associations which may have a history worth knowing and which will be helpful for the building up of the social, cultural and economic history of the land.

(iii) Propaganda may be carried on by the members as a result of which owners and possessors of old manuscripts may be brought into touch with the Committee. Where the owners are willing to part with their records, arrangements are to be made for their examination and scrutiny, their mending if necessary and for proper preservation and their contents made known to scholars. The main endeavour of the committee is to evoke public enthusiasm and interest in bringing to light of worthwhile historical records and to persuade private effort to bring to public notice collections of records of historical value.

The scheme of National Register of records initiated by the Government of India on the recommendation of the Research and Publication Committee of the Indian Historical Records Commission was entrusted to the Regional Committee in 1958 in Tamil Nadu. Under this scheme the Director of National Archives of India, New Delhi compiles a National Register of records in private repositories on the basis of reports sent to him from the States. The work of unearthing such records is done by the Committee through a full time Research Assistant who tours the State for listing out such records. This scheme is aided by the Government of India.

Constitution of the Last Committee.

The last Committee was constituted in G.O.Ms.No.57, Public (General M), dated 7-1-1965 with Dr.K.K.Pillai as its Convener

The term of this Committee expired on 22-1-1968. The present Committee has been constituted in G.O.Ms.No.1058, Public (Civil Defence), dated 5-6-1969 with the Director of Archives as its Convener.

The last Committee consisted of 26 members, six reprdsenting learned institutions, three representing Universities, ten Government nominees and seven non-officials.

Meetings and Resolutions.

The Committee met thrice during the period 1966-68. The deliberations of the Committee are briefly indicated below:-

First Meeting.

The first meeting was held on 14th March 1966. At the meeting, the members suggested various sources of Historical Records and Manuscripts. The following were some of the suggestions made.

(1) To contact the Pachaiappa's Trust for the records they possessed.

(2) To list the family records of Appanayudu Pillai and Thottakkaran Ramakrishna Pillai and in this regard to contact Thiru W.S.Krishnaswamy Nayudu and Thiru Radhakrishna Pillai respectively.

(3) To list the family records of Diwan Raghunatha Rao which are with the descendants of the Diwan, who live at Yagasalai Street, Kumbakonam.

(4) To list the records of the Dutch Company at Poraiyar for the National Register of Records.

Second Meeting.

The second meeting of the Committee was held on 27th February 1967. Members pointed out many useful sources, were records were likely to be available. The following suggestions were made at the meeting.

(1) To contact Raja Sir Muthaiah Chettiar of Chettinadu for the records on Nagarathar.

(2) To list the statistical accounts of Pudukkottai Samasthanam for the National Register and in this regard to contact Thiru K.R.Venkataraman, Retired D.P.I. of Pudukkottai State.

(3) To list the records of Kunnrakkudi Adeenam as they are likely to shed light on the Piranmalai Temple.

(4) To list the records of the Chambers of Commerce for the National Register.

(5) To survey Manalur Kulasekharanandiapuram, the old Pandian capital as there live even now about 100 old families who might possess valuable documents.

(6) As some old historical documents would have migrated to foreign countries like Portugal, Germany and England, the Government were to be requested to depute a person for touring the European countries, and to visit the libraries, Universities and other places in order to prepare bonafide copies of such extant records.

Third Meeting.

The third and the last meeting of the Committee was held on 30th September 1967. Suggestions were putforward by members for enlisting increased cooperation in the matter of collecting historical records that might lie in the hands of private individuals and institutions. The importance of contributing of articles in newspapers by Members of the Regional [illegible] was also stressed.

Work done during the period under review.

During the period under review, the Research Assistant working under the Convener visited the districts of Nilgiris, Coimbatore, Madurai, Salem, Tanjore, North Arcot, Ramnad, Tinnevelly, Kanyakumari, Trichy, Madras and Chingleput. As a result of his survey he procured two hundred and twenty records for the National Register Scheme. The number of records procured in each district and the details regarding them, are as follows:-

(i) Nilgiris. This district was visited by the Research Assistant twice. A total of twenty two records were procured for the National Register. The information gathered in the district mainly related to the hill tribes of Ooty. A copper plate that was given to one Bellakhan Ethappa by Uddu Raya furnished information about the Baduga Settlement in the Nilgiris. It was gathered that the Badugas settled in Seven Naduas or countries viz Thantha Nadu, Kaikara Nadu, Kod Nadu, Kundha Nadu, Marku Nadu, Sanbe Nadu and Naja Nadu. Thunneri was their capital, where they erected a big temple.

Minor details regarding Tippu Sultan were also unearthed in the District. A manuscript monograph displayed by Thiru Abdul Kareem of Coty speaks about a gift (worth thirty thousand rupees) made by Tippu to a Hindu temple. Contrary to the familiar notion, this document remarks that Tippu was a pious and tolerant man, respecting all religions.

(ii) Coimbatore: The Research Assistant visited the District twice. The total number of records procured for the National Register Scheme was twenty two. The records listed are mostly sociological in their contents. For example, are mostly sociological in their contents. For example, the documents listed at Pallappalayam point out that the Maravas, now residing in Coimbatore originally came from Ramnad under the leadership of one Pandimuthu Thevar. The date of migration is late 18th century, that is when Yusuf Khan of Madurai was engaged in a war with Puli Thevar.

(iii) Madurai. A total of forty eight records were listed at Madurai. The Research Assistant procured information regarding the Nayaks of Madura. A copper plate issued by Thirumalai Nayak to the Zamindar of Velliankurnam was listed for the National Register. It deals with grant of lands and privileges given as a token of gratitude for the latter's assistance in his war against Mysore. It is expressly mentioned in the document that the forces of Ramnad were instrumental in securing the victory against the Mysoreans.

The records of Marugapuri Zamin were next listed at Pattanathur. They showed that the Zamin was of late origin and that it was set up by Rani Mangammal with a view to warding off Marava incursions into the Naick territories.

At Valavanthanallur, a palm leaf document that speaks about a Marava kalla conflict was procured. It was gathered that the conflict was precipitated by the Sembiam Raja who made the first move by expelling the Maravas from Ramnad. Thereupon the Maravas moved westward, and in so doing came into conflict with the Kallars of Valavanthanallur. The ensued contest ended in favour of the Maravas who drove the Kallars out of that region.

(iv) Salem. The visit to Salem by the Research Assistant, being the first of its kind, was mostly exploratory in character. In all, nine records were listed for the National Register. Among the records surveyed those that are deposited at the Municipal Office are of some interest.

They indicated that Salem was the first town in India to have a separate civic administration vested in an independent sanitary association. This body was created immediately after the taking over of the Indian Administration by the Crown.

Minor details regarding the Vijayanagar Empire were next collected. A copper plate issued by the Emperor of Vijayanagar at Penukonda to one Rama Bhatta speaks about a grant of a village by name 'Malar' in the Chitra Durga district, of the present Mysore State. The district has to be revisited, as there is much scope for comprehensive survey.

(v) Tanjore. At Tanjore records relating to the social history of the district was listed for the National Register. Among these, a copper plate displayed by Vadivelu Tanjai Ravar is of some interest. It was gathered that the Kallar community was divided into divisions called Four nadus, Seven Nadus and Eleven Nadus. Kasa Nadu of the Four nadus was the chief among them. Duly signed by the leaders of all nadus and countersigned by the King of Tanjore this document is almost a social code of conduct. The chieftain was vested with the power of administration and he was responsible only to the King.

Information regarding Mutharivars was next collected at Narasingampet. The palm leaf records show that the Mutharivars were the rulers of Tanjore before the hands of Vijayanagar fell on it. Unfortunately these records do not furnish any date.

The total number of records listed in this district is twenty two.

(vi) North Arcot. In North Arcot, historical data concerning the etymology of town names was procured. A palm leaf record procured at Vellore traces the growth of the present Vellore town from a tiny village called Velapnadi, the latter so called because the village was clustered with Vela trees. An anologous information is furnished by the reports of the American Arcot Mission, in regard to the name Arcot. A palm leaf record dated 1891 interprets the name Arcot as a derivation of Arukadu or six forests. The reason given for such a name is that, there were originally six forest, three on each side of the Palar river.

The number of records listed in this distfict is twelve.

(vii) Ramnad. At Ramnad, records relating to the Nagarathar were procured. The family records of Thiru Sa. Ganesan, M.L.C., furnish a brief account of the Chettiar Community in Ramnad. They indicated that these Chettiars moved from Kaviripoompattinam to Nattarasankottai during the reigns of Veera nandian, Kulasekahara Pandian and Sundara Pandian.

The records of the Velangudi Rock temple showed that the temple played a very important role in the lives of the Chettiar Community. There were nine temples in the nagara and all the Chettiars were divided amongst themselves in respect of their allegience to these nine temples. In fact these nine temples seemed to have represented the nine gothras. Every social activity like birth, death and marr had to be registered in these temples. The temple registers called 'Attavanai' thus incidentally served as Gazetteers of the community.

The number of records listed in this district is nineteen.

(viii) Tinnevelly. In Tinnevelly a total of eigh records were listed. Among these, the documents procurred at Islamiapuam are of some interest. A copper plate issued by Vijavaranga Chokkanatha to one Ibrahim Khan speaks about grant of lands to a "Pallivasal". The plate is in Telugu and dated Salivahana 1780 (1712 A.D.). The grant was intended to meet the maintenance expenses of the mosque.

Details about Patan settlers are available in the records at Islamiapuram. The Inam title deeds Nos. 149 and 223 state that the Pathans came from Afghanistan in the fourteenth century. They took to military service under the Nayak Kings of Madura. During the period 1710 -12 A.D when the Maravas of Poochukadu rebelled against the Dalawai, the Pathan cavalrymen played a leading role in quelling the uprising.

(x) Kanyakumari. The records procured at Kanyakumari mainly related to the activities of Christian Missionaries. The records of the London Mission Church at Myladi indicated that conversions begin in that area at a very early stage. At Kottar for example, conversions began as early as 1544. The records available at the St. Francis Xavier Church are listed for the National Register. These records indicate that the British Resident at Trivandrum used his official status and positions in influencing the public to embrace this faith. The number of records procured for the National Register in this district is twenty.

(ix) Chinglepat. At Chinglepat the information procured was fragmentary. Historical data concerning the

For example

Society of Chingleput in the eighteenth century was procured from Thiru S.Guruswamy Naicker. Particulars about the Thimmaravan Fort ~~was~~ were collected at the Senior Approved School at Chingleput. These records (twelve in number) were listed for the National Register.

(xi) Tiruchy. In this district the Research Assistant procured information on the Nawab of Arcot. The records furnished by Thiru Vincent Durai attest to the grave financial crisis faced by the Nawab during the eighteenth century. Information about the friendly association of the British with the Nawab is also available. A total of 10 records ~~furnished~~ were listed for the National Register.

(xii) Madras. In Madras, Dr. Mohammad Ghouse showed to the Research Assistant 50 Persian documents which have a bearing on the political situation that prevailed in the Carnatic in the eighteenth century. These are mostly letters and despatches transacted between Nawab Wallajah of Madras and the Prime Minister of Nawab Ali Khan of Hyderabad. The period covered by the correspondences is between 1787 and 1797 A.D.

Working of the District Committees.

During the period under review, District Committees were constituted and are functioning in South Arcot, Tanjore, Madurai, Tinnevelly and Kanyakumari. Dr. K.K.Pillai the former Convener attended the meetings of the District Committees at Cuddalore and Nagarcovil on 14-12-1965 and 30-7-1965 respectively. The Committees were useful in locating the sources of old records in guiding the Research Assistant to contact the persons concer

Proposals for the future.

(i) All the districts, especially South Arcot and Salem should be revisited by the Research Assistant.

(ii) The District Committees have to be reactivated where ever they exist and new committees have to be organis wherever they are not organised yet.

(iii) The private papers of the leaders of Freedom Struggle and other political leaders of the recent past, if collected would be of great value. The Regional Committee can make arrangements to get at the private papers of the late Satyamoorthy, the late C.N.Annadurai, the late G.Subramania Iyer, the late S. Subramanya Iyer and Thiru E.V.Ramaswamy Naicker. For a study of educational history in Madras, the private papers of the late Dr. William Miller would be of some use and these can be had at the Madras Christian College.

(iv) The value of the records listed could be fully realised only if they are thrown open to researchers. The Regional Committee may take steps in this direction so that these records are either purchased and kept at the Archives or at least made accessible through for the preparation of bonafide cor In this connection, the Committee can request the Government to increase the subsidy given to it, so that with sufficien funds at its disposal the Committee can confidently embark or are mostly sociological in their contents. For examp
