EMIGRATION.—(Continued.)

Ordinance, No. 15 of 1858.—Protector of Emigrants states that—does not appear to call for any remark. Advocate General's opinion that Steamers come under provisions of Act I of 1857, and that the burden of the "Manchester" must be taken to be 265 and not 155 tons, that Steamers plying for Native passengers between Main land and Ceylon should be dealt with under Act 21 of 1858.—Correspondence reviewed. Superintendent of Marine to authorize the Master Attendants at Madras, Tuticorin, and Cochin to grant Certificates to Steamers under Act 21 of 1858. Certificate granted by one of these officers may be continued in force by another without requiring the vessels to proceed to the port at which the Certificate was originally issued. These proceedings reported to Government of India and Ceylon...
