The following Extracts from the Confirmed Proceedings of an European General Court Martial, holden at Trichinopoly, on the 10th day of January 1832, by virtue of a Warrant from His Excellency Lieutenant General The Honorable Sir Robert William O'Callaghan, K. C. B., Commander in Chief, are published to the Army.

Captain Thomas Styan Warner, of the Eighteenth Regiment of Native Infantry, placed in arrest, by my order, on the following Charges.

First Charge.—For conduct to the prejudice of good order and Military Discipline, in having at Salem, on the First of November One thousand Eight hundred and Thirty-one, on the public Drill Ground of the Detachment of the Eighteenth Regiment of Native Infantry under his command, and in the presence of the Men and Officers of the said Detachment, then and there assembled, made use of the following words. "This is very bad! very bad indeed! but no wonder, the Corps has not been properly Drilled for the last Sixteen (or six) years:" or words to the same effect; thereby reflecting upon me, his immediate Commanding Officer, and the Discipline of the Regiment under my command.

Second Charge.—For scandalous and infamous behaviour, unbecoming the character of an Officer and a Gentleman in the following Instance.

First Instance.—In having at Salem, on the Thirtieth of November, One thousand Eight hundred and Thirty-one, in an Official Letter, bearing his Signature, and addressed to the Adjutant of Eighteenth Regiment Native Infantry falsely denied having made use of the words set forth as made use of by him in the First Charge.

Second Instance.—In having at the same time and place, in the same Letter made the following assertion.—"Major Ross will recollect at the last interview I had with him, before taking charge of the Detachment, desiring me to be particular with the Men, as they required Drilling; and to have them out for that purpose whenever the strength of the Detachment would admit of it." Such assertion being altogether contrary to the fact, and fabricated in order to screen himself from responsibility and censure.

The above being in breach of the Articles of War.

DINDIGUL,
The Twenty-third of December, One thousand Eight hundred and Thirty-one.

(Signed) D. ROSS, Lieut.-Colonel,
Commanding the Eighteenth Regiment of Native Infantry.

By Order.
(Signed) B. R. HITCHINS,
Acting Adjutant General of the Army.

The Court having most maturely weighed and considered the whole of the Evidence brought forward in support of the Prosecution on the Charges, as well as what the Prisoner, Captain Thomas Styan Warner, of the Eighteenth Regiment of Native Infantry, has urged in his Defence, and the Evidence in support thereof, is of opinion;

Finding.—That the Prisoner is "not Guilty" of the First Charge.

That the Prisoner is not Guilty of the First Instance of the Second Charge.

The Court acquits the Prisoner of the Second Instance of the Second Charge, with the exception of the words, "as the Men require drilling," but attaches no criminal intention in the using of these words, as they appear to have been written under a false impression.

The finding of the Court being as above specified, the Prisoner Captain Thomas Styan Warner, of the Eighteenth Regiment of Native Infantry, is acquitted of the First Charge, also of the First Instance of the Second Charge, and of the Second Instance of the Second Charge, with the exception set forth in the finding, and further, the Court doth fully and honorably acquit the Prisoner, the said Captain Thomas Styan Warner of all scandalous and infamous behaviour unbecoming the character of an Officer and a Gentleman.

The Court gives no award, as the words which the Prisoner is found to have used in the finding on the Second Instance of the Second Charge, were written without any criminal intention.

Offg. Deputy Judge Advocate General.

(Signed) C. BISHOP, Colonel,
28th Regiment N. I.—President.

(Signed) C. H. WARREN, Lieutenant,
25th Regt. N.I. Interpreter to the Court.

Approved and Confirmed.—The Record of the Judgment upon this Trial is erroneous in point of Form. The Court being of opinion that the Prisoner was not Guilty of any criminal act, a finding of acquitttal should have been entered, accordingly, in the usual manner, and any Remarks in explanation of such finding should have been kept distinct and inserted separately. As the intention of the Court, however, with which I concur, cannot be mistaken, I have not thought it requisite, to inconvenience the Public Service by sending back the Proceedings for Revision.

FORT ST. GEORGE, 31ST JANUARY 1832.

G. O. BY GOVERNMENT.

Superintending Surgeon Scot having obtained permission to return to Europe, The Right Honorable the Governor in Council has great satisfaction in recording his opinion of the services rendered by that gentleman to the Company during a period of nearly thirty years. After serving with every branch of the Army on Garrison, Field and Foreign Service for eighteen years, Mr. Scot was selected to hold the Office of Secretary to the Medical Board ; and in that situation, his laborious, persevering and able exertions were considered to have been highly creditable to himself and of great public utility, and accordingly obtained for him the approbation of the Board, the Government and the Honorable the Court of Directors.

While employed as Secretary to the Medical Board, Mr. Scot, besides collating and condensing with great labour, in an able and perspicuous report, all the most valuable information on the records of the Board respecting Cholera, discharged also the duties of Superintendent General of Vaccination and was greatly instrumental in extending the benefits of Vaccination amongst the Natives by his vigilant attention to the Department and the care with which he sought to make the object and advantages of the Institution generally understood and appreciated.

In the Medical Store Department, while Secretary to the Medical Board, and subsequently as Superintending Surgeon. Mr. Scot has rendered important services to the Public ; and it is to his indefatigable zeal and the many valuable rules introduced by him with a view to promote the comfort of the Sick and to establish order, regularity and economy in the Hospital supplies, and to his temper and judgment in the exercise of the Superintending Office, that the state of efficiency to which the Hospitals of the Presidency Division have been brought, is mainly to be ascribed.

His Highness the Naib-i-Mookhtar has expressed to Government his sense of Mr. Scot's kind attention and valuable services as Physician at the Durbar of His Highness the Newaub of the Carnatic, his readiness to afford gratuitously his able assistance to the Dependants of His Highness, and his highly praiseworthy conduct in abstaining from all interference in matters unconnected with his professional duties.

By order of the Right Honorable the Governor in Council.

HEAD QUARTERS ; CHOULTRY PLAIN :

6TH FEBRUARY 1832.

The following Extracts from the Confirmed Proceedings of an European General Court Martial holden at Bangalore, on Thursday the 5th day of January 1832, by virtue of a Warrant from His Excellency Lieutenant General The Honorable Sir Robert William O'Callaghan, K. C. B., Commander in Chief, are published to the Army.

Captain James Charles Street of the Seventh Regiment of Light Cavalry, placed in arrest by order of Major General Thomas Hawker, Commanding the Mysore Division of the Army.

Charge.—For scandalous, and infamous behaviour, unbecoming the character of an Officer and a Gentleman, in the following Instances.

First Instance.—In having, at Bangalore, on the First of June One thousand eight hundred and thirty-one, falsely and maliciously, informed Captain Arthur Watkins of the Seventh Regiment of Light Cavalry, that Lieutenant William Wyndham of the same Regiment was a Tale Bearer to him the said Captain Street, then Senior Officer in charge of the Seventh Regiment of Light Cavalry, against the other Officers of the Regiment.

Second Instance.—In having, at the same place, on the Twelfth of July One thousand eight hundred and thirty-one, falsely and maliciously, informed Lieutenant George Hudleston Thomas of the Seventh Regiment of Light Cavalry, that the said Lieutenant Wyndham, had made him, Captain Street, then Senior Officer in charge of the Regiment, acquainted with Cornet Henry Basil Blogg, and Cornet Robert Thorpe Onslow, of the same Regiment, having gone to the Artillery Mess, on the preceding Saturday, when on the Sick Report.

Third Instance.—In having, at the same place, on the Twenty-eighth of July, One thousand eight hundred and thirty-one, in a letter addressed to the said Lieutenant Wyndham, retracted the aspersions set forth in the previous Instances of Charge ; in a manner the most humiliating to his, Captain Street's, character, as a Gentleman, and the most derogatory to his Office, as Commanding Officer of the said Lieutenant Wyndham.

Fourth Instance.—In having, at the same place, on the day last mentioned, said to Veterinary Surgeon John Frederick Jennings, of the Seventh Regiment of Light Cavalry, "If the worst comes to the worst, I have told a lie to screen my Adjutant"—meaning the said Lieutenant Wyndham, "and what of it"—or words to the same effect, notwithstanding that he, Captain Street, either had then written, or was in the immediate intention of writing, on the very same day, to the said Lieutenant Wyndham, the letter of Retraction set forth in the last Instance of Charge.

Fifth Instance.—In having, at the same place, on or about the Twenty-sixth of August One thousand eight hundred and thirty-one, told Subadar Shaikh Emaum of the Seventh Regiment of Light Cavalry, falsely and with intent to obtain the Evidence of the said Subadar against Lieutenant George Hudleston Thomas, and Lieutenant Alexander William Lawrence, both of the same Regiment, that he, Captain Street, had been previously made acquainted, by Pensioned Subadar Major Tippoo Khan, formerly of the same Regiment, with certain Irregularities assumed to have been committed by the said Lieutenants Thomas and Lawrence, when in attendance upon a Regimental Court Martial ; such assertion regarding the said Subadar, being altogether unfounded in fact.

Sixth Instance.—In having, at the same place, on or about the Twenty-sixth of August One thousand eight hundred and thirty-one, falsely, and with a like intent, made a communication similar to that set forth in the last Instance of Charge, to Jemadar Shaikh Madar of the Seventh Regiment of Light Cavalry.

Seventh Instance.—In having, at the same place, on the Tenth of September One thousand eight hundred and thirty-one, endeavoured to suborn Jaffer Khan, Trooper of the Eighth Regiment of Light Cavalry, doing duty with the Cavalry Details, as a Witness against Captain Arthur Watkins of the Seventh Regiment of Light Cavalry, Commanding the Cavalry Details, and his, the said Jaffer Khan's immediate Commanding Officer : further humiliating himself by desiring the said Jaffer Khan to sit down in his presence.

Eighth Instance.—In having, at the same place, on the Seventh of October One thousand eight hundred and thirty-one, endeavoured to suborn Syed Emaum, Trooper of the Seventh Regiment of Light Cavalry, doing duty with the Cavalry Details, as a Witness against the said Captain Watkins, the said Syed Emaum's immediate Commanding Officer.

The above being in breach of the Articles of War.

By Order.
(Signed) A. DERVILLE,
Dep. Asst. Adjt. Genl. of the Mysore Div.

By Order.
(Signed) B. R. HITCHINS,
Acting Adjutant Genl.

The Court having most maturely weighed and considered the whole of the Evidence, brought forward in support of the Prosecution, as well as what the Prisoner Captain James Charles Street of the Seventh Regiment of Light Cavalry, has urged in his Defence, and the Evidence in support thereof, is of opinion:

Finding on the First Instance of Charge.—That the Prisoner is not Guilty of the First Instance of Charge.

Finding on the Second Instance of Charge.—That the Prisoner is Guilty of the Second Instance of Charge, with the exception of the word "Malice."

Finding on the Third Instance of Charge.—That the Prisoner is not Guilty of the Third Instance of Charge.

Finding on the Fourth Instance of Charge.—That the Prisoner is Guilty of the Fourth Instance of Charge.

Finding on the Fifth Instance of Charge.—That the Prisoner is not Guilty of the Fifth Instance of Charge.

Finding on the Sixth Instance of Charge.—That the Prisoner is not Guilty of the Sixth Instance of Charge.

Finding on the Seventh Instance of Charge.—That the Prisoner is not Guilty of the first part of the Seventh Instance of Charge, but Guilty of humiliating conduct, by desiring Trooper Jaffer Khan to sit down in his presence.

Finding on the Eighth Instance of Charge.—That the Prisoner is not Guilty of the Eighth Instance of Charge.

The Court finds the Prisoner Guilty of scandalous conduct, such as is unbecoming the character of an Officer and a Gentleman, but acquits him of the word Infamous.

Sentence.—The Court having found the Prisoner Guilty to the extent above stated, doth Sentence him the said Captain James Charles Street of the Seventh Regiment of Light Cavalry, to be Discharged from the Service.

(Signed) C. W. NEPEAN, Captain,
Deputy Judge Advocate General.

(Signed) R. LACY EVANS, Lieut.-Colonel,
15th Regiment Native Infantry, and President.

The Court cannot avoid noticing the fact of an Officer retaining in his possession a private apology, which though not formally received was considered by him as ample from one individual to another. The Court is borne out by the invariable custom of Military Society in declaring that when the injured party cannot consistently receive the apology it should be returned,—and it is to prevent so novel a proceeding from becoming a Precedent by their silence on the subject, that they feel it imperative to record their opinion on a fact so extraordinary and so destructive of the object for which an apology is first dictated.

(Signed) C. W. NEPEAN, Captain,
Deputy Judge Advocate General.

(Signed) R. LACY EVANS, Lieut.-Colonel,
15th Regiment Native Infantry, and President.

Confirmed.—The Court has drawn a Distinction without a Difference; scandalous and infamous being synonimous terms and employed, as such, together, in the Article of War, to designate one and the same circumstance, i. e. behaviour unbecoming the character of an Officer and a Gentleman.

I cannot approve of these Proceedings, because the Court has, in direct opposition to uncontroverted Evidence, acquitted the Prisoner of certain facts of the Charge; but I have confirmed them, because the Court, through its Finding however imperfect, has relieved the Service of an individual altogether unworthy to remain therein.

The remark, which the Court has thought fit to append to its judgment, would seem to imply that Lieutenant Wyndham had, unwarrantably, retained in his possession and made public use of a private apology unconditionally tendered to him. It is but justice to make known to the Army the Facts of the case, and thereby remedy so unmerited an accusation. Captain Street voluntarily addressed a Letter to Lieutenant Wyndham containing Retractions, avowed by Captain Street in the very Letter itself to be humiliating, of certain aspersions which Captain Street had fabricated against his character: immediately after the receipt of this Letter, Lieutenant Wyndham was made aware that Captain Street, on the very same day, had declared the Retractions in question to be themselves false and invented in order to screen him, (Lieutenant Wyndham:) upon what principle then, either of Honour or of Equity, could Lieutenant Wyndham be expected to proffer the return of the written proof of the base Duplicity exercised towards him? That the Court, after the admission made by its Finding on the Fourth Instance of Charge, should have recorded such an opinion, is altogether unaccountable.

There is a circumstance, connected with this case, which cannot be passed by without reprehension. Two Officers, detailed as Members of the Court, subjected themselves to a challenge, very properly made by the Judge Advocate, on the part of the Crown, as private Advisers, Counsellors, and Associates of the Prisoner to be tried up to the very day of trial. One of them had the discretion to request to withdraw: the other, however, thought fit to persevere, until removed by order of the Court, and was desirous, under such circumstances, to "swear to administer Justice without Partiality, Favour or Affection."—It is to be hoped that, as this is believed to be the first Instance of the kind on record in the Madras Army, so it will prove the last.

MADRAS,
The 6th of February 1832.

(Signed) R. W. O'CALLAGHAN, Lieut.-General,
and Commander in Chief.

Mr. James Charles Street will place himself under the orders of the Town Major of Fort St. George.

The General Court Martial of which Lieutenant Colonel Evans, C. B., 15th Regiment is President, is dissolved.

B. R. HITCHINS,
Acting Adjutant General of the Army.

CHICACOLE,
The Twenty-second of October, One thousand Eight hundred and Thirty-one.

(Signed) J. BAXTER, Major,
S. O. in charge of the 41st Regiment of Native Infantry.

By Order.
(Signed) T. H. S. CONWAY,
Adjutant General of the Army.

The Court having most maturely weighed and considered the whole of the Evidence brought forward in support of the Prosecution, as well as what the Prisoner, Ensign Maurice Henry Hiern, of the Forty-first Regiment of Native Infantry, has urged in his Defence, and the Evidence in support thereof, is of opinion :

Finding on the First Instance of the Charge.—That the Prisoner is not Guilty of the First Instance of the Charge.

Finding on the Second Instance of the Charge.—That the Prisoner is not Guilty of the Second Instance of the Charge.

(Signed) RICHARD S. M. SPRYE,
Deputy Judge Advocate General.

(Signed) H. ROSS, Lieut. Colonel,
and President

Previous to recording my disapprobation of these Proceedings, I consider it right to afford the Court an opportunity of reconsidering its Finding.—It is proved in Evidence, by three Witnesses, and by the Prisoner's own admission, that, on the occasion set forth in the Charge, when the dispute had been declared to be adjusted by the Friends of both Parties, Ensign Hiern, deliberately, and without provocation called Mr. Thomas a Scoundrel. It is also proved, by the testimony of the only person present at the time, and by the indirect admission of the Prisoner, (for the Court will recollect that in Ensign Hiern's letter of denial entered upon the Proceedings, he only disclaims the more objectionable of the two Epithets attributed to him in the Second Instance of the Charge,) that he, in like manner, without apparent provocation, called his own friend and adviser a Damned Blackguard. It is also shewn by the long investigation into which the Court has thought fit to enter, regarding the previous dispute between the Parties, that it was one of a most trivial description, so that the Prisoner can in no sort be allowed the advantage of unavoidable excitement, from previous ill usage, at the time of the transactions referred to in the Charge.—Under these circumstances, the Court will reconsider how far a person, who has wantonly called his adversary a Scoundrel, and his own friend a Blackguard, after submitting his cause to adjustment, is worthy to remain a Member of this Army, bearing the Commission of an Officer and a Gentleman.

MADRAS,
23*d January* 1832.

(Signed) R. W. O'CALLAGHAN, Lieut.-General,
and Commander in Chief.

The Court having most maturely reconsidered and weighed the whole of the Evidence in support of the Prosecution, with the Remarks of His Excellency the Commander in Chief, as well as what the Prisoner, Ensign Maurice Henry Hiern of the Forty-first Regiment of Native Infantry, has urged in his Defence, and the Evidence in support thereof, is of opinion :

Revised Finding on the First Instance of the Charge.—That the Prisoner is not Guilty of the First Instance of the Charge.

Revised Finding on the Second Instance of the Charge.—That the Prisoner is not Guilty of the Second Instance of the Charge.

(Signed) RICHARD S. M. SPRYE,
Deputy Judge Advocate General.

(Signed) H. ROSS, Lieut. Colonel
and Pres

In thus adhering to their original Finding, the Court feel it imperative on them to append some remarks explanatory of their reasons for so doing, in order that it may not be inferred, that the directions of His Excellency the Commander in Chief, for a revision, and the Remarks contained therein, have been received otherwise than with the greatest deference; or, that the Court's second decision has proceeded from any inclination to defend error of judgment.

First, they beg most respectfully to state to His Excellency, that in permitting the Prisoner's entering into a detail of the circumstances which originated the meeting at which he forgot himself, they granted nothing beyond what they considered he was fairly entitled to; nor admitted any thing beyond what they deemed it absolutely necessary they should be informed of, in order to be enabled to come to a correct judgment on his conduct.

In support of their Finding on the First Instance of the Charge, they beg, with respectful submission to His Excellency, to offer the following reply to his remarks. It is undoubtedly clearly proved that the Prisoner did call Mr. Thomas a Scoundrel; and the Court so found; but when called on to decide that his so doing was an act of scandalous and infamous conduct unbecoming the character of an Officer and a Gentleman, the Court expressed their opinion that it was not so: such opinion being founded on the following facts of the case before them, viz. that it was spoken in a moment of irritation and excitement, to one, who was believed by the Prisoner to have seduced a private Servant from his family, in a place where it was impossible to replace her,—who, on being pressed to restore her, went back to a note he had already received without any offence, and replied to in a friendly manner, for a cause of complaint against him—who after sending to him for explanation thereof, and receiving the assurance that no offence was intended by the chance word complained of, voluntarily insulted him, by causing him to be informed that he should discontinue acquaintance with him—who, on the Prisoner's consequent recall of the explanation he had offered, went so far as to demand a hostile meeting, on the fictitious ground of original complaint—and who, in consequence of an accident at such meeting which prevented its object being carried into effect, persevered to gratify his vindictive feelings by insisting on a second meeting, &c. &c. The whole forming, in the Court's opinion, a chain of circumstances sufficiently provoking and irritating to cause one of a sensitive temper to forget himself; and such as, united to the Prisoner's immediate contrition and acknowledgment of his error, and repeated spontaneous offers to all concerned to atone for it in any way they should decide, put it entirely beyond the Court's power to designate his conduct (highly reprehensible as it was,) as laid in the Charge before them. Wherefore, relying on the Law delivered by the Judge Advocate, and entered on the Proceedings at the conclusion of his reply to the Prisoner's Defence, they acquitted him generally.

In support of their Finding on the Second Instance, the Court beg equally respectfully to observe to His Excellency in reply to his remarks thereon, that the only witness in support of it would not positively depose, that he was called a Damned Blackguard; and that he was equally unable positively to swear that he was called a Damned Bugger. Epithets so very dissimilar, the Court conceives it would be difficult to mistake: and the sole witness to the point being thus uncertain, may not the Court, with the knowledge before it that he was at the moment riding at speed from the Prisoner in a state of angry excitement, justly infer, that he altogether mistook that to which he can only so imperfectly depose—more particularly when the extreme improbability of any man's so addressing his own friend, and the solemn denial given to it by the Prisoner in his Defence, are taken into consideration: for the Court cannot perceive in his letter of denial entered on the Proceedings, that indirect admission which His Excellency has therefrom inferred, of his having misbehaved towards Lieutenant Harrison individually; and indistinct as the letter is, they consider, that their view of it is not a little supported by the fact, that it was voluntarily produced to the Court by the Prisoner himself, in proof, that whatever he uttered to another, he did not offer insult to his own Friend. To shew that Lieutenant Harrison might easily have misunderstood what he did hear, it is only necessary to imagine, that in reply to his remonstrances for the behaviour towards Mr. Thomas, the Prisoner may have said "surely you'll allow he has acted as a Blackguard"—or any thing of like import, equally resembling what Lieutenant Harrison considered him to have said. In such extreme doubt, the Court decided according to their Conscience, and the best of their understanding; and much as they regret that His Excellency's deductions from the Proceedings, and his opinion of them, are so very different from their own, they must state that they see nothing to shake the integrity of their verdict.

They consequently hope, that with the explanation thus appended to it, in reply to His Excellency's remarks, His Excellency will not believe them to have felt careless of the honour of the Army to which they belong, or indifferent to the correct performance of the duty for which they were assembled: for their consideration of the Proceedings, was not partial, nor their decision hasty: but the unanimous conscientious result of their best judgments in full recollection of, and most scrupulous regard to, the Oath by which they were sworn to act.

(Signed) RICHARD S. M. SPRYE,
Deputy Judge Advocate General.

(Signed) H. ROSS, Lieut.-Colonel,
and President.

Disapproved.—Ensign Hiern will be released from arrest, and proceed to reside at Cuddalore, pending a reference to The Honorable the Court of Directors.

It would be impossible fully to illustrate the Remarks passed by the Court upon Revision, unless it were practicable to publish therewith the whole of the Proceedings.—To enable the Army of Fort St. George to appreciate the spirit with which the Court has entered upon the duty assigned, it may, however, be sufficient to particularize the following passages.

The Court assumes that the abuse vented by the Prisoner was "spoken in a moment of Irritation and excitement:"—It is proved on Oath that the Prisoner, at the Meeting in question, called Mr. Thomas a Scoundrel "without provocation."

The Court assumes that Mr. Thomas " persevered to gratify his vindictive feelings by insisting on a second Meeting." The Court alone can be aware whence its knowledge on this Point proceeded, as the circumstance does not appear in Evidence.

The Court assumes that Lieutenant Harrison, when spoken to by Ensign Hiern, was riding " at speed." —It is proved on Oath that he was riding " in a gentle canter."

The Letter addressed by the Prisoner to Lieutenant Harrison, and which is assumed by the Court not to contain " an indirect admission of his having misbehaved towards Lieutenant Harrison," contains a denial of having employed towards Lieutenant Harrison, " the appellation of Damned Bugger,"—with a careful avoidance of denying that he had called him " a Damned Blackguard."

Finally, the Court has had recourse to its " Imagination,"—a singular quality to become the Guide of Jurors upon Oath,—and substituted for the words which Lieutenant Harrison swears the Prisoner employed towards him, other words which the Prisoner himself never, either directly or indirectly, pretends to have used.

FORT ST. GEORGE, 17TH APRIL 1832.

G. O. BY GOVERNMENT.

The orders contained in the following Extracts from Military Letters to Bengal from the Honorable the Court of Directors, under dates the 10th February, 10th March, and 9th June 1830, Nos. 19, 33, and 60, are published for the information of the Army, and declared applicable to this Presidency.

Extract Military Letter to Bengal, dated 10th February 1830, (No. 19.)

Letter from ——— 12th Dec. 1828. 3. Forward Memorial from Captain James Blair, 30th N. I. praying that Mr. (late Captain) J. F. Hyde may be struck off the strength of that Corps, from the expiration of 8 years after his arrival in England instead of from the date when his five years absence from India expired.

V. By our Regulation of the 25th November 1823, Officers retiring from the Service shall be considered to have retired from the date of their "application to that effect, or from the expiration "of two years from the date of their landing in the United King- "dom whichever shall first happen, and all Casualties by death in "Europe, after the expiration of the same period of two years from "the date of landing, shall be considered to have occurred from the date when that period expired; not- "withstanding in both cases the Officers may have received an extension of furlough."

VI. We consider this Regulation to be equally applicable to the cases of Officers excluded from the Service by failing to return to India within the prescribed period.

Extract Military Letter to Bengal, dated 10th March 1830, (No. 33.)

Letter from ——— 27th Sept. 1828. 3. Forward a proposition by the Commander in Chief on the subject of modifying Court's recent instructions prohibiting the grant of Pensions to Non-Commissioned Officers and Soldiers whose period of service in the King's Army may exceed that in the Company's before becoming non-effective.

VII. On full consideration we do not desire that the instructions conveyed to you in paras. 96-8 of our Letter in this Department dated 4th August 1827, which instructions were communicated in the General Orders No. 19, 1828, should have a retrospective effect and should apply to persons who entered our Army relying on the established usage of the Service sanctioned by the express authority of your Government, that time served in India in a King's Regiment should be reckoned as service to us. We are willing that, that usage so sanctioned should continue, but then, we positively enjoin that Men entering our Army from that of His Majesty shall be most carefully examined previously to their being enlisted and shall only be enlisted when from their age and health, there may appear every reason to expect from them a long period of service.

VIII. We are satisfied by the Letter of the Adjutant General which you have transmitted to us that it is essential to the efficiency of our Army that we should obtain Men from His Majesty's; but, when we consider the very early age at which Recruits for His Majesty's Regiments are sent to India, we feel assured that, if you issue and enforce the observance of strict Regulations respecting the admission of Men from His Majesty's Service into ours, in conformity with the direction we have given you above, the cases will be very rare in which the time passed by such Men in our Army will not equal that which they may have passed in the King's.

IX. We desire that you will make such Men thoroughly acquainted with the Regulations of our Service as to pensions before they are enlisted.

X. This is the more necessary because a pension from the King, gives His Majesty a permanent claim upon the service of the Man pensioned; and the enlistment of a Man into our Service places it out of his power to perform the condition on which alone he can hold a pension from the King.

XI. What we have said applies to the cases of Men claiming pensions for length of Service, Men disabled in our Service, by accidents, and circumstances occurring in the course of their duty will, whatever may have been the time passed by them in our Army, receive our favourable consideration. But we enjoin that you place under very strict Regulation the discharge of Men for disability. It is a matter liable to gross abuse, and which must be most closely looked into by you, and will be at all times by us.

Military Letter to Bengal dated 9th June 1830, No. 60.

Letter from ——— 18th April 1829, Forwarding Minutes by the Members of Council recommending an alteration in the present table of precedence between Military and Civil Servants, and proposing that henceforward, Lieutenant Colonels rank with Senior Merchants, Majors with Junior Merchants, Captains with Factors, and Subalterns (Lieutenants) with Writers, according to the dates of admission, and their respective grades.

I. We now reply to your Separate Letter dated 18th April 1829, recommending a revision of the rules of precedence among our Civil and Military Servants.

II. We very willingly accede to the proposition which you have made to us in behalf of our Military Servants, and we accordingly direct that Lieutenant Colonels shall rank with Senior Merchants; Majors with Junior Merchants; Captains with Factors, and Subalterns with Writers, according to the dates of their respective Appointments and Commissions.

III. Brevet Commissions will be valid in fixing the comparative rank of Military with Civil Servants.

By order of the Right Honorable the Governor in Council.

It is much to be regretted, that a Court, composed of Native Officers, should, under any considerations of past Services, have recommended to Mercy an Individual convicted of an Offence which is, in its nature equally repugnant to Native Ideas of Propriety and at variance with the Military Principles which their long experience as Soldiers should have taught them to hold inviolable.

This Order, together with the General Orders of the 14th February 1823, and 12th April 1828, to be translated and read at the head of every Native Corps and Detachment in the Service, at three successive Parades.

G. O. BY GOVERNMENT.

The following Order by the Right Honorable the Governor, is published for general information.

OOTACAMUND, 14*th May* 1832.

The Right Honorable the Governor upon inspecting the new Pass from the Khoondah Ghauts into Malabar, where the Pioneers are now employed, was much gratified to see the rapid progress which has been made during the short time they have been engaged on that work.

From the 1st of January last up to the present time, a Road has been made down the rugged sides of the mountain to the length of 6½ miles, being a descent of 6,000 feet, and it is so skilfully and uniformly completed, that no inconvenience is felt in the passage down the Ghaut.

In addition to this great work a road of three miles has been made up to the Avelanche Hill and of six miles in the most difficult parts from thence to the top of the Khoondah Ghaut. The passage across the Hills from Coimbatore to Malabar is thus become practicable for laden Bullocks and Palankeens.

The top of the Khoondah Ghaut is about sixty miles from the Sea Coast at Calicut, of which thirty miles may be passed in Boats up the Beypore river —and the village of Woondoor in Malabar and the intermediate line of Country are now distinctly visible a mile above the point at which the work on the Khoondah Ghaut is completed, and the products of the low Country are already brought by the inhabitants for market to the top of the Pass.

For the successful use of the means placed at Captain Murray's disposal to open a nearer communication with the Western Coast, that Officer is entitled to the warm approbation of the Government, and the Right Honorable the Governor desires that Captain Murray will convey to all the Officers and Men under his Command and especially to the Adjutant of the Corps Lieutenant Le Hardy, the great gratification he has derived from the success of their skilful labours.

It will afford the Right Honorable the Governor great satisfaction to have an opportunity of testifying his sense of Lieutenant Le Hardy's professional merits in a more substantial manner.

The Right Honorable the Governor is pleased to direct that, upon this occasion, the usual extra batta for the day of inspection of the Khoondah Ghauts, be issued to the Corps of Pioneers now on duty upon the Neilgherry Hills.

By order of the Right Honorable the Governor in Council.

A. D. 1832. REGULATION VII.

A REGULATION for rescinding Regulation VI, 1821, and Regulation IV, 1827, and in lieu thereof, enacting rules for the better order and discipline of Military Bazars, the more effective administration of justice, and of the police, at the Stations where such Bazars are established, and at certain other Military Stations, and in Military Forces in the field ; the extension of the powers of Courts Martial ; and the more effectual prevention of the undue use of spirituous and fermented liquors and intoxicating drugs by the European Troops under this Presidency.—Passed by the Right Honorable the Governor in Council of Fort St. George, on the 4th May 1832 ; corresponding with the 24th of Chitterie of the year Nundana, 1755*th year of Salliwahn ; and with the 2d of Zeehidjah,* 1247 Hijeree.

Preamble. Whereas Regulation VI, 1821, and Regulation IV, 1827, have been found defective and insufficient to answer their purpose ; and further provisions are required for the more efficient administration of the police at Stations where Military Bazars are established and at certain other Military Stations ; as well as for the improved administration of civil and criminal justice, in certain cases, to Military persons ; and for the extension of the powers of Courts Martial, in certain cases ; and whereas further enactments are requisite more effectually to prevent the European troops from obtaining spirituous or fermented liquors, or intoxicating drugs, otherwise than according to the Regulations and under the control of the Officers of Government ;—The Governor in Council has, therefore, enacted this Regulation, which shall be in force from the date of its promulgation.

Regulations VI, 1809, III, 1810, VI, 1821 & IV, 1827, rescinded. II. Regulation VI, 1809, Regulation III, 1810, Regulation VI, 1821, and Regulation IV, 1827, are hereby rescinded.
