Explosives. The District Magistrate, Malabar, informed that reports of inspection of stock, premises and books of persons licensed under Forms A and B (Indian Explosives Act), to manufacture, possess or sell —, should be submitted in the form prescribed for Schedule B appended to G.O., No. 164 of 1891	6th Mar.	440 (Judl.)
——— Orders passed on replies received from certain officers to G.O., No. 1577 of 1890. Declared that, after a place of storage has been notified as required by rule, dynamite manufactured by the Nobel's Explosives Company may be landed prior to analysis and to the grant of import licenses in the port of Madras. The Government of India requested to exempt the Rhenish Dynamite Company's dynamite, when imported from the United Kingdom, from the necessity of undergoing analysis prior to importation. Messrs. Arbuthnot and Co. and Messrs. Best and Co. requested to specify more explicitly the particular portions of the Magazines which they propose to devote exclusively to the storage of dynamite landed in accordance with rule 8 of the rules under the Indian Explosives Act in view to the issue of the necessary Notification by Government.
