The

The Undermentioned has come to my knowledge

It appears by the Will of the deceased that he was entitled to the sum of one hundred and twenty three pounds deposited in the hands of Major Packard Regmt of Eighty Ninth Regiment The said Packard deceased appears to have died much involved in 1817. and the records of the Regiment could afford no information whatever as to what became of the aforesaid Money.

It also appears by the said Will that the deceased was possessed of Silver Hunting Watch with two Gold Rings and Gold Key; which aforesaid Testator it appears by a letter from Major J. L. Basden to the Paymaster of the Regiment dated 19 January 1835. were taken charge of by Drum Major James Neale the husband of Eleanor Neale late Rooney and improperly appropriated by him to his own purposes.

It also appears by a letter from Lieutenant Colonel I. W. Mallett, that Prize Money amounting to £ 150 was lying in the Chest at Chelsea belonging to the deceased

It also appears by a Memorandum of Lieutenant Colonel I. MacGaskill that the deceased was entitled to Prize Money for Java as a Sergeant. an application it appears accompanied by the necessary documents were forwarded to the Regimental agents for submission to

to the Deputy Treasurer of Chelsea Hospital for payment but the same it appears have been returned with an intimation that the Prize Money had become forfeited and in consequence Messrs Greenwood and Cox recommended that a Memorial should be forwarded to the Lords Commissioners of Chelsea Hospital to recover the amount mentioned in the Certificates.

It also appears by the said Memorandum that the deceased became payable the necessary papers were forwarded to recover the amount these have been returned it appears been returned with information that it would be necessary to take out letters of administration from the Peculiar Court of the Archbishop of Canterbury before the Money could be Recovered the amount being above £20.

My Dear Sir

In reference to your letter of the 31st October I have now the pleasure to await upon you with the engagement / the only one made / in Persian between the parties Concerned in purchasing the Credits of the late Firm of William Palmer & Co From the imperfect exposition contained in the engagement it is necessary I should apprize you that it was drawn up for the satisfaction of Kittna Dos alone and therefore nothing was inserted which was seperate from his interest, I shall however make you all the exposition that may at present strike me of necessary to give you full information. and shall gladly attend to such further reference as you may Consider necessary to make to me for more Complete information.

In the engagement you will find that the shares were divided into 12 parts Kittna Dos holds three shares investing 15,000 Rupees as his portion of the Sum guaranteed to the Creditors. Sir W^m Rumbold holds three shares as per Original engagement investing fifty thousand Rupees as his portion of the Sum of four lacs guaranteed to the Creditors, W^m Palmer holds three shares similar with Sir W^m Rumbold.

Mr Henry Dighton holds one share investing 5,000 Rupees entitling him to 1/4 share and the remaining 1/4 was purchased by my son in law Lt Taylor investing 12500 Rupees for it.

Sir Wm Rumbold borrowed the whole or nearly the whole amount of the monies invested by him at this place, through Mr Palmer of Calcutta pledging himself for the restitution of the money from the funds of the investiture. His bonds as a principal Creditor of Sir Wm Rumbolds for the investitures made by him upon the faith and guarantee of all monies belonging to the Partnership passing through his hands.

Kishen Das claims a further sum of twenty thousand Rupees on bond.

We claim against Sir Wm Rumbold on two amounts One for monies advanced to him by the Trustees of the late Firm of Wm Palmer & Co and another on account of monies advanced to him by the present Partners as per margin

We shall take the earliest safe opportunity of dispatching his Papers to you. I am not aware of any further information, I could give you, that would be useful. Perhaps it is necessary I should explain to you, why formal Documents of a Partnership were not drawn up amongst us. The fact is that we were so much satisfied with one another, all engagements amongst us in this house seemed to be entirely a family Compact. that is to say the one engagement entered

In the letter which I have written to you officially, I have not thought it necessary to communicate to you, that there was an understanding between Sir W. Pringle & ourselves, that we should allow him a share of his shares, ten per cent on the amount of the assignments between ourselves and the trustees of W. Patterson &c — you will see on perusing that, that the sum of only to our ability, but to our knowing exactly arising from the assignations which he the losing done that the assignations and that it should be in the first instance

When to return to England for the prosecution of some other objects—

The present change of circumstances removes the need of payment—but as there was no formal agreement to bind us—I propose to that for Sir Wm Rumbold in the payment to discharge of his debt to the three of the present Partnership which will probably amount with interest to about 20000 Rupees—of the residue, perhaps 20000 Rupees—for the present maintenance of his family—

I have gone into this explanation, as I mean to keep you fully apprized relating to ourselves beyond the limits of your official interest in Sir W Rumbold's Estate—In regard to these however I can only say at present, that nothing shall be wanting of further exertion during

My dear Sir

I am the letter which I have written
to you officially, I have not thought it necessary
to communicate to you, that there was an understanding between Sir W. Pringle & ourselves, that we should allow him handed the produce of his shares, for you know on the argument of the arrangements between ourselves and the Creditors of W. Pulteney Esq. you will see from that, that there was a delicacy
in our ability, but to save himself exposure to pain from the conversation which we to justify the having done. But the arrangement was that we should receive the first proceeds to make

Wm to return the Earlier to England for the prosecution of his other objects—
The present change of circumstances removes the Cause of payment— but as there was no formal Proof of payment— but as there was no formal
