W. Allambylin et al. v. The United States
The undersigned, being duly sworn, depose and say that the above-named plaintiffs are the owners of the land described in the petition filed in the Court of Claims at Washington, D.C., and that they have been in possession of the same since the year 1860, and that they have paid no taxes thereon.
They further depose and say that the land was taken from them by the United States Government in the year 1860, and that they have never received any compensation therefor.

[illegible][illegible]

[illegible][illegible]

The text is a handwritten letter, likely from a woman to a man, written in a cursive script. It is heavily faded and contains many illegible words and phrases. The text appears to be a personal communication, possibly a love letter or a letter of advice. The handwriting is dense and fills the page, with some lines being more legible than others. The overall tone of the text is intimate and emotional.
