GENERAL ORDERS,

HEAD QUARTERS:

CHOULTRY PLAIN, 4th July 1822.

G. O. By the Commander in Chief.

The following Extracts from the Confirmed Proceedings of a General Court Martial assembled at Belgaum on the 26th day of January 1822, by order of Colonel Molle, Commanding Field Force in the Dooab, by virtue of a warrant under the hand and seal of His Excellency General Sir Alexander Campbell, Baronet and K. C. B. Commander in Chief, &c. &c. &c. and of which Colonel Hugh Fraser is President, are published to the Army.

CHARGES.—Lieutenant W. Weller, 2d Battalion 2d Regiment Native Infantry put under arrest by my order, on the 4th December 1821, and charged by me as follows, viz.

1st. For being engaged in a Duel with Lieutenant Arthur of the same Corps, which took place on the 29th November last, and for conduct unbecoming an Officer and a Gentleman in provoking that Duel, by his unjustifiable, improper, and insulting language and conduct to Lieutenant Arthur on the evening of the 28th November aforesaid, and on various other occasions since the latter Officer joined the Corps, about the end of September last, one instance of such language, almost immediately following my admonition to him, regarding his taking improper liberties at Lieutenant Arthur's house.

2dly. For being a general disturber of the quiet, and harmony of the Officers of the Corps, as evinced by his conduct towards Lieutenant Arthur, as aforesaid, also to Lieutenant Johnston, to whom on one occasion, about the 20th September 1821, he used very outrageous language, and on another about the 18th or 19th October, challenged him (Lieutenant Johnston) before some Officers of the Corps, also to Ensign Beauchamp, to whom he addressed very offensive and provoking language about the 3d of November last, and in other instances, thereby rendering the Mess highly disagreeable, and annoying to the Officers, and making himself unfit society for it, as an Officer and a Gentleman, all which conduct in Lieutenant Weller, is further aggravated by its evincing a total disregard on his part to the displeasure of His Excellency The Commander in Chief so lately manifested to him for former misconduct.

(Signed) F. WHISH WILSON, Major,
Commanding 2d Bat. 2d Regt.

By Order.
(Signed) T. H. S. CONWAY,
Adjutant General of the Army.

A Sentence of acquittal having been pronounced on the first trial—The Prisoner was arraigned and tried on the following Additional Charges.

1st.—Lieutenant Weller of the 2d Battalion 2d Native Regiment, charged on complaint of Private (confidential) Perriah No. 45, in the B. Company of the same Regiment and Battalion, with conduct highly improper and calculated to wound the feelings of the Sepoys, in rudely laying hold of the above Perriah's Woman by her Clothes in the Camp Bazar on or about the evening of the 10th Instant, which conduct is aggravated, by his being at the time under arrest and permitted the indulgence of taking morning and evening exercise.

2d. On complaint of Ensign Gordon of the same Corps, for beating his Horse Keeper Chowry Mootoo on the occasion of the said Horse Keeper's going to Lieutenant Weller's house on the 12th Instant, and demanding some arrears of wages said to be due to him by Lieutenant Weller, such conduct being outrageous and offensive, and as connected with his behaviour to Ensign Gordon one or two evenings prior to this, and with his declared sentiments, in such cases evidently intended to provoke and insult him.

3d. For breaking his arrest in appearing on Horseback away from his own house on the evening of the 12th Instant after having been ordered to confine himself to his quarters.

Camp Belgaum, 13th January 1822.

(Signed) F. WHISH WILSON, Major,
Comng. 2d Bat. 2d Regt.

By Order.
(Signed) T. H. S. CONWAY,
Adjutant General of the Army.

OPINION.—The Court having maturely considered the evidence brought in support of the prosecution as well as what the Prisoner has urged in his defence, is of opinion that he is guilty of so much of the first part of the 1st Charge as relates "to rudely and improperly laying hold of a Woman's Cloth in "the Bazar"—but acquit him of every other part of the same Charge.

Respecting the 2d Charge—The Court most fully acquit the Prisoner of the same; and at the same time declare this charge frivolous and vexatious.

Regarding the 3d Charge—The Court is of opinion both by what has been adduced in evidence as well as by the Prisoner's own confession, that he is guilty of that Charge, viz.

"For breaking his arrest in appearing on Horseback away from his own house on the evening "of the 12th Instant after having been ordered to confine himself to his quarters"—as also of the first part of the first Charge, which being in breach of the Articles of War, the Court doth therefore sentence him, the Prisoner, Lieutenant Weller to be Cashiered.

(Signed) M. KEMBLE, Captain,
Officiating Deputy Judge Advocate.

(Signed) H. FRASER, Colonel,
and President.

CONFIRMED.

(Signed) A. CAMPBELL, General,
and Commander in Chief.

The Court having recommended the Prisoner to the lenity of His Excellency the Commander in Chief on the grounds of his youth and inexperience, His Excellency is pleased to remit the sentence, and he will have great satisfaction in finding that this lenity is attended with the effect so desirable on the future conduct of Lieutenant Weller.

Lieutenant Weller is to be released from arrest, and directed to return to his duty.

The General Court Martial of which Colonel Hugh Fraser is President, is dissolved.

The following Extracts from the Proceedings of a Native General Court Martial assembled at Bangalore, on the 17th day of April 1822, by virtue of a warrant from His Excellency General Sir Alexander Campbell, Baronet and K. C. B. Commander in Chief, are published.

CRIME.—1st. Subadar Veerapah, of the A Company of the Rifle Corps, placed in arrest by me, for conduct unbecoming the character of a Commissioned Officer, and disgraceful to humanity, in having on or about the night of the 20th February last, tied to a post, and with a hot Iron, which he had previously heated for the purpose, burnt in a shocking manner on the thighs and legs, a woman named Letchmee, who had lived with him for many years; and by whom he has had several children.

2d. For having at the same time (after retreat-beating) been absent from the Barrack Guard of the Corps, of which, as Officer of the Day, he had been placed in command—thereby setting a bad example to the men under his orders; and acting in direct breach of the orders of the Corps, as well as the Regulations of the Service.

BANGALORE,
March 5, 1822.

(Signed) J. KNOWLES, Lieut. Col.
Commanding Rifle Corps.

BY ORDER.
(Signed) E. W. SNOW,
Deputy Adjutant General of the Army.

SENTENCE ON REVISION.—The Court after deliberating on their former sentence, and taken into consideration, the opinion contained in the Judge Advocate General's letter; do adjudge the Prisoner, Subadar Veerapah, of the A Company of the Rifle Corps, to be suspended from rank and pay, for the space of five (5) calendar months, from such time, as His Excellency the Commander in Chief, may be pleased to direct.

(Signed) J. GIBSON, Captain,
Deputy Judge Advocate General.

(Signed) In the Gentoo Language,
Subadar Major MEER ABBASS,
President.

Confirmed, and the suspension to take place from the date of the publication of this order.

and Commander in Chief.

G. O. BY GOVERNMENT.

The following extract from the proceedings of the Honorable the Governor in Council in the Judicial Department is published in General Orders.

JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

No. 230.

EXTRACT from the MINUTES of CONSULTATION, DATED 14th June 1822.

" Agreeably to Clause First Section III. Regulation VI. A. D. 1821, the Honorable the Governor in Council has been pleased to vest Police authority and the maintenance of the peace in the Commanding Officers of the undermentioned Garrisons, Cantonments and Stations, viz. Vellore, Arcot, Wallajahbad, St. Thomas's Mount, Presidency Cantonment, Poonamallee, Masulipatam, Bellary, Cananore and Palamcottah.

Agreeably to Clause Second of the same Section, the Governor in Council has been pleased to vest Police authority, and maintenance of the peace in the Commanding Officers within the limits of the Military Bazars only at Trichinopoly and Berhampore.

The limits of the Cantonments and Military Bazars above mentioned have been sanctioned and confirmed by Government and orders have been given for depositing plans of the same in the Cutcherry of the Magistrate of the district in which they are respectively situated. As soon as plans have been so deposited, as required by the Regulation, the Commanding Officers will exercise the powers conferred upon them by Sections III, IV, V, and VI.

The Governor in Council has been pleased to establish General Military Bazars at the undermentioned Stations, viz. Vellore, Masulipatam, Bellary, Cananore, and Trichinopoly. In these five General Military Bazars, the Commissariat Officers, subject to the orders of the Commanding Officers will exercise the powers conferred by Sections VII, VIII, IX, X, XI and XII of the Regulation. Commissariat Officers will not, without further orders from Government, be employed in the duties prescribed by this Regulation, except at those Stations at which General Military Bazars are established.

It is only in the five General Military Bazars that the powers conferred by Sections VII, VIII, IX, X, XI and XII of the Regulation are to be exercised.

The offence of smuggling spirits within any Military Bazar whatever is by Clause Second Section VI liable to be punished by Military law. That offence is liable to be punished in the same manner within the limits authorized by Section XIV of the Regulation; and the Governor in Council has resolved that those limits shall extend four miles around the Military Bazars, at the undermentioned stations, viz. Vellore, Masulipatam, Bellary, Cananore, Trichinopoly, Wallajahbad, St. Thomas's Mount and Poonamallee.

The manufacture and sale of spirituous and fermented liquors at the five General Military Bazars and within four miles around them will be conducted by the Commissariat Officers stationed there. At all other Military Stations they will continue to be rented by the Collectors, subject however to such conditions where European Troops may be quartered as the Commanding Officer may deem necessary for the health and discipline of the troops.

Independently of the local authority conferred by the Regulation, authority of a personal description is conferred by Section IV. over all retainers of the Army for breach of Cantonment Regulations and by Section V. for assaults and petty thefts: by Clause Third Section XI, over Bazarmen attached to troops marching; and by Clause Second Section XVI. over retainers of the Army and other persons amenable to martial law for selling spirits to Europeans. In these instances the authority granted by the Regulation may be exercised over persons liable to it, although the general police and maintenance of the peace have not been vested in Commanding Officers.

With respect to the provision contained in Clause Third Section XI. that for certain offences " all bazarmen of every description residing in military bazars, the limits of which may have been fixed by the Government," that is to say General Military Bazars, it is proper to observe that mere inhabitants of such bazars are not amenable to military law, unless, as the Section specifies, they reside there " for the purpose of supplying the troops and followers of the army." They must in fact be military bazarmen; and it is obvious that to stretch this provision beyond its strict limits would be not only unauthorized, but highly oppressive and unjust.

It seems only necessary to desire further that a liberal construction be given to Clause First Section XII, which provides for people of the better sort not being subjected to corporal punishment if it can be helped: that every case in which a person claiming exemption from corporal punishment under that Section shall notwithstanding be so punished, and every case in which any Bazarmen residing in a General Military Bazar shall be punished under Clause Third Section XI, be especially reported to Government by the Commanding Officer: that the Military Courts authorized by Section XVIII. to try cases of simple debt be convened as often as occasion requires, and their proceedings duly attended to; and finally that the endeavour be uniformly made to carry into effect the several provisions of the Regulation with as little severity, hardship or inconvenience to any of the individuals affected by them as may be consistent with the attainment of the ends in view.

Ordered that the foregoing resolutions be published in G. O. to the Army and be communicated to the several Magistrates and Courts of Justice.

Remarks by His Excellency The Most Noble The Commander in Chief.

The excellent character antecedently borne by the Prisoner, and the lively interest testified for him by all his comrades in a corps which has powerful claims on the Commander in Chief thro' its uniform admirable conduct, may sanction clemency in this instance, notwithstanding the grievous nature of the offence, His Excellency is pleased to grant a free pardon to Richard Edwards, and to direct that he be allowed to return to his duty. At the same time, it is necessary to give a solemn warning against this lenity misleading any one into a supposition that so deep a crime can ever in future be as mildly treated :—for should the Commander in Chief have reason to believe that a hope of impunity founded on the remission of the present sentence had encouraged a similar act of violence in a Soldier against his superior, it would be indispensible that His Excellency should turn a deaf ear to any plea for mitigating whatever might be the punishment awarded by a General Court Martial.

Extract from the Proceedings of an European General Court Martial assembled at Fort William, in obedience to General Orders of the 30th Ultimo, and 2d and 3d Instant, and held by virtue of a Warrant under the hand and seal of The Most Noble The Marquis of Hastings, K. G. and G. C. B. &c. &c. &c. Commander in Chief of all the Forces in India, under date the 4th of May 1822, for the trial of Lieutenant J. Exshaw, 2d Battalion 20th Regiment Native Infantry.

FORT WILLIAM, Monday, 6th May 1822.

President,—Lieutenant Colonel M. Shawe, His Majesty's 87th Regiment.
Judge Advocate,—Major J. W. Taylor, Acting Judge Advocate General.

CHARGES.—I charge Lieutenant Exshaw of the 20th Regiment Native Infantry, with conduct unbecoming an Officer and a Gentleman, in having recently propagated in this Settlement, reports calumnious and derogatory to my honor as an Officer and a Gentleman, by asserting that in his presence Lieutenant Kirby, of the Corps of Artillery when doing duty here as Engineer, had addressed to me language and menace of a gross and insulting nature, which as having ever been so addressed to my hearing or knowledge I declare to be absolutely and scandalously false.

I further charge Lieutenant Exshaw with ungentlemanlike conduct, in asserting this calumny with the view and purpose of bringing my character into discredit and disrepute at this particular juncture, upwards of five years having now elapsed since the period adverted to, during which time I have been doing duty and living on terms of social intercourse and intimacy with the Officers of the Regiment stationed here, and the Gentlemen of the Civil Service and Settlement generally, meeting Lieutenant Exshaw in the society, and recently invited to the Military Mess of which he, Lieutenant Exshaw, was a member.

November 2, 1821.

(Signed) J. M. COOMBS, Major,
23d Madras Infantry and Town Major.

(A true Copy)
(Signed) R. HAMPTON, Major,
Commanding the Troops.

SENTENCE.—The Court having maturely weighed the evidence before them, are of opinion as follows.

Upon the first Charge the Court find the Prisoner Lieutenant Exshaw of the 20th Regiment of Bengal Native Infantry guilty of conduct, unbecoming an Officer and a Gentleman, in having recently propagated in the settlement of Penang, reports calumnious, and derogatory to the honor of Major Coombs of the 23d Regiment of Madras Native Infantry, and Town Major of Penang, as an Officer and Gentleman, by asserting that in his presence, Lieutenant Kirby of the Corps of Bengal Artillery, when doing duty there as Engineer, addressed to him (Major Coombs) language and menace of a gross and insulting nature.

On the second Charge the Court is of opinion, that the Prisoner Lieutenant Exshaw is not guilty.

The Court having pronounced the Prisoner Lieutenant Exshaw guilty of so much of the first Charge as is recited in the finding, do sentence him to be suspended from rank and pay for six months (calendar.)

Remarks by His Excellency The Most Noble The Commander in Chief.

It is laudable in the Court to throw into the scale for a Prisoner every consideration which may operate in his favour; and on that principle the absence of a witness, whom Lieutenant Exshaw represented as material, has had proper advertence. At the same time, it is to be noticed that Mr. Cracroft's deposition could not have been essential. Not having been present at the transaction to which his evidence would refer, he could at most have only sworn that Lieutenant Kirby had avowed to him the offensive language asserted to have been used to Major Coombs: But it is obvious, that a testimony open to the supposition of misconception on the part of Mr. Cracroft, or of thoughtless exaggeration on the part of Lieutenant Kirby, could not for a moment be set against Lieutenant Kirby's denial upon oath of the simple fact on which the question was to turn. Lieutenant Exshaw has, therefore, not suffered any real disadvantage. The observation is made in order that, on any future plea of incompetent defence thro' the non-appearance of a witness incapable of being produced, the probable importance of the unattained testimony may be inferred from the circumstances of the case, and not taken on the declaration of the Prisoner.

The Commander in Chief concurs entirely in the animadversion so justly pronounced by the Court on the discreditable spirit of party manifest in various particulars developed by this trial. As the reputation of Major Coombs has been so thoroughly vindicated, His Excellency may permit himself to adopt the opinion professed by the Court, that Lieutenant Exshaw was imperceptibly and unconsciously led astray by the tone of his seniors; who ought thence to reflect on the mischief of an intemperate example. On that principle, the good character of Lieutenant Exshaw should recommend him to still further allowance: and, trusting that the present lesson will sufficiently inculcate the necessity of candour and caution, the Commander in Chief remits the penalty awarded.

Private Soldier John O'Brien of His Majesty's 89th Regiment, charged with the following crime.

CRIME.—1st.—Confined by order of Lieutenant Colonel Miles, C. B. Commanding the said Corps, for Desertion from his Corps on or about the 21st May 1822, and not returning until brought back a Prisoner on or about the 2d June 1822.

2d.—By Major Basden, for outrageous mutiny in the following instance, in having struck him, Major Basden, two violent blows, when in the execution of his duty as President of a General Regimental Court Martial assembled at the Mess House of the 89th Regiment, on the 5th June 1822, for the purpose of trying the said John O'Brien for Desertion.

Additional Charge by Lieutenant Colonel Miles, Commanding.

For mutinous language on the morning of the 5th June 1822, when taken away from the Mess Room in which the General Regimental Court Martial was assembled, in declaring that he would either be shot, or hung, for some of them that were in the Mess House, and that he was sorry he had not some weapon in his hand.

Upon which Charges the Court came to the following decision.

SENTENCE.—The Court find the Prisoner guilty of all and several the crimes charged, and the Court does therefore by virtue of the Articles of War, sentence and adjudge the said Prisoner, John O'Brien, Private His Majesty's 89th Regiment to be shot to Death with Musquetry at such time and place and in such manner as His Excellency The Commander in Chief shall be pleased to direct.

APPROVED AND CONFIRMED.

(Signed) A. CAMPBELL, General.

" His Excellency The Commander in Chief in publishing this Court Martial to His Majesty's Forces " under his Command, feels the necessity of reverting to the lenity which he extended so recently to " Private James Akins of the 34th Regiment, for a similar offence, he had fully expected that that " lenity would have operated upon the mind of every individual in the Army, in such a manner as to " have prevented the recurrence of so outrageous an offence.

" The Commander in Chief, however, could not feel himself justified in again pardoning crimes of " such magnitude as the Prisoner Private John O'Brien, of His Majesty's 89th Regiment, has been " found guilty of; and, that the Army may be convinced that he is determined to inflict the utmost " punishment the law awards to violence and outrage, he directs that this sentence shall be carried into " execution, at such time and place, as shall be communicated by General Orders to the Army on this " Establishment.

" This order is to be entered in the General Order Book, and read at the head of every Regiment in " His Majesty's Service, on the Establishment of Fort Saint George.

" By order of General Sir Alexander Campbell, Baronet and K. C. B."

(Signed) H. DWYER, Captain,

A. D. A. G. H. M. F.

S. Scott, C. B. Commanding the Travancore Subsidiary Force.

General Sir Alexander Campbell, Baronet, K. C. B. with a view further to impress upon the minds of the Soldiery under his command, the awful example His Excellency has been compelled to order, in the execution of Private John O'Brien of H. M. 89th Regiment of Foot, is pleased to direct, that every European Corps, and Detachment on the Establishment shall be under arms from 7 till 9 o'clock on the morning of the 21st Instant, the period at which the sentence is to be carried into execution, when the above crime, sentence and General Order shall be distinctly read twice to every Corps, and Detachment in front of the Parade.

Pension Certificates issued to individuals removed from the effective strength of Corps are invariably to bear the date of their being so issued, and the date up to which the Pensioner has received effective Pay, as from the day following, his Pension Pay is to commence, and this Memorandum, is to be signed by the Officer Commanding the Troop, or Company and countersigned by the Officer Commanding the Corps.

The Commander in Chief takes this opportunity of publishing to the Army a Form of Certificate which is necessary to be furnished to such Native Commissioned, Non-commissioned Officers, Rank and File as may be permitted to proceed to Bengal on leave of absence, and His Excellency directs, that it may be carefully observed to prevent the great inconvenience and distress that has so frequently been experienced by Native Soldiers serving under this Presidency.

Doubts having occurred in regard to the interpretation which should be given to the General Orders of the

1.—In giving effect at this Presidency to the following General Order by the Supreme Government, the Honorable the Governor in Council desires it may be understood that all former orders or authorities granting Allowances to Officers of His Majesty's Service, on their removal to the half pay List of Regiments serving under this Presidency, are rescinded from this date.

General Orders by His Excellency The Most Noble The Governor General in Council.

FORT WILLIAM, 28*th June* 1822.

The Most Noble The Governor General in Council is pleased to direct, that Officers of His Majesty's service in India, who may be reduced to half pay, shall instead of being permitted to draw the half batta and House Rent of their rank for six months after the date of their notification of their removal to the half pay List as announced to the Army in General Orders of the 17th October 1818, be entitled to the full Batta and House Rent of their respective ranks, for three months agreeably with the principle laid down by the Honorable the Court of Directors, for Officers promoted to the rank of Major General from the date of the publication of Orders respecting their transfer to the half pay List at the station where they may be serving.

Misconceptions having arisen as to the period to which an Officer under orders for Europe may remain in India, and still have a claim to Passage Money, it is hereby declared, that any Officer remaining in India after the departure of his Regiment for England, or a half pay Officer after his transfer to the half pay List beyond a period of three months from the date on which he shall have ceased to draw India allowances under the above circumstances, shall forfeit every claim to Passage Money or to a Passage being provided for him at the public expense.

(Signed) W. CASEMENT, Lt. Col.
Sec. to Govt. Mil. Dept.

GENERAL ORDERS,

HEAD QUARTERS:

CHOULTRY PLAIN, 24th September 1822.

G. O. By the Commander in Chief.

The Commander in Chief is pleased to publish to the Army, the following Extracts from the Proceedings of a General Court Martial held at Masulipatam on the 23d July 1822, and continued by adjournment till the 3d September 1822, and which Court Martial is composed of the following Officers.

President.

Lieutenant Colonel D. C. Kenny, Madras European Regiment.

Members.

Major Hall, 15th Regiment.
" Kelly, Madras European Regiment.
" Lawless, Madras European Regiment.
Captain Cooper, 11th Regiment.
" Spry, 21st Regiment.
" Townsend, 15th Regiment.
" Newell, 11th Regiment.
" Baker, 2d Native Veteran Battalion.
" Hammond, 11th Regiment.
" Robinson, 21st Regiment.
Lieutenant Williams, Madras European Regiment.
" Peake, 11th Regiment.
" DeEsterre, Madras European Regiment.
" Gray, 11th Regiment.

Captain Short, Deputy Judge Advocate General conducting the Proceedings.

Lieutenant and Adjutant Stedman of the 1st Battalion 17th Regiment placed in arrest by my order.

CRIME.—For insubordination disrespectful and insolent conduct to me, his Commanding Officer, while in the execution of my duty on the Parade, on the morning of the 25th June 1822, and also shortly after, at the same Parade, stating to several of the young Officers of the Corps, that he had just called me a Liar.

(Signed) G. WAHAB, Major,
Commanding 1st Battalion 17th Regt.

By Order.
(Signed) T. H. S. CONWAY,
Adjutant General of the Army.

FINDING.—The Court are of opinion, the Prisoner Lieutenant and Adjutant Stedman is not guilty of the first part of the Charge, and acquit him of the same, but find him guilty of the second part, namely, "shortly after at the same Parade," stating to several of the young Officers of the "Corps, that he had just called me a Liar," and sentence him to be suspended from rank and pay, for three months calendar, from the date of the confirmation of the Sentence.

(Signed) R. SHORT,
Deputy Judge Advocate General.

(Signed) D. C. KENNY, Lieut Colonel
and President.

The Commander in Chief having directed the General Court Martial of which Lieutenant Colonel Kenny is President, to re-assemble for the purpose of revising its Sentence, The Court pass the following Sentence on revision.

The Court having reconsidered their former sentence, see no reason to alter their opinion, and adhere to the same.

(Signed) R. SHORT,
Deputy Judge Advocate General.

(Signed) D. C. KENNY, Lieut. Colonel
and President.

His Excellency The Commander in Chief cannot allow the above sentence to go forth to the Army under his Command, without annexing to it his express disapprobation—A Subaltern Officer, the immediate Staff of the Commandant, and as such called on to evince the most correct discharge of the duties of the Corps, is convicted of having made it a matter of boast to his Brother Officers, that he had insulted his superior in the execution of his duty, by the application of the most injurious and offensive epithet which the English language could afford.

The offence is aggravated if possible, by its appearing, that in point of fact, he never did use those expressions, which he exulted in having done.

As His Excellency will not allow himself to believe, that in an Army so distinguished for its discipline and high sense of honor, another General Court Martial, could have been collected, of which a majority would have adjudged so inadequate a sentence for such a crime, he will not therefore enlarge upon the subject.

His Excellency has much pleasure in recording his approbation of the intelligence and ability with which Captain Short discharged the duties of Judge Advocate.

The Commander in Chief directs that this Order shall be read upon the Parade to every Regiment on the Establishment, and that the 1st Battalion 17th Regiment, shall be paraded in presence of the Officers composing, and doing duty in the Garrison of Masulipatam, to whom and in the presence of Lieutenant Stedman, the Commanding Officer of the Garrison will have the above General Order read together with the Finding and Sentence of the Court; Lieutenant Stedman will then be released from arrest, and return to his duty with the Company to which he belongs.—The Commander in Chief cannot without sacrificing the discipline of the Army, permit Lieutenant Stedman again to resume the duties of an appointment, he is no longer qualified to hold. His Excellency will therefore recommend to the Honorable the Governor in Council to remove Lieutenant Stedman from the Adjutancy of the 1st Battalion 17th Regiment N. I.

Lieutenant George Brady of the 17th Regiment, is removed from the 2d to the 1st Battalion of that Corps.

T. H. S. CONWAY,
Adjutant General of the Army.

CHARGES.—Captain Thomas S. Oliver, 1st Grenadier Company, 2d Battalion 9th Regiment placed in arrest by me on the following charges.

Lucknow, 31st December 1821.

1st. For conduct unbecoming the character of an officer, at my Bungalow, in the Cantonments near Lucknow, on the morning of the 27th December 1821, between the hours of 10 and 1 o'clock P. M. having violently aspersed my character as Commanding Officer of the Battalion, in attributing the actions of my public duty, as proceeding from unworthy motives; such aspersion being groundless, and without foundation of truth, as also subversive of good order and military discipline.

2d. For disrespectful conduct to me his Commanding Officer on the Battalion Parade, when at exercise on the morning of the 31st December 1821, in the following instance. An error of Captain Thomas S. Oliver, Commanding the 1st Grenadier Company being pointed out to him in a mild manner for correction, he, Captain Oliver, replied disrespectfully, he should do according to the regulations; and on my telling him I required no answer on Parade, he Captain Oliver said, he would reply as often as he chose; and subsequently added there will be a Lieutenant Colonel soon, or words to that effect—such conduct being insubordinate, and subversive of good order and military discipline.

3d. For disobedience of Battalion Standing Regulations, and Orders 28th February 1820, conduct unworthy the character of an officer or gentleman, and disrespectful to me his Commanding Officer; for having sent a Sepoy, named Rungloll Sing 1st Grenadier Company 2d Battalion 9th Regiment to my Bungalow, about 10 o'clock in the morning of the 31st December 1821, who then asked in Captain Oliver's name, and in presence of my Guard, if the Major has sent out a Sepoy to procure Sheep, that he, Captain Oliver wished to send his Servant at the same time, and desired the Sepoy, or Sepoy's to let him know when the Major did send out; such conduct being disrespectful to me his Commanding Officer, and unjust imputation, malicious and unprovoked, and beneath the character of an officer and a gentleman, and proceeding from a desire to injure me his Commanding Officer in the estimation of The Most Noble The Commander in Chief.

(Signed) W. BROOKES, Major, Comg. 2d Bat. 9th Regt.

ADDITIONAL CHARGES against Captain Thomas S. Oliver, 1st Grenadier Company 2d Battalion 9th Regiment placed in arrest on the 31st December 1821.

For conduct unbecoming the character of an officer, on the following counts.

For preferring false and frivolous accusations against me his Commanding Officer to His Excellency The Most Noble The Commander in Chief, in a letter bearing date the 1st of January 1822, addressed to Major Patrickson, or Adjutant General of the Bengal Army.

1st CHARGE.—In having accused me his Commanding Officer in a letter to The Most Noble The Commander in Chief, of pursuing a deliberate systematic system of authority, for the purpose of annoying the Officers under my command; such accusation being false, subversive of good order and military authority.

2d COUNT.—For disrespect to me his Commanding Officer in the second paragraph of the said letter to Major Patrickson, or Adjutant General of the Bengal Army, under date the 1st of January 1822, insinuating therein my having abused the authority entrusted to me as Commanding Officer in the most unbecoming manner—being in violation of good order and discipline.

3d COUNT.—For misrepresentation of my conduct to His Excellency The Most Noble The Commander in Chief, in the 3d paragraph of the said letter to Major Patrickson, or Adjutant General of the Bengal Army, bearing date the 1st January 1822, attributing to the abuse of my authority, as being the cause of preventing a Mess being established in the Corps 2d Battalion 9th Regiment, well knowing such accusations to be of the most serious import to me as Commanding Officer of the Battalion, a shameful precedent to the Service, and subversive of good order and military discipline.

4th COUNT.—For falsely asserting in the 4th paragraph of the said letter to Major Patrickson, or Adjutant General of the Bengal Army, under date the 1st January 1822, an indent was made for firewood, milk, and other necessaries for the use of the Corps, during the march of the Corps from Saugor to Lucknow so large a proportion was appropriated to his, the Commanding Officer's own use, that the Officers of the Corps could seldom obtain the smallest quantity, and were prohibited from sending into Villages to supply themselves; such accusations being false, reflecting on my character as Commanding Officer, and subversive of military discipline and good order.

5th COUNT.—For falsely accusing me his Commanding Officer in the 5th paragraph of the said letter addressed to Major Patrickson, or Adjutant General of the Bengal Army, under date the 1st of January 1822, of having acted in a manner discreditable to the Commanding Officer of a Corps, in the following instance, viz. of having for my own private convenience changed the ground of encampment from Mohunpoor to Buraguth, such accusations being false, subversive of authority, good order, and military discipline.

6th CHARGE.—Submitted to The Most Noble The Commander in Chief against Captain Thomas S. Oliver, 1st Grenadier Company 2d Battalion 9th Regiment who was Senior Officer present with the Corps, on the evening of the 27th of October 1821, in Camp at Buraguth, and being present in the Mess Tent with several other Officers of the Battalion, when reading obnoxious passages in Mr. Buckingham's paper, Calcutta Journal No. 271, Vol. 5th, signed a "Commanding Officer," were interlined with a pencil, and headed "a good thing," and from whence it was sent to my Tent for perusal—thereby disrespectful to me his Commanding Officer, a bad example to the Service, and subversive of military authority and good order.

LUCKNOW, 3d January 1822.

(Signed) W. BROOKES, Major, Comg. 2d Bat. 9th Regt.

(Signed) JAMES PRICE, Brigadier, Commanding in Oude.

ADDITIONAL CHARGE on the 4th Count against Captain T. S. Oliver of the 2d Battalion 9th Regiment Native Infantry.

For falsely and maliciously representing to His Excellency The Commander in Chief in the latter part of the 4th Paragraph of the said letter addressed to Major Patrickson, or Adjutant General of the Bengal Army, under date the 1st January 1822, as follows, viz. at the same time that Major Brookes was employing the Sepoys in a manner totally unconnected with their duty as military men, so much so that at Goolgunge a Sepoy drove Major Brookes's Hackery into Camp seated on the pole or yoke, in his arms and accoutrements.

2d. On the march into Cawnpore, Major Brookes had given the most positive orders that no Sepoys should accompany the Officer's baggage, a Sepoy was disguised in a blue Great Coat, accompanying one of his Hackeries (insinuating by my orders), such accusation and insinuation being false and malicious towards me his Commanding Officer, subversive of good order, and military discipline.

(Signed) W. BROOKES, Major,
Comg. 2d Bat. 9th Regt.

LUCKNOW,
31st January 1822.

With regard to the 1st Charge, the Court find the Prisoner Guilty of disrespect to Major Brookes only.

Of the 2d Charge, the Prisoner is not Guilty.

Of the 3d Charge, Guilty of the disobedience of Orders only.

Of the 1st Additional Charge, the Court find the Prisoner Guilty.

Of the 2d Count, Not Guilty.

Of the 3d Count, Guilty.

Of the 4th Count, Guilty.

Of the 5th Count, Guilty of having frivolously asserted that the ground of encampment was changed for Major Brookes's convenience, but acquit him of the falsehood.

Of the 6th Charge, the Court find the Prisoner not guilty.

Of the 1st Additional Charge on the 4th Count, the Court find the Prisoner Guilty of having made the assertion maliciously.

Of the 2d Additional Charge on the 4th Count, the Court find the Prisoner Guilty of having made the assertion maliciously.

Oliver, 2d Battalion 9th Regiment Native Infantry, guilty of so much of the accusations preferred against him, as is above recorded; do sentence him to be placed one step lower than he at present is, on the list of the Captains of his Regiment, which will put him next below Captain James Wilkie; but the Court do not intend the Prisoner's Army Rank to be affected by this.

and President.

(Signed) R. A. M'NAGHTEN, Lieutenant,
Offg. Dep. Judge Advocate conducting the Trial.

A true Extract.
(Signed) J. MACRA, Lieut. Col.
Military Secretary.

Remarks by His Excellency The Most Noble The Commander in Chief.

The Commander in Chief considers the above finding as perfectly consonant to the facts established by testimony on the trial. Giving to the Court great credit for the patient and discriminating tenor of investigation apparent on the proceedings, His Excellency further agrees entirely in the comments recorded by the Court on part of the evidence.

A severe punishment being essentially involved in the simple publication of the Court's opinion on points of the intemperate conduct into which Captain Thomas Samuel Oliver suffered himself to be betrayed, the sentence would have been deemed sufficient had it been capable of being carried into execution. On that head the Commander in Chief entertains a doubt, and Captain Oliver is entitled to the benefit of it. The Prisoner was tried under the Mutiny Act 27th Geo. 2d and the Articles of War founded on that Statute: Neither of those authorities prescribe in any case the supercession of an Officer with regard to rank in his Regiment as a penalty; nor is the Commander in Chief satisfied that such a procedure was in use till that mode of punishment was indicated in modern Acts: Therefore, altho' it might be urged that the Court resorted to this sentence in order to escape the necessity of pronouncing a heavier award, whence it was advantageous to the Prisoner, His Excellency questions the fitness of subjecting Captain Oliver to a loss of rank not specifically recognized by the Act 27th Geo. 2d or embraced by it in terms of scope as a consequence of transgression. The Commander in Chief on that ground must forbear to confirm the sentence, and directs that Captain Thomas Samuel Oliver shall return to his duty.

By Command.

1st.—For having, on the 5th day of September 1821, endeavoured to provoke Captain Methven, of the same Regiment, to fight a duel with him.

Actg. Adjt. Genl. of the Army.

The Court Martial, having duly and maturely considered the evidence brought forward on the prosecution, and on the defence, is of opinion as follows.

FINDING.—On the first Charge, that Captain Seppings is not Guilty.

On the second Charge,—The Court find Captain Seppings Guilty of so much of it as charges him with not having withdrawn his letters, after the Commander in Chief had, upon a careful enquiry into the circumstances ordered that such should be done; but the Court is of opinion that in so doing Captain Seppings was influenced solely, by an honorable and anxious desire to be placed in a situation to clear his character from the injurious reports which had been circulated to his prejudice.

SENTENCE.—Three o'clock striking before the Court came to a decision, it was adjourned till eleven o'clock tomorrow, Tuesday the 30th Instant.

Fort William, Tuesday the 30th July 1822.

The Court met, pursuant to adjournment, President and Members as yesterday.

The Court proceeded to deliberate and to pass Sentence—but there being an equality of votes on the question as to whether any punishment shall be awarded or otherwise, and the Acting Judge Advocate General, having when called upon by the Court declared his opinion that a majority of voices is absolutely requisite to pronounce an award—The Court suspend their proceedings and adjourn until the pleasure of The Most Noble The Commander in Chief is obtained.

Acting Judge Advocate General.

(Signed) M. SHAWE, Lieut.-Colonel
87th Regiment, & President.

REMARKS by the COURT.—In advertence to the extraordinary mass of matter which the present Proceedings exhibit, the Court feel themselves called upon to explain, that in a question like the present, involving not only the character, and feelings of the Prisoner, but, from the course which the defence has taken, the character and feelings of several of the witnesses, and others, who were incidentally connected with the circumstances introductory to the preferring of the Charges against the Prisoner, it has not been in the power of the Court, without a total disregard to the ends of justice, to abstain from going into the examination of matter, which under other circumstances would be totally irrelevant to the points at issue.

It is with no ordinary degree of concern that the Court feel themselves compelled to remark, upon the extraordinary discrepancy which the testimony of some of the witnesses exhibits, and respectfully to solicit the attention of His Excellency the Commander in Chief thereto, more particularly to the Depositions of Captains Methven and Crooke, diametrically opposed as they appear to be in most instances to the points to which they have respectively sworn—instances arising, not merely from the different light in which two individuals may often view the same circumstances, but manifest in their testimony to almost every fact respecting which they were examined by the Court, and such as to leave in the minds of the Court no room to believe, that they could be the result of misapprehension or mistake.

The Court would have thought it their duty to notice these extraordinary contradictions at the time, but felt that they had not the means from the nature of the Depositions to ascertain on which side the Charge would lay, with the probability of establishing it by proof, they have therefore adopted the only step left them of submitting the circumstance for the consideration of The Most Noble The Commander in Chief.

In conclusion, the Court would be deficient in their duty, if they did not remark on, and strongly reprobate the indecent and bitter recrimination in which both the Prisoner Captain Seppings, and the Witness Captain Methven have accustomed themselves to indulge, whenever observing on the conduct of each other, as well antecedent to the present trial, as in the course of the proceedings to which it has given rise.

Acting Judge Advocate General.

Remarks by His Excellency The Most Noble The Commander in Chief.

The want of a Sentence renders the protracted and laborious assiduity of the Court altogether fruitless, since there is nothing on which the Commander in Chief has to exercise his judgement in confirmation or disapproval. It is difficult to comprehend by what process of reasoning any Member of the Court could satisfy himself that when a military transgression has been pronounced as established by Evidence no penal award should follow that Finding; yet, as the decision of Guilty (if it were not unanimous) must have been the act of a majority, some Member at least has maintained that incongruity. His Excellency will not direct the Court to sit again and revise its proceedings, because the essential end has, however informally, been answered: the incorrectness of Captain Seppings's conduct is displayed by the recorded inconveniences which it has entailed.

The Court declares Captain Seppings guilty of a disobedience of orders; a disobedience which was; further, deliberate and wilful; then the Court urges in extenuation it's opinion, "that in so doing, Captain Seppings was influenced solely by an honorable and anxious desire to be placed in a situation to clear his character from the injurious reports which had been circulated to his prejudice." The excuse is inadmissible, consequently no course of evidence should have been sanctioned which professed to have that object; The crime charged against Captain Seppings was disobedience of an order signified to him from the Commander in Chief, and it would be a novel doctrine in military law that an Officer is at liberty to judge what orders is to be deemed imperative and what may be disregarded. It is obvious that if an honorable jealousy of reputation be allowed to stand as an apology for the contravention of a positive order in a case like the present, it must be equally pleadable in every other class of cases; the mischief of such a principle need not be discanted upon.

In the immediate instance, the above palliation is peculiarly inapplicable. The acknowledged respectability of Captain Seppings' character, and the uniform estimation in which he had been held throughout this Army, could not but render any appeal against loose misrepresentations wholly unnecessary. On the other hand, the most serious objection lies to such an appeal. If the irritable feelings of an Officer, in a private question between individuals, be suffered to disturb the Service, and to involve a number of others, the license would speedily grow into a settled practice most embarrassing if not deeply injurious. The quality of that evil cannot be more strikingly pourtrayed than it is by the observations of the Court. In that exposition the following particulars are prominent: The awkward nature of the disquisitions into which the Court confesses itself to have been compelled to embark: The comment on the tenor of the evidence generally, by which intentional perversion is indirectly ascribed to witnesses who are not named, the imputation thereby applying to any or all of them: The specification of two Officers from whose contradictory testimony on the same points the Court infers a criminal laxity in one or the other, without being able to determine on whom so heavy a suspicion should rest: and the Court's "reprobation of the indecent and bitter recrimination of Captain Seppings and Captain Methven upon each other;" a tone discreditable to men of their profession.

Those painful results were the foreseen and inevitable consequence of entering into an investigation of ought that was afloat between Captain Seppings and Captain Methven. The points whence any conclusion was deducible were to be sought among intemperate accusations unguardedly bandied about under original misapprehension and distorted by party heat, while scarcely a single circumstance was afforded so precise as that a witness could speak to it with the certainty which would have attended the recollection of a distinct fact. Each of them delivers his evidence as to what he thinks was the impression made upon him at the time; an impression possibly even then loosely admitted; at all events liable to have become confused thro' the lapse of a considerable interval; and this seems a reasonable solution for discrepancies in the testimonies of Captain Methven and Captain Crooke, the Commander in Chief not being able to discover a purpose on either side which could be promoted by a consciously dishonest latitude of representation.

The simple question submitted to the Court was whether Captain Seppings had or had not disobeyed an order from the Commander in Chief. By losing sight of that plain line, and permitting an attempt to qualify the fact, the Court has accordingly to it's own showing produced all the undesirable effects which the Commander in Chief anticipated and endeavoured to prevent when he forbad the future agitation of the disputes between Captain Seppings and Captain Methven. Nothing, however can be more remote from the intention of the Commander in Chief than to insinuate any censure on the Court. Indeed, His Excellency from his examination of the Proceedings sees cause to praise highly the patience and the careful equity manifested by the Court.

Considering as natural the error through which the Court involved itself in such intricacies, since it proceeded from a generous desire to give the Prisoner the fullest scope for exonerating himself, the Commander in Chief would not have expatiated thus on the subject did he not think the matter of such extraordinary interest for the Army, as required that it should be particularly dilated. His Excellency persuades himself that the serious inconveniences incurred on the present occasion (putting out of the question the duration of the trial for above six weeks,) will establish the expedience of an authoritative intervention to stop in an early stage the progress of party bickerings, brought within official cognizance, and will show the fitness of marking with severity any management for evading the injunction.

The Proceedings of the General Court Martial must be considered as having fallen to the ground; so that Captain Seppings is to return forthwith to his duty.

BY COMMAND.

The General Order by Government dated the 5th of July 1822, directed that, from and after the 1st day of January 1823, all claims against the Clothing Department, whether for half Mounting, Clothing or Compensation, shall be sent into the Clothing Board, within the space of one year after such claims become due; and that claims which may not be thus preferred, shall be peremptorily rejected from the Off-reckoning accounts.

In reference to that G. O. the Honorable the Governor in Council is now pleased to declare, that the responsibility for a due observance of this Regulation rests entirely with Commanding Officers of Corps and other Regimental Officers, heads of Departments, or Officers of the General Division or Garrison Staff, who may hold separate and independent Command, or charge of any number or description of Troops, Lascars or other public Followers, entitled by Regulations to half Mounting or Clothing; and it is accordingly ordered, that, from and after the 1st April 1823, any individual Soldier, Lascar or other Follower entitled to half Mounting or Clothing but whose claim may not be forwarded to the Clothing Board within the prescribed period, shall be reimbursed, and the amount be charged against the Officer, who held the Command or charge of such individual, and whose duty it therefore was, to have brought forward the claim within the proper time.

By order of the Honorable the Governor in Council.

FORT ST. GEORGE, 24th December 1822.

G. O. BY GOVERNMENT.

The Honorable the Governor in Council deems it expedient to modify the General Order of the 13th April 1821, by establishing that the temporary absence of Lieutenant Colonels or Senior Officers of Corps at other Presidencies, or off the Coast, shall be considered as transferring to the next Senior Officers, the full advantages, in regard to allowances, of Officers exercising Regimental Command in their own right.

Some doubts having arisen with regard to the batta to be drawn by Lieutenant Colonels or Senior Officers Commanding Corps in their own right, when on leave of absence, it is explained that in such case they are only entitled to the half batta of their Regimental rank---but if placed on duty during such absence they will receive Court Martial allowance, or full batta, under the General Order 29th September 1815 according to the circumstances of the case.

By order of the Honorable the Governor in Council.

G. O. BY GOVERNMENT.

Ordered that the following Extract from the Honorable Company's General Letter in the Military Department dated the 16th June 1815,---be republished in General Orders.

Para. 139. In consequence of the numerous applications, which have been preferred to us by our servants, on leave of absence in this country, for advances of money on loans, we think it proper to recal your attention to our orders in the Military Department of the 26th February 1808 upon this subject. Those orders declared our determination not to make any pecuniary advances to Officers at home, beyond what they are allowed by the existing Regulations of the service, and you were required to publish them in General Orders to the Army; but as a resolution of this description, in order to be generally known to a body which is continually receiving an accession of new members should be occasionally republished, and being fully persuaded that a strict observance of this resolution, will prevent much trouble and inconvenience, besides loss to the Company, we direct that our orders above adverted to be in future circulated for the information of the Army in the month of January in every year, and we shall take the necessary steps for reminding Officers who may arrive in England upon furlough, of our determination upon the subject in question.

By order of the Honorable the Governor in Council.
