24.	7.	4.

The Administration has not applied for this Sum on account of the Estate small[illegible] of the Account not being able to lay such an interest pin a Government Security so small an Amount and not knowing the Person or Persons beneficially interested

The Undermentioned has come to my knowledge

It appears by the deceased's Will dated at Trincomallie Island of Ceylon 7th May 1800 that he bequeathed to his only daughter Agnes Dallas all his pay Arrears of pay and Clothing whatever might be lawfully due to him from His Majesty's Seventy Second Regiment then in Europe or any thing lawfully due to him from His Majesty's Eighteenth Regiment from the day he had joined them to the time of his decease, with all his share of Prize Money for the taking of Pondicherry and the Island of Ceylon in the East Indies together with his share of the sum or sums of Prize Money due to him from His Majesty's One hundred and Second Regiment at the conclusion of the war with Hyder Ally in the year 1784 having taken the Field under the command of Colonel Lang of the Honorable Company's Service and afterwards under the command of Colonel Williams dismissed the Field in 1784 being then under the Command of Colonel Williams Fallaton &c. &c. as might be specified by a due enquiry at the Adjutant Generals Office Madras from the Transactions of the year aforesaid, In order that the above might be done.-

N. B. The necessity of the above Prize Money &c. as considered desperate the late Gilbert Ricketts Esqre. as the Administrator received the sum of Pags. 7. 16. being the Serviceman[illegible] Prize Money of which, by his Commission Fanams 10 - 44 the balance Pags. 6. 44. 36 is the amount mentioned in the said Schedule referred to in the said act.-
