The undermentioned has come to my Knowledge

It appears by the Papers of the deceased that a Sum of Rupees 2,000 — was paid on or about January 1826 To the Secretary of the Male Asylum on behalf of late Dr. Baillie as the Executor of the deceased on account of the deceased natural Son who died in or about the year 1833.

Remarks and information —

The Administrator applied to the Secretary of the male asylum to pay back the amount But the Directors of that Institution refused delivering the same to the Administrator of the Estate in as much as the Legacy was absolutely vested in the Legatee.

Sworn to in the Open Court
the 2d. day of February 1837.
