Mount Road near the Constable within the limits of Madras on the 30th day of June 1858.
and by adjournment at the Nagapattinam Hospital on the 2^d day of July in the year aforesaid.
Respect
Died from Cholera.

From the evidence of the emigration men it appears that all persons not entered are ordered to leave the emigrant lines if taken sick although they may have been in the lines several days. This appears to the Jury to be deserving of notice and they wish to remark on the same with the view of bringing the practice to the notice of the emigration agent who is confidently expected will in future order such cases to be removed to Hospital.
