the Prisoner Ramasamy, Jemadar, has produced in his defence, is of opinion, that he is guilty in part of the first charge, viz. "For making use of abusive language near the house of the Subadar of his Company, and likewise for pushing the Subadar" but acquit him of infamous, scandalous, and un-officer-like conduct, and of every other part of the 1st Charge.

In regard to the 2d charge, the Court is of opinion that the Prisoner Ramasamy Jemadar is in the habit of drinking intoxicating liquors, but not so as to prevent him doing his duty—The Court acquit him of every other part of the 2d Charge.

The Court is further of opinion, that so much of the 3d Charge is proved as " For going to the house of Venkatasamy, Orderly Naigue, and asking him for money collected for the purpose of purchasing Pipe Clay," but the Court acquit the Prisoner Ramasamy of any evil intention therein, as it is proved that he intended to apply the money to the purchase of Pipe Clay for the Company.

The Court having found the Prisoner Ramasamy guilty in part of the first and second Charges, they do sentence him to be suspended from Rank and Pay for the space of (5) five calender months from such date as His Excellency the Commander in Chief may think fit.

REVISED SENTENCE.—The Court having maturely re-considered its former finding and sentence, and the evidence being weighed, together with the observations of His Excellency the Commander in Chief, the Court adhere to their finding on the 1st Count, viz. " for making use of abusive language near the house of the Subadar of his Company," but with respect to the 2d Count, viz. " for pushing the Subadar" the Court on re-consideration find the Prisoner Ramasamy, Jemadar, guilty of un-officer-like conduct, but not of infamous and scandalous.

The Court is of opinion that the punishment awarded in the original Sentence is sufficient.

In order fully to inform the Officers upon this Establishment of the existing Regulations, with respect to Furlough to Europe as well as to check the practice which to a certain extent, has lately prevailed, of Military Officers postponing their return to their duty for a period longer than is compatible with the good of the Service; the following Extract from a letter from the Honorable the Court of Directors, under date the 13th of September 1820, is published to the Army.

"Officers coming to England on Furlough are required, as soon as they arrive, to report their arrival and address, by letter, to our Secretary, forwarding at the same time the certificates which they received in India.

"In all cases of Furlough, whether it be granted for private affairs, or on sick certificate, Officers are required to join the Establishment to which they belong at the expiration of three years from the commencement of their Furlough, unless they shall have obtained an extension of leave from us, six months before the expiration of the said term of three years.

Published in General Orders by Government 8th July 1817.

"Extension of Furlough will not, in future, be granted except in cases of sickness, certified in the manner prescribed, in our dispatch of the 3d January 1817, or in cases in which it shall be proved to us, that a further residence in Europe is indispensably necessary."

"When, under any such circumstances, an Officer shall have obtained an extension of Furlough to a given period, he must at the expiration thereof, apply for, and obtain permission, either to return to his duty, or to reside a further term in Europe.

"The Act of the 33d Geo. 3, Cap. 52, Sec. 70, as it respects Military Officers, applies only to cases of sickness, infirmity or inevitable accident, and no Officer will be hereafter considered eligible to return to the Service after five years absence, under that enactment, who has failed to obtain from us agreeable to the foregoing Regulations an extension of Furlough under the circumstances referred to in the Act.

"The plea of ignorance of the Regulations will not hereafter be admitted as any justification of the breach of them, but Officers who shall come home on Furlough, and who shall not, in due time, apply so as to effect their return to the Presidency to which they belong, within the period of three years from the commencement of their Furlough, will subject themselves to the loss of the Service, unless they shall be permitted by us to remain a further time in this Country."

FORT ST. GEORGE, 13*th April* 1821.

G. O. BY GOVERNMENT.

1. The Honorable the Governor in Council deems it expedient to establish the following additional Rules, for regulating the Allowances of Officers exercising Regimental Command—The Lieutenant Colonel or Senior Officer present in India, and eligible to Regimental duty, (temporary absence at other Presidencies or off the Coast forming no exception) is to be considered as Commanding in his own right, from the date of the publication of his appointment in General Orders—and, in his absence, whether previously or subsequently to joining, the Officer actually present at the Head Quarters is to be considered in temporary charge, and entitled to the established Batta for Commanding.

2. Senior Officers of Corps on whom the superior Command of two or more Corps may devolve, in Garrison, under the G. O. 22d May 1819—or, in the Field, by being appointed to Brigades or Detachments —are to be considered as only temporarily absent from Regimental duty, and therefore as retaining the Command of their Corps in their own right—permanent Staff Appointments and Government Commands or fixed employment on Civil or Political duties, &c. being alone considered to render Senior Officers of Corps ineligible to Command in their own right.

3. When a Regiment or Battalion may be divided, (as will generally, if not always be the case in the Artillery, and frequently in other branches,) that part of the Corps with which the Regimental Staff may be stationed, is to be considered the Head Quarters altho' a Senior Officer of the same Corps may be present with a recruiting party, or other detail of such Corps, at a different Station.

4. The existing Regulations regarding the allowances applicable to Officers Commanding Corps in their own right when absent on duty and furlough, will remain as heretofore; and it is to be understood that, however long an Officer may have previously been in temporary charge of a Corps, he is not, when detached thereform, to draw any allowances beyond those to which he would have been entitled, if such temporary charge had not devolved on him.

5. Officers Commanding Corps in their own right, if detained in Garrison, on Court Martial or other duty, when their Corps march, will retain their full Batta, but will not be entitled to superior Batta.

6. Officers in temporary charge of Corps, if detained under the above circumstances, are to be considered, in common with other Officers, as entitled to half-batta only. Batta for Commanding being never payable, except to the Officer Commanding in his own right, and to the Officer actually present with the Head Quarters of the Corps, in temporary charge.

7. The Governor in Council deems it further expedient to direct, that, as placing Commanding Officers of Corps on public duty, while on leave of absence, and detaining them on such duty beyond the period of their leave, occasions additional public charges, the occurrence of all such cases of detention shall be invariably reported to Government, with an explanation of the necessity for the Officers being so employed, in order that, if they cannot be relieved, the sanction of Government may be communicated to the Military Auditor General for the admission of the charges incidental thereto.

Remarks by His Excellency The Most Noble The Commander in Chief.

The Commander in Chief regrets that he cannot consider the application of the Court for a remission of the penalty adjudged in the case of Jemadar Dhunny Sing as justly suited to the case. The infirm state of the Jemadar's health had been kindly consulted by the Officer Commanding the Regiment, none but interior duties devoid of fatigue having been for some time assigned to him. In these, there is strong reason to fear he was habitually lax and inattentive, as it is not conceivable that any circumstance but the observation of his indulging himself in such neglect, could have encouraged men of the Regiment to hazard the incurring a capital sentence, for the purpose of disgracing him. The crime proved against Jemadar Dhunny Sing was his breach of the plainest standing order of the Corps, which enjoined only what must be the invariable duty of the Officer on every Regimental Guard, and which required for its fulfilment nothing more than his stepping out of the Officer's into the Men's Guard Room, when the degree of indisposition which he was suffering, did not prevent his marching off with the relieved Guard.

SENTENCE.—The Court having maturely weighed and considered the Crime with which the Prisoner stands charged, and to which he has pleaded guilty, as also the evidence which has been brought before it, and what the Prisoner has urged in palliation of his offence, is of opinion that he is guilty, and does therefore sentence him the said Dupyee to suffer death, by being hanged by the neck at such time and place as The Most Noble The Commander in Chief may direct.

Remarks by His Excellency The Most Noble The Commander in Chief.

The Commander in Chief has considered with attention the observation so justly submitted to him by the Court of the possible conception in the Prisoner that he was not committing a crime when he murdered his sister-in-law. The likelihood that such might actually have been the case places The Commander in Chief in a dilemma between enforcing a capital sentence for an act, which the Prisoner may not according to the usages of his Country and in the absence of all due warning have thought visitable with any severity, or giving by lenity a degree of confirmation to the lamentable prejudice that such an atrocious deed was not an outrage to all natural laws. The difficulty experienced on this occasion, proves the judiciousness of the course adopted by the Court in awarding the punishment of Death, and leaving the peculiar character of the case to be weighed by The Commander in Chief. Under the singular circumstances represented, The Commander in Chief will not direct the execution of the capital sentence: But, as it is still necessary that a visible infliction should prevent the supposition of the Crime's being lightly considered, the punishment is hereby commuted into labour in irons on the Roads for five years from the present date. Such orders will be issued as shall preclude in future any plea of belief on the part of a Camp Follower that murder committed within a Cantonment, where British Jurisdiction is in full activity, can be palliated by the principles or customs of his tribe.

BY COMMAND.

Acting Military Secretary.

GENERAL ORDERS,

HEAD QUARTERS :

CHOULTRY PLAIN, 1st June 1821.

G. O. By the Commander in Chief.

The period having arrived at which Lieutenant General Sir Thomas Hislop resigns the Command of the Madras Army, in consequence of the permission he has obtained to return to Europe, he feels himself called upon publicly to express the sentiments which he considers the occasion to demand.

In discharging this duty, the Lieutenant General avails himself of the experience which full seven years have afforded him to form a just estimate of the high military virtues, and qualities of this distinguished Army, alike unsurpassed for the perfection of its discipline, as for the splendor of its achievements; and which it has been the fortunate lot of the Lieutenant General never in the course of the long period abovementioned, to have had to remark on the least deviation from the former, so has he enjoyed the highest degree of gratification in having been an eye witness to the brilliancy of the latter.

To this gallant and high spirited Army Sir Thomas Hislop now bids farewell, uniting therewith, his unfeigned assurances, that as its future glory will never cease to be the first wish of his heart, so will its hitherto well earn'd fame ever continue to command his admiration, and to be the theme of his praise.

T. H. S. CONWAY,
Adjutant General of the Army.

Remarks by His Excellency The Most Noble The Commander in Chief.

The Commander in Chief observes with disapprobation, that in this case the Prisoner was subjected to a strictness as well as publicity of confinement not required by any circumstances apparent on the Record. The unnecessary severity and disgrace thus inflicted would have induced the Commander in Chief to grant a remission of the sentence, had it not been that documents in the Office prove Shaik Fuckera to have discredited himself by similar exhibitions of intoxication at Ceylon.—Officers Commanding Corps or Detachments are to recollect, that a Native Officer placed in arrest, may on trial exonerate himself from the charge; therefore it must be improper to use without real necessity any procedure towards him which intermediately lowers him in the eyes of the Sepoys.

By Command.

Remarks by His Excellency The Most Noble The Commander in Chief.

The Commander in Chief has approved the award of Death against Fazil Khan Trooper, and Meer Azimut Ally Naick, as being fitly apportioned to the breach of a sacred military trust, and to an outrage against discipline perpetrated from the most malignant motive; His Excellency is, however, pleased to commute the capital sentence in each case into working in Irons on the roads. The term of labor for Fazil Khan is to be five years from the promulgation of this order---The term for Meer Azimut Ally's labor is to be seven years from the same date, the Commander in Chief regarding the crime of the Non-Commissioned Officer as greater than that of the sentry who visibly acted by his advice as well as with his co-operation.

G. O. By His Excellency General Sir Alexander Campbell, Baronet & K. C. B.

His Excellency General Sir Alexander Campbell, Bart. & K. C. B. need scarcely express the pride and gratification he feels, in assuming his appointment to be Commander in Chief of so distinguished a portion of the British Forces, as the Madras Army, with which it has been his good fortune to serve for a long period of his Life---His Excellency's mind is so strongly impressed with the brilliant exploits it has achieved, as well as the perfection of its discipline and subordination, that he has only to assure the Army at large, it will be the leading feature of his ambition to support its long established character, and if possible, to add to the just renown it has on all occasions claimed, and to which title the Madras Army added so brilliant an example, under its late gallant Commander in Chief, Sir Thomas Hislop, during the late Campaigns in the Deckan.

The General's intimate knowledge of the professional talent and merits of a great part of the Officers, now holding high official Stations, as well as the general character of the Officers of the Army, for zeal and well directed experience, is a sufficient pledge, that he will meet their cordial support in preserving its character and well established fame.

The practice of forwarding a second application to Head Quarters for an extension of leave creates much unnecessary inconvenience, and although the Commander in Chief will at all times be happy to meet the wishes of the Officers of the Army when consistent with the good of the Service, yet, His Excellency deems it of importance that this practice be discountenanced.

FINDING AND SENTENCE.—The Court having maturely weighed the evidence on the part of the prosecution, together with what has been produced on the defence, is of opinion, that the Prisoners, Sew Buccus Sing, Bowanee Deen Opediah, Nowneed Sing, and Dowreean Sing, are all and severally guilty of the Crime with which they are charged, viz. "having on the evening of the 25th of September 1820 at Jubulpore, violently assaulted, and cruelly, and wickedly beaten Paunch Couree, a Camp Follower," which being in breach of the Articles of War, the Court does sentence them, to receive each five hundred lashes on his bare back in the usual manner.

Remarks and further Orders by His Excellency The Most Noble The Commander in Chief.

A free pardon is granted to Nowneed Sing on account of his having foreborne to defend himself by perjured Witnesses. The having brought forward such profligate testimonies is a great aggravation of the Crime proved against the other three Prisoners, each of them, therefore, is to be turned out of the Service after having received the corporal punishment, which the Officer Commanding at the Station will cause to be inflicted at such time, in such proportion as he shall think fit.

The Witnesses Sudeen Sing, Ramdeen and Rondee Sing, whose testimonies the Court has justly pronounced to have been fabricated to defeat the ends of Justice, are to be turned out of the Service.

The Woman Mankoor who has acknowledged herself to have been guilty of Perjury for money offered to her by one of the Prisoners, is to be publicly turned out of the Cantonment and to be prohibited from ever setting foot in it again.

By Command.

At a General Court Martial assembled at Bombay on the 9th day of April 1821, by virtue of a Warrant from His Excellency Lieutenant General The Honorable Sir Charles Colville, G.C.B. & K.T.S. Commanding His Majesty's and the Honorable Company's Forces serving under the Presidency of Bombay.

President.—Lieutenant Colonel H. Hessman, Artillery.

Judge Advocate General.—Major Vans Kennedy.

CHARGE.—Lieutenant William Morley, Bombay Regiment of Artillery, placed under arrest by order of His Excellency The Commander in Chief, on complaint of Captain T. P. Thompson, His Majesty's 17th Dragoons, Commanding a Detachment employed on Field Service, on the coast of Arabia.

For conduct unworthy an Officer, and for disobedience of orders on the 9th November 1820, in not obeying an order given to him to make preparations for defence in the Camp and Town of Beni Bow Hassan, while the Commanding Officer took out the Picquet to the front against the enemy, and in having instead of obeying this order, gone off on the same evening to Soor, thereby abandoning the Commanding Officer, the Imaum, the sick, and the rest of the Detachment, and in having taken off with him or allowed to accompany him, the Men of the Department of Artillery, whereby the defence of the place or any further operations against the enemy, were rendered impracticable.

By order of His Excellency The Commander in Chief.

BOMBAY ADJT. GENL.'s OFFICE, 21st December 1820. (Signed) D. LEIGHTON, Adjutant General of the Army.

FINDING AND SENTENCE.—The Court having maturely weighed and considered all that has been adduced in support of the prosecution, as well as what has been brought forward on the defence, are of opinion that the Prisoner, Lieutenant William Morley of the Bombay Regiment of Artillery, is guilty of the several facts alleged in the charge, with the exception of "conduct unworthy of an Officer," and of having rendered the "defence of the place or any further operations against the enemy impracticable," of which allegations, they do therefore acquit him.

But the Court at the same time are of opinion, that the Prisoner's conduct in this case has proceeded from error of judgment arising from inexperience and from the peculiar difficulties of the situation in which he was placed, and they do therefore sentence him, the said Lieutenant William Morley to be admonished in such manner as His Excellency The Commander in Chief may think proper.

(Signed) V. KENNEDY, Judge Advocate General.

(Signed) H. HESSMAN, Lt. Col. Comg. 2d Bat. Artillery, President.

REVISED OPINION.—The Court having taken into their mature deliberation the preceding remarks of His Excellency The Commander in Chief, and being of opinion that the latter part of the Charge has not been supported either by the disposition of the Prosecutor or by any evidence which he has adduced, do therefore adhere to their former Finding and Sentence.

(Signed) VANS KENNEDY, Judge Advocate General.

(Signed) H. HESSMAN, Lt. Col. Com. Art.—President.

SENTENCE CONFIRMED.

(Signed) C. COLLVILLE, Lieutenant General.

Remarks by The Commander in Chief.

In compliance with the above Sentence, the Commander in Chief admonishes Lieutenant Morley, that it would have been more consistent with the respect for discipline and military obedience which he professes in his defence, had he dwelt more on his want of experience to guide him in the difficulties of his situation, than in strictures on the plans and measures of his Commanding Officer.

When too, calling upon Military History to justify his opinion, he speaks slightingly if not sneeringly of the defence that was to have been expected from sixty sick, including but thirty convalescents, it is proper to tell him, that not to go out of the Military History of his own Country, instances will be found of services of the most valuable nature, effected by a few sick thrown as these were, into a good defensive position, under an active and intelligent Medical Officer.

But to these were to be added the unbroken picket of sixty, and the Sepoys survivors of the action for whom the arms of the Sick were available, under four Officers and the other Europeans of the Ordnance Department, a body which united under the cover of two 18 Pounders, was sufficient to have given such confidence to the Troops of the Imaum collected in the presence of their Sovereign, as would have admitted of the destruction of the Guns, and Stores, that could not be removed, and of a comparatively, easy retreat upon Soor, instead of the circuitous and harrassing route which in their disorganised state it became necessary to take.

Having discharged this unpleasing office, His Excellency turns with satisfaction to the favorable testimonials given of Lieut. Morley's former, short, but rather active career, and which, with the experience now obtained afford good promise of future professional merit. He is hereby released from his arrest and directed to return to his duty at the Head Quarters of the Regiment of Artillery.

Lieutenant Gidley of the 1st Battalion 11th Regiment Native Infantry who has been under arrest upon nearly the same Charges, is hereby released therefrom, and is to return to his duty; it appearing upon the proceedings of the above trial, that his responsibility was less, and his inexperience in the Service still greater, than that of Lieutenant Morley.

With reference to the General Orders by the Commander in Chief, under date 16th February 1821, publishing to the Army, Extracts from the Minutes of the Honorable the Governor in Council of the 20th December 1820, His Excellency General Sir Alexander Campbell, Baronet and K. C. B. has much gratification in conveying in public orders further Extract from the Minutes of the Honorable the Governor in Council dated 3d July 1821, which cannot fail of removing from Captain Ogilvie's mind, those impressions of deep regret, which must be felt by every military man when under the displeasure of Government.

Extract from the Minutes of the Honorable the Governor in Council, 3d July 1821.

The following Letter from the Adjutant General of the Army is recorded.

(Here enter 5th May No. 1829.)

The Governor in Council proceeds with great satisfaction, on the representation which accompanied the foregoing letter from the Adjutant General of the Army, to record his conviction that the conduct of Captain Ogilvie on the occasion of the late movement of the 1st Battalion 17th Regiment Native Infantry from Cannanore to Secunderabad ought to be relieved from the disapprobation with which it had been noticed in the General Orders by the Commander in Chief, dated 16th February last.—The progress of the Corps appears to have been attended with circumstances peculiarly calamitous from the severe pressure of the Epidemic ; and the increasing numbers of the sick, its sufficient apology for the failure of its resources, rendered it dependent upon the Country, which it traversed, for the means of conveyance.—The irregularities that occurred, arose from the unusual difficulties which the Corps had to contend with—they were the consequence of the distressing predicament in which it found itself placed on the march—but Captain Ogilvie's explanation has satisfied the Governor in Council that he had no personal share in any of those irregularities—that on the contrary he was solicitous, and used every exertion, to prevent them and to protect the Inhabitants.

Remarks by His Excellency The Most Noble The Commander in Chief.

As the opinion of the Court on the relative credit of witnesses examined before it, must be more sure than a judgment drawn from a perusal of the written testimonies, the Finding which acquits Lieutenant Elkin is confirmed.

The Commander in Chief however cannot pass over in silence the extraordinary circumstances recorded on the Proceedings when the Court justly interferred to admonish Lieutenant Elkin against the gross and indecent abuse which he was lavishing on every person connected with the Prosecution, while the Prisoner declared he would not proceed in his defence if curbed in that license, the Court ought to have enforced its principle ; and in the event of the Prisoner's persevering, should have pronounced its award on the already recorded evidence. Where it allowed that the defence of a Prisoner should be made the vehicle of wanton charges against individuals not brought forward as Witnesses and relatively to matters wholly extraneous to the questions in litigation, a door would be opened for the exercise of the most mischievous malignity and insubordination.—It is therefore ordered that Lieutenant Elkin be placed anew under arrest, and that he be brought to trial for scandalous vituperation of his superior Officer Brigadier Vanrenen, pertinaciously again and again in contempt of the Court's repeated intimation that such detraction had no relevancy to any points agitated.—The Court before which Lieutenant Elkin shall be tried will have to determine whether the imputations on Brigadier Vanrenen were palliated by their having any imaginable bearing on the facts at issue, so as that there was a possibility of their weakening inferences unfavourable for the Prisoner; or whether their introduction into the defence was solely for the indulgence of gratuitous virulence.

By Command.

Military Secretary.

President.—Bowaney Deen, Subadar Major 2d Battalion 1st Regiment Native Infantry.
Officiating Deputy Judge Advocate.—Captain John B. Pratt, 2d Battalion 4th Regiment Native Infantry.
Interpreter.—Brevet Captain Arthur Wight, 2d Battalion 4th Regiment Native Infantry.

(Signed) JAMES NICOL,
Adjutant General of the Army.

FINDING AND SENTENCE.---The Court after mature deliberation on all adduced before it, is of opinion that the Prisoner Bhopaul Sing is guilty of the Charge of Murder exhibited against him, and does therefore sentence the said Bhopaul Sing, Sepoy of the 2d Grenadier Company 2d Battalion 4th Regiment Native Infantry to suffer death by being hanged by the neck until he is dead, at such time and place as The Most Noble The Commander in Chief may direct.

Remarks by His Excellency The Most Noble The Commander in Chief.

The Commander in Chief concurs in the decision of the Court the more readily because he is satisfied that certain objectionable points in Captain Vincent's defence were regarded as aggravating the original transgression. Contemplating, however, the length of time during which Capt. Vincent has been in arrest, tho' it arose partly from his summoning from distant quarters witnesses who appears to have been little capable of extenuating his conduct, His Excellency is pleased to remit the penalty : since the publicity of the sentence, with the Commander in Chief's declaration of its being in itself justly measured and applied, must be deemed a serious punishment.

By Command.

(Signed) C. COLVILLE, Lieutenant General.

The Commander in Chief has been induced to give his confirmation to what might otherwise appear a rather severe Sentence, from his having on perusal of the Proceedings perceived that the Prisoner's disrespectful message to Lieutenant Collis, was aggravated by having been repeated in the hearing of a Guard (which circumstances ought properly to have been noticed in the Charge,) and before which he further misconducted himself, by insulting the poor woman, whom he had before ill treated, leaving her without a Cloth to cover her, or a Bed to lie upon.

The previous character of the Prisoner besides, does not give reason to expect that he would ever fill the situation of a Native Officer with the respectability required, and he is therefore to be discharged from the Service, agreeably to his Sentence.

GENERAL ORDERS,

HEAD QUARTERS :

CHOULTRY PLAIN, 10*th October* 1821.

In publishing to the Army the accompanying Circular Letter, No. 362 in the Judicial Department, under date 28th August, with the Regulation VI. A. D. 1821, The Commander in Chief directs, that the same be entered in the Order Book of every Division, Field Force, District, Garrison, Cantonment, Corps and Department of the Army, and that every Commissioned Officer will be provided at the public expense, with a Copy of the Regulation, it being of importance, that they should be familiar to every individual.

General Sir Alexander Campbell, Baronet and K. C. B. is further pleased to notice, that translations in the native languages will be furnished to Corps and Departments respectively, for the information of the Native Ranks, which are to be preserved as records in Corps, Troops and Companies by the Staff Officer, and Officers Commanding Troops and Companies, in order that the objects of these Regulations and instructions, may be correctly explained and understood by all Ranks, including the Servants attached to the Bazars of Corps.

The great dependence every Corps and individual of the Army, must now repose on the Bazars attached to Corps, renders it essentially necessary, that its efficiency should be most carefully and zealously attended to, and His Excellency The Commander in Chief therefore enjoins the most immediate and particular attention, of Commanding Officers of Corps, to this important part of their duty.

In all cases of Detachments of Corps or small Details, whether under the Command of Native Officers or European or Native Non-Commissioned Officers, Commanding Officers will be responsible, that the Adjutant or Officer parading them explain in the fullest manner, the provisions of these Orders and Regulations necessary for their conduct, and caution them to enforce the strictest obedience to them.

On occasions of individuals passing through the Country, whether on duty or otherwise, The Commander in Chief expects them to observe the most scrupulous attention to the orders of Government, and not only to avoid oppressing the venders, or the inhabitants, but to restrain their Servants, for whose conduct they must be held responsible.

CRIME.—Against Lieutenant Emanuel Elkin, of the 2d Battalion 12th Regiment Native Infantry.

For scandalous and infamous behaviour unbecoming the character of an Officer and a Gentleman, and subversive of military subordination in making his defence before a General Court Martial, (held at Cawnpore on the 22d May last and continued by adjournments) the corrupt excuse for advancing several deeply disgraceful imputations against his superior Officer Brigadier Vanrenen; the latter not having been either prosecutor or witness in the cause, and the matter slanderously alleged against him, being utterly unconnected with any question before the Court.

The following Extracts from the confirmed Proceedings of an European General Court Martial assembled at Bombay, on Monday the 2d instant, by order of His Excellency Lieutenant General The Honorable Sir Charles Colville, G. C. B. Commanding His Majesty's and the Honorable Company's Forces serving under the Presidency of Bombay, are published.

2d.—For most culpable and shameful neglect of his duty in not having taken account of what Ordnance Stores were issued from the H. C. S. Ernaad, these Stores being under his immediate charge.

3d.—For not being able to give me any account of the Ordnance Stores, sent from Bombay under his charge.

4th.—For great disrespect to me on board the Bomb Vessel Thames, on Monday the 4th Instant, and on board the H. C. S. Ernaad, on Wednesday the 6th Instant.

10th December 1820.

(Signed) W. JACOB, Lieut.
Comg. Detach. Artillery and in charge of Ordnance Stores.

By order of His Excellency The Commander in Chief.

Bombay Adjt. Genl.'s Office,
29th June 1821.

(Signed) D. LEIGHTON,
Adjutant General of the Army.

FINDING AND SENTENCE.—The Court having maturely weighed and considered all that has been adduced in support of the prosecution, as well as what has been brought forward on the defence, came to the following opinion, on the several charges preferred against Conductor William M'Ginness of the Ordnance Department.

With regard to the 1st Charge, that the Prisoner is guilty of conduct highly irregular, and unbecoming to a Conductor, in being in a state of intoxication on the night of Sunday the 3d December 1820, but that he is not guilty of refusing to proceed on board the Bomb Vessel Thames, with the Ordnance Stores, and the Court do therefore acquit him of this part of the said charge.

That the Prisoner is not guilty of the 2d Charge, and the Court do therefore acquit him of the same.

That the Prisoner is not guilty of the 3d Charge, and the Court do therefore acquit him of the same.

With regard to the 4th Charge, that the Prisoner is guilty of great disrespect to Lieutenant Jacob on board the H. C. Ship Ernaad, on Wednesday the 5th December 1820, but that he is not guilty of great disrespect to Lieutenant Jacob on board the Bomb Vessel Thames, on Monday the 4th December 1820, and they do therefore acquit the Prisoner of this part of the charge.

The Court having found the Prisoner guilty as above specified, do therefore adjudge him, the said Conductor William M'Ginness, to be reduced to the rank of Sub-Conductor.

(Signed) VANS KENNEDY, Judge Advocate General.

(Signed) B. W. D. SEALY, Lieut. Col. 1st Bat. 2d Regt. N. I.

APPROVED AND CONFIRMED.

(Signed) C. COLVILLE, Lieutenant General.

Before giving his confirmation to the above, the Commander in Chief wished to search into the truth or otherwise of the treatment alleged by the Prisoner in his defence, to have been received by him when under arrest, on board the Honorable Company's Ship Ernaad, on her passage from Mocha; the result has shewn his complaint to be groundless, and along with the whole tenor of his observations on the witnesses for the prosecution on his trial goes only to confirm the character he appears to have already established to himself in his Corps of want of respect for his superiors.

G. O. BY GOVERNMENT.

Major General Sir John Malcolm, G. C. B. and K. L. S. having applied for permission to proceed to Europe, the Honorable the Governor in Council has learned with deep concern, that this distinguished Officer is now compelled to quit India on account of the declining state of his health.—The many and important services of Sir John Malcolm in different situations have been so often brought to the notice of the Honorable the Court of Directors by the Supreme Government, that no praise of this Government can add to his high reputation—Although however, it belongs to higher authority to appreciate his services in the late Mahratta War and the settlement of Central India, the Governor in Council cannot on this occasion deny himself the pleasure of discharging the grateful duty of expressing in General Orders the high sense he entertains of the Major General's talents, and of his unwearied and honourable exertion of them for the benefit of his country. Among the individuals who have at different times distinguished themselves in the employment of the Honorable Company, Sir John Malcolm will always hold a very high rank.—His career has been unexampled—for no other servant of the Honorable Company has ever during so long a period been so constantly employed in the conduct of such various and important military and political duties—His great talents were too well known to admit of their being confined to the more limited range of service under his own Presidency.—The exercise of them in different situations has connected him with every Presidency, and rendered him less the servant of any one of them, than of the Indian Empire at large.

Major General Sir John Malcolm is permitted to return to Europe on sick certificate.

By order of the Honorable the Governor in Council.

G. O. By Government.

The Governor in Council having had occasion to observe that claims to pensions have been preferred, admitted and acted upon after a lapse of many years, in violation of the provisions contained in the G. O. of the 11th October 1814, deems it expedient to establish the following rules, respecting pensions to the heirs of Native Officers and Soldiers, Store and Tent Lascars and other public followers who may lose their lives on foreign service, or in battle in India.

In the case of casualties occurring on foreign service, the claim is to be preferred within two years after the date of the casualty, or within one year after the return to the Coast of the Corps or Detachment in which the casualty occurred, and in the case of casualties in battle in India, the claim is to be preferred within one year after the date of the casualty: all claims which may not be preferred within the periods above specified, are to be peremptorily rejected, and the claimants will forfeit all right to pension.

In order that the Troops and their families may be fully acquainted with the intentions of Government on this subject, it is directed that the foregoing regulation shall be inserted in the standing Orders of each Corps and Department in the service, and that Officers Commanding Stations or Corps shall use every possible means to give it general publicity.

All claims to pension on behalf of heirs of Native Soldiers or followers which may be brought forward within the prescribed period shall, in the first instance, be submitted to investigation by a Committee to be formed at the Head Quarters of the Corps, Detachment or Department in which the casualty is stated to have occurred—the proceedings of such Committee are to be conducted in the following form, and if the claim shall appear to the Committee to be just, the proceedings are to be forwarded with the recommendation of the Officer Commanding to the Adjutant General of the Army, after which they will, if approved by the Commander in Chief, be submitted to Government for sanction.

FORM.

Proceedings of a Committee held by order of A.B. Commanding————to investigate claims to pensions preferred by persons stating themselves to be the nearest heirs to Native Soldiers (or public followers, &c.) who have died of wounds received in battle, (or who have lost their lives on Foreign Service.)

Under instructions from the Honorable the Governor in Council, His Excellency The Commander in Chief is pleased to establish as a regulation of the service, that Soldiers, European or Native, shall not be transferred, discharged, or become a casualty in any manner whatever, without having his clothing, as well as other claims as far as practicable discharged, previously to his quitting the Corps.

To give effect to this regulation, it is directed, that when clothing, for the year due, is not in Regimental store, and subject to no other claim, and compensation is consequently required to be drawn, that Abstracts be forwarded to the Clothing Board as soon as the casualty occurs, or official intimation of it is received at the Head Quarters of the Corps, and that on all occasions of discharging Soldiers, of whatever rank, the Abstract for compensation in lieu of clothing, if none be in store, shall be forwarded to the Clothing Board by the same tappal by which the discharge certificates are transmitted, and the Adjutant General of the Army will apprise the Clothing Board of His Excellency the Commander in Chief's sanction to the discharge, in order that the Abstract may be passed, and returned to the Officer Commanding the corps, forthwith.

In conformity with this principle, Officers Commanding Corps, and in charge of Departments will as early as practicable prepare, and transmit to the Clothing Board, Compensation Abstracts for all men who may be entitled to clothing, on the 31st December 1821, and who may have been recommended by the General Invaliding, &c. HEAD QUARTERS : Choultry Plain, 3d November 1821.

G. O. By the Commander in Chief.

His Excellency The Commander in Chief having had occasion to notice in the examination of the proceedings of the General Invaliding, Pensioning, and Discharging Committees that have assembled under the General Orders of the 4th of July last, the various reasons assigned for the branch of the non-effective establishments to which each individual has been recommended for transfer under the head of "Why recommended," is pleased to call the attention of Officers who may hereafter be employed on that duty to the considerations which should guide their judgment, and the decision they are required in reference to the regulations of the service to make.

1st. Much importance attaches to the correct, and explicit filling up of the column of "appearance and particular marks," which should fully express the opinion formed of the individual from his appearance, whether robust, weak, sickly, emaciated, or as the case may be, to guide the future disposal of the man.

2d. None but men fit for Garrison and occasional Escort duty, can be useful in a Veteran Battalion, it is therefore only encumbering the service to recommend individuals of any rank whatsoever for that branch of the service who are "worn out," "debilitated," "subject to constant sickness," or in any way, infirm of body, deaf, or having defective vision—The object for which those Corps were formed was to give repose to such individuals of the service as had passed beyond their more active days, and were unfit for Field duties, that they might serve a few years in the discharge of Garrison duty previous to being finally transferred to the pension list, the duties of such Corps requiring a certain activity, and fitness to perform service, although not exposed to the fatigues of Field service; it must be understood by Committees in passing and recommending men for transfer to Veteran Battalions, that they are to be of a description fit for all duties but the fatigue of long marches, and the exposure incidental to Field service;—under these explanations, Officers will be guided in all future cases in recommending the transfer of individuals from the effective to the Veteran Battalions, and under the head of "Why recommended" it will be the most appropriate cause to assign, unfit for Field duty.

No individual is however eligible to be transferred to the Invalid, or Pension Establishments, unless he has been wounded in the service, has lost his health on actual or foreign service, or been disabled by accident in the execution of his duty, (duty certified) or, has served (20) twenty years.

The individuals who will be fitly recommended for the pension list, are such as are unfit for Field, or Garrison duty from wounds, loss of health, and who from age, debility, chronic complaints, natural or contracted bodily, or mental defects, and not capable of serving with effect to themselves, or advantage to the efficiency of the Corps in a Veteran Battalion—All such individuals are to be recommended for pension on the half pay of their rank, unless they come within the provision of the General Orders by Government dated 15th of July 1807, noted in the margin, full pay is only to be recommended in such cases; or on account of extraordinary length of service, combined with high character, meritorious and distinguished services, which are always to be fully stated by the Committee, and certified by the Commanding Officer of the Corps.

Individuals of Veteran Battalions when unfit to continue longer in the full exercise of their duties in such Corps with ease to themselves, and credit to the service, must be selected by Commanding Officers respectively, for transfer to the pension list on all occasions when periodical Committees are assembled; and the Officers Commanding, or in charge, of such Corps will be held responsible to recommend for removal to the pension list all such individuals as have become unfit from age, debility, or other cause, it being incompatible with the object of Government to retain individuals of such a description on the strength of Veteran Battalions.

His Lordship in Council is further pleased to publish the following explanation of the term limb, as used in the 7th para. of the 8th and 18th sections of the Code of Regulations dated 11th March 1806, under the head, Invaliding and Pensioning, viz. "It is to be considered "applicable to an arm, a leg, a "hand, or a foot, and such wounds "as deprive a soldier bona fide of "the use of either, shall entitle him "to the pension of full pay. Fingers or toes may be separated "from the body without depriving "the wounded man of the use of "his hand of foot, while in other "cases dislocation of a joint, separation of the tendons, or "stiffness produced by the effect of " wounds may entirely disable the " limb from any useful effort. Of " the nature of such wounds and " the extent of debility they pro- " duce, the best judgment may be " formed by inspection and from " the opinion of Medical Officers. " The case can seldom be doubtful, " but where doubt exists, the bias " should be towards the favourable " determination."

All Individuals unfit for the service, and who have not served twenty years, or been wounded, or lost their health on service, or disabled by accident in the execution of their duty, must be discharged.

The foregoing rules and regulations equally apply to the European troops of this Presidency, with the exception of their period of service, who are only required to have served ten years in the Honorable Company's Army in India, to be eligible for transfer to the non-effective establishment, if unfit for further effective duty.

Assistant Surgeon J. W. Shearman is removed from the 16th Regiment to the 23d Regiment and 2d Battalion.

Assistant Surgeon J. R. Alexander is posted to the 16th Regiment and 2d Battalion.

The undermentioned Officers have obtained leave from their Corps and Stations.

FORT ST. GEORGE, 2*d November* 1821.

G. O. BY GOVERNMENT.

It having been brought to the notice of Government that, in the communications of Officers with the department of Audit, frequent instances occur of the most disrespectful letters being addressed to the Military Auditor General, The Honorable The Governor in Council calls the attention of Officers to the repeated injunctions of the Honorable the Court of Directors, prohibitory of similar improper proceedings.

Letter dated 25th April 1810.

Para. 116. "It is indispensibly necessary to the due execution of the important tho' invidious duties of "the Office of Audit, that the Military Auditor General should receive every reasonable support from "Government in the discharge of his official labours, and that any instance of indecorous behaviour towards "him shall be marked with the displeasure of the Governor in Council.

Letter dated 9th September 1812.

Para. 16. "We have on this and many other occasions, observed, that very unmerited insinuations "are thrown out by Officers against our Military Auditor General, under, we believe, a mistaken idea "that a considerable degree of discretion rests with that Officer in enforcing the Pay Regulations of "Government.

"We consider it to be of importance that the Officers of our Army should clearly understand that the "Military Auditor General has no discretionary authority, but is bound to enforce the Regulations of "Government respecting the pay and allowances of the Troops with the utmost strictness and precision."

While the Governor in Council announces that any further instances of disrespect to the Office of Audit, will be considered as a disobedience of the Orders of Government, and treated accordingly, he assures Officers of the most prompt relief being afforded, whenever any case of hardship may be brought under his consideration.

By order of the Honorable the Governor in Council.

The details above drafted from the several Extra Battalions are to be numerically brought upon the strength of the Corps to which they have been posted on the 1st of December proximo, and are to be paid, mustered, and returned, as Detachments of such Corps of the line respectively, until each shall reach its Battalion Head Quarters.

With reference to the General Orders by the Commander in Chief of the 1st Instant, fixing the 31st of December next, as the date from which all individuals transferred to the Non-Effective Establishment, shall be struck off the strength of Corps, it is now directed, that those to be invalided and pensioned from the Six Extra Battalions (and who have not consequently been included in the numbers drafted) shall be struck off the effective strength of the Extra Battalions to which they respectively belong, on the 30th Instant, and received upon the strength of the Non-Effective Establishment on the 1st of December 1821.—Those who are pensioned will remain at their present Stations until their Pension Certificates are delivered to them by the Commanding or Staff Officers, and those transferred to Veteran Battalions, will be furnished with Pay Certificates and Passports as soon as the Veteran Battalions to which they are posted, is notified to Battalion Head Quarters.

Commanding Officers of Extra Battalions will furnish to Commanding Officers of Veteran Battalions, accurate Registers of the several ranks transferred to those Corps.

Each Individual of whatever rank, drafted to Corps of the line, transferred to Veteran Battalions, or pensioned from the Six Extra Battalions, is to be furnished with a Pay Certificate before he quits the Corps.

The Artificers, Bazar Establishment, and Toties attached to the Six Extra Battalions are to be discharged on the 30th Instant, and orders will hereafter be issued for the disposal of the Staff Serjeants and Native Dressers.

Accurate Register Rolls of the drafts from the Extra Battalions, to Corps of the line are to be forwarded as soon as possible after the drafting is completed, to the Officers Commanding Corps.

Nominal Rolls of the Native Officers, shewing to what Corps each is drafted, and the date of their respective Commissions in each rank, are to be transmitted to the Adjutant General of the Army, and also to the Officers Commanding the Corps to which they are transferred.

The Registers to be furnished to Corps must accurately describe each individual's length of service, both in his present, and former Corps, and the date of Commission of each rank of Native Officers, as well as the date of appointment of the non-commissioned in their several grades, in order that each may rank in the Corps to which he is drafted according to his date of Commission, if a Commissioned Officer, or date of appointment if a non-commissioned Officer.

Pay in arrears for November, and advance for December 1821, will be drawn on abstract by Officers Commanding Extra Battalions, and issued to them to complete the settlement of their accounts up to the 30th November 1821, after which the several details will be drawn for by the Officer placed in charge, or if under a Native Officer by the staff Officer of the station where they may be, till they join Battalion Head Quarters.

With reference to the General Order by the Commander in Chief of the 30th October last, all claims for clothing due to individuals, pensioned or discharged from the six Extra Battalions, are to be adjusted by payment of compensation in lieu of such clothing, previously to the individuals quitting their Corps. Abstracts for the amount of such claims, are to be forwarded forthwith to the Clothing Board, agreeably to the provisions of the above General Order.

Compensation in lieu of Clothing due to the six Extra Battalions for the year 1820-21, is to be immediately drawn for, on abstract.

The 3d Extra Battalion not having received Clothing for the year 1819-20, compensation in lieu of it will be drawn for, for Individuals of all ranks who may be entitled to it, and who have been ordered to be invalided, pensioned or discharged—but those drafted into Battalions of the line, from the 3d Extra Battalion, who have clothing for 1819-20 due to them, will have it supplied, at the Head Quarters of the Corps to which they are respectively drafted.—The Commanding Officer of the 3d Extra Battalion, will therefore furnish Certificates in the form of Nominal Rolls, shewing particularly the rank in which each Individual is entitled to receive Clothing for the year 1819-20.—On the receipt of these Rolls, by Officers Commanding Corps, they will transmit them to the Secretary of the Clothing Board, that orders may be given from that Department, for the despatch of the supply on account of the Indents which have already been furnished by the Officer Commanding the 3d Extra Battalion.

The sashes which are due for the year 1819-20, to the non-commissioned Officers of the 1st, 2d, 4th, 5th and 6th Extra Battalions, will be supplied in like manner, and the Officers Commanding those Corps will furnish the several details with certificates accordingly.

Officers Commanding Extra Battalions will report to the Adjutant General for the Commander in Chief's information, the probable period when these arrangements will be completed, in order that detailed instructions from Head Quarters may be furnished to Officers Commanding Divisions, for the movement of the drafts to join their respective Corps.

The details drafted from Extra Battalions (with the exception of those for the Rifle Corps and Light Infantry Battalions) will march with their arms, accoutrements, small stores, and fixed Garrison proportion of ammunition, and the Drummers, Fifers, and Buglers of all Corps are to take their instruments and accoutrements with them—these are to be struck off the strength of Extra Battalions from the 10th Instant, and numerical returns of them furnished to the Corps to which they are transferred.

All arms, and accoutrements, ammunition, small stores, Artificers' tools, and every other article of Battalion stores, surplus to those furnished to drafts are to be returned into the nearest store immediately, and with reference to the General Order of the 17th September last, all such articles of appointments and store as may be supernumerary in Corps after the drafts join, are to be returned into the nearest store.

With reference to a circular Letter from the Adjutant General's Department, dated 15th September 1821, addressed to Officers Commanding Corps of Native Infantry, His Excellency The Commander in Chief, is pleased to direct, that, after the drafts from the Extra Battalions have been received upon the strength of Corps, the promotion and recruiting in Battalions respectively to fill vacancies will proceed in the usual manner; and in Corps where there may then be vacancies, and no supernumeraries of the rank, that recommendation certificates for the promotion of Native Officers may be forwarded to the Adjutant General's Office, and the promotion of non-commissioned Officers be made agreeable to regulations.

G. O. By the Commander in Chief.

The following Extracts from General Orders issued by His Excellency The Most Noble The Commander in Chief in India, are by His Excellency's Orders, published to the Army, serving under this Presidency.

Remarks and further orders by His Exeellency The Most Noble The Commander in Chief.

The verdict having been an acquittal, The Commander in Chief will not call upon the Court to reconsider it. But he must express his astonishment as well as his strongest disapprobation of such a sentence, after the evidence recorded in the Proceedings. Every circumstance supported in the fullest manner the dying declaration of the murdered woman, that her husband was the perpetrator of the act.

The supposition that temporary insanity occasioned the horrid outrage was distinctly negatived by professional testimony. The Commander in Chief, therefore, is led to imagine that some strange notion of the husband's having a right over the life of his wife, must have swayed the Members of the Court. It is on that account ordered that the Court be convened, and that the Officer Commanding at the Station shall explain to the Members how irreconcileable such a conception is to the Law under which they were acting, and how revolting to every sense of justice.

The Court is subsequently to be dissolved.

By Command.

(Signed) J. MACRA, Lieut. Col.
Military Secretary.

The following Extracts from the Proceedings of a Native General Court Martial, assembled at Poona on Monday the 6th day of August 1821, by virtue of a warrant from His Excellency Lieutenant General The Honorable Sir Charles Colville, G. C. B. Commanding His Majesty's and the Honorable Company's Forces serving under the Presidency of Bombay, are published.

President,—Subadar Hutchell Sing, 1st Battalion 1st or Grenadier N. I.

Officiating Judge Advocate,—Brevet Captain W. Spiller.

Interpreter,—Lieutenant Hancock, Quarter Master 1st Battalion 10th Regiment N. I.

CHARGE.—Subadar Shaik Fakeera of the 6th Company of Gun Lascars, placed under arrest for highly disgraceful and improper conduct, unbecoming the character of an Officer, in the following instances, viz.

SENTENCE.—The Court having maturely weighed and considered the evidence on the part of the prosecution, together with that which the prisoner has adduced in his defence, is of opinion, that the Prisoner Gooriah, Private in the 2d Battalion 9th Regiment Native Infantry, is guilty of all and every part of the Charge preferred against him, with the exception of being one of the Guard placed over the Cash Chest for its protection.

The Court having found the Prisoner guilty as above, do sentence him to receive (900) nine hundred lashes on his bare back, and afterwards to be turned out of the Service with every mark of disgrace.

CHARGE.—Subadar Khader Cawn, 1st Battalion 5th Regiment Native Infantry, placed in arrest by order of Colonel Pierce, Commanding at Bangalore, on the complaint of Junglee Bebee, Widow of Shaik Dowd deceased, and late a Puckally in the same Corps, for dishonest, irregular and consequently un-officer-like conduct in the following instances, viz.

1st.—Having caused the whole property of the said Junglee Bebee, some articles of which were gold and silver ornaments of the value of from 350 to 400 Rupees to be seized and removed from her house to his own, by Havildars Abdul Nabbee, and Permaul Naik, also by Privates Mahomed Ibrahim and Shaik Meraun, of the 1st Battalion 5th Regiment Native Infantry, and under the direction of Jemadar Cassim Bheg of the same Corps, between the hours of 6 and 8 in the night of Wednesday the 22d of August 1821 or thereabouts, without the knowledge, and consequently concurrence of his immediate Commanding Officer, the Major of Brigade at Bangalore; but upon the authority of a letter which it was pretended had been received from the brother at Mullagaum of the deceased Puckally Shaik Dowd through the Post Office at Bangalore, which letter was however forged by Hussain, son of the abovementioned Jemadar Cassim Bheg, as has since been confessed by him, the said Hussain.

2d.—Neglecting to report to his immediate Commanding Officer the Major of Brigade at Bangalore his having so caused the seizure and removal of Junglee Bebee's property until more than thirty six hours had elapsed after the occurrence, during which interval the said Junglee Bebee had preferred a complaint on the subject against Subadar Khader Cawn, and Jemadar Cassim Bheg to the Officer Commanding at Bangalore.

Dep. Adjt. General of the Army.

OPINION and SENTENCE.—The Court having attentively considered the evidence for and against the Prisoner, is of opinion, that the first Charge is substantiated, but the Court acquits the Prisoner of any evil intention therein, it appearing evident that he acted under the supposition that the letter was correct.

The Court finds the Prisoner guilty of the second Charge, but in a mitigated degree, as he withheld the report until an inventory was made of the Property seized.

The Court having found the Prisoner Khader Cawn, Subadar 1st Battalion 5th Regiment Native

Infantry, guilty as above, do sentence him to be privately reprimanded in such manner as His Excellency The Commander in Chief may deem fit.

Jemadar Cassim Bheg, 1st Battalion 5th Regiment Native Infantry, placed in arrest by order of Colonel Pierce, Commanding at Bangalore, on the complaint of Junglee Bebee, widow of Shaik Dowd deceased, and late a Puckally in the same Corps, for dishonest, irregular and consequently un-officer-like conduct in the following instances, viz.

1st.—Being present at, and assisting in the seizure, and removal to Subadar Khader Cawn's house by Havildars Abdul Nabbee and Permaul Naik, also by Privates Mahomed Ibrahim, and Shaik Meraun of the 1st Battalion 5th Regiment Native Infantry of the whole property of the said Junglee Bebee, some articles of which were gold and silver ornaments to the value of from 350 to 400 Rupees, between the hours of 6 and 8 in the night of Wednesday the 22d of August 1821 or thereabouts, without the knowledge and consequently concurrence of his immediate Commanding Officer, the Major of Brigade at Bangalore; but upon the authority of a letter which it was pretended had been received from the brother at Mulligaum of the deceased Pukally Shaik Dowd thro' the Post Office at Bangalore, which letter however was forged by Hussain, his own son, as he (the said Hussain) has since confessed.

2d.—Neglecting to give information to his immediate Commanding Officer, the Major of Brigade at Bangalore, of the seizure and removal of Junglee Bebee's property until more than thirty-six hours had elapsed after the occurrence: during which interval, the said Jungle Bebee had preferred a complaint on the subject against Subadar Khader Cawn and Jemadar Cassim Bheg to the Officer Commanding at Bangalore.

By Order.

Bangalore, September 11, 1821.

M. B.

By order of the Commander in Chief.

(Signed) E. W. SNOW,
Dep. Adjt. General of the Army.

OPINION.—The Court is of opinion after having attentively considered the evidence brought before it, that the act of seizing, and causing the removal of Junglee Bebee's property to Khader Cawn, Subadar's house by the Prisoner is proved, but do not attach any criminality thereto, as he (the Prisoner) was not aware of the letter being a forgery, and the complainant was about to desert with property not her own.

The 2d Charge is proved against the Prisoner, but is mitigated by the circumstance of his thinking it necessary to take an inventory of the property seized previous to making his report, and likewise he was acting under the orders of his superior Officer.

The Court having found the Prisoner Cassim Bheg, Jemadar in the 1st Battalion 5th Regiment Native Infantry guilty as above in the 2d Charge, do sentence him to be privately reprimanded in such manner as His Excellency The Commander in Chief may think fit.

Offg. Deputy Judge Advocate.
