A True and Perfect Inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels and Effects of The Reverend C. A. G. Falcke deceased, late of Madras Missionary remaining unadministered by Patrick Blegghorn Esq^r late the Registrar and Administrator which have come to the hands, possession or knowledge of Peter Bator Esq^r the Registrar of the Supreme Court at Madras for the time being and Administrator. -

The under mentioned has come to my knowledge.

It appears by the deceased's Will dated Vepery 13th November 1824, that he considered, the funeral expences would be covered by the sale of his cloathes, Books and furniture, and the rest of his salary, which was in the hands of Mr. Newbigging. If any money was left he directed that it should be employed for the benefit of the Commel Boarders of their Mission School, in the manner which his brethren thought most profitable. He further directed that his correspondence, his German journal, Rojatzky's golden treasure and his silver watch should be sent over to Deptford near London under direction of Mrs. W. Bencke his sister, he wished that his English Journal could find a place in the Mission library. -

N.B. It appears by a letter from Reverend B. A. Denton Dated 19th September 1834. that he found enquiry of Dr. Rottler that the articles specified in the deceased's Will were forwarded as directed to his sister and by the said letter it further appears from the proceedings of the Christian Knowledge Society, under date 25th February 1825. that the cash due to the deceased by the Society, and for the time that passed between his death and the end of the official half year, was paid to the Vepery Missionaries, and is now appropriated to the object intended by the deceased, namely, the support of boys in the Vepery Mission Boarding School, originally established by Mr. Gericks. -

181. 10. "

The undermentioned has come to my knowledge.

The following is mentioned to be due in a memorandum at the date foot of the said Gilbert Richetto Esq^r account Current filed on 12th January 1810.

By a Certificate of Major Andrew Rochard, it appears that the late Lieutenant Thomas Noble was entitled to Prize money as ensign for the capture of the Isle of Bourbon, the accounts of which were not at that time completed at the office of the Prize Committee. The present Administrator has not been able to recover the amount owing to the orders of Government. The recovery of it if any is in this Country desperate.
