PREFACE.

The Government of Madras have decided to print the records of Fort St. George of the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries, which are now housed in the Central Record Office in Madras, mainly because some of the original records are decaying steadily and once decay in manuscript sets in it is extremely difficult in the climate of Madras to arrest its progress.

2. Selections from the earlier records were published by Mr. William Hudleston of the Madras Civil Service in 1871-73 and by Mr. Pringle of the Madras Secretariat in 1893-95.

3. Mr. Hudleston's publications are best described in the following extract from the preface to Mr. Pringle's "Selections" for 1681—

"Thirty-four years ago (1859) Mr. William Hudleston of the Madras Civil Service made some extracts from the earliest records, dating from 1670, which are preserved at Fort St. George, and read them before the Madras Literary Society. Mr. Talboys Wheeler used these in his 'Madras in the Olden Times', and in 1871 they were collected and printed, with additions, in the shape of a pamphlet entitled 'Notes on and extracts from the Government records in Fort St. George, Madras'. A second series was published in the same year, and a third, bringing down the history to the end of 1680, two years later."

4. The first of Mr. Hudleston's volumes comprised extracts from letters from England for the period from the 9th November 1670-71 to the 22nd December 1677-78 and Extracts from Consultations from the 19th January 1671-72 to the 26th January 1677-78; the second, Extracts from Consultations from the 27th January 1677-78 to the 7th January 1678-79; and the third, Extracts from Consultations from the 9th January 1678-79 to the 8th January 1679-80.

5. Mr. Pringle published five volumes. His first which related to the Consultations of 1681 was issued under the title of "Selections from the Consultations of the Agent Governor and Council of Fort St. George" and was on the model of Mr. Hudleston's "Notes and Extracts". He recognised subsequently the advantages of reproduction in extenso and, accordingly, his four volumes for the years 1682, 1683, 1684 and 1685, published under the title of "The Diary and Consultation Book of the Agent Governor and Council of Fort St. George", were exact reproductions. His publications covered the Consultation volumes of the Public department, but in the Madras records prior to 1700 there are despatches to the Court of Directors and other records which he did not touch.

6. It has been decided to print the records in extenso in preference to issuing annotated selections for two main reasons. In the first place, the issue of selections involves the risk that records omitted from the selections may be required elsewhere. Secondly, any attempt at combining annotation or historical criticism can only lead to delay in the issue of the volumes, where time is of importance. The records will accordingly be reproduced exactly as they stand in the original, and words which have disappeared totally or in part will be indicated by square brackets [] which will be filled in as far as possible.

7. Indexes will be issued from time to time as convenient series of volumes are produced.

8. It may be mentioned that the Madras "Press Lists", which contain complete abstracts of every document in the records, have now been completed up to 1800. The volumes up to 1799 have issued and that for 1800 is now passing through the Press. With these Press Lists and the reprints, reference to the earlier records of Fort St. George will be available in a very complete degree.

9. The following pages contain a facsimile reproduction of the earliest of the old record volumes of Fort St. George, known as the "Diary and Consultation Books". The present volume opens with the Consultation of the "Agent Governor and Councill" of the 19th January 1671-72 and concludes with that of the 26th January 1677-78. Mr. Hudleston stated in his notes and extracts that the date of the first Consultation was the 11th April 1672. He was, however, mistaken, and the error arose from the transposition in binding of the first two sheets of the original volume.

5th September 1910.

Cassa Verona &c^o Merchants having at y^e Agent and Councell[^s] desire in order to y^e dispatch of y^e 2 first ships for London and Bantam provided since y^e last ships departure to y^e vallue of pag^{os}: 80 m. in Calicees whereof for Pag^{os}: 21 m received to this day and embaled in Bales 344, other Pag^{os}: 20 m in white Calicoes, and 4000 in Painting[s], already brought in; and at y^e Washers; y^e remaining Pag^{os}: 31 m in white Calicoes, and Pag^{os}: 4000 in Paintings, expected to be here in few dayes, y^e longest in 40 dayes; and having used our utmost Endeavours to procure some abatement in Prices, for y^e encouragemen[t] of our Hon^{ble}: Employers; y^e said Merchants have given us such satisfaction of y^e dearness of Cotton in all these [p]arts, by reason of y^e failing of y^e Ricolta in Visiaporee, and [Chicacole] whence our usuall supply, being now worth Pag^{os}: 14 y^e Candy, w^{ch}: untill y^e last year when y^e stoppage on y^e ffrontiers caused y^e said inconveniencyes, ruled usually about Pag^{os}: 9 — —, y^t it was not possible to abate any thing of y^e last yeares prices; at which Time as we well remember, they were brought as low as was possible to bring y^m; so y^t: our selves knowing y^e same to be very true, and y^t y^e said Merchants have ever shewed themselves, and now abundantly, [very] affectionate to y^e Intere[st] and service of our Hon^{ble}: Employers; and ready to submit to any thing of Reason we have agreed with them to receive y^e said Goods so provided, at y^e same Prices as agreed; and received y^m. last yeare. The Mores at y^e Instigation of y^e Dutch having been long very pressing to have Mons^r. Peter Del Tor y^e ffrench second of Metchlepatam, who has now resided here Eight Months by order of Mons^r: De la Hay y^e ffrench Leutenant

Generall, to depart this place, suspecting him to drive on some private designs from hence to y^e preiudice of y^e King of Golcundah, and of y^e Siege and having caused us much trouble thereabouts, wee have severall times given him notice thereof, and desired him to depart, w^{ch}: hee refusing wee have still forborn to use any Compulsion, so long as has been possible for us, to pacify y^e Mores thereabouts, least it should be taken as a violation of y^e strict Alliance between y^e King our Sovereign, and y^e ffrench King, and thereby bring our Hon^{ble}: Employers and this Place into trouble for y^e same. But now at length y^e Mores refusing any longer delays, and being resolved to have him out, or else to Joyne with y^e Dutch and make warr upon us, Wee thereupon acquainting Mons^r: Del Tor of y^e necessity for his departure, he seemed to rest contented therewith, so according to his desire wee did use our utmost Endeavors to obtaine him passports from both Mores and Dutch for his return to S^t: Thoma, but y^e Dutch opposeing, and y^e Mores being under their direction, it could not be granted so with his approbation wee then procured him both their Passports to depart this Countrey for Visiapore and in order thereto, wee gott ready a Pallenkeen & Cooleys and 50 Peons to attend him out, y^e Mores and Dutch promiseing likewise others of their own, for his greater security, but when all was gott ready, and his departure houely expected, he received, or pretended to have received orders from Mons^r: De La Hay in Cyphers both to him and y^e other 3 ffrenchmen since come in a Danes shipp, not to goe out unless he could gett Passports for S^t: Thoma, but rather to suffer y^m. selves to be cutt in peices; whereupon they all foure refused to depart, unless wee should putt y^m. out by force. w^{ch}: indeed appeares to bee what Monsieur De La Hay aymes at in his said order, who by all his actions seemes to study nothing more, but to involve us in his own quarrell, and w^{ch}: wee were very loath to come to if wee could possibly avoyd it, in regard of y^e foresaid Allyance, and y^e Cavillousness of those people, wherefore wee againe sent to Mirza y^e Mores Generall, certifying him how it was, and againe endeavoured to get leave for their Conveyance to S^t: Thoma, but through y^e opposition of y^e Dutch it could not be obtained, and he being incensed at this dallying with y^m, layd strickt siege to this Place y^e 23^d at Night, (already blocked up this 22 Months, and therefore ill prepared for it) w^{ch}: continuing untill this time, and y^e ffrench still persisting on their denyall. To MONSIEUR PETER DEL TOR second for affaires of y^e Royall Company of ffrence at Metchlep^m, and y^e 3 other ffrenchmen Landed here from aboard y^e Danish Ship Sea Horse from Bantam.

Gentlemen,

You have been wellcome to us as long as has been possible for us to entertaine you, as has been sufficiently demonstrated by our being 22 Months blocked up upon y^e score of y^e french at S^t: Thoma, and 8 Months more particularly by reason of your own abode here, having been Constrayned to fetch all our Sustenance from y^e Camp and that only from day to day, which truly y^e trouble which y^e Chevall^r: de Maison Neufues coming caused us y^e yeare before, ought in reason and in freindship to have prevented, nor has our Peace with this Countrey, and dependance for our long settled Traffieq, permitted us those forcible wayes of provideing for a Siege, as y^e french have used. So y^t: y^e Mores at y^e Instigation of y^e Dutch, no longer endureing any further delay of your departure, with those 3 frenchmen lately Landed out of y^e Danes ship having now besieged us so strictly, as your selves are Eye witnesses, wee are no longer able to stand it out, but are forced extremly against our Wills, seing neither our frequent Entreatyes, nor the Consideration of our troubles, dammages, and dangers occasioned by you will suffice, to require and Command you and y^e other 3 french men aforesaid forthwith to depart y^e Place, now whiles you may enjoy y^e Passports w^{ch}: wee have obtained for you, from both Mores and Dutch on y^e best termes wee could, much fearing what might happen should you by an unseasonable & fruitless obstinacy forfeit y^e same, now y^t: wee have done all y^t: wee can for you, and are not in a capacity to dispute it further.

The said Agent well knowing that either hee was out of Cure, or at least took y^e same disorderly Liberty as if he were so. Sent for him and desired him, now y^t. that was so well recovered and y^e time of our great Buisness come in to fall to his buisness and discharge y^e Duty of his place againe as hee ought to doe, which he againe desired to be excused from pretending not to be yet thoroughly recovered, so y^t. y^e. Agent was still fain to find other hands to doe it for him.

Againe at y^e said Ships returne from y^e Bay, The Agent notwithstanding many Misdemeanours of y^e said M^r. Crandon yet meerly out of Charity to humane frailty & respect to y^e Hon^{ble}: Company, sent for him and desired him now at length to reapply himselfe to y^e buisness and Duty of his Place w^{ch}. having no other excuse left, he plainly told y^e Agent coming neare to him, how y^t. hee had served y^e Hon^{ble}: Company along Time, and y^t. although he acknowledged their kindness in encreasing his Sallary, yet truly that was not sufficient to raise his fortune, and therefore he desired to be excused from it, dureing y^e dispatch of y^e Shipping, & stay of y^e Commanders & Pursers &cⁿ. here, that he might be amongst them, and see to get something by them, and y^t. afterwards when y^e Ships were departed, if there were any thing for him to doe, he should readily doe it. w^{ch}: was as good as to say in y^e time and Stresse of buisness wee must excuse him, but when it was all over he was at y^e Hono^{ble}: Company^s service.

Whereupon and upon y^e Continuance of his deboystness especially y^e Dutch Warre coming on, w^{ch}: required much seerecy it was not thought fit to call upon him, or entrust him any more, but to Confine all our Transactions & Letters of Importance unto y^e Councill only, and y^e said Youngman, whose fidellity abillity & sobriety had by that Time been sufficiently experienced.

The Agent likewise Charged y^e said M^r. Crandon before the said Councill, how y^t sometime since, when upon some reprooves for his many rudenesses and disorders, he would needs recriminate y^e Agent with doing him wrong, in Employing others in his place, and y^e Agent minding him of all these Circumstances which had past between them, he had y^e Impudence to deny y^e Same, and staid in it, to his face. Which y^e said M^r. Crandon did now againe before y^e whole Councill as boldly deny, and vow to be false, untill y^e Agent thus particularly laying his very words before him, it pleased God y^t. he had not y^e Power to deny it any longer, but he confessed y^e whole matter objected to bee true, The which in Testimony of y^e Truth, and for y^e Satisfaction of our Hon^{ble}. JOSEPH HYNMERS TIMOTHY WILKES

The Agent and Councell having called together Cassa Verona Veancaty Narrain, Pedda Vincatadry, Chinna Vincatadry, and all y^e other y^e Hon^{ble}: Comp^{as}: Merchants, being twenty Six Chief Merchants, and many others under them, we sett before them y^e great loss, w^{ch}: the Hon^{ble}: Comp^a: advise us in theirs of P ^m: Novemb^r: to have suffered by short contents and thinness &c: imperfections of their cloth sent home in Anno 1672 and also y^e dearness of y^e same, requiring allowance for it twenty P 100 as in said letter.

To w^{ch}: the said Merchants replied that what wth: the dearness of Cotton Yarne and y^e much better quality of y^e new sort of Long Cloth, both in length, breadth and Pungiums, w^{ch}: the Agent had been so urgent wth: them to provide, being y^e same as y^e Dutch sort, to y^e Hon^{ble}: Comp^{as}: great advantage and yet at y^e same prices as y^e old, and untill then accustomed sort, and the great troubles in y^e country, insomuch as their ffactors who used to mannage all their business, not being able to go through wth: it, y^e Agent was faine to oblige Verona to prevaile wth: his said Chief Merchants to go up into the country themselves, who accordingly went and compleated y^e investment but at so dear rates that they g[o]tt nothing thereby.

And y^e last yeare y^e extreme shortness of y^e [t]ime added to all the aforesaid, have been so great discouragem^t that they find they have much more reason to expect gratuities for their good service, and relief, than [abatem^{ts}:] upon y^e Price.

And as to y^e goodness that y^e goods were receiv^d. both y^e said past yeare wth that y^e stricktness to y^e Musters, that they were many times ready to break off, and bring no more, but that y^e consideration of their long dealings wth: the Hono^{ble}: Comp^a: obliged them to acquiesce. In fine that they could not nor would not yeild to any such thing, and that y^e Dutch for their Ord^y: Long cloth, w^{ch}: is but y^e same as our said new sort pay pag^o: 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ p^{eece} all present money, without any Europe or other goods put off to them in payment, and other sorts pro rata, and therefore that if the Hono^{ble}: Company would or could find other Merchants that could serve them more cheap, wth: better goods, and more punctuallity, they should be very glad thereof, for they could not.

Whereupon y^e Agent and Councell seing they could not prevaile wth: them therein, being likewise satisfied in great measure of the truth of their said Allegations, we proceeded to y^e settling of y^e Prices for the cloth for this yeares investments, and having pressed them as much as in us lay for some abatem^t on each severall sort course and fine, we were faine to rest contented to have them at y^e former established prices, after so many fruitless endeavours of y^e late Agent, of M^r: Sambrook, and y^e new Agent and Councell to bring them lower.

Only for y^e third sort of course Long cloth, hitherto at pag^o: 1 $\frac{1}{4}$ the peece (the three sorts N^o 3. 2. 1 falling $\frac{1}{16}$ the peece Vz^t: pa: 1 $\frac{3}{8}$ Pag^o: 1 $\frac{5}{16}$ & Pag^o: 1 $\frac{1}{4}$ y^e aforesaid Merchants have yeilded that y^e said third sort shall for this yeare abate twice y^e proportion vz^t: to Pag^o: 1 $\frac{3}{8}$, it being that into w^{ch}: some of y^e old sort untill now in use, were cast in, for their short contents although in fineness superior, w^{ch}: its like not being at home sufficiently represented to y^e Hono^{ble}: Comp^a: might have occasioned part of y^e late complaints.

And as to y^e thinness of some of y^e browne, and of y^e white Ord^y: Long Cloth, y^e Merchants alledge that y^e great quantities we were faine [to] put up browne at y^e latter end of y^e season for want of time to whiten them, not leaving so much choice as formerly, might have a little unsorted both y^e browns and the white Ord^y: also, for it followes by consequence, that y^e greater proportion of the better sorts were picked out for browns, the greater must be y^e proportion of y^e lower sorts in y^e whites.

The said Merchants have promised that although y^e lateness of the season for this yeares investments, and troubles not yet over, and also the concurrences of y^e Dutch, who have at y^e same time dd. out great sum^s of moneys to their Merchants to buy up all y^e cloth they can, renders it impossible to raise y^e goodness of their cloth to that high sort as y^e Hono^{ble}: Comp^a: now desires, yet they will do all that they can for y^e present, and that against y^e next yeare, they doubt not but to be able to bring the Weavers to a more exact compliance, hoping that if y^e Hono^{ble}: Comp^a: expects y^e same sorts of cloth as y^e Dutch have, they will not think much to give the same prices, but that whatsoever y^e kind or quality of the cloth be, there is no dealing unless there be second and third sorts allowed of, for what falls short of y^e perfection of y^e first; for as they buy so they must sell. The Dutch Company do y^e same, but they vend most of their second and third [s]orts in their Spice Islands, Jappon, Maccassar &c: parts of the Sout[h] seas and send only their first sorts for Europe, or but few others. So that not [t]o weaken the said Merchants hands by keeping them longer in Suspence, we have concluded for y^e prices of the cloth enordered to them at the prices * following.

Whereupon it is by the said Agent and Councill resolved to la[y] aside y^e dispatch of her for y^e Bay, and to let her remaine in this Road having now sent an express to y^e Bay, for y^e first shipp to come away directly bringing a double quantity of Peter for the Kintelladge of the s^d Loyall Merchant.

At y^e Consultation of 6th: Curr^{tt}: whither to send your shipp for y^e Bay or not, you may please to call to mind y^t the Agent sett before you y^e danger of being put to Leeward of your Port by the wind and Currant, in case y^e fowl weather should oblige you to put off to Sea w^{ch}: you then concluded against, and now all that we have to reply to your letter of 7th: Curr^{tt}: is that according as you find your shipp fitted & conditioned it will behove you to resolve, praying God to direct you.

The two Dutch shippes w^{ch}: perished in y^e last storme the 22th: Aprill were as well fitted with ground tackle as shippes could be, w^{ch}: trusting unto, and coming to ancker in 14 fathome water, when the[y] might have gott off to sea, y^e Vice Admiralls Cables broke, all but the sheat Cable, and that came home, and She went ashoare with that after her, y^e Admirall foundred at Ancker, her Gun Deck, betweene the waight of her Guns and of y^e water breaking in giving wa[y], w^{ch}: may serve you for advice, that if you do resolve to put to sea, you do it in time, y^e stormes usually beginning

The Agent and Councell having sent for Cassa Verona &c: the Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as}: Merchants to take off their Europe goods landed from y^e Shippes Loyall Merchant and Expectation, and y^e 802 piggs Lead, part of 1802 piggs landed y^e last yeare out of y^e tenn shippes and appointed for y^e Bay, but now desirous to vend it heere in regard y^e Hono^{ble}: Comp^a: sent none hither this yeare, and having desired the said Merchants to take off y^e said goods, after much debate, we agreed wth: them to receive y^e same, and that prices considerably higher then as they affirme, and we partly find that y^e marketts would beare especially the [lacuna in the original] Broad Cloth, of w^{ch}: the Dutch having taken a considerable quantity designed for Surrat by the 3 shippes y^e last yeare, have sold and go selling at Rup^s: 2½ & Rup^s: 2 the yard and y^e Merchants having still great quantities left on their hands, and much damage thereon by the Moath and White Ants.

Brimstone raised from pag^o: 10 to pag^o: 11 y^e Candy, although they have all y^e last 16 Chists of Anno 1672 still unsold on their hands.

Copper Plates raised from pag^o: 70 to pag^o: 72 the Candy.

Copper of Jappon worth pa: 10 y^e Candy less then y^e other, and sold heere in Towne by the King of Bantams Shipp at pa: 60 the Candy about three Months since and yet held up at pag^o: 68 the Candy.

Quick Silver raised from pag^o: 11 to pag^o: 12 the Maund.

Lead raised from pag^o: 10 to pag^o: 11 the Candy although themselves now sell it at Carreda for pag^o: 9, and offer to resell y^e whole quantity a[t] the said rate of pag^o: 9 the Candy.

All w^{ch}: they declare that they do to testifie their affection to y^e Hono^{ble}: Comp^a: but on this condition, that as they have no meanes as y^e times now are to put off y^e said Europe Commodities, but by sending them to Carreda and by taking fine goods for them, w^{ch}: otherwise they could not take off of y^e Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as}: hands at any rate, no nor be able to provide any goods before hand on their own Creditts & hazzard whither any shippes and stock will come or no to receive them, as they have constantly done to a very considerable summe, and more particularly this yeare to y^e vallue of pag^{os}: Sixty thousand, all brought into the Hon^{ble}: Comp^a: Godownes. Wherefore they make it their request that y^e Agent and Councell will help them in receiving these following goods more then bespoke viz^t of all w^{ch}: they have yet great quantities on their hands, wth: which they must make y^e best shift they can.

The Agent and Councell having seriously considered thereof, and of their severall reasons alledged as aforesaid, w^{ch}: we forbore to repeat have resolved that they must of necessity gratify the said Merchants therein not to discourage them in y^e carrying off the Hon^{ble}: Comp^a: goods from Europe, and in their providing and bringing in such considerable quantities of goods before hand, without w^{ch}: it would be very difficult to compleat y^e Hon^{ble}: Comp^a: investments in y^e short time, which we usually have for the same.

Having moreover made reflexion on y^e unavoidable disappointm^t: this yeare of y^e severall sorts of fine Callicoes from Metchlep^m: and computing that y^e stock sent out, with y^e addition by the Shipp Expectation will be more then y^e goods enordered them allready will amount unto

M^r Matthew Manwaring the second of Metchlep^m: his request of 12th. Curr^t for moneys due to him from y^e Hono^{ble}: Comp^a: for Sallary, Dyett mony, Servants, Lamps and Candles, and w^{ch}: upon the offence taken against him by M^r: Richard Mohūn, for y^e charge brought in against him in the Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as}: behalf and other pretences has remained unpaid, and in some things his accustomed allowance belonging to his place cutt short. and it is thought fitt by the Agent and Councell to write to y^e Chief and ffactors at Metch^m: to pay him what due unto him, according to the following acco^t: by us stated amounting to pag^{os}: 436. 2. 2 if upon due examination they find it to be right stated, and in case they have not money in Cash to deliver to him or his order the value in Broad Cloth or Lead at price Curr^t:

As likewise on consideration of y^e endless debates and mutuall aspersions in and from y^e Bay betweene the chief and ffactors there, and their displacing of M^r. Joseph Hall and M^r. John Smith from their places of second of Hughley & Ballasore, and Chief of Decca, without orders from hence, there appearing unto the Agent and Councell to be much of private matter in their cases. These fewds having now continued many yeares, especially between M^r. Matthias Vincent, and M^r. Joseph Hall to the great disturbance of our Hono^{ble}: Employers and their affaires, and of this Agency who have laboured thus long to reconcile and remove these scandalls & offences but hitherto in vaine, and finding that it will be to small purpose to send down visitours to examine matters untill the Hono^{ble}: Comp^a: shall think good to vest us with a power so to quallify and authorise them that they may administer an oath in cases requiring it, and that the Chief has by the clauses of Judicature and examining of offences in his Maj^{ties}: Charter sufficient authority to administer an oath.

It is resolved to be for y^e Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as}: Service the quiet and orderly carrying on of their affaires in that ffactory & its subordinates to give these following orders.

That M^r. Joseph Hall be forthwith established Chief in Ballasore during y^e removall of M^r. Walter Clavell to Hughley, and Chief at Hughely during y^e said M^r. Clavells removall to Ballasore.

That M^r. John Smith be forthwith restored to his Chiefship at Decca and M^r. Ellwayes returned to his secondship at Pattana, where he is by the Hono^{ble}: Company appointed to the succession.

That no Chiefs nor Seconds of any of y^e ffactorys be displaced or suspended without first transmitting the reasons hither & our order thereupon.

That M^r. John Smith & Sam^l: Herry's subscribing the Grañ Letters & Consultations be disallowed untill order from the Hono^{ble}: Comp^a: for the same, and that we represent the conveniency of the Chiefs or Chiefs and Seconds at Hughely and Decca to be admitted of Councell as those of Cassumbazar and Pattana are, to the end they may be y^e better capacitated to advise and deliberate wth: the chief &c: of the Bay about the Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as} affaires under their own mannagement.

That Michaell Lovely and Peter Farrill Silk Weavers and John Griffin Silk Throwster be sent to y^e Bay by the Advice Pinck for the Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as}: Service in Cassumbazar.

That we do allow y^e chief and ffactors in the Bay to take up money at Interest for y^e carrying on of the constant yearly Peter business at Pattana and the Taffatys at Cassumbazar &c : necessary occasions in want of bills Exch^a : from the Dutch or other Supplies.

The Agent and Councell after serious consideration of the charge brought in by M^r. Matthew Manwaring in behalf of our Hon^{ble}: Employers against M^r. Richard Mohun chief at Metchlepatam, and the acco^t: w^{ch}: the Commiss^{rs}: have given us from thence about it, together wth: severall advices and Depositions of themselves, of M^r. Manwaring M^r: Hatton M^r: Chamberlain and others belonging to that ffactory, the substance whereof being extracted and digested into method is herewith registered by the Secretary, and having likewise considered the Hon^{ble}: Comp^{as}: orders of 24 December and 13 March 167 $\frac{3}{4}$ relating thereunto and the consequence thereof in case we should on the arrivall of their shippes from Europe, entrust any of their effects or estate into the hands of the said M^r: Mohun, for this yeares Investments, he appearing by all these informations & Depositions, to have been much to blame in many undue and untrue Entries of Cash, and more especially in misapplying of the same to other uses, whereby the Hon^{ble}: Comp^{as}: have been disappointed of some and prejudiced in others of their Investments and returns taken up upon trust when there ought to have been ready Cash not only to have bought wth: present money, but disboursed beforehand to their more advantage, besides the great debts by him owing of long time to Sundry persons English, Mores and Gentues &c: to the disreddie and danger of the Hon^{ble}: Comp^{as}: being compelled to pay the same, as to this country people by the justice of the country, it not being possible [to] avoid paying the Debts w^{ch}: their Chief shall make in the Mores country in his default, w^{ch}: to prevent as farr as in them lyes, the Agent and Councell upon seasonable intimations from Severall of the Councell there as M^r. Manwaring, M^r. Hatton, M^r. Chamberlaine and others have not been wanting wheresoever they could to gett in their Estate out of his hand, as the Rup^a: 20000 in the Bay, and also the ₹ ^s: ₹ 20000 part of the R ₹ 28000 by him landed at Metchlepatam out of the 10 Shippes, without ever making any investments or returns for the Same, but contrariwise, at the time of our Sending for the Said ₹ ^s: ₹ 20000 there was then only ₹ ^s: ₹ 15500 thereof left in being as ₹ M^r. Hattons advice of 8 October 1673, and the [declaration] of the Gentue Merchants employed wth: him for the receiving [thereof], and other undue practices of his, arguing him to be very ill minded, as having caused the unhappy and to be feared dangerous distinctions betweene the Hon^{ble}: Comp^{as}: and other English, w^{ch}: having already caused many inconveniencies, may whensoever the Avaldars please serve them for a pretence to stopp the Hon^{ble}: Comp^{as}: own goods, at their late and hasty dispatches, on pretext of no Companies goods, but intent of piscashes, as high as the present Exigencies m[ay] extend them, having thereby See much dishonoured and villified the [Nation] amongst those people, that they are Allmost become a by word amongst other Nations, there trafficking.

The [Agent and Counc]ell in consideration of the aforesaid, have long and seriously deliberated, whether they may either wth: a good conscience or in prudence entrust the said Mr. Richard Mohun wth: any of the Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as}: estate on arrivall of their shippes expected from Europe, for this yeares investments and have resolved that they cannot in any wise consent thereunto being fully convinced of his absolute unfittness for the Same.

The question was at the same time put whither any of this Councell were so well satisfied of his sufficiency or dealings as to entrust him with any estate of his own, and by all answered in the negative, the consequence is cleare enough.

And now the time pressing, and the Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as}: business on their shippes arrivall, but ill admitting of delayes, w^{ch}: the examinations upon oath at Metchlepatam yet to take by reason of severall important Wittnesses not obeying our summons (as Jn^o. Tivill, Samuells Wale) and others having great charge of familys in a manner disabling them from coming up would consume the time w^{ch}. ought to be more seasonably employed in making the Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as}: Investments there, after [that we have thus long] waited what further orders might have come overland or by way of [Bant]am.

We have taken into further consideration what remains for us to doe as to the finishing of the Said Examinations upon oath, for want whereof the Commiss^{rs}: declaring themselves unable to proceed further on Sundry parts of the charge, Mr. Mohun refusing to administer the oath, and ourSelves not thinking it fitt to use any compulsion therein it being though no deposing, yet an examining as well against as for himself.

And M^r. Manwaring in his annexed paper now delivered in unto us of 5 Curr^t: affirming that there are many circumstances of great importance to our Hono^{ble}: Employers w^{ch}: the wittnesses either will not or dare not unfold untill they are brought upon their Oaths, w^{ch}: unto the negative resolve already gro[unded] upon the present discoveries will abundantly suffice to strengthen our hands in what yet requisite for the re[settl]ing and carrying on of our Hono^{ble}: Employers affaires the[re] or greatly needing it.

And have hereupon concluded that it is for our said Hono^{ble}: Employers Service, that Mr. Richard Mohun be untill further order suspended from his place of Chief of that factory, and from being of Councell there, & that mean while some other person most fitting be appointed to supply & take charge thereof, in the same quallity and authority of Chief, whereby he may administer the oath and finish the Said Examinations without loss of time or opposition from the said Mr. Mohun, who is now grown to that pass that he will not obey the orders from this Agency, as particularly in his not coming up himself, nor Sending up the Said John Tivill nor Samuells Wale, persons then and Still peculiarly under his tuition, nor in the taking up moneys joyntly wth: the Councell for the necessary charge of that ffactory, nor yet in the paying M^r. Matthew Manwaring the pag^{es} 436 : 2 : 2 due and ordered unto him for Dyett and Sallary as ~~P~~ our Consultation and order of 18 February last, besides many other instances of contempt of the authority of the Hon^{ble}: Comp^{as}: vested in this Agency as in Severall of his letters excepted unto by Severall of Councell, and for w^{ch}: M^r. Christop^r: Hatton thought fitt to make his Appology, in his 10 January last and 30 Detto, and crave excuse for his having been overawed into a Signing wth: him for the past, and promises against the like for the future M^r. Mohun still continuing after the Same rate although no body signes wth: him, w^{ch}: convinces us that without the full authority of the Chiefship be for the time settled upon the person who is to examine we shall but trifle away precious time to no purpose, and render that ffactory and charge useless to the Hon^{ble}: Comp^{as}: disappointing them of this years Investm^{ts}: for if M^r. Mohun keepes possession, he will outbrave, baffle and overaw whomsoever and whatsoever shall be to be employed or done.

For the w^{ch}: Employment, the persons heere in Councell being every one engaged to some particular office not dispensing wth: their absence at this busy season, V^z: the Bookes, the warehouse, the Pursers and the Chowltry and those of Councell at Metchlepatam, being themselves all to be examined except M^r. Matthew Manwaring, who has allready given in his Depositions here, and he being by the Commiss^{rs}: letter of 8 December last quoting M^r. Mohuns own acco^{ts}: fully cleared from the imputation of his as to the ~~£~~ $ 4000, w^{ch}: appeares to be delivered to him as M^r. Mohun's own money and Soe placed to acco^t: and the only person who has had the courage to stand in the gap, in the behalf of [our Hon^{ble}: Employers, being no party but discharging the Duty of his pl[ace and] trust, being likewise the Second of that ffactory and appointed to the Succession, we conclude him to be the most fitt person whom we can pitch upon for this business, and who having in a manner alone brought all these things to light is most proper & able to goe through therewith.

And accordingly it is by the Agent and Councell, resolved to send the Said M^r. Matthew Manwaring down by the first opportunity wth: Some English along wth: him wth: order to take possession of the chiefshipp of the ffactory and remaines, and to dispatch the examinations giving us an acco^t: thereof without loss of time, and also if possible to dispose of what goods of the Hon^{ble}: Comp^{as}: are yet unsold, and to prepare and settle all things against y^e arrivall of the Hon^{ble}: Comp^{as}: Shipps and Stocks for that ffactory, and hereafter to Send them such other [orders] as we shall See cause for and the Hon^{ble}: Comp^{as}: letters by the shipps direct.

The Agent and Councell having resolved the unsafeness of entrusting M^r. Richard Mohun wth: the Hon^{ble}: Comp^{as}: stock for this yeares Investments on the arrivall of the shipps howery expected, and next considering the necessity of settling their affaires in that ffactory in such manner that they be not disappointed of their Investments from thence whiles the great charge runs on Have concluded by their Consultation of 16 Curr^{nt}. that there is a great necessari[ty] to suspend the said M^r. Mohun from the chiefshipp and Councell untill further order, and to send some fitt person to take charge and possession of the Said chiefship, the ffactory and remaines, to finish the examinations upon oath, not otherwise to be taken, to endeavour Sales of the Lead &c: yet in y^e Godownes, and to Settle all things, especially as to M^r. Mohuns Cred^d^{rs}: against the arrivall of the shippes expected, and business thereupon at that time, [now] likely to be of the latest, not admitting of delays.

And M^r. Matthew Manwaring resolved to be the most, nay only person fitting for this employment, and to take his passage by the Shipp Adventure now ready to sett sayle for Metchlepatam.

In order whereunto the Letters to the chief and ffactors there and to the Avaldar being prepared and all things in a readiness the importance of the affayre obliged the Agent and Councell yet once more to reassume the debate, and to desire every one to give in their reasons pro and Contra, as well for our own as our Hono^{ble}: Employers Satisfaction, whereupon these following considerations were represented V^z:

1. That it was best to waight the shippes arrivall in regard that orders migh[t] come by them for the express Settlement of that ffactory.

2. That the Remaines in M^r. Mohuns hands were but small, and in case the Hono^{ble}: Camp^s: should re[con]firme him] the suspension would be a Slurr and disrespect unto him [in his future] proceedings.

3. That [his debts might be better] satisfied after the shippes arrivall then before especially out of his share of shippes in the country, when they shall have brought sufficient strength to Second them, from the shippes.

That it would appeare a rashness in us to suspend and change y^e Chief now so neare the shippes arrivall, and new orders by them, w^{ch}: perchance may vary or contradict what we shall doe, it would have been better done 2 or 3 months since.

On the other side it was alleadged that

To proceed before the arrivall of the shippes might import to prepare all things and have business brought to a head, if not finished as to the charge, and M^r. Mohuns condition appeare more cleere both as to his debts and what else he is charged with.

4. That it will evidence our care and dilligence in that we goe sedulously to foremove all ob[structions before] time leads us to the Investments, at w^{ch}: instant should M^r. M[ohun] be trouble[some], as we have great reason to believe he may, the short time allowed for disposing the Stock at Metchlep^m: will be taken up in soulding up breaches and reconciling things now out of orders It will also be a meanes to discover the engagement of M^r. Mohun and what course his Cred^d^{rs}: meanes to take for Satisfaction, not exposing the Hono^{ble}: Comp^{ss}: treasure to the avaricious power of the Mores, who consider not justice but Interest.

It will also greatly Support the now contemned authority of the Agency w^{ch}: is little better then laughed at, and despised both at Metchlep^m: by M^r. Mohun and at the Bay by M^r. Clavell and Vincent, thereby unravelling the whole Oeconomy of the Hono^{ble}: Comp^{ss}: affaires in India to the great disorder of their business, and too probably Injustice & partiality to their fellow Servants.

Besides that since by the Consultation of 15 Curr^t. M^r. Mohun is found utterly incapable to mannage affaires there as chief, it would be a strange kind of dilatory-ness to deferr things when we may make soe good use of this opportunity of the shipp Adventure for a conveyance, for the speedier regulat^{ing} things in that ffactory.

Not omitting that Examinations yet to be taken the sooner they be done will be the more Seasonable.

And therefore remedy ought Speedily to be provided.

It hath been severall times reported heere that M^r. Mohun hath openly declared that he will obey no orders from hence, as not believing we have power to displace him now, if the Hono^{ble}: Comp^{ss}: doe not absolutely determine in England but referr anythings hither, we may as well suppose he will obstinately contemne our orders at the Shippes arrivall as before, and upon the same score presume to root himself if possible till (as he may pretend) fresh orders from England shall be sent him of w^{ch}: contumacy he has given too many instances.

* What evill consequences this may begett, the Agent and Councell may Judge, when a new chief shall be sent downe wth: a Stock and denyed reception or opposed in his Settlement, what will become of the Stock, w^{ch}: must be either sent forward to the Bay or returned back againe, w^{ch}: resigo and inconvenience may be prevented by a provisionall Settlement before hand as already resolved on.

5. Unless Mr Mohun be suspended the Hon^{ble}: Comp^{as}: Service and another chief appointed pro tempore the persons there most fitt to be examined about Mr Mohuns irregularities cannot be brought upon their oath, and therefore Mr Manwar [ing to be made pro]visionall chief.

If this be not [done and if Mr.] Mohun should by the Hon^{ble}: Comp^a: be continued chief, [severall examinations of great] importance will never be taken.

Neither should he be continued in the chiefship by the letters of the shippes can he say that the provisionall chiefship of Mr Manwaring was of Mallice, but meer obedience to our Hon^{ble}: Employers orders, who press us to state this business how it really stands, and that they and we be no longer left in the darke concerning Severall Interrogatories w^{ch}: as yet are not fully answered unto.

Mr Mohun cannot blame us for so doing because he denyed to administer the oath and likewise to come up.

But it is to be taken notice that as Soon as it is knowne that Mr Manwaring takes place there as chief, whither or no that then Mr Mohuns Cred^{rs}: Moores and Gentues will not press him for satisfaction of his debts and the Hon^{ble}: Comp^a: [having only] a little Lead in their Godownes the said Cred^{rs}: will not be the easilyer induced to accept of such Satisfaction as he shall be able to make them in whatsoever goods or els of vallue he shall be possessed of, whereas were the Hon^{ble}: Comp^{as}: treasure once landed then nothing but money would Serve their turne, so that we should be very fearefull to adventure any new stock of theirs to that ffactory before this trouble were over, or els be faine on the appearing of the Cred^{rs}: either to send it forward to the Bay by the same shippes, or back hither, either away both resigo and disappointment.

It was likewise affirmed by Mr Manwaring that he has good reason to believe that Mr Mohun stops the mouths of severall of his Cred^{rs}: with promises of payment, when the Hon^{ble}: Comp^{as}: this years stock shall come to his hands, and that if he be not put by before, it will be seized on to pay his debts.

To w^{ch}: the soe suddaine shrinking of the £^s 28000 to £^s 15500 as Mr Hattons advice of 8 October 1673 and affirmation of the black Merebants sent to receive the money gives but too much waight.

All w^{ch}: having been duly considered by the Agent and Councell, the three first proposalls in the negative were thus satisfied v^t:

1. That it is meerly in order to the Shippes arrivall that this suspension, and new chief pro tempore, is designed not to forestall the shippes, but to prepare and be in readiness for them. the orders. stock and Investments by them.

2. The echarge of Mr Manwarings being not wholly proved, requires this remedy, but what already proved, wth: the Collatterall advices & evidences, is a sufficient ground for our deliberations.

The remains in Mr Mohuns hands are not the main considerables, n[or] yet to be neglected; but it is his indirect actions, false parcells in Cash &c: misemployment of the Hon^{ble}: Comp^{as}: treasure, ill bought and short returned, and with all bad debts in the countrey, and els where, w^{ch}: have in our judgements rendered him uncapable of further trust and employment, and call for remedy whiles we have time; that we be not disappointed of the Hon^{ble}: Comp^{as}: investments on the Shippes arrivall, and it may be taxed for our forbearance, as if for other ends ; w^{ch} : Shippes unless they appeare Speedily will be too late to admitt of delays as his own or Cred^{ts} : pretences may occasion.

3. As to the third, it is not the intent of the Agent and Councell wholly to establish M^r. Manwaring, but meerly pro tempore as aforesaid ; we having deferred the said Suspension, &c : as long as we could, in hopes of y^e shippes early arrivall as was expected, wth : fresher orders, w^{ch} : not happening, & the contrary to be feared, we now find our Selves necessitated to proceed ; that soe our Hono^{ble} : Employers investments be not belated through neglect of ours, the time betweene having been very well Spent in discussing conferring and compareing papers thereto relating.

And as to M^r. Mohuns share of Shipping he has already disposed of his part of the Indulgence, and the George ; the rest being small and old vessells of little value.

And M^r. Mohun being already found unfitt for further employment and trust of theirs ; the Question is not whither, but when ? soe that we have only to consider w^{ch} : time ? before or after the shippes arrivall will be most for our Hono^{ble} : Employers Service, security and our own discharge.

The greatest inconvenience is like to be M^r. Manwarings ; who, should any other chief be sent forth or appointed by the Hono^{ble} : Company, would have undergone all the trouble for others to reape the conveniency soe that the premises considered the Agent and Councell doe not find any reason to recede from their resolutions of Councell of the 14 and 15 Curr^t : but to adhere unto and confirme the Same.

It was also objected that the ships might possibly chopp in as soon as M^r. Manwaring was gone out of sight And might bring orders for y^e reconfirming M^r. Mohun, or els some ot[her] chief and then how rash would this resolution appeare.

But it could not enter into our belief that ever the Hono^{ble} : Comp^a : should be soe ill informed considering the advices and extracts gone home, both from the Agent and Councell and himself in particular by the 7 Shippes and imparted unto the Councell heere.

And if yet it should soe happen, this were still the most happy course that could have been taken for the perfecting y^e Examinations, w^{ch} : otherwise by M^r. Mohuns reconfirmation would be dashed in peeces.

And if some other chief should be either appointed or sent out, this in the mean time was at the worst but the same thing by another hand, and at least 10 or 14 daies time would be gained in stating and Settling affaires against his arrivall from hence when M^r. Manwaring must resign.

Severall collections relating to the charge against M^r. Richard Mohun

About the matters brought in against M^r. Richard Mohun in behalfe of the Hon^{ble}: Comp^a: to see what part thereof have been proved and what yet to prove.

The money owing by him to y^e Hon^{ble}: Comp^a: Merchants for goods delivered in Anno 1672 & 73 for their acco^t: and yet made paid in Cash

pag^{os}: 2500 ballance of An^o: 72
3300 [73]

The Commiss^{rs}: in theirs 8 December 1674 advise that M^r. Robert fleetwood and M^r. Christopher Hatton doe acknowledge that Madula Cundapa did tell them both that M^r. Richard Mohun owed him money but did not express the Summe, nor could we ever gett the said R. ff or C.H to explaine themselves further thereabouts, it is needfull that they be brought upon their oaths.

The said Commiss^{rs}: have sent a receipt of the said Merchants but it only acknowledges payment for the goods in Anno 1673, but neither declares when, nor is it Gra^l. unto that time, but limited to that yeare.

Moreover Recapelle Sidippa, Ancala Greapa, Raccapelli Accana 3 of the said merchants in the absence of Maddala Cundapa declared as $\S$ the Commiss^{rs}: letter of 7 October, that there was nothing due for the Hono^{ble}: Comp^{ss}: acco^t: all that being paid them soon after the delivery (but that there was pag^{os}: 2700 owing them by M^r. R.M. for his own accompt) M^r. Hatton in his 28 December 1674 declares that about y^e time mentioned in the charge, and at other times Maddala Cundapa till tell true that M^r. R.M. owed him money, but how much he saies he cannot possitively tell.

Other advices of M^r. Hattons relating hereunto I referr to an extract by itself M^r. George Chamberlaine in his declaration of 29 December under his hand affirms many instances showing the probability of the truth of this article.

As that the Merch^{ts}: often sollicitied him himself about y^e helping them to gett it in.

As collected from M^r. R.M. own words (he wished he could pay the Merchants)

As collected from M^r. Christop^r: Hattons words (supposing a difficulty of proof by reason he may have since paid it, or the Merchants may deny it)

As collected from a parcell of Copper sent to Naghelawanch to be delivered y^e Merch^{ts}:

He affirms he believes that M^r. R.M. did owe the Merchants for cloth brought in last yeare.

As collected from the Merchants acknowledging that M^r. R.M. was indebted to them pag^{os}: 2700 since his sending the said Copper Naghelawanch, and that he (who it appears has acted all his business) cannot understand M^r. R.M. has taken up of them soe many goods on his particular accompt.

M^r. Joseph Arnold affirms upon oath as $\S$ his Deposition of [lacuna in the original] January 167 $\frac{1}{2}$ that he heard M^r. Robert fleetwood say that he did believe M^r. R.M. was lately obliged to them though the Merchants denyed it, and that he did lately understand that the property was only altered.

The Said M^r. Joseph Arnold affirms upon his said oath that he believed [that M^r. R.M. did buy the Hono^{ble}: Comp^{ss}: cloth on his reputations and not with their mony by reason of the badness of their cloths w^{ch}: was Generally complained of, and [that] he has heard the Chief Merchants complayne to M^r. Manwaring, M^r. fleetwood and M^r. Hatton about it by reason the mony that was owing for it was so long unpaid, but how much the Summe was either pa: 4800 or 5800 he dares not say.

Maurice Wynn	} Depositions are gone home, but the copies they have carryed
Rob ^t : Freemans
Maurice Wynn	} affirmed to the badness of y ^e cloth.
Rob ^t : ffreeman

M^r. Matthew Manwaring affirms upon his oath taken the 14 January 167 $\frac{1}{2}$ that Maddala Condapa did acquaint him by a Dubash that M^r. R.M. owed them pag^{os}: 4800 on the Comp^{ss}: acco^t: but that Conapa Bramany whom he sent to enquire more particularly about it told him it was pag^{os}: 5800 as at large above sett downe in pag^{os}: 2500 and pag^{os}: 3300

He also affirms upon his oath that Maddala Condapa told him by a Dubash that M^r. R.M. offered him Lead in part of payment, and promised that when he had sould the shipp Indulgence he would pay them some more money.

And that since Maddala Condapas being wth: him at Maddapollum M^r. George Chamberlaine acquainted him that M^r. Mohun had delivered the Merchants meaning Maddala Condapa &c : a parcell of Copper in Naghelawanch.

Cloth.

To the prementioned we have compared y^e Commiss^{rs} answer w^{ch}: Sayes little to any purpose, only it makes rest of pag^{os}: 2317 w^{ch}: seemes to agree wth: the receipts M^r. Manwaring takes notice of, but as to the wrong dates of the receipts & intests charged thereon the Commissioners say nothing to disprove of it.

M^r. Christop^r: Hatton in his attestation of 28 December 1674 doth own that the said acco^t: doth agree wth: M^r. Chamberlaines bookes, and withall takes notice of the disagreeing of the parcells betweene the delivery of the cloth and the receipts in Cash, and doth likewise acknowledge to have heard that the Broad Cloth dd: to Mirabdala Backer was not for mony but on acco^t: of freight due to him on shipp Dispatch (w^{ch}: was a private concerne of his own) and that he doth believe it to have been soe.

M^r. Matthew Manwaring in his attestation upon oath affirms that M^r. Hatton acquainted him that he was enformed, that a considerable part of the Bro: Cloth & Scarlett was delivered, w^{ch}: M^r. Mohun writt to them both to treat with Some Merchants about the Sale of it. M^r. Manwaring moreover hath declared upon his oath taken, that M^r. Hatton declared to him that a considerable parcell of the cloth was delivered, before M^r. Mohun writt to him and M^r. Hatton to dispose of it, being a device of M^r. Mohuns to collour this his indirect action, and M^r. Hatton exprest his resentm^t: in these words or to this effect. What doth M^r. Mohun make fooles of us.

The Commiss^{rs}: take notice of pag^{os}: 69 in 3 parcells made good by M^r. Hatton M^r. Chamberlaine and M^r. freeman for Broad Cloth delivered them on acco^t: of Sallary, and M^r. Mohun hath omitted to make received in Cash, and for Scarletts and fine Greenes pag^{os}: 217 likewise omitted to be made received in Cash being disposed of to Accana, on account of Callieoes pag^{os}: 180 and on account of Presents pag^{os}: 37 for all w^{ch}: summs he hath unduely Creditted himself in Cash but never made the money received.

money.

The Commiss^{rs}: in their letter of the 7 October say that Venca Bramany did declare that he received all his Sallary and Dustore money, M^r. Joseph Arnold in his Depositions upon oath of January last declares that he doth believe that M^r. Mohun hath detained Venco Bramanys Dustore mony since that he hath made severall complaints thereof w^{ch}: he dares not doe if there were no wrong done to him.

M^r. George Chamberlaine in his attestation of 29 December last affirms he heard the Bramany say he had given him Iron for some parcell of the Dustore mony but knows not how much, and therefore believes that M^r. Mohun had some part of the Dustore money.

M^r. Matt: Manwaring in his deposition of 14 January last declares that Venca the chief Bramany did acquaint him that M^r. Mohun did stopp his wages for a considerable time, and also that he had detained or taken from him y^e major part of the Dustore money, and thereupon told him that he should be forced to leave the Comp^{as}: Service, not being able to maintaine himself in it, also that M^r. Mohun did threaten to drubb him, because he could not or would not borrow money, w^{ch}: to the best of my remembrance was to be 2000 pag^{os}: for him, whereun[to] he further adds upon the oath he hath taken that Venco Bramany told him he runn away for feare of M^r. Mohun, and that M^r. George Chamberlaine was sent by the said M^r. Mohun to fetch him back privately with promise not to medle wth: being a person so necessary that they could not doe the Comp^{as}: business without him, this was affirmed to me both by M^r. George Chamberlaine & Venco Bramany.

Assana

The omission of Assanas Debt received is by the Commiss^{rs}: in their letter of the 8th: December last found to have been really omitted in the Cash according to M^r. Manwarings charge, and hereupon now brought to acco^t: by this his discovery.

Concerning the 11353 R^{ls} $\frac{3}{4}$ January 167 $\frac{3}{4}$ sent by M^r. Mohun to Maddapollam R^{ls} $\frac{3}{4}$ 11353 by M^r. White according to M^r. Mohuns order the Commiss^{rs}: in theirs of y^e 8 Decemb^r: last doe acknowledge to be the Same money that M^r. Matt: Manwaring formerly reced: of M^r. John Tivill (M^r. Mohuns Cash keeper) for acco^t: of the Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as}: as p^{d} M^r. Chamberlaines, M^r. freemans and M^r. Crawleys attestation to them, as also by M^r. Manwarings own receipt given M^r. Mohun for them being of M^r. Tivills own handwriting

And yet M^r. Tivill after he had acknowledged the receipt of the said money from M^r. White saith that the R^{ls} $\frac{3}{4}$ 6726 paid to M^r. Mohuns particular Credd^{ts}: was no par[t] of the 11353 R^{ls} $\frac{3}{4}$ likewise the Commiss^{rs}: find out by the Bookes Lre [M] 1672 that the Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as}: had no such specie as p^{d} s: 8 other remaining all their R^{ls} $\frac{3}{4}$ having been disposed of to their Merchants and converted into Cash.

As to M^r. Tivills affirmation that their p^{d} s: $\frac{3}{4}$ [4]008 of the Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as}: was delivered M^r. Manwaring for his particular [use, the said] Commiss^{rs}: doe in y^e same paragraph disprove the same upon sight of M^r. Mohuns own acco^t: produced by M^r. Manwaring whereby it appears that there was such a summe delivered M^r. Manwaring, but not as the Comp^{as}: but M^r. Mohuns own money.

M^r. George Chamberlaines attestation of the 29 Decemb^r: last declares in these w[ords] I know that the R^{ls} $\frac{3}{4}$ 11353 were delivered M^r. Manwaring on the Hono^{ble}: Companies acco^t: and I have heard that Meir Narseir, and Mahomud Detto. Muckim did complaine that they had lost money by the R^{ls} $\frac{3}{4}$ paid them by M^r. Mohun at Madapollum, and doe believe they were the same Dollars M^r. White reced: of M^r. Manwaring by M^r. Mohuns order.

M^r. Manwaring in his Depositions upon oath of the 14 January deposeth that the R^{ls} $\frac{3}{4}$ 13449 $\frac{3}{4}$ were delivered him as the [Comp^{as}: and for] their acco^t: of w^{ch}: summe he paid Bobba Bengala 824 R^{ls} and to [a few words lost] R^{ls} 1272 $\frac{1}{4}$ and the remaining 11353 he delivered, to M^r. George White by M^r. Mohuns positive order for w^{ch}: he hath the attestation of severall of the Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as}: Servants out of w^{ch}: 11353 R^{ls} $\frac{3}{4}$ 6726 were delivered to Mahumud Muckim Meir Narseir & Meir Fackerdin, or sent with them or by some peons to Metchlepattam to be sold to pay them what M^r. Mohun was their Debtor as Connapa Bramany acquainted him, who was at their delivery at Maddapollam. and Maddala Condapa the chief Merchant by a Dubash did acquaint the said M^r. Manwaring that M^r. Mohun had taken from him a considerable part of the R^{ls} $\frac{3}{4}$ that the said M^r. Manwaring had paid him on the Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as}: acco^t: or to this effect.

M^r. Manwaring further adds upon oath that the 11353 R^{ls} $\frac{3}{4}$ w^{ch}: M^r. Mohun ordered to be sent him to Maddapollam in January 7 $\frac{3}{4}$ were the Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as}: as appears by the receipt he gave for them, and the attestation of Severall of the Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as}: Servants abovementioned, and accordingly delivered, but tis possible they were not those very R^{ls} $\frac{3}{4}$ sent by them out of England, yet tis evident there should have been much above their amount in Cash, for he might have disposed of them for his particular acco^t: and in liew thereof brought in those, for if they were not the Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as}: where then was all their Cash, but I reced: not a pag^e: besides those R^{ls} $\frac{3}{4}$, and yet M^r. Mohuns order to M^r. Tivill the Cash keeper was to deliver me all the Comp^{as}: Cash, who thereupon delivered me those R^{ls} $\frac{3}{4}$ and told me that was all, w^{ch}: R^{ls}: soon after I had received, for feare it should be taken from me, and disposed off for M^r. Mohuns particular acco^t: I paid out to Maddala Cundapa &c: the Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as}: Merchants to whom it was due, who having reced: it by weight & sealed it wth: their own seale delivered it to me to keepe for them.

But M^r. Mohuns positive order coming for its delivery to M^r. White, wth: pretences of bringing the Merchants to abatement for the badness of the cloth I delivered it to him, and advised the Merchants to goe along wth: it to Maddapollam, w^{ch}: they did but wth: all their entreaties at their arrivall they could not prevaile wth: M^r. Mohun for soe much as the one half, but the just summe I cannot tell, M^r. Mohuns many times charging payments w^{ch}: he never made, w^{ch}: I can make appeare under his own hand.

As to M^r. Tivills pretending the 6726 R^g were no part of the forementioned 11353 R^g I am very confident is fals, there being a lewd equivocation and ill becoming him the Hon^{ble}: Comp^{as}: Servant, for Meir Narsier &c: refusing to receive the R^g at the price M^r. Mohun demanded for them they were sent to Metchlep^m: the amount whereof I am certainly informed was paid them there unless he think to evade thus that the Sheroffe received them, and brought their amount to M^r. Mohuns Creditt, and that the money paid the above persons cannot be affirmed to be the produce [of these v]ery R^g the sheroffe having an acco^t: wth: M^r. Mohun, wherefore tis [very] observable how much the Commiss^{rs}: have endeavoured to smother M^r. Mohuns indirect actions, they or most of them being as well acquainted wth: this as myself I having severall times discoursed them about this very passage, particularly M^r. Robert fleetwood, M^r. Christopher Hatton and M^r. George Chamberlaine, w^{ch}: latter hath in his declaration spoke plaine enough.

in the Bay

The Commiss^{rs}: in theirs 8 December last say thus concerning Rp^s: 22500 accepted by the Agent and Councell from M^r. Mohun to be paid into the Hon^{ble}: Comp^{as}: Cash in Bengala, and M^r. Mohun to have Creditt for it at Metchlep^m: and tis entred there in bookes Lre M fo: 18 the truth of the fact evidently appeares, but the motives introducing the Agent and Councell are best knowne to themselves.

M^r. Hatton in his of 18 Xber last saith he can say nothing to this article which we suppose he meanes no more then he hath writt allready to the Agent &c: not daring to [own it thus] for feare of M^r. Mohun, but in his Lres to the Agent &c: he hath wrote very full [and] home as to this point, as ¶ extracts, w^{ch}: being very large we have drawn out in a paper by itself, expressing the danger he conceived might accrue to the Hon^{ble}: Comp^a: M^r. Mohun being soe much behind hand in cash, and it was M^r. Hattons own friendly actions, who intervened between the Agent and Councell and M^r. Mohun for securing of the said Summe to the Hon^{ble}: Comp^a: by the said exe^a: and was complyed wth: in the Bay only in Rupees 20000.

The Agent and Councells only motive herein being the danger they apprehended, and y^e necessity of accepting the said Exe^a: for the Hon^{ble}: Comp^{as}: security.

M^r. Matthew Manwaring adds upon the oath he hath taken that the Rup^s: 22500 was accepted of in the Bay by the Agent and Councell, as he really believes only to Secure the Hon^{ble}: Comp^{as}: estate, he having as well as M^r. Hatton and M^r. Chamberlaine given y^e Agent an acco^t: of the Hazzard the Hon^{ble}: Comp^{as}: estate was in by the many debts M^r. Mohun was owing, however M^r. Mohun ought to make good to the Hon^{ble}: Comp^a: such dammages as they have sustained thereby, w^{ch}: will amount to a considerable Summe, it having been out of their hands about 2 yeares, besides the dead freights w^{ch}: they have paid, occasioned for want of its being invested.

Callicoes
from Ambrose
Salisbury

Which M^r. Manwaring charges M^r. Mohun that they had been first provided for his own acco^t: and then turned off to the Comp^a: for want of Cash to comply wth: his obligation in more proper returns.

The Commissioners in their Lre of 8 Decemb^r. last wholly referr themselves as to this article to M^r. Ambrose Salisburys declaration of 4 D^o. w^{ch}. saith that he had provided the goods for his own acco^t: and not for M^r. Mohuns, and that having first offered them to y^e Agent, and he not thinking fitt to accept thereof, he then desired M^r. Mohun to take them for the Hon^{ble}: Comp^a: at the price they should be valued at, to this the Agent replies as to what concernes him that he hath had divers such kind of propositions made to him by said M^r. Salisbury, w^{ch}: were in their due times imparted to the Councell but never thought fitt to be accepted of, but as to this cloth in question, he cannot tell whether [it] be the same that was offered to him, or for whose acco^t: it was, or was not, y^e Gentlemen at Methelep^m: being nearer and therefore better able to resolve this question, the goods having passed through their hands and not ours.

M^r. George Chamberlaine in his declaration of 29 Decemb^r: last, who being of Councell and warehousekeeper the whole Callicoe business passed under his hands and his assistants declares as followeth.

I believe M^r. Mohun did first order them to be provided on his particular accompt for it was done without the knowledge of M^r. Manwaring (the booke keeper) or mySelfe.

M^r. Manwaring affirms upon the oath he hath taken that he was never made privy to this business till the acco^t: was brought to him by M^r. Tivill to be entred, and as M^r. Tivill pretended the mony paid, w^{ch}: payment he observes was entred in his acco^t: of Cash Augst: 1. 1673 though the goods were not brought in till the 19 D^o: w^{ch}: is something strange, that these goods see much different from other parcells, so long unpaid for, being proferred Ware, should have y^e acco^{ts}: Soe exactly stated and paid in Cash before either Seene or received, for all w^{ch}: reasons, and it being the opinion of others in Councell (particularly M^r. fleetwood and M^r. Chamberlaine) as well as mySelfe, I doe believe the aforesaid goods were first intended for M^r. Mohuns acco^t: though afterwar[ds] thrust upon the Honourable Company.

The difference in the rate from 5 $\frac{3}{4}$ pa: as M^r. Mohun brings them to accompt to pa: 5 $\frac{1}{8}$ as the Hon^{ble}: Comp^{as}: Merchants receive them, the Commiss^{rs}: in their letter of 8 December last did not proceed thereon for want of the oath.

Hon^{ble}:
Comp^{as}: 39 $\frac{3}{4}$ from pa: 5 $\frac{1}{8}$ to pag^{os}: 6 $\frac{1}{2}$.

As to the lowness of the price it appears by the bookes L^{re}: O 167 $\frac{3}{4}$ Journall fo: 4. where they are sold for pag^{os}: 5 $\frac{3}{4}$ the Seer, Augst: 1. 1673, as for the Comp^{as}: price it hath been allwaies the Same, ever since M^r. Mohuns Chiefshipp, as the Commiss^{rs}: themselves declare it to have been the settled price, in the article of R $\frac{8}{11}$ 11,353 upon the occasion of the R $\frac{8}{11}$ 4000 of the Hon^{ble}: Comp^{as}: pretended to be lent M^r. Manwaring, the same 8000 R $\frac{8}{11}$ weighed Seir 778: tollas 16: w^{ch}: at $\frac{1}{2}$ pa: the Seir underrated amounts to pag^{os}: 389 $\frac{1}{2}$.

To this article M^r. Manwaring produces these objections out of the bookes

That if M^r. Mohun had brought to acco^t: in due time the following parcells received in Cash, there had been no necessity in putting off these R $\frac{8}{11}$ at soe much losse.

Pag^{os}: 1023: 01: 1 of ffactory Maddapollam paid by M^r. fleetwood to M^r. Mohun the 6 March 167 $\frac{3}{4}$ when no part of it entred till the 17 August following, and the Commiss^{rs}: find 600 pag^{os}: thereof was made received, but the remaining pag^{os}: 423: 01: 1 was never entred till this discovery, and then not to increase the debt of Cash, it is pretended to be recharged on Maddapollam ffactory w^{ch}: is something improper for how can it be recharged when it was never discharged.

To this the Commiss^{rs}: in theirs of 8 December last find by the Consultation booke S^r. W^m: Langhorne and M^r. Joseph Hymers was there present, that the price was no more then 24 pag^{os}: the ½ ps: the w^{ch}: the said S^r: W^m: and M^r. Hymers doe heere confirme to the best of their knowledge, but farther they under-take not.

M^r. Joseph Arnold in his Depositions of January last deposeth in these words. as to the charge of the 156 halfe ps: Broad Cloth, M^r. Nathaniell Cholmley very seriously informed me, that Bengall Bobba told him that the 156 halfe ps: broad Cloth were [so]ld to him for pag^{os}: 25, whereas he (meaning M^r. R.M.) hath brought but pag^{os}: 24 to accompt. M^r. Manwaring affirmes upon the oath he hath taken that M^r. Cholmley assured him that Bengall Bobba did tell him that he paid pag^{os}: 25 the ½ ps: for the abovesaid 156 half ps: of Broad Cloth, and desired him to shew him how the parcell was entred in the bookes, whereupon M^r. Cholmely protested to M^r. Manwaring that the said Bengall Bobba assured him that he paid pa: 25 ps ½ ps: for them.

The Commiss^{rs}: in theirs of 8 December last doe only propose that the recharging the said summe to M^r. Mohuns debt might be respited untill answer come from the Hono^{ble}: Comp^a: to the letter from that ffactory of Anno 1672 in favour of it, but the Hono^{ble}: Comp^a: having taken no notice thereof by their last yeares Lres tis to be concluded they adhere to their former order w^{ch}: was for sale & not for building.

And here note upon M^r. Mohuns launching out upon that expence there was a public Sale made of the Said ffactory to one Mons^r. Jonnet for about pa: 600 w^{ch}: appearing soe contemptable a price to the Agent and Councell, & there[fore] by them disallowed, in theirs 29 February 1673, answering Metchlep^m: Grall. 31 January (it standing charged in the Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as}: bookes in Metchlepatam Factory at pag^{os}: 4833: 13: 4) the said Sale was thereupon seemed to be lett fall, but whether the deed be yet called in the Agent and Councell have not yet understood.

Mony & lead to Naghelawanoh.

The Commiss^{rs}: in theirs of 8 Decemb^r: last say they could make no discovery thereinto for want of power to administer the oath.

M^r. George Chamberlaine his Declaration of 14 Decemb^r: last concerning the charge of Lead & mony sent to Naghelawanch expresses himself in these words.

I doe believe 'twas first intended for (R.M.) his particular acco^t: being Sent thith^r: in the absence of M^r. Manwaring, and mySelf, and no accompt given thereof.

M^r. Manwaring objects to the greatness of the charge, the dearness of the cloth considering where it was bought, and the risgo up and downe, and also to the irregularity of it, being without any advice of the Councell, and does believe that the Said money and Lead was first intended for his particular acco^t: and particularly the Lead Candy 10 made sould at pag^{os}: 10 cleare of charges, whereas M^r. Manwaring, by the accompt come into his hand finds it sould at pag^{os}: 17 fa. 6 the Candy, which charges deducted must come out at pag^{os}: 13 or 14 and tha: hitherto there hath been no faire accompt given of the said Journey.

The Commiss^{rs}: in theirs of 8 Decembre last returne this answer vz^t:

That M^r. Robert fleetwood doth affirme that in his presence Bobba Bengall, did acquaint M^r. Manwaring therewith. M^r. Christop^r: Hatton on the other side declares that the same day in the afternoon the said Bobba Bengall came and told him y^e discourse w^{ch}: had passed betweene M^r. Manwaring and himself, but confessed with all that it was only meerly fained by him, but that really there was noe such telling. M^r. George Chamberlaine declares that Bobbo Bengall acquainted him wth: the same story as he had to M^r. Hatton, affirming withall that he was instructed by M^r. Mohun to say as he did to M^r. Manwaring.

Pa: 2000 in

M^r. Manwaring affirms the matter in his charge relating heereunto withall thinks it very strange that M^r. Mohun should put Bengall Bobba upon such devices to blast his own credit w^{ch}: was soe very low before, but the said M^r. Manwaring doth verily believe that what Bengall Bobba told him was no more then true, however he might afterwards endeavour to Suppress it, upon what after thoughts he cannot tell, unless by M^r. Hattons directions, for in his the said M^r. Manwarings hearing, the said Bobba gave order for one of his peons to be made ready to goe to Metchlepatam with orders to his Servants there to redemand the cloth if it were delivered, unless M^r. Mohun and the Councell would give him a bill for it in the Companies name and with their chopp.

The Commiss^{rs}: in theirs of 8 Decemb^r: last advise that they could gett no direct answer from him to this particular, unless the enquirers woul first engage to pay what he should demand, from whence [they doe] conclude and believe that M^r. Mohun is indebted to him, nor did they hold [it fitting] to press him further, w^{ch}: might make a great deale of stirr, but not avails the Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as}: for if the single acting of a chief shall by the Mores Justice conclude the Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as}: nothing that they can doe afterwards can disengage them.

M^r: Joseph Arnold hath declared the same upon his oath.

The Commiss^{rs}: in theirs 8 Decemb^r: last doe seeme to evade this article by M^r. Tivills reply that M^r. Mohun was at that time 700 pag^{os}: in disburse for the Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as}: and that he had such stores of fowle and Cattle in the ffactory that there was no danger of any such disappointment.

And M^r. Hatton in his 1st December last, renders it yet more unlikely by objecting that in the yeare 1671 when M^r. Mohun was at ffort S^t. George, and M^r. Manwaring and M^r. Chamberlaine at Metchlep^m: who had given M^r. Mohun their receipt for a considerable Summe in ready Cash of the Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as}: left in the ffactory wth: them, wondring how it should come to pass that M^r. Manwaring should want Cash to furnish the Steward for the expences of the ffactory, but was faine to take up pag^{os}: 300 of Meir Abdala Backir at Interest. Queering what became of said Cash and which way employed?

To w^{ch}: M^r. Manwaring upon the oath, he has taken deposeth.

That M^r. Hattons objection is of no small importance to the Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as}: though he is mistaken in the time about 3 yeares from Anno 71 to 74 when he was at Maddapollam. That M^r. Mohun left no Cash wth: him either of the Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as}: or his own, nor wth: M^r. George Chamberlaine as he believes, when he left Metchlep^m: in the yeare 1671, though he confesseth that he and M^r. Chamberlaine joyntly upon M^r. Mohuns request, did send him to Maddrass a receipt for the ballance of the Hon^{ble}: Comp^{as}: Cash, and resolved that if the Agent and Councell should have ordered it to be produced, to have taken it up at Interest on our particular Creditts to befriend him in his extremity, and not let him Sink at his first entrance into his place, but did not suppose such a friendly action should have been made use of to endeavour our prejudice, and as for the pag^{os}: 300 w^{ch}: M^r. freeman, was forced to take up at Interest to defray the expence of the factory, M^r. Mohun at his returne, repaid wth: interest and not we, w^{ch}: is a cleare evidence that he left no Cash with them.

And as to what M^r. Tivill Saies that M^r. Mohun was in no want of Cash when at Maddapollam in the yeare 74 I affirme upon my oath allready taken is false, for if M^r. Mohun had not want'd Cash how came it to pass that the peons refused to goe wth: him to Metchlep^m: without their wages was first paid them, he not being able to goe though his pallankeen and all his necessities Ready to depart, & in the Street, were forced to be brought in againe, and stay till the next day, when to [eas]e his troubled mind and release him from thence, M^r. Peter Large sent him Some money, and whereas M^r. Tivill saies that M^r. Mohun was then in disbourse for the Hon^{ble}: Comp^{as}: about pag^{os}: 700 by the acco^t: of Cash at that time it appears quite contrary, and that he should have had about pag^{os}: 300 of the Hon^{ble}: Comp^{as}: then in his hands, but M^r. Manwaring affirms, that the want of money to pay the Committe to whom they were indebted about pag^{os}: 15 was the cause of M^r. Mohuns &c: wanting a dinner, and M^r. Henry Colbourne the then Steward did acknowledge to him that he had no money at that time w^{ch}: was the cause thereof.

The Commiss^{rs}: makes no reply thereto nor doth it appeare to y^e Agent & Councell to have been any since M^r. Wallcot, w^{ch}: M^r. Manwaring affirms upon the oath he [has taken by] w^{ch}: meanes the Hon^{ble}: Comp^{as}: Servants have been kept in ignorance [contrary to] their Rules and orders, and M^r. Arnold affirms in his Depositions.

ffr. Langstone's Estate.

Noe report as yet concerning this given by the Commissioners.

M^r. Manwaring affirms upon his oath allready taken, that M^r. freeman did declare to him, that M^r. Mohun had delivered to him a parcell of papers, belonging to the said M^r. Langstone, of no importance, and believed he had kept what was of any import, and that the delivering of those, was only to colour his indirect action and the said freeman did acknowledge to the Commiss^{rs}: that he did acquaint the said M^r. Mathew Manwaring therewith, and although the Said Langstone after his decease did appeare to be worth little, yet when living M^r. Mohun did declare to Capt George Erwin that he was worth pag^{os}: 2000 w^{ch}: he M^r. R.M. affirmed to his knowledge.

Piscashes from y^e M^{ohants}.

M^r. Manwaring doth affirme upon his oath allready taken that Connappa Bramany acquainted him, that Netvenca, Madala Cundapas Servant told him that M^r. Mohun had received a present from the Comp^{as}: Merchants of about pa: 600 or pa: 700: and that from Some other Merchants w^{ch}: he promised should provide some part of the Hon^{ble}: Comp^{as}: cloth the next investments, he also tooke about 2 or 300 pag^{os}: as a piscash, the names of w^{ch}: are viz^t: Nallum Ballanea, Maugete Grua, Raccapelli Acea Ramdas Subbana, Netuenca, Madalachina Cundipa.

Pa: 1519: in half p^{as}: 173 Broad cloth.

To this the Commissioners have done nothing.

But M^r. Manwaring upon the oath he has taken affirms that he shewed y^e Commiss^{rs}: the papers, and sett the whole business before them, pressing them to examine it in the Hon^{ble}: Comp^{as}: behalfe w^{ch}: they all refused to doe except M^r. Arnold pleading want of time.

M^r. Manwaring to make this charge good, produeth two papers the one of W^m: Probarts hand writing cont: an Invoice of the said goods as they were Sent to Gulconda to Seig^r: Hartsinck the Dutch chief, being the one third for his acco^t: and two thirds for M^r. Mohun, who it seemes therein rates them to the said Hartsinck at pag^{os}: 18 and brings acco^t: of Broad Cloth to have Credit only 16½ for their Sale, the differences being pag^{os}: 303: 24. w^{ch}: with the amount of the interest from the 4th: October 1671, the time he sent them to Gulconda to the 1 December 72 upon pag^{os}: 3547:—amount of Broad cloth and Searlet is pag^{os}: 993: 8 the interest of pag^{os}: 303: 24 the difference of price from Decemb^r: 1st: 1672 to the 1st: June 1675 is at 2 pa $\mathcal{P}$ C^o. 181:—The prejudice hereby of principall and interest pa: 1477:—:—

The reason why M^r. Manwaring charges this Summe to M^r. Mohuns debt is because of the false entry, they being made sent up for the Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as}: acco^t: whereas he really tooke them for his own and Seig^r: Hartsincks acco^t: in thirds as appeares by the papers, the whole transaction being managed by himself without any participation to the Councell, so farr as he knoweth himself Setting what prizes of the Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as}: goods in the bookes as he pleased, the said Invoice of W^m: Probarts hand, the charges pag^{os}: 97: 9 is added by the hand of M^r. Francis Langstone, the particulars of w^{ch}: charges the said M^r. Manwaring produeth in another note of the said Francis Langstones own hand writing, both w^{ch}: parties are deceased, but the said Noates are attested by the hands of severall of the Comp^{as}: Servants well acquainted therewith, as also wth: their peculiar application & employment in M^r. Mohuns particular Services.

The said M^r. Manwaring produced a ffactory of the said Broad Cloth &c sent up as above to the said Hartsinck to Gulconda, w^{ch}: Vinco the Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as}: chief Bramany did acknowledge in his and W^m: Ayloffes presence to be the true contents of the said parcell, and that they were sent up and consigned to the said Sig^r: Hartsinck the Netherlands chief at Gulconda, by M^r. Mohun, and not as in y^e bookes to M^r. Pitches, the w^{ch}: paper and relation is attested by both M^r. Manwaring and W^m. Ayloffe and certified by them upon the oath they have taken a very cleare evidence.

Matthew Manwaring doth object against M^r. Mohun for dammage to the Hono^{ble}: Comp^a: upon pag^{os}: 9821: 16 of Callicoos provided for the Hono^{ble}: Comp^a: the 31 July 1673 in Journall Lire N. f^o: 20 pretending it to be bought with ready money advanced before hand for investing the ballance of Cash, but not paid of a great while after, nor all cleared to this day, Madala Cundapa &c debt being part thereof, and although by false entry the full summe of P^a: 9821: 16 be made paid the 31 July 1673 whereby Cash seemes Cred^r: pa: 1617: 1: 4. neither were the Merchants paid nor was the Cash really Credittor, for they had before that time landed R $\frac{3}{4}$ 28000 out of the 10 shippes, who arrived from thence in this Road of Madrass the 29: 30 & 31 July and were dispatched from Metenlep^m: the 19 Detto, having first landed 7 chests R $\frac{3}{4}$ out of the Unity and East India Merchant q^t: 28000 R $\frac{3}{4}$ although no other goods provided there were only 15500 R $\frac{3}{4}$ left (being of the 8 October 1673) as $\mathcal{P}$ M^r. Hattons letter to the Agent of that date, the remainder to complete the 20000 being procured in pag^{os}: by M^r. Chamberlaine.

The dammage to the Hono^{ble}: Comp^a: upon the prizes of the Said goods being as M^r. Manwaring really believes 20 $\mathcal{P}$ C^o. w^{ch}: amounts to 1964 pag^{os}: by the computation of the Bramany, M^r. Hattons letters of the 3: 7 & 15 August to the Agent doe much confirme this Same.

M^r. Manwaring further adds that the imperious carriage soe overawes the Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as}: people there that they are ready to Signe any thing that he shall tender to them, as an instance whereof was a paper drawn up by M^r. Mohun expressing his faire dealing, both in the Hon^{ble}: Comp^{as}: affaires and to all other persons, signed by M^r. Christopher Hatton and Robert freeman, and offered to M^r. Robert fleetwood w^{ch}: he refused to Signe coming immediately to me and declared it, at w^{ch}: weakness of theirs he did much admire, saying that it would much more tend to the prejudice of them both then in the least measure cleare either, w^{ch}: paper afterwards upon Second thoughts was tore as I was informed.

Dyett money

likewise.

The Commiss^{rs}: letter of 7 October 1674 certifie that M^r. Tho: Whitehead, Robert freeman, Maurice Wynn, John Heathfield, John Tivill, Samuell Wales, George Ramsden, Robert Crawley and John Canham did all declare they had received all their Dyett money and Sallary, after and when due, when they desired it.

M^r. Manwaring affirms his own Sallary and Dyett money yet to be unpaid to w^{ch}: M^r. Mohun replies that M^r. Manwaring never demanded it of him, [one line lost].

M^r. Robert fleetwood saith he hath not [received any] Dyett money and [sallary,] neither demanded any since he gave in his last accompts.

M^r. Manwaring also affirms that Doctor Morris told him that M^r. Mohun owed him pag^{es}: 33: 10 on acco^t: Sallary, in presence of M^r. Joseph Arnold, who confirms the Same and Quotes M^r. Whitehead Minister for a wittness, but said M^r. Whitehead remembers no Such thing.

M^r. Hatton acknowledgeth his Sallary not to be paid he having refused the sa[me] attending further orders from the Hon^{ble}: Comp^a: M^r. Hatton likewise in his of the 28 December sayes he hath had Credit in acco^t: for his Dyett money at 4 pag^{es}: M^r. Mensem, M^r. Hatton himself adviseth in severall of his letters, and M^r. Joseph Arnold in his Depositions confirms by oath to have heard him Say that his Sallary was never paid him, although it was charged to him.

M^r. George Chamberlaine in his of 29 December declares he heard George Ramsden say that he had not received his Sallary untill M^r. Manwarings charge came down to be examined.

M^r. Manwaring in his Depositions of 14 January affirms that M^r. Crawley and M^r. Ayloffe acquainted him, that they had not received their Sallarys as also M^r. Hatton and M^r. Colbourne, the two former that they had not their Dyett money duely paid them.

W^m. Ayloffe in his Depositions of 9 May 1675 affirms he did not receive his Sallary before y^e fine Novemb^r. or first Decemb^r. 1674. and that M^r. Colbourne declared he had not received his Sallary, as also M^r. Canham and M^r. Scattergood, he also declares that M^r. Crawley, M^r. Canham and himself, were faine to goe wth[out] their Dyett money one Month, although for his own part M^r. freeman lent him his out of his own mony, affirming he who was then Steward had no mony of the Honourable Companies the nonpayments before Novemb^r. and Decemb^r. as some of the parties themselves take notice confirms the truth of the charge and false entries in Cash, y^e Sallaries and dyett mony being made paid in Cash, although not then paid, the after payments being very likely to be the good effects of charge and Commission sent downe thereupon, the pretence of not demanding it signifying nothing as to the truth of the charge of false entries, W^m: Ayloffe confirms what is said of Doctor Morris. The said W^m. Ayloffe saith that concerning M^r. Mohuns overawing the Comp^{as}: Servants, and M^r. freeman affirms that he heard that M^r. Mohun did threaten M^r. fleetwood & M^r. Cholmley, he heard M^r. fleetwood say it himself.

Said M^r. Ayloffe confirms that he hath heard M^r. Wynn affirme that the [cloth] was very bad.

Said W^m: Ayloffie saith that he never heard of any Secretary till about No^v[vemb^r] or Decemb^r 1674 when these things were examined M^r. Crawley was Secretary nor never heard of any office where the Companies papers were kept in.

M^r. Ayloffie affirms that to the best of his remembrance he hath heard that M^r. Langstone in his life time was looked upon to be worth Something considerable, and he hath heard a Summe mentioned, but whether it was 1000 or 2000 pag^s: he dare not possitively Sweare, but what is become of it he knowes not.

M^r. Ayloffie declares that a little before he received his Sallary, being in Comp^a: wth: M^r. Ramsden, he told him he would goe aske for his Sallary, M^r. Ramsden replied for what M^r. Mohun hath no money or words to that effect.

M^r. Ayloffie affirms that at Maddapollam he heard Doctor Heathfield say he had received his money of M^r. Mohun, but that he was forced to awaite Some time till he could receive the whole, he telling him he wanted money but that he should have some shortly, and then he would pay him.

M^r. Ayloffie attests that the attestation w^{ch}: he gave at Maddapollam concerning M^r. Manwaring was altered; and that he heard M^r. Crawley say that M^r. Mohun ordered him to doe it as he did, he saith further that when he asked M^r. Wales concerning [one line lost] done by mistake or words [to that effect]

The Agent and Councell are obliged heere to take notice that those severall undue entries in Cash, all tending to hide or lessen the want thereof, gives but too much weight to M^r. Manwarings charge of moneys in like manner made paid to the Hon^{ble}: Comp^a: Merchants for Callicoos, but either yet unpaid or appeared to be soe at the time of his charge delivered unto the Agent and Councell, and their Commission thereupon sent downe.

EXTRACTS OF L^{res}: FROM M^r. CHRISTOPHER HATTON
CONCERNING THE BUSINESS AT METCHLRP^m:

THE 3^d. AUGUST 1673.

This being according to his order please to cause them to be delivered, and send me a receipt for the same.

And now good S^r. give me leave to desire your judgement in a case. M^r. Mohun in his way to Maddrass last March, stopping at Gundore proposed at a Consultation the providing of 10 M[̃] Pag^s: in goods to be ready against the arrivall of the shippes this yeare, being on acco^t: of the Cash then remaining in his hands, it was unanimously assented unto, and thereupon an order drawn up to M^r. George Chamberlaine for his proceeding therein, whereunto we all Signed, now these goods thus provided, are brought into the ffactory and probably may be shipped off before payment, w^{ch}: afterwards if M^r. Mohun should not be able to make good, whether or no we the subscribers to M^r. Chamberlaines order, become any waies lyable thereto, M^r. Mohun Chief is Cash keeper, and when he proposes to his Councell anything tending to y^e interest of the Hon^{ble}: Comp^a: as investing their moneys is allwaies understood a principall part thereof. how cann any of those his Councell demurr thereto, or become lyable to pay out of their own purse, if the Cash keeper should prove insolvent, M^r. Chamberlaine has by vertue of that order taken up those goods on Creditt, and if M^r. Mohun should come short in Cash to satisfie for the Same, he supposes himselfe safe, and we the subscribers lyable to make it good: Good S^r. be pleased to give me your judgement herein.

THE 7 AUGUST 1673

The goods said in our Graill. to be in a readiness I suppose may not exceed the last yeares remaines, they are now in the ffactory, and this morning price agreed on, but the terms for payment I am not acquainted wth: and I willingly decline to inquire after it, to reserve myself from the occasion of being solicited to contribute finding sufficient motives of being cautious herein from what I presented to your desieion in my last.

THE 15 AUGUST 1673

I have no new matter to add but that this instant being 2 afternoon, all our 10 Saile are in sight, entring the Road, and will receive a quick dispatch, the goods provided on acco^t of last yeares remaines being all imbailed, and those from Maddapollam and Pettipolle all come to this ffactory. Pro premissis mercibus, ad Anni preleriti rationem attinentibus restabit dies ad Compromendum uti prius notavi, sed male mihi constat, de quò modo valebit ad liquedandum.

THE 23 JULY 1674.

S^r you will soon observe how that in reducing his acco^t: of Cash he has inserted severall summs, under the name of Robert ffreeman, Dyett money being there included, whereof divers complaine of not having received the summs charged and also acco^t: Sallary, to the last of this present July, wherein possibly he may have againe included myne, against w^{ch}: I am obliged to declare, and utterly to renounce it, as altogether disagreeing, and opposite to the Hono^{ble}: Companies express meaning signified in their orders relating to me, wherein they absolutely reserve the nomination of Sallary to their own appointment, of the two yeares Dyett money I have never received more then 16 pag^{as}:; and suppose he may accompt two months more for my continuance at his table at Madrass the case is the Same wth: divers others, and this I have only, recited, to explaine unto your private [observation his present state & con]dition without desiring that any part heereof [should proceed further excepting] only y^e clause of my Sallary.

THE 7 OCTOBER 1673

In persuance of an order in yours of the 20 September w^{ch}: came to my hands at Maddapollam the 4 Instant, I made my speedy repaire to this place expecting to have been informed concerning that peece of Service mentioned in yours to be of concernment to the Hono^{ble}: Comp^a:; wth: purpose to have readily and chearefully applyed myself thereunto, but as yet I heare not of any thing of that nature, nor doe I know where to address mySelf for information M^r Mohun told me your Graill. of the 20th: required the Sending 20 M̃ D w^{ch}: he said was ready to be delivered to Cassa Veronas people as soon as they should come to receive it, you having contracted wth: the said Verona to take the Said monys hereupon his own risgo, w^{ch}: termes he much applauded, but all this while was not pleased to shew me the said Graill. L^re. although in my discourse I gave him frequent occasion to understand my desire thereunto, soe that S^r you having omitted to acquaint me wth: the substance thereof in your private letter I know not by what meanes to come to the knowledge of the business you have been pleased to assigne me to.

Whereas in your said particular letter of the 20th: you mention the demanding 20 M̃ D. of the 28 M̃ landed heere, and that therein, the confidence you were pleased to place in me, though it might occasion me a little trouble would prove advantageous to me at home, whether you intended to Send the copy of said Graill. for the Said purpose, and then in your postscript ordering my immediate repaire to Metchlep^m: where I should receive advce of some Service to be performed by me of considerable importance to the Hono^{ble}: Comp^a: I am not able to interpret otherwise then that you had appointed me to some charge or trust of the said treasure, either in conducting it to you or otherwise as the said Graill. should direct, but M^r Mohuns relation of your ordering the delivery thereof to Veronas people on his own hazard wholly contradicts y^e interpretation, and his concealing the Graill. from me, leaves me altogether in the darke, I purpose to continue heere three or fower daies to make what discovery I possibly may or receive farther directions from you in yo^r next.

The 8 OCTOBER 1673

S^r this morning I received your Graill. to mySelf of the 20 past w^{ch}: has removed all former Sollicitudes. M^r. Mohun is now collecting together the Summe required 15 M being ready in the Godowne, and M^r. Chamberlaine busy in procuring the rest. to avoid all occasions of Envy by publick notice in removing the said treasure out of the ffactory to any private house I have instructed Veronas Servants to desire leave from M^r. Mohun to keepe the treasure in the ffactory untill they can convert it into pag^{os}: having Veronas orders soe to doe, in the meantime I have treated wth: the Sheroffs, and cannot engage them to provide the 7000 pag^{os}: in less then 7 daies time, nor at more then 5 pag^{os}: 5½ fans. the Seer w^{ch}: is exceeding low, but the Towne being emptied of money and the pag^{os}: risen to 4 Rupees, the loss is unavoidable, I shall change no more then the 7000 to be delivered the Merchants, they not being willing to take more the remainder shall keepe by me in the species I receive them untill further order, I doe already apparently discover that M^r. Mohun has a jealous eye over me, and also perceive he has some intimation of this your private order to me w^{ch}: I easily foresee will be a meanes of excluding me from all future kindness from him, but I am Satisfied my employ^{nt} is grounded on just prudent and necessary principles, and withall that the support of my interest depends not on his single favour, though I shall allwaies Studiously avoid the giving him any just cause of offence, but if his willfull wander [ing in crooked and by paths] lead at last into inextricable laborinths [he clearly is to be angry] with himself.

The 17 OCTOBER 1673

S^r I did forbear to make mention hereof to M^r. Mohun expecting he would take notice of it himself, w^{ch}: he also forbore to doe, untill this day, though your letter to him concerning it was received y^e 10 Instant, as I saw indorsed upon it.

He now looks upon me wth: a distrustfull and jealous eye, and I believe has continued soe long Silent to trye whether or no I would take upon me to expostulate y^e case wth: him, he has wholly estranged himself from that freedome and privacy formerly used wth: me, evidently signifying thereby an alienation of affection, and that all former purposes or pretensions of kindness are now to [a few letters destroyed] how just and rationall he may suppose himself in the[se] proceedings wth: me I leave to his future contemplation, being fully Satisfied in my own breast that I have not deserved the least measure thereof, and therefore shall be the less concerned thereat, he now wholly dedicates himself and his affections to M^r. G. C. wth: whom he consults, and by whom he is directed in all matters of importance y^e cement that soe firmly unites them, was y^e procurem^{nt} of the cloth that Ballanc'd last yeares arreares, but possibly when payment growes due, they may againe untwist and Separate, unless he can afresh oblige him by procuring money to discharge y^e debt, for I can easily observe that my backwardness & not offering mySelf to supply him (he believing my Stores fuller then they really are) has in soe great a measure coold and in a manner extinguishd his affection towards me whereunto has also added some intimation I perceive has been given him of your late order to me concerning the treasure, but I shall not insist longer on this Subject.

And now S^r I am to give you an acco^t: of the disposing of the mony paid by M^r. Mohun to Veancaty Kisna & Veancaty Putty consisting of Ryalls of Eight in Mohun intending Suddainly for Maddapollam, hope by your next I may be dismissed from my attendance heere where I have soe little accommoda[tion]. not remembring anything more needfull humbly crave leave remaining.

THE 30 JANUARY 1674

This afternoon M^r. Mohun presented me wth: a Graill. I utterly renounce all compliance wth: him in any of his rudeness and incivillities, and begg that my exception may Serve at this time to acquitt me from any part guiltiness wth: him, for the future, I desire you would please to exclude me from the importunity of being urged by him for it is a most dissatisfied manner of life I now lead, I heartily recommend it to your courteous consideration, and begg of you to be favourable in the interp[retation] of these Coercions w^{ch}: in no small measure afflict.

Doubtfull that my exceptions might be rayzd or altered I heere add the Copy of them v^z.

MEMORIALLS FOR THE EXAMINATION OF THE FOLLOWING PERSONS. FROM M^r. MATTHEW MAINWARING.

As to the 5800 pa: owing Madala Cundapa &c: the Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as}: Merchants at y^e time of my charge, I have very good reason to believe that the following persons know it to be true, some of them having discoursed about this perticular with me, & therefore 'tis requisite in my opinion that they be examined about it upon their oaths and since some of them have refused to obey your orders in coming up hither to give in their testimonys in their Masters the Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as}: behalfe, it will be requisite in my opinion that your prudence find out some expedient way to cause them to give in their testimonys, for although M^r. John Tivill and M^r. Samuell Wales has an annuall gratuity from M^r. Mohun for doing his particular business. yet they are the Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as}: Servants, and ought not to neglect any thing of their business nor omitt to discover any wrong done them upon any pretence whatsoever.

As for M^r. John Tivill who is the Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as}: Cash keeper by M^r. Mohuns John Tivill. appointm^t. does I am very confident know that my charge of M^r. Mohuns owing the Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as}: Merchants pag^{as}: 5800 for goods bought on the Comp^{as}: acco^t: is true, and I am also very well assured that he has (and I suppose by M^r. Mohuns order) made severall summs of money paid to their Merchants in the acco^t: of Cash, when as no such summs were really then paid, nor in some time afterward[s.]

He also does I am very well assured know that Severall of those summs w^{ch}: he made paid in his accompt of Cash dated the 18 July, and Sent the Agent and Councell were not really paid, and they were only put in to make the ballance thereof Seem Small that soe y^e Agent and Councell might not have a supply from thence.

He also does I really believe know that [good] part of the Hono^{ble}: Companies Broad cloth was disposed to pay M^r. M[ohuns] perticular debts.

I also am of opinion that he knowes what M^r. Mohun intended with the 183 pag^{os}: discounted of Assinaes.

Also I really believe that he knowes M^r. Mohun had not paid Anetio the Hono^{ble}: Camp^{as}: chief Bramine his Dustore money or els he made him provide a parcell of Iron w^{ch}: he paid him not for but tooke for part of the Dustore money.

He also knowes that he delivered the 13449 $\frac{3}{4}$ R $\frac{8}{8}$ for acco^t: of the Hono^{ble}: Comp^a: and that of those very R $\frac{8}{8}$ 11353 were redelivered to M^r. Geo: White by M^r. Mohuns order, and that M^r. White delivered to M^r. Mohun at Maddapollam out of w^{ch}: parcell he knowes that 6726 were delivered Meir Narzier &c : Merch^[ts]: on M^r. Mohuns particular accompt, or els they were sent to Metchlepatam, to be [a few words lost] the produce delivered them.

He [a few words lost] believe knowes that the 1058 : 12 of goods provided by M^r. Salis [a few words lost] first intended for M^r. Mohuns acco^t: and that they were thrust upon [the Hono^{ble}: Comp^a:] for want of Cash to make them returns in more proper goods.

He [also knowes that if the Cash acco^t:] had been right and truly kept there would have appeared no want of Cash that should force y^e Sale of those 8000 $\text{Rs } \frac{8}{8}$ to so much loss.

He also knowes that Cash should have been made D^r. to ffactory Madapollam the 16 March 167 $\frac{2}{3}$ pag^{os}: 1023 : 01 : 1 though [t]he 18 July 1679 there is only 600 pag^{os}: thereof made received.

He also knowes that the extravagant charges of peons wages for some months were taken [off and put upon other months.]

He also knowes [that the Lead] sent to Naghelawanch was first intended for M^r. Mohuns accompt, and that there was no money sent thither, but that the 600 pag^{os}: pretended [to be sent] thither was the produce of some goods of M^r. Hattons, and that there [a few words lost] put upon the Long cloth made bought at Naghelawanch then in reason and conscience there ought to be.

He also must know M^r. Mohuns reasons for bidding Bengalla Babbo tell me that he had taken up of him 2000 pag^{os}: worth of Sallampores and Long cloth on the Comp^{as}: acco^t: but I suppose he had really ordered them to be brought in part, part whereof was in the ffactory but taken thence upon my declaring there was no order to buy such goods for the Hono^{ble}: Company.

He also knowes that M^r. Mohun is or was indebted to Meirja Mall pag^{os}: 5000 upon interest, w^{ch}: I believe if M^r. Mohun repaies not the Hono^{ble}: Comp^a: will be forced to doe it, as I doubt not but the Agent and Councell are fully convinced.

He also knowes that Mr. Mohun when was at Maddapollam was much necessitated for money, and that he could not one time remove from thence for want thereof, and that he was forced before he could depart to borrow mony of M^r. Large to pay his Servants before they would Sett forward, and he likewise knowes that M^r. Mohun and the rest of his Mess wanted a dinner, and that the Comite refused to Creditt him longer, because they were indebted to him, and that thereupon there was a Candy of Tynn delivered to him.

He likewise ought to declare how much his annual Stipend is from M^r. Mohun for doing his business and keeping his Secrets relateing to the Hono^{ble}: Comp^a: his Masters affaires, w^{ch}: as he being the Comp^{as}: Servant he ought to divulge whatsoever he knowes has been acted to their prejudice.

He likewise knowes that M^r. Mohun by his threatnings has overawed Sevrall of the Comp^{as}: Servants and freemen.

He also knowes that when Madala Condapa was at Madapollam M^r. Mohun proffered him Lead for what due to him on the Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as}: acco^t: and also promised him Some more money when had Sould the shipp Indulgence.

He also knowes or els has heard affirmed that M^r. Mohun concealed the estate of M^r. Langstone, and that he did in his own person examine his bookes and papers without the Councill or any other, and two or three daies after he delivered up a parcell [of insi]gnificant papers to M^r. Robert freeman.

He [like]wise knowes that Since his being there to the time of my charge there was neither Secretary nor office appointed though to avoid the charge he may have since appointed one.—I suppose he likewise knowes what Piscashes M^r. Mohun has received or exacted of the Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as}: Merchants.

He knowes that the 173 half P^s . Bro: Cloth made sent to Gulconda and consigned to George Pitches were sent for acco^t: of Seig^r. Hertsinck the Dutch chief and M^r. Mohun, and n[ot] for accompt of the Hono^{ble}: Company.

Whether he does not know M^r. Hatton to be M^r. Mohuns chief confident and mannager of his designes, and that M^r. Hatton has had the perusall of many of M^r: Mohuns bookes and papers.

I doe believe that if he will [he can discover many] more of M^r. Mohuns unjust actions, for if I who have been kept [a few words lost] as much as possible have discovered see many surely he has [a few words lost] privy to all (being his book keeper) must needs know many more [a few words lost] clearly out, for the Accompt of the Comp^{as}: Cash w^{ch}: was delivered [a few words lost] be false, and therefore it is reason that he produce the true, whereby I doubt not but that Sevrall other notorious irregularities will be discovered.

The aforegoing is what I have good reason to believe M^r. Tivill knowes to be true, and I also believe that M^r. Samuall Wales likewise knowes them, he having been as well as M^r. Tivill employed in copying out M^r. Mohuns particular accompts letters &c:

[I also believe that M^r. Christop^r.] Hatton knowes the aforegoing to be true he having been his chief [confident a]dviser and mannager of his designes and has likewise wrote Sevrall Gennerall letters for him, copy of one w^{ch}: is begun by M^r. Mohun [but the major] part wrote and finished by M^r. Hatton I can produce and [a word or two lost] that he was M^r. Mohuns chief confident he signed to a paper w^{ch}: was drawn up, declaring that M^r. Mohun ever since his being chief of Metchlepatam, had not acted anything to the prejudice of the Hono^{ble}: Company, nor had abused any particular man, though he knowes it to be notoriously false, w^{ch}: paper was also tendred to M^r. fleetwood to Signe but he refusing it was upon Second thoughts torne, of w^{ch}: I was informed by M^r. freeman who also signed thereto, soe that I beseech you to take notice how ready M^r. Hatton is to temporise wth: M^r. Mohun, and too firme to what his conscience tells him is notoriously false.

Christop:
Hatton

M^r. George Chamberlaine I believe likewise knowes the aforegoing to be true, part whereof he has allready under his hand affirmed, and I doubt not but when the awe of M^r. Mohun shall be taken off, and he upon his oath he will speak sufficiently to all the aforementioned perticulars, and I believe to some others, having been many times assisting to M^r. Mohun in his business.

M^r. Robert fleetwood knowes sevrall of the aforegoing perticulars to be true, but he has declared that he would not discover all he knew untill brought upon his oath.

M^r. Nathanieli Chholmley it was that acquainted me that M^r. Mohun had wronged the Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as}: in the Sale of 1:6 half P^s Broad cloth pag^{es}: 156 they being made Sold for 24 pag^{es}: P^s half P^s whereas they were Sold for 25 pag^{es}:; and I believe he knowes of Sevrall of M^r: Mohuns unjust actions, w^{ch}: he has told me he will not declare before he is brought upon his oath.

The Agent and Councell having called together Cassa Verona, Veancaty Narraine & Allangalapilly, and the rest of the Hono^{ble} : Comp^{as}. 26 Chief Merch^{ts} : and acquainted them wth : what ye Hono^{ble} : Comp^a : writes concerning the badness and dearness of their Cloth & demanded Satisfaction, we find them soe farr from it, that they are very much discouraged from engaging any more in the employment, having of late yeares suffered very great losses thereby by meanes of the warrs and discords in these countreys, and the prices soe hard driven, that they are rather losers then gainers by it, in soe much that we were faine to desist from soe fruitless a pretence.

And having then given them the particulars of the Callicos enordered for this yeares sortment, we had very much adoe to prevaile with them, to undertake for the whole quantity in regard of the small proportion of fine goods to the course Long Cloth and Sallamp^{as}. and of the q^{ty} : of leangths breadths and thickness required, as also for the Scarsity of Cotton-and of Weavers also, and strange misgovernment of these Countrys, since the King has left y^e whole administration of his kingdomes unto Bramanys a Generation never to be Satisfied or relyed upon, being continually raising of extorsions upon them and the whole country of w^{ch} : the Agent & Councell have sufficient experience as appeares by their Registers, At length we have wth : much difficulty agreed wth : them to undertake the provision of the Said Sortment at the rates of last yeare and that the Long Cloth shall be all of the large Sort, as well the third Sort as the Second and first, and that they will doe all that in them lyes to have the Cloth made thicker then heretofore, although they pay somewhat the dearer for them :

Which being all that we could possibly bring them unto and y^e necessity of the Hono^{ble} : Comp^{as} : affaires pressing for dispatch, we have concluded that it is absolutely necessary for their Service to accept thereof, we having no other meanes to provide the said Cargo of goods with any probability of performance, and without great hazzards of bad debts and other disappointments, and accordingly we have now settled and agreed wth : them for y^e same.

They stood likewise very hard for the reallowing of the old price for the third Sort of Long Cloth abated last yeare from $1\frac{1}{4}$ to $1\frac{3}{8}$ the peece alleadging that the Reason for the said abatement last yeare being only upon the score of the narrow Sort then taken amongst them was now ceased by this undertaking for them all to be of the large Sort

They likewise expressed soe great a dissatisfaction for the not restoreing the pag^{as} : 9000 w^{ch} : the Hono^{ble} : Comp^a : yet keepe from Cassa Verona & Timonas heires, that Major Puckle was faine to promise them that having well enquired into that business he would write unto the Hono^{ble} : Comp^a : in their behalfe according to the meritts of the cause, before we could bring them to any agreement at all.

This being finished we proceeded to the Sale of the Europe goods, of w^{ch} : having enlarged the quantities and sett the prices at the uttmost which the Markett would beare, the Merchants having almost all their last yeares Lead and Woollen goods upon their hands, and the times not. at all favourable for the consume in these parts, we at length agreed wth: y^m: as [to the price] to be paid for in the Callicoos now bespoke, wherein the Merchants [one word lost them] selves very hard put to it, in regard of the soe Small quantity of fine Sortes w^{ch}: are the only meanes they have to vent the Europe Manufactures.

M^r. Edward Herrys his paper dd in to y^e Agent & Councell

The 27 Septemb^r. 1675.

To y^e Hono^{ble} S^r. W^m. Langhorn
&c; Councell.

You must all be very sencible what complaints the Hono^{ble}: Comp^a: have annually sent us about the thinness and sheireness of their Callicos provided at this place, and how stricktly they press us to have it remedied it becomes a duty more particularly incumbent on me that am entrusted in the warehouse to use all possible means in pursuit of their desires, w^{ch}: I have endeavoured but ineffectually, and therefore I must advise you that I doe not find y^e Cloth come in better then of late yeares, though I daily solicite it. and refuse such quantitys, that if there be not some course timely thought on, 'twill be next impossible for us to send full returns this shipping and w^{ch}: is worse the evill increaseth, for the Merchants seeme strangely discouraged in their proceedings, saying that the unusual and unheard of irregularitys now permitted and acted in this country makes them dread to remember the contract wth: your Hon^{er}: &c: the truth of all w^{ch}: with the remedy I must refer to your wisdomes having discharged my duty in this tender I am

Hono^{ble}: Sr.

Jn^o: Nicks Sec^{ry}.

Your humble Servant

EDWARD HERRYS.

M^r. Edward Herrys having given in a paper to y^e Agent and Councell, complainyng of the badness of the Callicos, not coming in in that perfection as was expected upon the contract made wth: Cassa Verona &c: Merchants the 30 June last, we sent for the said Merchants and having blamed them Severely for the Same they Separately from Verona returned us this following answer vz^t.

That the ordinary Sorts of Long Cloth and Sallampores being to be provided in many severall places all up and down the country, in each whereof they are faine to settle two chief men, wth: many others under them, in all w^{ch}: for the better carrying on of the business they had been faine to agree to act joyntly, least they should hinder and spoyle one another, as also for the better holding the weavers to the full contents of length and breadth & thickness, w^{ch}: the better to performe they had raised their prices considerably to oblige them to encrease their pungeoms from 16 as the old musters are to 17: 17½ & 18 pungeoms in y^e breadth.

Which soon after that they had thus settled there came down some horsemen from Maddana and the King to Carreda & to other places who on pretences of Dyamⁱⁿ. and treasures underground, seized upon two of our chief Merchants at Carreda Neereeda Vengana & Caushi & all their families and all whatsoever they had, either in goods monys or bills, extorted by vyolence and torments even to the breaking of some of their limmes. the like they did in severall other parts. whereupon all their people Sent up and down the country as aforesaid were glad to runn away amongst the woods, and by great piscashes save their mony and their lives amongst the thieves themselves, w^{ch}: was a very great loss & hinderance unto the Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as}: business, but now at last upon the Agents and Veronas letters to Gulconda all those horsemen have been called away and some restitution made, but a great deale has been lost, and imbezelled irrecoverable.

In the mean while the said woodmen and watchmen being abused by Chinna-pelle Meirzas extortions, by the kings order broke out into hostillitys against all the neighbouring countrys killing & robbing all they could meet with, w^{ch}: made no less a disorder amongst the weavers who were faine to desert their dwellings and fly to Chengy country for shelter, being ruined and destroyed as aforesaid, by w^{ch}: means the said Merchants moneys given out amongst them was a great deal of it lost.

Besides those weavers yet remaining who had encreased their Pungeoms according to agreement yet finding Cotton scarce and dear, have fallen to make their thread thinner then formerly pretending that it could not otherwise lye in their Combes, see that y^e Cloth although it be really richer in pungeoms yet does not come out altogether soe thick as was expected, w^{ch}: the said Merchants cannot now possibly remedy for this Season, but must either take that or none.

The w^{ch}: when after soe many losses and troubles it is brought into the Godown, M^r. Herrys the Warehousekeeper Sorts it soe very hardly that he puts the most part of this said Cloth down into the Second and thirds, and some quite cast by, soe that at this rate, the said Merch^{ts}: cannot hold on, to bring in more cloth, to loose soe extremely by it, but doe declare that of necessity either the Hon^{ble}: Comp^a: must be content to have it sorted more moderately, or els to raize something in the price, for otherwise they shall be faine to leave off, or els to be quite undone thereby, w^{ch}: is not the intent of their undertaking, w^{ch}: was not to loose, but to gett something by it, though it were never so little.

Neither did they ever undertake to bring in above tenn or twenty thousand peeces of the Said sorts in all: what more was done by Verona on his own head, who must answer for it, for if he will be soe obstinate as to goe on to loss they will not.

Whereupon the Agent and Councell being much Scandalized heereat did very sharply reprove them telling them it was not like Merchants, and that they expected better performance, but all to no purpose for they could gett no other answer from them.

M^r. Herry's at the same time acknowledging that he observed a very great difference between the cloth of Cassa Veronas own providing and that of the said other Merchants, w^{ch}: comes allwaies much short of his, the same has all the former yeares been observed.

After w^{ch}: Cassa Verona apart by himself acquainting us how that he having private notice that the said Merchants abroad in the country did not looke after y^e Weavers as they should, but minded their own ease too much, he was faine to send out five of his own Servants unto each head place being eightene in number, having each their circuits & severall others subdivided, wth: orders to looke after the business better and remedy what amiss, at which the said Merchants tooke great offence.

But that howsoever seing the said Merchants doe carry y^mselves so [unhand]somly, he is resolved to doe all that possible he can to give compliyanee for this time, whatsoever loss he should sustaine thereby, w^{ch}: undoubtedly would be very great and heavy upon him, only he begg'd that the sorting might not be carryed on with soe great extremity, but that some consideration should be had for him, for otherwayes he should never dare to deale with the Hon^{ble}: Comp^a: Again in this nature.

* But that howsoever seing the said Merchants doe carry themselves so unhand-somly, he is resolved to doe all that possible he can to give compliyanee for this time, whatsoever loss he should sustaine thereby, w^{ch}: undoubtedly would be very great and heavy upon him, only he begg'd that the sorting might not be carryed on wth: so great extremity, but that some consideration should be had for him, for otherwayes he should never dare to deale wth: the Hon^{ble}: Comp^a: againe in this nature.

The Agent & Councell having considered the aforesaid replied that it was no[t] in their power to abate anything of the stricktness of the sorting, that part belonging to the Warehousekeeper, whom they had charged to sort according to the best of his skill, & that seing he had for so many yeares & amidst so many troubles gone through wth: the Hon^{ble}: Comp^{as}: investments, he would not suffer them to be disappointed now for want of doing his best endeavour, who thereupon replied that it very well appeared how much he had bestired himself therein, as he should still doe to the utmost of his power, and that he was out a great deal of mony up & down the country amongst the Weavers as well of his own stock as what the Agent & Councell have still supplied him beforehand as accustomed, and without w^{ch}: he would not nor could not undertake y^e business: the Weavers never taking any worke to doe without it, in soe much that to provide two hundred thousand pagodas worth of Callicos, he must be fain to give out for above half so much more to allow for disappointments, or els the Dutch would carry all the Weavers and Cloth away and beat them & the Hon^{ble}: Comp^a: out of the trade, and that he had mett wth: so many & so unexpected difficultys & disappointments therein, that without some consideration as aforesaid he much feared what acco^t: he should be able to give of this yeares business; but the Agent and Councell not being able to yield to any such thing were faine to dismiss him and the rest of the Merchants wth: a strickt charge for the goodness & seasonableness of the investment, and hopes that the Hon^{ble}: Comp^a: would yet take into their consideration his business of the 90 pagodas.

Noat that in all our memorys & observation as well here as in all other parts of this Coast, and as we understand at Surrat and the Bay also, as well by the Dutch as English and all others, it has been customary and of course to deliver mony aforehand to the Merchants for the more timely accomplishing of their investments, w^{ch}: the more satisfaction we have of their abillitys, the freelyer we deliver out unto them, without any other possibility of interest or other consideration to be obtained for it, but that of the dispatch, w^{ch}: so much imports the Hon^{ble}: Comp^a: and without w^{ch}: course it had been impossible for their Merchants here to have made such suddain and great investments, as have been yearely made for them in this and the last Agency, and w^{ch}: being so apparently for their advantage although that the Agent hath ever done it wth: the concurrence and approbation of the Councell, yet it being so much of necessity and of course, and they all convinced by so long experience of the fair dealing and good compliance of the said Cassa Verona and the Hon^{ble}: Comp^a: having in so many yeares continuance of this practice never signified the least dislike thereof, it was never apprehended that it needed y^e making express Consultations for it, as not doubting but that the Hon^{ble}: Comp^a: doe esteeme of it accordingly; it being so infallible an evidence of y^e faithfull administration of their Cash, and wholly for their benefit; Besides that it has still been promised unto the said Cassa Verona by the Agent and Councell, at the making of the contract, as the very ground and encouragem^t to his undertaking, though rather as a thing of course, and needing no further stipulation, and for the afores^d: reasons, never yet thought needfull to be inserted in the Consultations, w^{ch}: have hitherto contented themselves, and expressed the matter of contents and sorts, prices and quantitys of the goods bought & sould &c: conditions to be performed by the Merchants.

However if notwithstanding the Agent and Councells present & past advices of the danger of disappointm^ts: & especially of bad debts in dealing wth: the Mercht^s: in severall, by w^{ch}: they imply the said usage of delivering out monys aforehand; without w^{ch}: no danger of bad debts, for as for the sale of Europe goods, we must then lay all thoughts of them aside for the most will not medle with them, and others will not deal at disadvantage as the Hon^{ble}: Comp^a: have sufficient experience at Methelep^m: If the said Hon^{ble}: Comp^a: shall resolve to have us deal with the Merchants apart from Cassa Verona, they will also be pleased to give us their express order for the delivering of mony out beforehand, with what limitations or liberty they shall think good, without w^{ch}: the Agent and Councell will not dare to do it for feare of bad debts, w^{ch}: they have much cause to doubt as aforesaid. And without so delivering out no considerable investment can be made.

And therefore it is resolved to write home about it in the Graff. Letter to prevent all inconveniences, losses, blame & disappointments that may otherwise happen thereby.

The said M^r Edward Herry's likewise represented to y^e Agent & Councell how that notwithstanding all y^e care & paines that he takes in the sorting & looking after the q^{ty}: of the Callicos, he finds it in a manner impossible to make a thorough examination of the latter in regard of the necessity of receiving & sorting it white through the shortness of time, for want of a stock aforehand to buy it in more early & seasonable in the yeare, when business might be done at better leasure whereas thus a great deal of it is faine to be brought in whited and beaten from the country for the better dispatch, and that w^{ch}: comes in brown is hurried away to the Washers without time to looke it over, when indeed the sorting is a great deal more even & certain, then it could be if sorted brown, through the different nature of the Cotton yarn, w^{ch}: is found by experience to prove finer in the washing in some peeces in others courser, and saves the Hon^{ble}: Comp^a: a considerable sum^m: of mony in cloth much torn or stoln at the Washers, but then one cannot so freely open and measure every peece for feare of tumbling, sullyng and spoyling it for sale at home.

The w^{ch}: he declares he does not bring in as on the least apprehension of any defect for he is very well satisfied that the cloth received is rather longer and broader then ever it was in former Agencys, but out of his great desire to give yet greater demonstration of his care and dilligence, then he doth, or can do, if it were possible, as we likewise find & are verily perswaded upon all the enquiry that we have been able to make.

W^{ch}: the Agent and Councell having seriously considered of, and being very sensible of the great care & paines that he taketh in the sorting, do find it very necessary hereby to represent y^e same to the^oHono^{ble}: Comp^a: for their better information; to the end that they may give such directions thereabouts as they shall see cause, withall encharging the said M^r: Edward Herryys to use the utmost of his skill & diligence in looking as well to the contents as quality & imbailing of the cloth, & where he cannot doe all that he would, to doe as much as he can.

Order is now given for their appearance on M^r. Mohuns behalf & M^r. Manwaring to be hastned up to dispatch those on his alias y^e Hono^{ble}: Co: behalf.

The Ag^t: & Councell are comiss^d to examine it themselves if he have anything to object, & after their diligence here, assays & advices home & tryalls there they shall wth: y^e: same readiness assist him also.

The Ag^t: & Councell have not been wanting to secure w^t: they have mett wth: in this nature as Φ advices home

The books are free for him to peruse w^{ch}: can best informe him.

6

The Choultry bookes will best informe this also and the Graill bookes for the paddy ground rented at 40 pag^{as}: Φ Anñ. Ground rent not usuall in these parts Inhabitants being courted all the country over.

7

This is answered in its own paper.

8

M^r. Clavell is present who will answer for himself.

The Ag^t: and Councell would be very glad that anything in this ffort and ffactory could be better regulated then 'tis.

2. To examine the persons present in the case of M^r. Manwaring against M^r. Mohun Sic et contra.

3. To appoint Commiss^{rs}: to joyne with W.P. in the examinatio[n] of abuses in the Mint.

4. In Private Trade &c:

5. To give acco^t: of the Revenue of the Town what it hath produced for 7 yeares last past, how much it yieldeth at present, what improvements for the future.

6. The particulars of houses & Lands, Libertys and priviledges & of the tennants renting the same, what charges are going or payable out of the same.

7. That something may be ordered for settling affaires amongst the Commissioners at Metchlepatam.

8. To be resolved whither M^r. Clavell will administer oaths to witnesses to be produced that may possibly give evidence against himself.

If not who shall do it.

9. The charges of each ffactory to be reduced to certainty, as muc[h] as may be.

W^m PUCKLE.

Proposals to the Agent &c: about the ffactory of Metch^m:

1

The Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as}: express orders is for Commiss^{rs}: which how inconvenient-soever themselves must remedy who no doubt will have due regard to what Major Puckle shall propose.

1. That there be a chief...

A Second for Acco^{ts}: } & no more of A third for Godowns } Councell.

A Secretary

2 ffactors

A Steward

3 Writers each of the councell to take charge of one

A Physitian rather then a Chyrurgeon.

A Minister.

This hath been long desired, & no way to remedy it but by discountenancing the transgressours at home.

2. That whatever differences shall arise betweene any of the Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as}: Servants relating either to the service or themselves, complaint shall be first made to the Chief and Councell, If it be not determined by them, or doth concern the Chief & Councell, that then it be stated and sent to the Agent, and Councell, who if upon hearing all persons concerned, cannot determine the same that then they the Agent &c: shall transmitt the whole matter with their proceeds & results to the Hono^{ble}: Comp^a:

But if the matter of complaint concerns the Agent & Councell at y^e Court, then the Complayn^t shall give a copy of his charge to y^e Agent &c: from whom if satisfaction be not given, the Agent &c: shall by the same conveyance of the Compl^t to the Hono^{ble}: Comp^a: send their answer.

It being experienced that the many yeares passing, whilst compl^{ts}. sent directly to the Hono^{ble}: Comp^a: without the knowledge of the Defend^{ts}: are depending doth so deeply impress upon them, that tis very hazardous whither the parties will ever become one peece againe, not only in their private capacities but also in the Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as}: Service.

The best remedy for this is to chuse welle as for their authority 'twill never be abused in good hands.

3. That that tyrannicall practice that hath been used in the exercise of the authority of chiefship by commanding and requiring an interest in, and share of the ships goods and Merchandizes of the Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as}: Servants and freemen upon his own termes and at his own will and pleasure, under the penalty of restraint of their ships, goods and becoming obnoxious to his displeasure, and stopping the allowances of the Hono^{ble}: Comp^a: for Candle, Oyle, peons wages &c: may be provided against and kept in bounds or lymits of justice and equity, Herein they justify the Heath^{ns} whom in words they condemne.

The instances given are M^r. Jearsey in the case of M^r. Locks ship—M^r. Mohun in the case of M^r. fleetwoods ships and other persons. These practices hath occasioned some to apply to the Governour, for relief, and chosen rather to pay him Juncan then submit to the unreasonable demands aforesaid.

The Hon^{ble}: Comp^a: recommend two [th]ings Seniority and meritt, but the [Se]nior not to be put by wthout good cause.

5

This were better addressed to our Employ^{rs}: who will not blame the Agent & Councell for being as cautious of stretching their orders, as those who find fault are of ours.

6

The ffactory of Metchlep^m: being nearer to those parts can best tell what will serve, as times require.

JN^o. NICKS Sec^{ry}.

4. That the order for Succession be stricktly observed, chiefship being the hopes, aymes & encouragem^t: of all subordinate.

5. That all advices and orders to and from Agent &c: or chief &c: be in full and plaine termes, not dubious and uncertaine to be understood, w^{ch}: hath sometime occasioned divisions amongst the Com^{rs}: as to their opinions. One feare he should offend the Agent if not take the Sence his way, other think should wrong the Comp^a: and all themselves.

(if they will use it) is in such things as much as ours.

Whereas each hath his peon and some more with their Rondells that none be permitted but as at the ffort.

That if they be not at 6 m^o. end perfect then 3 m^o. more to be allowed.

Wherein he that speaks not the langu-

The Dutch send all such youngmen as will not be regulated to Battavia, and make them serve for Suldiers till their time expire.

Of reducing the charge to a certainty.

B

As To y^e reducing, as to y^e married, this is allready settled, & as to the unmarried the Hono^{ble}: Comp^a: are possitive for a Grall: Table, being more orderly and less chargeable; and the Agent allready had a rebuke upon this score. Vide th^r: Grall lett^r: 13: M^{ch} 167⁴ Sectⁿ. 35: wth. 29:

As to Masters of ships this lyes not in our power to remedy, but is usually done by force of those in Governm^t as a late instance of W^m: Alley upon the ship Indulgence at Metchlep^m: and others at Bantam.

And as to y^e ships it is no less out of our power to exercise such severity over any but those whose misfortunes it were to be our countrymen, out of whose mouths to take the bread & give it unto strangers would looke a little inhumanly, whiles y^e Dutch themselves who can but

{ The Merchants should not impose (as now they doe) their cloth below the Muster at so high rates which the Comp^a: must comply withall or want goods.

{ Governours should be prevented in their mischievous practices in stopping goods Servants &c: to force a piscash, because they know the time of shipping will not permitt delays.

Tim^o: Sutton formerly Lieuten^t. whose discharging has been advised to them.

Charles Ryley an old Sould^r. here, but has laid down his armes, & keepes a house of entertainm^t. (upon sufferance having many Children bred up Protestants)

Richard Monck, lately a prisoner wth: the Dutch, marryed heere, has laid down armes, being, sickley, drives no trade that we know of.

John Augur an antient man marryed to an English woman, keepes a house of entertainm^t. upon sufferance, having been long a Souldier, and no other way to live.

Booth Chadderton came out a Souldier neare two yeares since, & lately had leave to serve M^r. Herry's, but ready to take up armes againe upon occasion.

2. What English that are not [in] the Hon^{ble}: Comp^a: service, do [live] or have habitations in y^e English or Blacks Townes, how they are qualified, what trades do they drive, to what vulture, [&] what ships are they Owners of.

The Portuguezes & Mestizas were invited hither by y^e severall Agents from our first settling here, & some came wth: our people from Armagon & encouraged, & severall had mony lent them to build upon y^e open Sand, under y^e protection of y^e Gunns, w^{ch}: by degrees has been walled in, they doing the duty of trained bands in watching & warding in times of trouble. upon the outworkes. They have never paid any rent or acknowledgement, nor taken out any leases.

However if the Hon^{ble}: Comp^a: thinks good to have us require it, upon their possitive order we must obey them, but we believe it will be the samething as to drive them away, for in all these countrys, here is no such practice. The Gov^r. and Avaldars very sensible of the benefit of Inhabitants, inviting all folks, by favours & immunitys, & gladly giving ground for houses & gardens to any that will build or plant upon it.

3. Why are so many Portugues permitted to dwell in the English Town and pay no rent, nor any acknowledgem^t. for their houses whilst many English are necessitated to take houses in y^e Blac[k] Town, and pay for the same.

As now in practice at S^t. Thoma, where to repopulate they have promised 3 yeares exemption of Taxes, w^{ch}: drawes the people from hence againe as fast as they came. And that y^e Hono^{ble}: Comp^a: may the better judge by y^e experience of this their place, y^e Agent and Councell have been fain to lett fall y^e execution of their Consultatⁿ: of 28 Sept^r: last for the levying of only pag^{as}: 230 upon y^e whole Out Town in compensation of M^r. Tho: Clarkes houses near y^e Caldera point pulled down, & Veronas expence in clearing the sand from the Sea wall during the warr, w^{ch}: had scarce amounted to 2 fan^s. Ψ house, & yet all y^e Inhabitants nay their own Merch^{ts}: all but Cassa Verona had shut up their shops & gathered up to y^e pagoda, and by intelligence their Tribes in the country had stopped all provisions from coming to Town, themselves being ready to forsake y^e place, if the Agent & Councell had not timely pacified them by desisting from the said leviation; They did not vallue the summe, but the Precedent.

In like manner was the King of Gulconda himself served about that very time, at his own City; upon the occasion of a Tax imposed upon Rice, and himself was fain send after them, and appease them by fair words. and good assurance for the future, and with considerable Tasheriffs to the chief of the Ricemen.

Not unlike the passage in London with the markett folks some 14 yeares since, upon an act of Parliament a little too uneasy for them.

And moreover how ready the Mores & B[ra] many governm^t: now are to lay hold of such opportunitys to [r]ayse new pretences the annexed relation of the termes we now stand on with them will suffice.

Pollipella Vengana pretending to sell the King's Paddy here custome free at their own rates, as in their own Territorys; and to reimpose an Avaldar, saying the King & Nabob who granted the Cowl and Phirmaund are dead and gone, and this King not obliged, as if himself had not confirmed it and received the mony.

The Dutch not being able to gett a Cowl for Paliacat, do all they can to infringe ours.

The same answer as to the Surveyes, may serve for the proposition number 4. The paddy ground payes rent pag^{as}: 40 Ψ Annum lett out to Cassa Verona at the rate it yeilded the 3 yeares last before it and the Agent has severall times advertised the people who have gardened up and down the sands to take leases for their more quiet possession; but (saving 6 already made to English & others) they seeme to be rather willing to let them fall back to Sand as they were, w^{ch}: would be of evill consequence to this place, being all on a loose sand where betweene the scorching reflex of the sunn, and the flying of the Sand we should be scarse able to draw our breath; w^{ch}: was formerly the cause of great distempers. sicklyness & mortality; rendering y^e place very uncomfortable, almost uninhabitable.

4. Why there is no sur-veigh made & taken of both the Towns with y^e lands belonging to them, and why those that have built upon the Hono^{ble}: Comp^a: ground do not pay any acknowledgement, not a pepper corn for the ground their houses stand upon, nor have Leases wth: Covenants to maintaine &c: and why no
Register of the names of the Tennants and Inhabitants aforesaid.

The Portuguez &c: invited as they were, settled, usefull & disarmed [as the] Inhabitants are, and the Sould^{rs}: out of office, and so firme a peace [as] between our Princes, wth: so great a dependance as they have on us [more] then on all other Europe Nations in India, we humbly conceive [this] may be suspended untill some just occasion of jealousies at home or here, Besides that the great number is not of any single nation, but [of] Topasses, Mestizos, &c: Converts, and now many Natives of this place having no other country but this

[And] whiles the ffrench have no settlem^t: near hand, the keeping ffrench [Pa]dres here in stead of Portugues destroys the encroaching growth of the Portugall interest, who used to entail Portugalisme, as well as Christianity on all their Converts.

6

The English who are in the Gulconda, Visiapores, & Moghuls services [are] severall, but generally dissolute, hard to reclaym & less worth it, except one Christop^r: Wilkins sent hence long since by order of the Agent &c then being, along with the Ordnance, w^{ch}: the Hon^{ble}: Comp^a: was necessitated to lend the King of Gulconda, w^{ch}: C. W is by report a very good man, and it were very desirable that he could gett free, to come and end his daies amongst his countrymen.

Here are no bad debts in neither of these 2 last Agencies, all that are upon acco^t: were made before that the Investm^{ts}: were undertaken by Timona & Verona, in times of much less troubles then Since have been, so the Hon^{ble}: Comp^a: may observe the difference of dealing with their Merchants joynly or severally.

It were requisit the Hon^{ble}: Comp^a: would order the writing of those debts off by Acco^t: Curr^t: to proffit and loss being wholly desperate.

As to the particulars relating to M^r: Clavell the Agent and Councell doe humbly conceive

1. That a Chief has authority by the Charter to administer an Oath in matters of abuses and injuys to the Hon^{ble}: Comp^a: as more at large in the said Charter.

2. As to the enordering the execution of the said authority he has the same order there that we have here, and as to what may depend on us, the Agent and Councell in their Generall letter along wth: Major Puckle will confirme the Hon^{ble}: Comp^a: orders relating to his Commission, as amply and fully as shall be found proper for them to doe

5. Whither is it safe or convenient that considering about half the Souldiers of the ffort are Portuguezes, and more then half the Inhabitants of the new Town are Portuguezes, and they now have two churcheshigh unto the ffort where some thousands meet every weeke (besides French) that the said Inhabitants should be permitted to dwell in said Town.

6. Whether any of the Hon^{ble}: Comp^a: Servants be entred into the Mores Service. how to gett them off.

7. Whether any had Debts, and what they are, and by whom.

It's further desired that you resolve.

Whether M^r: Clavell Chief in the Bay hath power to administer Oaths.

If he hath, that he be there enordered not to neglect or refuse the same to all such as shall voluntarily offer themselves or be produced on behalf of the Hon^{ble}: Comp^a:

Wherein and how M^r: Clavell hath vindicated himself from those matters

The matters objected to M^r. Walter Clavell as we have received them we have transmitted them to the Hon^{ble}: Comp^a: as they stand upon record in the ffort bookes, who having now appointed Major Puckle to goe down & examine them, the Agent and Councell do neither take upon them to acquit or condemne but wholly leave it to y^e Majors examination, whose Commission shall be amply confirmed in the ffort Generall along with him, not finding anything therein of misusing their Cash or pressing danger requiring a more hasty proceeding.

Here follows the relation aforementioned concerning our business with the Mores.

Translate of the discourse the Muzumd^r. or the Kings Controller of Armogon and the Governour of Chickracodys country privately acquainted Cassa Verona of what they lately heard Poddela Lingapa the great Governour of Ponemolys country, speaking one day since he came last from Gulconda to his great persons about him concerning his coming the first time to the said Governm^t: of what he the said Lingapa had acquainted the kings great Bramany Pollepelly Yengana at Gulconda, and his answer to him concerning the English and the Town of Chinnapatnam.

That Poddela Lingapa when he came the first time to the Governm^t: of Ponemolys country, he went to visit the Dutch at Poliacat who made him very wellcome, and gave him a Horse & other presents, that the like did him the chief of Sadrasspatam, who gave him a Gold chaine wth: some other presents, moreover the people of this country according to their abillitys gave him mony with other presents, the said Poddela Lingapa acquainting Pollepelly Yengana of these things, he questioned what the English had given him, therefore s^d Lingapa said that he carryed a Tasheriff to the English and they would not accept of it, neither did they invite him, or desire to come to their Town, despising him, and that Cassa Verona having farmed some Towns, and finding the unkindness by the English, he put a stop to good part of his trade, and Towns, whereupon Verona himself came to him and giving him good words likewise gave him a gold chain vallued at pag^{os}: 400, and having mett with so much unkindness from the English he found small encourragem^t: to goe to see them but sent them their Phirmaund by his people w^{ch}: he intended to carry himself, they gave his s^d. people some Broad Cloth and Looking Glasses but nothing els, to w^{ch}: the s^d. Polepelly Yengana answered that it was true the English are a scornfull people & have the governm^t: of a Town w^{ch}: produces great summes of mony, formerly the Nabob Necknam Cawn unadvisedly and foolishly let them have a Town that yearly yeilds severall thousand pag^{os}: for the rent of pag^{os}: 1200 P^r Anⁿ. and that he wondered the said Governour of Ponemoly would suffer y^e English to have the s^d. Town on that score, and that he did not keepe an Avaldar there, to w^{ch}: the said Lingapa said the English would not be kept under by him, for if he send any of the Divans Corne to Chinapatnam they make it pay custome to w^{ch}: the said Yengana replied, that the Cowle the said Necknam Cawn gave and the late kings confirmation to it, ended with them, and that to morrow he would goe to the king and prevaile wth: him to send a Persian to be over Chinnapatnam, who accordingly went acquainting him of the above-mentioned particulars, and that unless he send an Avaldar to Chinapatnam, business there would goe on but badly to w^{ch}: the king answered, that now he was going towards Metchlep^m: and that at his return he would consider of it, and the great persons that were then present wth: the king said, that since S^t. Thoma was disinhabited, Chinnapatnam is much enlarged, and that there was much trading there, that it was much before Paliacat, and that the king would do well to take some course or other concerning it.

These Proposals or Queres aforesaid were delivered in by Major W^m. Puckle to y^e Agent and Councell and by them answered as in margent.

Upon a proposall from Major Puckle hereunder written the Gov^r: and Councell have resolved that it is very expedient for the two companys here in Garrison to be compleated with such Officers [as are yet wanting] v^z: y^e Gov^r: own company to have a Cap^t: Lieuten^t an Ensigne & a bringer up and the second Company a Cap^t, a Lieuten^t and an Ensigne but without encrease of pay, untill they have the Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as}: allowance for it, to whom the credittableness, use, and necessity hereof to be represented by y^e next shippes, submitting to there determination.

The uncertainty of the affayres of Europe, the inconsiderate, and insatiate avarice of the Bramany governm^t at Gulconda, allwayes craving, with the requiring the greatest care to keepe all things in a posture both for defence & recruits if need be, although as to the charge it Self, the Gov^r: and Councell will be as frugall and sparing as the times will permitt, in order whereunto, the said two Companys to be limited to eighty men each, below Sergeants, the Drummers not reckoned unless more cause hereafter to augment the same, w^{ch}: how soon we know not, many evill symptoms allready appearing, as the late insults of the woodmen about Cangiawarram & Saddrasspatnam it being hard to say whether the governm^t: does most become Injurious or Contemptible.

And accordingly the Chief Officers were acquainted with this their deliberation, and they having imparted it to the rest, they all acquiesce therein with thanks.

It is likewise assented that three Writers, Elihu Yale, Vincent Sayon and Richard Brown shall goe down wth: Major Puckle for his assistance in the Bay, according to his desire hereunder, and to the end that nothing may be wanting w^{ch}: this Agency can contribute to his furtherance & assistance in his weighty employment.

And Mr. Clavell representing to the said Gov^r. and Councell a great want of Englishmen for the Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as}: Vessells in the Bay, they have likewise given leave for Six men of this Garrison hereunder written, Such as he has found fittest for their Service, doe lay down their armes and goe along with him, and one Throwster likewise desired for their Silk business at Cassumbazar, as also on his request, One Drum, Tenn fire lock Musketts, and the Bell hitherto used in this ffort, the Bell for the use and conveniency of their ffactory of Ballasor, and more orderly observance of the howers of Prayers, meales and of retirement, the Drum and Armes for both ffactorys and Vessells as occasion shall require. The said Bell being too little for

Hono^{ble}: Sir

Having viewed the severall Stores of Ammunition in the ffort (according to your appointm^t:) am very much pleased with the orderly dispose of them, and their readiness for use if any suddain occasion should present (w^{ch}: God forbid) I have had it much in my thoughts to offer to consideration what might be of encouragem^t: to all your English Souldiers to be diligent and studious in the exercise of armes.

That whereas it is the common principle of Souldiers to fight for honour, and observing the height of attaynm^t: in your Service Military is the Office of a Lieuten^t: and you having two compleat Companies wth: two Lieuten^{ts}: (w^{ch} is not usuall) nor known that ever I heard or read. The youngest Lieuten^t: to be Cap^t: Lieuten^t: and appoint him a bringer up & Ensign, w^{ch}: will render them compleat Companies, and be for the honour of the Hono^{ble}: East India Comp^a: whom they serve.

Cassa Verona &c^a. acceptance of the contract translated from Gentu.

We underwritten in the name and in the behalf of ourselves our Partners, heires and Executors and Administrators, joyntly and severally doe hereby accept of the Broad Cloth and Cloth Rashes at the prices and termes aforesaid.

We doe also as aforesaid oblige to provide the aforementioned quantitys of Callicos to be all ready for these ships by the [5] January next at the prices and goodness settled the 29 Septemb^r. 1674 and ever since continued according to the Musters, and if Cotton comes in timely, we doe likewise promise to use our utmost endeavours to provide the full complement as aforesaid, allwayes provided that y^e Agent doe continue the usuall custome of delivering out monys unto us aforehand as freely as heretofore, w^{ch}. we shall call for as we use to doe as fast as we can distribute it about the country, and without w^{ch}. we shall not undertake, as also conditionally that our usuall freedoms and priviledges as to the customes in and out be preserved unto us, upon w^{ch}. encouragement and the good repute of the English Nation keeping their words to all persons, We having at first repaired to this place and applied ourselves to deal with the Hon^{ble}. Comp^a. and the same being allowed unto us by the Mores before the Cowle was granted, and w^{ch}. Cowle Cassa Verona is bold to say was in great part obtained by his interest and merits with the late Nabob, we hope the Hon^{ble}. Comp^a. (who have since farmed the customes by the said Cowll as they were long before established, the Divan pretending that all encrease must be the Kings) will not goe about to infringe, for if such a thing should happen, people would not know what ground they stand upon all w^{ch}. things we find ourselves obliged thus to provide for with greater caution then heretofore, finding so great an inclination of late in some to 'ake all advantages upon us, and to wrest all things to the worst sense.

The Agent and Councell doe agree and confirme the sale of Broad Cloth and Cloth Rashes, and the contract of Cassa Verona &c: Merchants as aforesaid, not being able to gaine more upon them, the business of the customes being allready written about to the Hono^{ble}. The Agent and Councell having taken into their consideration, the proposition of the Warehousekeeper, concerning the quality of the Sallampores N^o. 6. 7. 8. & 17. 18. 19. 20 and the Section N^o. 43 in the Hono^{ble}. Comp^{as}. letter of 24 Decemb^r. last, w^{ch}. blames the thinness, and the not close struckness of them, but gives no possitive order for better or none, nor for rise of price to mend them; and we having done what lyes in us to bring up the Merchants to better the sorts ; and even to procure spinsters from Maysour side, to send to Visapour side ; to introduce a stronger sort of thrid ; if the different quality of the wooll be not y^e impediment ; but all hithe[r]to in vaine : they possitively replying that they cannot undertake it, unless upon a great difference of price they should make quite other sorts w^{ch}. would be very difficult to bring about ; and that in very small quantities ; and they appearing to be so hard driven allready by the stricktness of the sorting, and other difficultys, that we have not been able to gett them to underwrite for above half the quantitys ; who declare that if we will not take them we may lett them alone, for they can do no better, se[em]ing as if they will hardly be brought to deale with us any more if we hold on in this manner. All that they seeme concerned for as to these sorts w^{ch}. they buy about Carreda is, that it is the only meanes they have to help off the Hono^{ble}. Comp^{as}. Europe goods.

The Agent and Councell are in great straights what to doe betweene the danger of yet greater disappointments of the Hono^{ble} : Comp^{as} : returnes, and dead freight ; and hardness of their dealings with ourSelves, every yeare encreasing ; instead of accepting of our endeavours in good part, taking all things in the worst sense, and excepting at all that we can do for them. The Agent S^r. William Langhorn finding himself charged by the Auditour with receiving pag^{os}. twenty thousand yearly of the Hono^{ble}. Comp^{as} Merchants Cassa Verona to bribe his favour to them in their business with the said Company in prices of goods bought and sould, in sorting, in Time or manner of payments, or other Clandestine wayes, and that the Auditor having received this from the malicious, but ungrounded reports of people, whose miscarryages resent the Agents stricktness for the Hon^{ble}. Comp^{as}. Interest, the said Auditour seekes to prove and fasten it upon the said Agent by many false allegations in his paper of Exceptions, all whose absurdity and falshood is abboundantly made out in the Ag^t. and Councells answers thereunto, w^{ch}. notwithstanding for the greater certainty and vindication of them or him, who shall be found to hav[e] received the wrong, the said Agent did require the rest of the Councell in the name and behalf of the Hon^{ble}. Comp^a. strictly to examine the said Cassa Verona himself thereabouts, the said Agent mean while withdrawing from the Councell Chamber, according to the instructions of the Hon^{ble}. Comp^a. to Major Puckle when any of the Councell concerned. w^{ch}. words, although strictly taken, may not seeme to include the Agent, yet he was contented not to take the advantage of any priviledge w^{ch}. that might give him in his case.

And accordingly the Councell did require the said Cassa Verona to declare the Truth of the said charge or imputation as to the said yearely allowance; or any greater or lesser summe, in what manne[r]soever, paid or to be paid to the said Agent, or any for him, by the said Cassa Verona or any for him, for any such Clandestine or fraudulent purpose as aforesaid, or whither any such thing was ever required or proposed to him or any for him, by the said Agent, or any for him either directly or indirectly.

To all w^{ch}. the said Cassa Verona answered, that the whole charg[e] and imputation is utterly fals, and the same in every part of it, and a meere slaunder, and expressed very much trouble of mind for the Hon^{ble}. Comp^{as}. hard thoughts, and hard dealings with him, in this and other particulars; Saying that although his dealing wth them be that of a free Merchant, and no Servant of theirs, who having performed his contracts has no further obligation nor tyes upon him yet the spreading of such slaunderous reports is a very great injury and dishonour unto him, and so he cannot choose but understand it, and whereas his Credit and good name is more deare and more important to him, then either his Estate or life, should such slaunders once be noysed abroad, it would not only be unfitt for him to continue any longer here. but if he should sett down under so great a defamation, it would so ruine his reputation that it would destroy all his interest in the country, and incapacitate him from carrying on either their traffiq or his own. Much more he said upon this subject, and upon the detaining of his pagodas Nine thousand and Interest; w^{ch}. he desiring leave to put into writing, we shall referr thereunto. all which, the Agent being desired to come in againe was imparted to him and registred accordingly.

Whereas the Councell of ffort S^t. George in the name of the Hon^{ble}: Comp^a: have required of me Cassa Verona to declare the truth, whither the Agent S^r. W^m. Langhorn or any for him hath never demanded nor receed: any such sume or sumes: of mony as aforesaid of me, or any for me, nor have I said Cassa Verona or any for me ever offered or proposed any such thing, nor did I ever observe ought in his carryage w^{ch}: could encourage me thereto if I myself had been so minded, who do scorne and abhor any such thoughts, having allwayes stood more upon the hono[r] and conscienciousness of my word and dealings then any profit thereby, w^{ch}: all the country knowes how charitably I dispose of it. Besides it is not of late only that I begin to trade with the Hono^{ble}: Comp^a: neither have my dealings been in private, but openly and publickly, and truly after so many good offices as I have done them all along, I have not deserved such dishonourable thoughts, as to think that I should goe about to corrupt their servants, or doe anything unworthy of that reputation w^{ch}: all my actions have acquired in all these countrys; the w^{ch} how deare it is to me lett them who have gone through such business as I have done and are as well known in their own and other countrys, judge by their own resentm^t you cannot choose but observe the charge and trouble I am at in providing the Callicos from within the country on purpose to comply wth: my promise and agreement, endeavouring all my utmost to give content, and the Hono^{ble}: Comp^a hath not as yet paid me the pag^{es}: 9000 and odd, w^{ch}: with the 13 yeares interest for the said summe at this country interest amounts together to a very great summe, w^{ch}: I have demanded every time I made any agreement for Callicos for the Hono^{ble}: Comp^a: with their Agents and Councell from Sr^r Edward Winters time till this present, they allwayes replyed they had wrote to y^e Hono^{ble}: Comp^a: and would procure order to pay me, but they never did, I doe still take great deale of paines for them, and their Towne, so you would please to keepe your love towards me, and to gett the said mony to be paid me without fayle.

Cap^t. Matthew Croner Commander of the ship Mary having this day delivered a protest to the Agent and Councell, for noncompliance with the Charty Party, made betweene y^e Hono^{ble}: Comp^a: and himself &c: Owners, as to the Kintalladge.

The Agent and Councill hereupon perused the Hon^{ble}: Comp^{as}: orders in their letter of 24 Decemb^r: last, and find that in Section N^o. 64, they enorder the said ship to be dispatched for Bantam with a cargo of goods to the vallue of pounds Tenn or Twelve thousand, proper for that marktett, according to such advices, as we shall receive from thence; & as much as she can carry besides in Saltpeter, their other letter of 17th: August 1674 and 24 January last this yeare received, adding nothing thereunto.

That we have no Saltpeter, the Hon^{ble}: Comp^a: may rationally conclude, from their own letter of 23 Decemb^r: 1674 Section 28, advising their over tonnage, entertayned that yeare: It not being likely that we should wittingly expose them to dead freight at hand, for kintallage Rem^{ote}: The Certainty they will have by the return of those very ships; w^{ch}: carried away all the Peter old and new; the Coast sort being expressly forbidden by theirs of 17 August 1674 Section 3, with others precedent. And no order for other kintallage.

The Bantam letters of 17 May & 18 July last to w^{ch}: we are referred as above, do say indeed that the last cargo hence by the Bombayn (in w^{ch}: was some Reddwood) was properer for them then those of former yeares, (w^{ch}: might well be, and yet some things amiss) but descending to particulars desire none of it.

The Charty Party as the Cap^t pleads, undertakes for kintallage; w^{ch}: we hope the Hon^{ble}: Comp^a: will have otherwayes secured; whose orders and instructions we must follow; having often wrote them of y^e necessity of standing and provisionall orders on all disappointments, but as yet they have not thought fitt to take any notice thereof.

So that having no Petre to lade, we have only to apply our Selves to compleate the remainder of her cargo, according to the aforesaid directions, and keepe to orders, as neare as we can; praying God to order all things for the best.

At a Consultation now held, was taken into consideration what our Bramany Yena Virago has often wrote from Gulconda, about that Kings desire of 1000 yards of Broad Cloth for a Tent, he not being contented with the present sent him last yeare, and beginning to refuse observance of the old Nabobs Cowle unless the Hon^{ble}: Comp^a: will gratify him therein, meanwhile his Bramanys and others who govern these Countrys have been a great while studying to do the Hon^{ble}: Comp^a: all the prejudices that they can and to cavill at the said Cowle, labouring to bring this their place into y^e same condition as Paliacat, and to force it to receive the Kings Paddy at his own extorsive rates; as a beginning of Evills more to follow, w^{ch}: we having long wrote up about and yet got no remedy, and still in danger to have all trading for Callicos &c: interdicted as well as Corn Paddy &c: w^{ch}: hath now been stopped these severall Months, and what other prejudice or extremity they can bethink themselves of, and we having long considered the same, and finding no other remedy, the Hon^{ble}: Camp^{as}: orders allowing no making warr with them, nor indeed having any force wherewith all; but requiring, that things be still amicably composed, either with the Governours near hand, or if that not feasible then above at the Divan. It is resolved to be for the Hon^{ble}: Comp^{as}: Interest & service, and of necessity, that we enorder our said Bramany to do what he can to content his Highness, as farr as 600 yards of Broad Cloth, and what needfull gratuities to the great people about him, but withall to obtain a new Royall confirmation of the said Coult by his own express Phirmand, and as good conditions besides as he can vz^t for our Egybs near access to the Throne on all occasions of complaynts; whereof we are sensible of a great want since his fathers decease, & Madanas new greatness; Also handsome returns of presents, without w^{ch}: the Comp^{as}: honour & repute so essentiall amongst these ostentatious people, will be but ill consulted.

Resolved likewise that the pagodas one hundred and twenty which Yeana Veaneataputty disboursd in Novemb^r & Decemb^r 1674, by order from the Agent, with our assent, for the Phirmaunds then taken out, for Metchlep^m: Country; and with Graff words for the whole Kingdome; be imboursd unto Yeana Virago by Cassa Verona, and made good to him on the Hon^{ble}: Comp^{as}: accompt, but no Interest, w^{ch}: was occasioned by some neglect of Verona, who had then order to have paid it him, but forgott it, so the Interest not fitt to be charged upon the Hon^{ble}: Comp^{as}:; we being ready to have paid it for them on first advice.

Resolved likewise upon the earnest request of the Nabob Meirza Mahmud Hibrahim, w^{ch}: from such are commands, that the pagodas twelve hundred the Town rent due the 1st June next 1677 be sent up to our Bramany Yeana Virago to be paid to the said Nabob, ordering him to take good acquittances for past and present, and to engage the said Nabob to give his protection to the Hon^{ble}: Comp^{as}: business, in this time of so much disturbance, by meanes of Lingapa and his Master Pollipely Veangana &c: Maddanas Creatures.

Mr. Edward Herrys Warehousekeeper being doubtfull how to proceed as to the sorting of the Callicoes in regard that the Hon^{ble}: Comp^{as}: in severall letters are still blaming of the thinness and contents thereof, and particularly in the 43 Section of their last letter of 24 Decemb^r 1675 as to the Sallampores N^o. 6. 7. 8. & 17. 18. 19 & 20 the Agent and Councell having perused the Hon^{ble}: Comp^{as}: letters, do find the thinness and want of close sticking of the said Sallampores therein objected against, but no direction or order thereupon, what to do if we cannot get them better made; and in regard that the difficultys about the Callicoes instead of lessning do rather increase, the Merchants declaring that they cannot undertake to better them, though price were raised, finer they can but not thicker; in so much that we neither can prevail with the Merchants to undertake the desired quantities, nor have they yet been able to make any considerable progress therein in so much that we find we are like to be very short in this yeares returns; although no want on our part, of soliciting, entreaty, and encouraging them, by our forwardness in disboursing mony to them, as fast as they can tell how to lay it out. It is resolved that we are not to stop our hands upon such an objection without other order in the case; but to enorder the Podala Lingapa by his last yeares extorsions having gained a great increase of authority over all the countrys hereabouts from Armagon to the borders of Visapour, and orders to gather up all the Souldiery therein to compell the Naigues of the wood Countrys to a contribution, he makes use of the opportunity to distress us, thereby to inforce a submission, and breach of our Cowl and that we shall have no other Pady &c: Corn but his, at what extravagant Rates he pleases; a ground of continual Piscashes: as likewise to extort a loan of pag^{os}: tenn thousand upon the neighbouring Revenues of Pady, w^{ch}: being formerly a very sure assignation, as these juggling Bramanys contrive it, is now grown a meer cheat, for by removing the person who took up the mony, they avoyd the obligation, and put folks to seeke for their mony where they can get it. Which being of so great consequence and ill Precedents, we have long wrote up to the Divan for Relief, but as yet no remedy: though many fair promises, as now particularly upon the receipt of the Broad Cloth required for the King's Tent; meanwhile not to be surprised at too much disadvantage, we do find it to be absolutely necessary that we list 100 Souldiers and 150 Peons more then already in pay as fast as we can meet with them to inforce our In and out Guards, and to fetch in provisions &c: as opportunities present.

Resolved likewise that we give order for the vallue of pagodas one thousand in Pady and other sorts of grain and wood for fewell to be sent us from Metchlep^m: either by the ships or other vessells, it being not safe to trust to the deceitfull expectations of remedy from Gulconda, long promised but strangely delayed. Lingapa and the Bramanys about the King being so combined, that it is very likely they have some designe in it, to put by our supplying the Place from other parts, and try what necessitys they can cajolle us into, w^{ch}: quantitys to be encreased, if we have not speedy relief from Gulconda, nor to loose the opportunity of the remaining Monsoon.

And the said new levyes to be kept up untill we see cause to depend upon more just dealing then we have yet mett with since this Bramany government of Madana and his complices, with whom neither promises Cowls nor Phirmaunds doe appeare to be of any validity; they minding nothing but Interest and advantages, so that if we should discard them before such time, we may probably be to seek for them in time of need, as we now find by experience, both souldiers and peons, such as we should have coming in very slowly, saying they do not like entring into pay on present necessity and danger, and then to be discarded as formerly as soon as that seemes to be over, and here being not that choice we have in Europe, where if one will not another will;

The Agent and Councell finding the Hon^{ble}: Comp^a: are like to be very much disappointed in the quantity of their Returnes from hence this yeare, and that in their letter of 24 Decemb^r: 1675 Sect^a: 46 they direct in these words. And if you do send more of any sorts then ordered, let it be of those sorts that you judge may turn best to accompt. concerning w^{ch}: in the same section they blame us for sending them the former yeare less of those sorts that are more desirable, which the 44 Section of the same letter explaines to be ordinary Long cloth & Sallampores, and fine Sallampores Betteellas, whereupon it is resolved that the Merchants be solicited to bring in all that they can of any of those sorts, although more then ordered as aforesaid, and that M^r. Herryss the Warehousekeeper do receive them accordingly.

The Agent and Councell finding a very great dead freight falling upon the Hon^{ble}: Comp^a: in these ships now bound home, and desirous to do what lyes in them to save them some part thereof, especially there remaining yet 82: Candy of

The Chief and ffactors in the Bay after that $\frac{1}{2}$ theirs 16 June 1675 and letters following upon a letter procured to be sent down by their Vaquil to y^e Nabob at Pattana, and a promise from the Nabob at Decca upon their addresses unto him, to have their Phirwanna renewed, y^e Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as}: affair's did seem to afford a quiet prospective, best agreeing with their orders of 3^d Decemb^r: 1674, and 13 March preceeding, do now write us first by theirs 18 Octob^r: last from M^r. Master &c: Councell referring to his own further enquiry and Information, and since by theirs of 19 & 31 Decemb^r: following, the former advising y^e issuing out an order for the Hono^{ble}: Comp^a: to pay custome upon all goods bought and sould, the latter, the putting the same in execution by fetching away their boats from their Wharfs, and seizing others com[ing] downe the upland countrys, to y^e great hindrance of their [in]tended returns by these ships, and w^{ch}: M^r. Master now returned confirms, adding that the Nabob pretends to looke backwards and demaund the same for twenty yeares past, and besides all this an old pretence of one desoto a Portuguez for about Rup^s: 5300 :—: a debt in Persia about M^r Youngs time, w^{ch}: for the ill consequence of it for past and future of many other like pretences of farr greater summs has already cost the Hono^{ble}: Comp^a: about Rup^s: 9000 at Decca, both w^{ch}: pretences of customes in arreares and perticular men's debts if not overruled would swallow up a whole yeares stock, and force them to leave off the trade, in so much that it is absolutely necessary to procure a new Phirmaund to remedy these abuses, either by sending to Agra or some other way, all w^{ch}: the Agent and Councell having taken into their consideration, and finding no other remedy nor meanes to obtain the said Phirmaund, in regard that the Præsident^{cy}: of Surratt pay custome allready, and this Coast is so remote under another king, and of difficult corresponding, and transactions of Court being to be followed close and timed and struck while the Iron is hott, and ill admitting of delays, they do resolve that it is for the Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as}: Service and of urgent necessity that they do speedily give order unto M^r. Walter Clavell Chief &c: Councell in the Bay to take y^e best course they can to procure a Phirmaund from the Moghull, and that they take care y^e business be well mannaged with all frugallity, & that it may answer the end by obtaining an effectuall Phirmaund & priviledges for the future security, and encourragem^t: of their Trade and if convenient for the suppressing of the aforesaid and all other pretences against them for the Past.

The result of Council of M^r. Master M^r. Clavell &c : Factors in the Bay against the settling or entrusting Joseph Hall and John Smith in the Chiefship at Decca, and Secondship at Pattana was then taken into consideration, w^{ch} : considering the authority vested in M^r. Mast[er] and the regularity of his proceedings remains for the Hono^{ble} : Comp^a : to determine, w^{ch} : being so it is resolved that the Agent & Councell shall give order to y^e Bay that due care be taken by needfull assistance for the carrying on of the Hono^{ble} : Comp^a : business in those parts untill further order.

It is resolved to list what Christian Souldiers we can gett as farr as fifty, and what Peons as farr as 100, the former with our Auxillyarys to strengthen our Outguards, the latter chiefly to send up and down, to the severall quarters of his army to observe his motion, and to attend our Bramany for the better obtaining of intelligences, and prevention of surprisalls.

As likewise to make two large Tents for shelter of our outguard when upon duty abroad at the passages & foords of the River, having found the want of them in our late troubles. And this to be done with all possible expedition.

And according as Sevagee disposes of his forces, his designs being doubted to reach further then as yet pretended, we shall govern our selves thereafter.

The Agent and Councell being in Consultation in order to y^e settlem^t: of Metchlep^m: ffactory, and finding the difficultys still continue w^{ch}: have hitherto hindred it, as particularly the jarrings & differences amongst the Commiss^{rs}: and charge against M^r: Matthew Manwaring who stands first in Rank for preferment, the latter now more expressly insisted upon by the Hono^{ble}: Comp^a: themselves in theirs 15th: Decemb^r: last wth: reflexions thereon both against him. and against the Agent and Councell themselves upon his score, as also a charge against M^r: Geo: Chamberlain; In so much that y^e Agent and Councell do find themselves unable for the present to come to any resolution as to y^e settling a chief and Councell at Metchlep^m: and finding that y^e great^{est} part if not all the Investments so strictly encharged by the Hono^{ble}: Comp^a: may be as well made at Madapollam as at Metchlep^m: at w^{ch}: latter not any of the goods are made, whereas Madapollam lyes amongst the Weavers, being indeed the only ffactory the Hono^{ble}: Comp^a: hath that is so well seated; wherein M^r: Christopher Hatton is already settled Chief, M^r: John Tivill Second, and M^r: Maurice Wynn third of Councell; and to take care for the well sorting of the Callicos, who have already delivered out all the mony remaining in Cash since last ships, as was sent to them for that purpose; It is resolved that seing we cannot yet come to a resolution as to the Form vz^t: the Chief and Councell at Metchlepatam, that the best and most effectuell course, which we can take for the promoting and carrying on of their Investments which is the Matter, in regard of the so long continuing differences at Metchlep^m; charges against some of them, and difficulty of proof and decision at this distance &c: aforesaid, is this, that we settle M^r: John ffield according to his Rank w^{ch}: the Hono^{ble}: Comp^a: have now restored him, and upon the precedency which that gives him, one of the Councell at Metchlep^m: and to take charge of the Pursers Employment now in the hands of M^r: Joseph Arnold; and that we do consign the Treasure for that ffactory unto M^r: Matthew Mainwaring, M^r: Christopher Hatton &c: Commissioners at Metchlepatam, to be forthwith delivered to M^r: Christopher Hatton, to be invested at Maddapollam by him and Councell there according to our orders.

The sortment of Callicos as ffort Grañ to Metchlep^m: of 18th: Curr^t: was then likewise computed as hereunder.

And it is now resolved to [a word not clear] twelve Chists of Silver from the New London to the Cesar for the Bay for their more present supply, whiles the New London tarryes behind to carry the remainder of the Metchlepatam Stock.

The Hono^{ble}: Comp^a: having been pleased to appoint freights to be paid between the Coast and Bay vz^t: thirty shillings p ton thither and three pound p Ton back. this is resolved to be for their Serv^{ts}: and freemen, strangers as in practice at home, to pay double the rate, and for their passage five pagodas a head.

Also Strangers to pay half these rates between this and Metchlep^m: And as^r to the Hon^{ble}: Comp^{as}: Servants, the freight between this & Metchlep^m: being of small benefitt, and yet some encouragement to this their own port, is referred to their pleasure.

Upon advice from y^e Commiss^{rs}: at Metchlep^m: of 23th: July wth: Consultation of y^e same date, mentioning a demand of Aga Gilloll Gov^r: of Metchlep^m: for about pag^{os}: 550 owing to him from the deceased Robert Fleetwood, & claymed out of the sale of the said Robert fleetwoods half of shipp Recovery sould for pag^{os}: two thousand, it is resolved that it is for the Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as}: Service that the said debt be paid unto him by the Commiss^{rs}: at Metchlep^m: out of the Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as}: Estate in their hands, in regard that if it should not be complied with, the said Aga Gilloll might do much mischief to the Hono^{ble}: Comp^a: and not only hinder their business in all places under his government, as well at Maddapollam as Metchlep^m: especially now in the propper Season for their this yeares Investments. but stirr up many other pretences & trouble w^{ch}: might be of much greater prejudice to their affaires, and therefore that the Agent and Councell shall forthwith write to the said Commiss^{rs}: to give the said Aga Gilloll content as to y^e said Debt of M^r: fleetwoods they receiving his acco^t: and discharge for the same, with the Widdow fleetwoods allowance, and order for the payment, and that it be done in very friendly manner, we being very sensible of the power the said Governour has to do well or ill, and how civilly he has made use thereof, but with all that the said Commiss^{rs}: shall so order it, as farr as they shall be able. that it may be no precedent for the future for the paying of Englishmens debts out of the Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as}: Estate.

FORT S^t. GEORGE THE 13TH. AUGUST 1677.

We underwritten having at y^e Agents request taken a view of the outworkes of y^e Christian Town, and thereupon conferred wth: the said Agent and Councell, do altogather conclude that it is indispensably necessary for the defence & safety of the place in thes troublesome times to build a new Point at the N.W. part of y^e said Town towards the River, and that y^e manner as y^e foundations are allready diggd & begun is very well designed, scouring as well alongst the River as farr as the Round Point and over the Iland, as also to the Ditch and new bridg, & over all the Gentu Town, as also alongst the Bazar as farr as the Fishers Point to y^e Seaward, which part of the Christian Town where the said New Point is to be built appeares to be y^e weakest and most dangerous part of y^e Place, & most needing a good substantiall Point to defend the same.

And now that y^e Sea does gaine so strangely upon y^e Place to the Eastward all alongst y^e shoare, especially at y^e Fishers Point very much eaten away by the Sea, still deepning more & more upon the shoare, especially for these two last yeares, it is by all agreed to be so much the more necessary to build up y^e said new Point, and a Curtain also alongst the Bazar from Point to Point that there may be some strenght on that side of y^e Town to defend it, as likewise y^e Curtain to y^e Southward from y^e Round Point to S^t. Thomas Point, according to that part of it allready begun at y^e Round Point. The security of the Fort itself, and whole interest of the Hono^{ble}: Comp^a: the lives and libertys of all his Majestys Subjects in this place, depending on y^e safety and tenableness of the outworks, w^{ch}: are so near & close to y^e Fort, and no graft about it to fend off. And as to y^e repairing of the dammage done by the Sea against y^e fortifications to y^e Eastward, it will be time to consider when it will be seen what effect y^e fowl weather Season now drawing on shall have made against them, untill when we cannot properly resolve on anything as to this, unless in case of urgent necessity when some hasty workes must be cast up, either upon y^e breach to y^e Sea, or further Inland in way of retrenchment, as the present danger and condition of the said workes will allow, w^{ch} : may be of some use for y^e present, untill time and opportunity serve to make them substantially as they ought to be.

w^{ch}: they will do their endeavour to bring in in good time for the Europe ships what not in time to be for their accompts.

Upon condition that the Agent shall supply them with mony from time to time as fast as they shall require it, as has hitherto been constantly the practice with them, and as farr as we have heard everywhere els a little more or less.

This the Agent and Councell not finding how to do better at this time, for the service of the Hon^{ble}: Comp^a: have resolved to accept of and have accordingly agreed and settled the same with the said Cassa Verona and Company upon the termes aforesaid, encharging them to make all possible hast in the bringing in of the said Callicos, & also the 12,000 Dungarees, of w^{ch}: the prices to be made hereafter when the said Cassa Verona & Comp^a: Merchants shall have made their tryalls and computation how to be afforded.

The Agent and Councell did very much press the said Merchants to take off the rest of the Europe goods, or at least a greater proportion as also for abatements in prices of the Callicos aforesaid, & particularly the fine Sallampores, Percallaes & Dyapers at 20 $\mathcal{P}$ $\mathcal{O}$: cheaper as the Hon^{ble}: Comp^a: directs, but all to no purpose. They would not so much as consent that the Europe goods. sould them as $\mathcal{P}$ Consultation of 15th: February last should be all paid for in the Morees aforesaid, but that they should be paid for proportionably in Morees fine, Sallamp^{rs}: and Percallaes as $\mathcal{P}$ said Sortment, saying the goods were allready provided, and ought not to be now left on their hands.

Nor would they be brought to abate y^e quantity of ordinary Sallampores vz^t: 40000 $\mathcal{P}$ s bespoke them as $\mathcal{P}$ said Consultation of 15th: February to be made up in Long cloth, the Hon^{ble}: Comp^{as}: new sortm^t: since come requiring only $\mathcal{P}$ s 30000, alledging that y^e warres & troubles have hapned this yeare in those parts where the Long cloth is made, and therefore they would rather lessen then encrease the quantity of that sort. And that seing the Hon^{ble}: Comp^a: declines the fine sorts, they also must decline the buying such quantity of Europe goods as formerly, they having no other vent considerable for Europe goods unless in those parts where the said fine Callicos are made, and to be received in payment for the same. And that if the Hon^{ble}: Comp^a: will stand upon such abatements of prices for those fine sorts, that they must be fain to find out other wayes by Sea and land to clear their Godownes of those sorts, and what more they must still receive in returne of Europe goods still in great quantitys upon their hands, and appearing to be much out of heart upon the troubles and dangerous times, and the severity and stricktness of our dealing with them, as well in sorting as in sor[ts.]

Sevagee Rajia having sent the Agent a letter of 22th : Sept^r : last by two of his Spys, desiring us to supply him wth : Ingeniers, to w^{ch} : was returned him a civill excuse. It being wholly unfit for us to medle in it, there being many dangers consequent thereon, as well of encreasing his power, as of rendering both Golconda and the Moghull our Enemy, all these parts being spread with his Spyes, and himself and army, now come nearer this way, within two dayes march of this Place ; It is resolved to be indispensably necessary for the safety of this Place, and all therein, that we go on entertaining all the Christians that we can meet wth : into the Garrison, as far as to compleat the number of 250 effective for the present. as also that we hasten the bringing in of lime, brick and Stone, for the carrying on of the new Caldera Point, and building of y^e Curtain from thence to the Fishers Point Northw^d : as also from the Round Point, alias Charles's Point to S^t. Thomas Point Southward, both according to the Modell of that part already begun at the said Charles's Point, as already resolved on in Consultation of 13th : Augst : last, And now the more urgent in regard that the Curtain from the Gate by Sir Edward Winters, to the Choultry Gate towards the Bazar having leaned upon Buttresses for these seaven or Eight yeares in a tottering condition, is now falln down the 2^d of this Month after a great rayn, w^{ch} : it stands us upon to get up again as soon as we can to prevent any design of so evil a neighbour as Sevagee and other obstructions from the Divan, to the end that when we shall have materialls in readiness to carry on the said Curtain, it may stand good and joyne with the rest, and be so much mony in part, well spent, leaving combings for the well joyning of the walls each way.

And whereas the Mobordnys Sandapa, at Golconda has long put a stopp to the acquittances for the Town Rent to the Divan ever since June 1672 for want of his fees of [lacuna in the original] ₹ 0^o, and threatens to cross us in all our business there, as he did the late Phirmaund, untill promise of compliance from our Bramany. It is resolved that the Agent shall send up pag^{as} : one hundred and fifty to our said Bramany Egyb, Yeana Virago, with order to satisfy him out of the said mony by way of a gratuity, to avoyd making [a line and a quarter lost] now Agent and Councell of Bantam in theirs of [16th May] last write to us for 20 or 25 souldiers wth : a Corporall to be sent them from hence, w^{ch} : out of our great desire to contribute all that lay in us to the safety of the Hono^{ble} : Comp^{ys} : Estate and people there, we were listing for them out of the Christians here inhabiting. And that M^r. John Carpenter, and M^r. Richard Maples do certify us, that such are not for their turn, they having enough at Bantam, but that it is English men w^{ch} : they need, the Agent and Councell having taken the same into their consideration, do resolve that as things are in these Parts, it is not safe nor fitting for us to send away from hence any of our English here in Garrison, now in these times of so much danger to the Hono^{ble} : Comp^{ys} : great Estate ashoar, and to the lives of so many of his Majestys

Subjects here in their Service, w^{ch}: would not only weaken our small force, but disproportion our number in order to the further recruits w^{ch}: we are about, as fast as good men present.

It is not impossible but we might make a shift to pick up such a number of the worst of our English w^{ch}: would be very little missed but this were rather to mock then to assist, and would be a charge of two hundred and Sixty Dollars passage and as much provisions as unadvised as unwarranted by any orders from the Hon^{ble}: Comp^a: and to send good men, we cannot spare them as aforesaid.

The outward wall of the House in the ffort, being found to be very crazy and tottering through badness of the foundation, and many cracks more and more appearing therein, w^{ch}: upon surveigh by the chief Gunner and Ingenier of the Fort, W^m: Dixon, Muttamarra, the chief Carpenter, and Nallana y^e chief Bricklayer, has already obliged us to runn up two buttresses y^e last yeare to y^e North East, and one this yeare to the South West to support it, and these not suffising, it is found needfull to sett up one buttress more to y^e South West, one more to the North Wes[t] three more to y^e North East, and two or three Timbers to y^e South East, where the Jettyes hinder the joyning of Buttresses, to prevent if possible, the suddain falling of the said wall, and for security of the lives of the Agent and others of Councell, y^e Minister and Factors and Writers Inhabiting therein, w^{ch}: upon any great Storme of wind and rayn (very frequent in these parts) are in very great danger, the whole house rocking in a strange manner, and built of brick and playster without lime, the Agent & Councell being desirous to tarry if possible for leave from the Hon^{ble}: Comp^a: for the taking of it down, and new building it, the necessity whereof is to be represented to them by these letters.

The Chief and Councell of the Bay advising us in theirs of 26th: Novemb^r: that y^e Petre was all stopt and turn'd ashoar near Cassambazar, notwithstanding all endeavours to y^e contrary, and the boats pressed to carry up the old Nabob Shasta Cauns goods to Pattana; as all carryages by land and water were likewise served so that it is impossible to gett the said goods time enough down to go thence by the Europe shippis, they having no other remedy, but to send it down by Vessells after them to Madrass, the w^{ch}: the Agent and Councell taking into their consideration, & withall the Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as}: order to supply what goods the shippis could take in more in Long Cloth and Sallampores Ordinary, and looking upon the design to send the Petre after y^e shippis to be very improbable to arrive them here in time for them to take it in, considering the pressing orders of 15th: Decemb^r: 1676 & 7th: March last for their sending away wth: speed, both in regard of the Monsoon, and of the doubts of peace or warr in Europe. And computing the Tonnage of obligation by Charter Party to amount to about 250 tonns Kintallage, and the quantity of Petre reckoned upon, to about 11^h: 600, the remainder whereof being 11^h: 350 to be supplied here, for w^{ch}: we have no other direction but in Long Cloth & Sallampores Ordinary it is resolved to enorder the Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as}: Merchants to go providing all the Long cloth & Sallampores Ordinary that they can get to be brought in between this and the 20th: January next according to y^e Musters, and in order thereunto, the Merchants being sent for, and not willing to undertake for any certain quantity, only promising to get in all they could possibly, and the time growing short. It is resolved that the Agent should forthwith furnish them with pagodas tenn thousand for the present, and as much more as they shall desire hereafter upon that accompt, they to repay what shall not be complied with in the said limited time. The prices agreed to be the same as allready established in our Consultation of 21th: August last, which is understood to be brown, as has allways been the practice with them in our time.

Upon an advice from Thomas Brown the Pilott of the Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as}: Sloop Lilly from Bengalle of her being put to Leeward to Porto Novo with her Cargo of 200 baggs treble refined Saltpetre, and that he wants assistance of a litle mony, and somebody to look after her from the shoare. M^r: Edward Herrys having desired leave to go home by these shipp^s it is resolved that he deliver up his charge of the Warehouse unto M^r: John Bridger, and that M^r: John Bridger do deliver up his charge of Purser unto M^r: Jacob Smith.

Upon advice from M^r: Christopher Hatton of 31th: Decemb^r: that the shipp Bengale Merchant was arrived at Metchlep^m: that day, and brought news that the shipp^s had gotten all their Petre notwithstanding the late stopp by Shasta Caun, it was resolved to send immediately to the Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as}: Merchants to send up into y^e Country to put a stop to their buying of Ordinary Long Cloth and Sallamp^m: and the Councell being mett, and y^e Merchants come before them, the Agent and Councell confirmed the same unto them, and desired them if possible to put off what they had so bought again, to w^{ch}: they replied that they could not do that, but that they had sent about to forbid buying any more, whereupon it was resolved that M^r. Edw^d: Herrys the Warehousekeeper should go on sorting what should come in upon the late agreement of 21th: Decemb^r: last, that in case the shipp^s should be able to take in all or part thereof, it might be in a readyness to be laden, but that what the shipp^s should not have room for must remain for the next shipp^s.

THE 12 D^o:

Upon information from the Chief Gunner M^r: W^m: Dixon of the small quantity of Powder remaining in the fort being only Eleaven hundred weight, for want of a supply of Petre from the Bay of a long time, and of the deerness of that made of the Coast Petre; The times being now very unsettled, and an army of twelve thousand Horse besides Infantry expected suddainly to pass by towards Chengy to dispossess Sevagee Raja, who is likewise sending more forces for its defence. it is resolved to keepe the Petre, w^{ch}: comes by the Lilly Sloop, being only 150 baggs to make it up into powder for the safety of the ffort & ffactory.

The Macquaus having hitherto served the Hono^{ble}: Comp^a: at fan^{ms}: 3 & Mesullas lading of 6 bales, w^{ch}: requires 10 in 12 men, although from others in this place they have five fan^{ms}: of Madrass, and at Paliacat they have fan^{ms}: five, of 24 to the pag^o: w^{ch}: as they plead has put them very much upon stealing and filching whatsoever passeth through their hands. and upon running all away and leaving the place, and some quite forsaking it and setting els where, whereby the Hono^{ble}: Comp^a: have often been and are continually in danger of disappointment in the landing and shipping off of their goods, w^{ch}: requires all the hast that can be made, and they making their request the 7th: Curr^t: that the Hono^{ble}: Comp^a: would pay them fan^{ms}: 5 of Madrass & said Mesullas lading as others aforesaid. It is resolved to be for the service of the Hono^{ble}: Comp^a: to agree to allow them fan^{ms}: fower from this time forward upon condition that if any steal, that the head of the Cast shall make good the loss, or els deliver up the man to be transported to S^t. Hellena or els where as the Agent and Councell please, and that if they offer to run away as heretofore they shall become Slaves to be transported as aforesaid.

The Macquaus appeared satisfied herewth: but on the 10th: Curr^t: in the night they run all away carrying their Oars wth: them, whereupon the necessity of the present time enforcing, the Agent & Councell were fain to send after them to assure them fan^{ms}: 5 & p^oboat and pardon for y^e offenc[e] there being no other remedy nor possibillity of prevention, for if bigger guards were sett upon them it would but make them the more subtle in the attempt, and difficult to reclaym, as for their wives & children w^{ch}: were stopped they neither doubt our starving them nor much v^{al}ue it, prevailing upon our necessity, w^{ch}: they very well understand, and Cassa Verona being sent out to reclayn them, who were allready gott neer the Confines, he brought them in again this day upon the termes aforesaid.

Extract of a letter from M^r: Matthew Manwaring & M^r: George Chamberlain Dated the 21 Janua^{ry}: 1672

We are most heartily Sorry to tender a concern to your Serious consideration, w^{ch}: is so much dissatisfactory unto ourSelves, and we believe will be no less unto your worp^e: and if our Hono^{ble}: Employers interest, and our own reputation lay not at Stake we should be very cautious in the publishing, but since for the interest of the one (as we are bound in duty to prevent inconveniencies that may happen to their prejudice) soe likewise for the retaining the other it behoves us to be wary, w^{ch}: we hope your worp^e: will commit to a right construction.

We find him considerably indebted unto the Comp^a: on ballance of the Cash acco^t: w^{ch}: we conceive he must have imployed unto his peticular use, this we thought good to communicate unto your worp^e: that things ill mannaged might not be imputable to us that are unconcerned, the event of all w^{ch}: God knowes, but at present it appeares ill.

Attestation of M^r: Robert fleetwood Dated y^e 13 January 167 [one figure lost]

That Madala Condapa &c: the Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as}: Merchants being at my house in Nowrasporam did acquaint me to the best of my reme[m]brance that M^r: Mohun did owe them above pag^{os}: 4000.

That I have heard severall of the Comp^{as}: servants say, that their Sallary and Dyett mony was [lacuna in the original] to the Hono^{ble}: Comp^a: but not paid them.

That I have heard though I doe not remember from whom that M^r. Mohun did detain part of the Bramanies Dustore mony.

That Assinas debt was received is, evident by M^r. Mohuns Cash booke, it being therein new made received.

That I have heard that M^r. Mohun did pay out of the 11353 $\text{₹s } \frac{8}{8}$ of the Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as}: w^{ch}: we delivered him by M^r. George White, to some Merchants not the Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as}:; a part thereof.

That I have heard gennerally discourst that M^r. Mohun and those that out with him did want a dinner, and that the occasion thereof was his want of mony to provide it.

That the 2500 Rup^s. was ordered to be received in the Bay was true as appears by the bookes.

Also by the bookes it appears that 8000 R^{lis}. $\frac{8}{8}$ were sold at 5 : 6. y^e Ser

I have heard M^r. Chohnley affirme that he was told that the 156 half peeces of broad Cloth were sold for 25 pag^{os}: the halfe peece.

That he received of fiactory Maddapollam the 6 March according to the charge pag^{os}: 900 or thereabouts.

The 23 September according to the charge as the Dubash interpreted to me, Bengall Bobbo acquainted me, that M^r. Mohun had taken up of him in the Comp^{as}: name 2000 pag^{os}: worth of Sallamp^{as}: and Long cloth.

That M^r. Mohun did as I believe borrow mony of Mahmud Narzier and I do certainly know he did borrow of Meirjamall 4 or 5000 pag^{os}:

That M^r. Mohun has when displeas^d. threatned the ruine of severa[ll] men as I have been told.

That M^r. Mohun would not permitt me to send my Vessell to Peg[u] unless I would promise him a quarter part of her freight for permission, Also another vessell he would not permitt to goe her voyage unless I would consent to let his goods goe freight free on her, and notwithstanding that vessell bound for Pegu was lost, yet he charged me therewith in his accompt delivered me.

That M^r. Mohun did take into his sole possession all that belonged to M^{rs}. Langstone as I have heard.

That there has not been since M^r. Walcot went away as I know of either Secretary or office.

That M^r. Tivill and M^r. Wales signed a false attestation against [M^r.] Manwaring and when taxt with it pleaded it was done by a mist[ake.]

That M^r. Coleburn told me he put the Duroyen M^r. Manwar[ings] Suggars by M^r. Christopher Hattons order and directions.

AT A CONSULTATION IN EFFORT S^t: GEORGEY^e: 15TH: MAY 1676.*Being Present*S^r: W^m: LANGHORN Governor:

JOSEPH HYNMERSE:

EDWARD HERRYS:

JOHN BRIDGER:

TIM^o: WILKS:

JACOB SMITH:

Unto these—Interrogatorys: M^r: Chris^r: Hatton was Sworne &c^a:

What do you know concerning a consultation held by M^r: Richard Mohun Cheif at Metchlep^m: &c^a: ffactors at Gundour in or about Mareh 167³ and y^e: order given to M^r: George Chamberlain, for the buying of Callicoes for acco^t: of the East India Comp^a: to the value of Pag^{os}: Ten Thousand, what summe of money ought there then to have been, in M^r: Mohuns Custody, for the said Comp^{as}: acco^t: according to their Bookes, and was the said money, whether in Gold or silver, then really in his keeping? and how did you come to perceive y^e: want thereof? were the said Callicoes bought accordingly? were they bought with ready money, or at time, or trust? were yourself and other ffactor's of that Councell apprehensive of some trouble from y^e: Merchants in default of Payment thereof by M^r: Mohun? and what was become of the Companys Treasure, wth: should have been Ready to have Paid for the said Callicoes? did the Merchants complain for want of Payment? who did Complain? to whom? and what Circumstances doe you know of the aforesaid.

2. What doe you know concerning y^e: condition of M^r: Mohun in y^e: yeare 1673: when the Agent & Councell of ffort S^t: George did accept of his assignm^t: of Rup^a: Twenty Thousand at the Bay, for y^e: said Comp^{as}: acco^t: in Part of what he was debtor to their Cash?: and the necessity of accepting the same for their Security? what notice had you of the dubiousness of his Condition? and of his misusing of the Companys Treasure, and Goods in his owne Private Trade, and of [his great debts] to severall, especially to such as might fall upon the said Comp^a:? what were your Reasons obliging you to advise the Agent & Councell to accept of the said assignment, of Rup^a: Twenty Thousand:

3. What doe you know concerning M^r: R: Mohuns Landing the Peeeces [§] Twenty eight Thousand out of the Comp^{as}: Shippis Anno: 1673: [and his] Reason Therefore? was there any Callicoes bought for y^e: Comp^a: [on account] thereof?: how much thereof was there Left in the ffactory about y^e: begining of Oct^r: 1673: when Verona's Merchants came to Metchlep^m: to Receive Peeeces of §: Twenty Thousand thereof? the 6 or 7th: Detto or a few dayes before? what doe you beleive was become of the Remainder? was any of it disbursed for the Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as}: use, more then Pag^{os}: sixteen hundred seaventeen, eleven fan: and fower Cash, the Pretended Ballance, and how much more? was there any delay in the Paym^t: of the Peeeces § Twenty Thousand? how was it? what meanes did M^r: Mohun use to Procure y^e: wanting summe, was it all Paid in Peeeces § or how much in Peeeces § and how much in Pagodas?:

Doe you find that M^r: Mohuns Pretence in his Letters untill the 13th: Sept^r: 1673: of the absolute impossibility of Charging y^e: Peeeces § into Pag^{os}: for Land Carryage was a Reall Truth, did the said M^r: Mohun and Councell really endeavour the same, upon the Agent & Councells order to have them sent to the ffort overland? or does it rather appeare to be a Shift of M^r: Mohuns to avoyd the delivery of the money, to supply or to hide his own necessitye? seeing that Peeeces § nine or Tenn Thousand thereof, was already clearly gone wth:out any occasion of the Comp^{as}: and the wanting Peeeces § fower Thousand five hundred made up not in Peeeces § but in Pagoda's:

4. What doe you know or have heard Concerning M^r: Mohuns owing Madana Condapa &c^a: the Hono^{ble}: Comp^a: Merchants in or about the Month of August 1674: for goods bought of them for the Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as}: acco^t: in Anno 72: & 73: what summe was there then owing to them? and whether the said Merchants did not complaint of M^r: Mohuns detaining their money and what meanes did he use to Stopp their Mouths from Clamouring against him? and whether you did not assist M^r: Richard Mohun therein or who it was, and if he has not heard the said Merchants of Late complain that they were not fully satisfied and whether they did not acquaint him what summe there was then Resting due to them in or about the M^o: of Augst: 74: and if you doe not know or have heard that M^r: R: Mohun Paid them, a Part of said debt in Copper or other goods at Naglewanch or Parts ajacent:

FORT S^t: GEORGE Y^e: 15th: MAY 1676:

Christopher Hatton's: answer to certaine Interogatory's propounded and delivered unto him in writeing, by the Hono^{ble}: S^r: W^m: Langhorn Barronet and Agent for the affayres of the Hono^{ble}: English East India Company Viz^t: on oath:

I doe know, that about the time mentioned in y^e: Interogatory M^r: Richard Mohun being on his Journey towards ffort S^t: George held a Consultatⁿ: at Gundour, where y^e: buying the Callicoes for acco^t: of y^e: Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as}: , to y^e: value of Tenn Thousand Pag^{os}: was Propounded grounded on the Consideratⁿ: of Cash Remaining on Ballance of the Preceding yeares account amounting to y^e: best of my memory, by M^r: Mohuns acknowledgm^t: (for I had no sight of y^e: Bookes) unto Pag^{os}: new fowerteen Thousand or thereabouts, To w^{ch}: Consultatⁿ: we al[1] readily agreed, and accordingly by order appointed M^r: George Chamberlain for the p^rformance thereof, but some time after my Returne from ffort S^t: George it appeared by said M^r: Chamberlains discourse wth: me that there wa[s] no Ready mony Issewed out to him by M^r: Mohun for the Procuring y^e: s^t: Callicoes nor any Treasure of the Comp^{as}: Left wth: M^r: Chamberlain or M^r: fleetwood, the two Remaining Persons of Councell at his departure to Madrass that I could Learne but that he said M^r: Chamberla'in had on his own Cred^t: taken them on trust, and expostulating the Matter that the Councell were obliged to indemnify him in case of M^r: Mohuns insolvency gave me cause to apprehend wth: himself that some Inconvenie[nce] might ensue thereupon the sence whereof occas^t: y^t: my Private applicatⁿ: [to y^e: Ag^t: for advice in the case, How or w^{ch}: way M^r: Mohun had employed or disposed of y^e: said Cash, I know not nor can Conjecture at, except immersed in y^e: great Gulf of their Joynt Negotiations:

Answer to
ye first Interoga-
tory.

Madala Condapa did complain to me of M^r: Mohuns being indebted to him, but whether on this or on any other account I cannot say, but incline Rather to beleive it on some Preceeding Acco^{ts}: of the Hono^{ble}: Company as I suppose.

The refutatⁿ: of those false Suggestions insinuated to y^e: Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as}: in the yeare 1672: of my being M^r: Mohuns only Confident and manager of his designes and to w^{ch}: the Exordiu[m] to this Int[er]ogatory seems to have Respect, I doe declare upon the Oath I have taken, that I was a great stranger to s[a]id M^r: Mohun and his affayres in the yeare 167[one figure lost] as in divers of my Private Letters to y^e: Agent that yeare abundantly appears, if he but Pleases to make noat thereof also, I had notice of M^r: Mohuns offer to y^e: Agent & Councell of Paying Twent Two Thousand five hundred Rup^s: into the Comp^{as}: Cash in Bengall in discompt of Six Thousand new Pagodas out of y^e: Cash of [Merchants] the Reasons moveing me to advise the Agent & Councell to accept thereof had especiall Regaurd to y^e: Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as}: security, grounded on a visible defect of Cash in said M^r: Mohuns hands at Metchlep^m: as appeared in the Prementioned Investm^t: of Tenn Thousand Pagodas by M^r: Chamberlain as aliso his Reall or Pretended incapacity of satisfying other Private acco^{ts}: w^{ch}: were in like manner assigned over unto Bengall for Payment so that from y^e: Premeses, and of his being (according to fame) indebted to divers Persons Natives, whereof I could aver nothing Possitively more then the two Thousand seven hundred Pagodas to Madala Cunda and Company, acknowledged and Produced before the Commiss^{rs}: I did colect such matter of cautⁿ: as thereon to ground my advice to y^e: Agent & Councell as aforesaid.

Answer to ye:
Second.

Concerning his misapplying the Comp^{as}: Treasure and Goods to his owne use, in his Private Trade, I have this to say:

I doe Remember in his answer to y^e: Charge exhibited against him by James Walcot the said Mr: Mohun acknowledged the taking Twenty five Bales of y^e: Comp^{as}: Calicoes and that he sent them on some Voyage for his owne and Partners acco^t: I also find that in y^e: yeare 1671: being at ffort S^t: George and under some apprehensions of being called to account for the Ballance of that yeares Cash, He procured from M^r: Matthew Mainwaring and M^r: George Chamberlain then at Metchlep^m: by an expre[ss] sent to them to that Purpose A Receipt under both their hands, I say signed by them both wherein they acknowledge to have Received from him the said Ballance of Cash, when as Indeed and in Truth there never was any such Cash Left wth: them as appears upon Record in the Consultation Booke of ffort S^t: George where said M^r: Mainwaring upon Oath acknowledges the same, how the said money was exhausted or whether to his single or joynt use applied, said M^r: Mainwaring and M^r: Chamberlain upon Oath may be able to speak more effectually unto, then any Conjectures of mine can import:

But above all y^e: greatest Injury and abuse y^t: I could yet discover offered and done to y^e: Hono^{ble}: Comp^a: in the misapplication of their Estates as I have formerly advised y^e: Agent and Councell as also Major W^m: Puckle at his arrivall at Metchlep^m: Consists in the application of a Considerable summe of money of the Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as}: or their Merch^{ts}: for y^e: carrying on that great body of Trade, said M^r: Mohun & Partners were then ingaged upon as is demonstrable from a Pair of Bookes of acco^{ts}: conteneing their Joynt Negotiations in Ninths. Where a feigned fictitious Creditour by name Mamud Muctore is assumed & made use of, for the disguising and obseuring y^e: originall derivatⁿ: of their Stock, the w^{ch}: said Bookes of Acco^{ts}: in Ninths being of M^r: George Chamberlain's Stateing and hand writeing and whereof M^r: Matthew Mainwaring has declared and acknowledged to have Copie. I doe by these on the behalf of the Hono^{ble}: Comp^a: humbly Propose that s^d: M^r: Mainwaring and M^r: Chamberlain may wthout Loss of time be Cyted to appeare before you, and as witnesses on behalf of y^e: Hono^{ble}: Comp^a: Required to answer upon Oath to these Interogatorys following Viz^t:

1. Did you George Chamberlaine wth: your own hand writing state and keep, in Part or in whole, a certaine pair of Bookes of acco^{ts}: contain^g: M^r: Richard Mohuns & Partners Negotiations in Ninths at Metchlep^m: in y^e: yeares 1671: or 1672 or both wherein a certaine acco^t: stands entred under the Tytle of Mamud Muctore.

2. Have you Matthew Mainwaring at present or at any time before have you had Copies of those Bookes of Acco^{ts}: Conteneing M^r: Mohuns and Partners Joynt Negotiations in Ninths wherein Mamud Mucktores Acco^t: is comprized and Stated.

3. Were you Matthew Mainwaring & George Chamberlaine Privey, and Consenting unto y^e: assumption and making use of the aforesaid Tytle of Mamud Muctore in those said Bookes of Acco^{ts}: in Ninths.

4. Doe, or did you Matthew Mainwaring and George Chamberlain Really know an[y] such Person as Mamud Muctore, or that there ever was any such Reall #^{son} in being, and were there to your knowledge any such summs of Moneys Received and Borrowed of said Mamud Muctore as stands entred on the Cred^d: of that acco^t: in said Bookes of acco^{ts}: in Ninths, by whome, and on what termes.

5: Doe you Matthew Mainwaring and George Chamberlain know or beleive, all, or any Part of those summs of money said to be borrowed of Mamud Muctore or entred upon the Cred^d: of that acco^t: in the Joynt Bookes of acco^{ts}: in Ninths afores^d: really and in Plain Truth, to appertain and belong to y^e: Stock of y^e: Hono^{ble}: East India Comp^a, or any of their Merchants, & y^e: grounds of your said beleife.

6: Doe you Matthew Mainwaring and George Chamberlain know of y^t: Paym^t: of forty five Thousand Abbassees or thereabouts to the Comp^{as}: Merch^{ts}: at y^e: Return of Shipp Adventure or Shipp Indulgence from Persia? on what occasⁿ: & for whose acco^t: was that mony so Paid out of y^e: joynt Returnes of that Voyage.

of Mr. C.H.
his letters:

Lastly: I humbly desire that M^r: Matthew Mainwaring and M^r: George Chamberlain Replies to the foregoing Interrogatorys may be duly Recorded and upon their Refusing and demurring thereto, that their Reasons therefore be Required the same Recorded or their Contumacy in Refusing so to doe:

To conclude unto this Interrogatory I doe declare upon the Oath I have taken that M^r: Richard Mohun has declared that y^e: discovery of this Juggle of Mamud Muftore would doe him more Prejudice wth: the Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as}: then all that heap of Articles laid to his Charge by M^r: Mainwaring farther in effect acknowledging the said monys there disguised under that tittle to have bin Really the Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as}: and [y^e] M^r: Matthew Mainwaring and M^r: George Chamberlain were bo[th] Pryvey and Concenting thereunto, and according to their Propo[rtion] of two and three Ninths Pertakers thereof from whence it followes M^r: Mainwaring will be found to have Prevaricated in y^e: prosecution of his Charge by Stifleing, in so partiall a Preterjtion, so important and Materiall Part of his Evidence, especially...considering that before y^e: Commiss^{rs}: at Metchlepp^m: he has acknowledged himself to have Copies of said Bookes of Acco^{ts}: , and upon a Motion then made, Promised to carry said Bookes wth: him to the Agent and Councell, when he made his first appearance before them in y^e: yeare 1674 upon occasion of his said Charge :

These my depositions I entreat you would Please to Conceale from y^e: said M^r: Mainwaring and M^r: Chamberlain untill they shall have Replyed unto their Proper Interrogatorys y^e: Reason therefore being Obvious.

To all w^{ch}: I have to add this humble Request that you would Please to rectify a Clause in your Consultatⁿ: Booke relateing to that Article against M^r: Richard Mohun w^{ch}: infers his being out of Cash by the want of a dinrer in the yeare 1674: to w^{ch}: is immediatly Subjoynd (by some mistake) as tending to the Confirmation thereof, my advertizement to the Agent & Councell of the Primo Dec^r: 1674: of M^r: Matthew Mainwarings Passing an undue Receipt to M^r: Mohun for the Ballance of the Cash 1671: when as indeed that Remarke of mine had no Respect to said Charge, as being three yeares Antecedanious thereunto, but only served to demonstrate Matter of fact, in Concealing the abuses of that Cash by so Possitive an asserting and signing unto a falcity as by his owne Confession in said Consultatⁿ: Booke appears upon Record :

To all the Interrogatorys Relateing to y^e: said joynt Bookes I humbly Propose that M^r: John Tivill may likewise be examined upon Oath as a Person able to say very much for the unfolding the Mistery's therein Contayned :

I find by M^r: Mohuns acco^t: of Cash that he did Receive out of the Comp^{as}: Shippes in the yeare 1673: Peeces of Eight Twenty eight Thousand, his motives thereunto I was not acquainted wth: , there were not Callicoes bought therewth: to my knowledge for the Honoble: Companys Acco^t: by order from y^e: Agent & Councell in October Verona's people Received from M^r: Mohun and I from them Peeces of eight in Specie fifteen Thousand five hundred and in Pag^{as}: to Compleat Twenty Thousand: the value of four Thousand five hundred or thereabouts, the Procureing of which Pag^{as}: tooke up four or five dayes, and was effected by M^r: George Chamberlain, as the Bramany or Sheroffe informed me, I know not how the Rest were employed or disposed of haveing bin for some time absent from Metchlepp^m: I cannot judge of M^r: Mohuns Pretence in his Letter Concerning an impossibility of Converting the said Peeces of eight into Pagodas nor doe I know of any endeavours used by himself and Councell thereunto, by Reason of my absence aforesaid, yet it appears by my after sale thereof upon some abatement in Price that Pagodas were procurable, that M^r: Mohun should make use of that Pretence to avoyd deliverry of that Treasure for the supplying or hideing his necessitys, the Subsequent Circumstances in your s^d: Interrogatory are what I observe doe induce beleif for allthough in the Close of his said Letter he offers to deposite thein Specie to your orders, yet when y^e: said orders came, it appeared that Part of the mony was wanting: as aforesaid :

Answer to y^e:
third:
Interrogatory:

I have in Part answered to my reply to the first y^e: exact summe claim'd by Madala Cunda from M^r: Mohun I cannot affirme, & so far as I was from assisting M^r: Mohun in Silenceing their Clamours, y^t: M^r: Mohun never opened himself to me

fourth.

Concerning his being Indebted to them, nor doe I know who did, nor have I heard any of them of late Complain of other monys due to them besides y^e 2700^{Pagods} on his Particular obligation, I did heare but doe not Remember from whom, that M^r. Mohun Paid them Copper, how much know not :

To the fifth :

I have heard that some of y^e. Hono^{ble}. Comp^{as}. Servants did Complain for want of Sallary and dyet mony, who they were I doe not Remember, to the best of my memory M^r. Mohun did give me Cred^t in my accompt for the Sallary allowed me in the Hono^{ble}. Comp^{as}. Bookes but recharged the same upon me at my motion, for Reasons formerly alledged the time I doe not Rememb^r but some time after his Charging the same in the Companys Bookes.

To the Sixth.

I was enformed but Remember not by whom that M^r. Mohun disposed of a Parcel of Broad Cloth to the value of about Nine hundred or a Thousand Pag^{os}. to Meir Abdulkakiere in Satisfaction of so much money owing by said M^r. Mohun on acco^t of freight due for Shipp Dispatch, I am able to say nothing concerning other Parcells, his order to M^r. Mainwaring and my self to endeavour y^e sale of the Broad Cloth I did esteeme, but as a blind to amuse us, haveing before heard that there was no Cloth Remaying :

To the Seaventh :

I know nothing of his detayning the Bramanys Dustory or wages, but Remember that the Bramany did absent himself upon y^e. occasion mentioned :

To the Eighth.

I Remember that Peeees of $\frac{8}{9}$ either eleaven or Thirteen Thousand in the hands of M^r. Mainwaring were ordered to be delivvered to M^r. Geo : White, and by him were brought to Madapollam, now disposed of I cannot say nor doe I Remember any thing Concerning Madala Cunda at that tyme :

To the Ninth :

I know nothing thereof otherwise then by M^r. Salusburys owne declaration to wth. Referr, which sayes the Contrary :

To the Tenth :

I know nothing concerning 156 half P^{d} . Broad Cloth to Bengall Bobb[a]

To the Eleaventh :

I know nothing concerning money and Lead sent to Naglewansh, nor of any goods, nor for whose acco^t. Bengall Babba did in y^e. afternoon acq^t me that the morning before he told M^r. Manwaring y^t. M^r. Mohun had taken of him Two Thousand Pag^{os}. in Goods but y^t. really the[re was] no such Bargain between them, who was the Contriver of y^t. [fiction] or for what ends, I am wholly Ignorant :

To the Twelfth :

I knew not, till of Late that M^r. Mohun was indebted to Meir Ismall nor doe I at Present know how much or on whose accompt :

To the Thirteenth :

I have heard M^r. fleetwood complaine of M^r. Mohuns Threatnings, but Remember not any else, I have also seen an acco^t of M^r. Mohuns to M^r. fleetwood wherein in the quarter Part of said M^r. fleetwoods Shipp sayled for Pegu was entred upon his debt, but the summe not expressed, wheth^r exacted by M^r. Mohun ? or offered by M^r. fleetwood I cannot say, but Remember at y^e. same time M^r. Mohun had a small vessell of his owne which he designed for Pegu Likewise but upon some Private agreement wth : M^r. fleetwood desised therefrom, I know of no oppression to M^r. Alley nor any other that I Remember :

To the fowerteenth :

I know that M^r. Mohun demanded the Ballance of an acco^t : from M^r. Cholmley for the Clearing whereof he delivvered him Gance, at the Price he bought it, I know nothing of his Threatening to breake open his Warehouse, but that he forbad him his Presence, untill he had Cleared his debt, w^{ch} : debt M^r. Cholmley had ordered to be Paid in Bengall wth : M^r. Mohun's Consent, but as then M^r. Mohun disown'd to have any Notice thereof, w^{ch} : after appeared was Paid in Bengall, and M^r. Mohun Reallowed the same :

To the fifteenth :

I have been enformed y^t. M^r. Mohun did direct y^e. Govern^r : to make distinction between freemen and the Hono^{ble} : Comp^{as} : Servants, and it has been too much the Practice of Cheifs so to doe, to Menopalize all business to themselves, and wish the Consequence may begett a greater Moderatⁿ : in those that shall Succeed, but wherein the Hono^{ble} : Comp^a : have suffered by that meanes I doe not find y^e : exacting Larger Presents haveing derivation from other Causes, Contentions about Priviledges :

INTERROGATORIES FOR M^r: GEORGE CHAMBERLAINE &
HENRYCROONE COLBORNE.

1. What doe you know concerning the Consultation held by M^r: Rich^d: Mohun chief at Metchlep^m: &c: Factors at Gundour in or about march 1673 and the order given to M^r: George Chamberlaine for the buying of Callicoos for acco^t: of the East India Comp^y: to the value of Pag^{os}: ten thousand, what summe of mony ought there then to have been, in M^r: Mohuns custody, for the said Comp^y: accompt, according to their bookes, and was the said mony whither in Gold or Silver then really in his keeping? and how did you come to perceive the want there? were of the said Callicoos bought accordingly? were they bought before the arrivall of the ships Anno 1673 or after, when y^e new stock was come, and the P^s 28 M. landed out of them? what doe you know or have heard concerning the P^s he dd you for payment of the goods you bought as aforesaid, whither they were any part of the said P^s 28 M, were they bought with ready mony, or at time or trust? were yourself & other factors of that Councell apprehensive of some trouble from the Merchants, in default of payment thereof by M^r: Mohun? and what was become of the Comp^y: treasure w^{ch}: should have been ready to have paid for the said Callicoos? did the Merchants complaine for want of payment? who did complaine? to whom? and what circumstances doe you know of the aforesaid.

2. What doe you know concerning the condition of M^r: Mohun in the yeare 1673 as to the safety or unsafety of entrusting him with the Hono^{ble}: Comp^y: estate, when the Agent and Councell of ffort S^t: George did accept of his assignm^t: of Rupees twenty thousand at the Bay, for the said Comp^y: acco^t: in part of what he was Debtor to their Cash, and the necessity of accepting the same for their security? what notice had you of the dubiousness of his condition and of his misusing, of the Comp^y: treasure and goods in his own private trade, and of his great debts to severall, especially to such as might fall upon the said Comp^y: what were your reasons, obliging you to advise y^e Agent and Councell to accept of the said assignment of Rup^s: twenty thousand what grounds had you M^r: Chamberlaine in your joynt letter of 31 January 1673 with M^r: Manwaring, under your own hand to advertise the Agent of M^r: Mohuns being considerably indebted to the Hono^{ble}: Comp^y: Cash: w^{ch}: you conceived he had employed to his perticular use? and what doe you know or have heard thereabouts, and was the q^{ts}: thereof true or false.

3. What doe you know concerning M^r: Richard Mohuns landing the P^s 20 twenty eight thousand out of the Comp^y: ships Anno 1673, and his reason therefore? was there any Callicoos bought for the Comp^y: on acco^t: thereof? how much thereof was there left in the ffactory about the beginning of October 1673 when Veronas Merchants came to Metchlep^m: to receive P^s 20 twenty thousand thereof, the 6 or 7 D^o: or a few daies before? what doe you believe was become of the remainder? was any of it disboursed for the Hono^{ble}: Comp^y: use, more then pagodas Sixteen hundred,

Seaventeen, Eleaven fan^r: and fower Cash, the pretended ballance? and how much more? was there any delay in the payment of the ₹s 20 twenty thousand? How [was] it, what meanes did M^r: Mohun use to procure the wanting summe [was] it all paid in ₹s 20 or how much in ₹s 20 and how much in Pa[^{as}].

Did you M^r: George Chamberlaine at or about that time take up for him at Interest or Credit the value of pag^{as}: 2354: 04: or thereabouts or of ₹s 20 fower thousand five hundred or thereabouts, was the said mony so taken up, used to make up the wanting summe of the said ₹s 20 twenty thousand.

Do you find that M^r: Mohuns pretence in his letters untill the 13 Sept^r: 1673 of the absolute impossibility of changing the ₹s 20 into pag^{as}: for land carryage, was a reall truth, did the said M^r: Mohun and Councell really endeavour the same, upon the Agent and Councells order to have them sent to the ffort overland? or does it rather appeare to be a shift of M^r: Mohuns to avoid the delivery of the mony, to supply or to hide his own neecessity, seeing that ₹s 20 nine or ten thousand thereof was already clearely gone, without any occasion of the Comp^{as}: and the wanting ₹s 20 fower thousand five hundred made up not in ₹s 20 but in pagodas.

4. 5. 6. What doe you know or have heard of M^r: Richard Mohuns disposing of a parcell of Broad Cloth, Scarlett and fine Greenes, and not bringing the amount thereof into his acco^t: of the Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as}: Cash in due time, and whether you were enformed that M^r: Mohun delivered a considerable part thereof to Meir Abdola Bakier to satisfie his particular debt to him, and whether he did give a mock order to M^r: Manwaring and yourself to endeavour the sale of it, when he had sould and delivered it some time before, to satisfie his particular debt as above.

7. What doe you know or have heard of M^r: Richard Mohuns detaining Anco the chief Bramanys Dustore mony, as also his wages, and whether you doe know or have heard that the said Bramany run away and left the Comp^{as}: business in confusion because M^r: Mohun threatned to drubb him, because he would not or could not take up mony for his particular occasions at Interest.

8. What doe you know or have heard concerning a parcell of ₹s of eight thirteene thousand w^{ch}: M^r: Mohun about the Month January 1674 ordered to be sent him by M^r: George White to Maddapollam? doe you know or have you heard how the said parcell or any part thereof were disposed of, and whither you doe know that M^r: Mohun satisfied his particular debts to Meir Narzeere or some More Merchants with part thereof, and whether you doe know that Madala Condapa and the rest of the Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as}: Merch^{ts}: came to Madapollam in hopes to receive the aforesaid parcell of ₹s of eight for goods bought of them for the Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as}: acco^t: and received but a part of them though the whole was due to them. Doe you remember to have heard y^t said Madala Condapa or any of the said Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as}: Merchants complaine that M^r: Mohun did deliver them but a part of the said Dollars when the whole or more was due to them?

HENRYCROONE COLBORNE

FORT ST. GEORGE THE 23 MAY 1676

George Chamberlains answer to severall Interrogatorys given him in writing, by the Hono^{ble}: Sr. W^m: Langhorn K^{nt}. & Barr^r: Agent and Governour for affaires of the Hono^{ble}: English East India Company as followeth v^z: upon Oath.

I doe know M^r. Mohun, M^r. Matthew Manwaring and M^r. Christo^r: Hatton gave me an order in or about March 167 $\frac{2}{3}$ to provide in Callicos to y^e: amount of about ten thousand pagodas new, for accompt of the Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as}: but M^r. Mohun leaving no money in my hands there was not any bought untill M^r. Mohuns arrivall from Madrass (but know not whether before or after the arrivall of the English ships) when there was bought by myself of the Mores in Long cloth and Allejaes to the value of about three thousand pagodas new, for payment thereof M^r. Mohun delivered me Dollars, as I remember there should have been in Cash when M^r. Mohun went to Madrass to the amount of about fifteene or Sixteene thousand pagodas, but whither in Silver or Gold I know not, or whither he had it really in his possession or not, but I heard no complaints to my remembrance from the Merchants for want of payment for the remainder of the cloth then bought, w^{ch}: was from the Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as}: Comm^{ts}: to my best remembrance, I doe not know or have heard what P^s $\frac{3}{4}$ they were w^{ch}: were delivered me for the paym^t of the three thousand pagodas to my best remembrance.

Answer to the
1 Interroga-
tory

2. I know not nor can I affirme that M^r. Mohun had converted y^e Comp^{as}: Cash to his private use, in the yeare 167 $\frac{2}{3}$ but to the best of my remembrance there should have been in Cash to the amount of about fifteene or Sixteene thousand pagodas, and M^r. Mohun being then very expensive in his building &c: at Madapollam, and M^r. Manwaring and myself fearing that he might have misapplied: he Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as}: Cash, we advised the Agent thereof in our letter of the 21 January 167 $\frac{2}{3}$ that he might take care for the examination of it, whither he had really converted it to his own use or no, being then as we heard from Madapollam in a very weake condition, I know not that M^r: Mohun had contracted any debts that might fall upon the Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as}: to my best remembrance.

3. I doe not remember the landing of the P^s $\frac{3}{4}$ twenty eight thousand nor know I M^r. Mohuns reason for it, nor whither there was any Callicos bought with any part of them, nor how much there was left in the ffactory about October 1673 when Veronas Merchants came to Metchlep^m: to receive P^s $\frac{3}{4}$ twenty thousand, neither doe I know what was become of the remainder nor of any of those Dollars disboursed for the Comp^{as}: use, nor whither any delay in the payment. I cannot affirme, what reasons M^r: Mohun used to procure the wanting Summe, but I did in or about the same time to my best remembrance Joyne wth: M^r: Mohun in a bill or Bond to Meir Jamall for about two thousand pagodas as he requested me, but I doe not possitively remember that he told me it was to make up the wanting summe, but to my best remembrance in lieu of some of the prementioned Dollars. I know not whether he paid Veronas Merchants in P^s $\frac{3}{4}$ or pagodas to my best remembrance M^r: Mohun did imploy me to procure [pag^{os}] for Dollars and for land carriage to Madrass, at w^{ch}: time there was not so many pagodas as he would have had to be procured in Metchlepat[am] as farr as I could discover, I know not whither M^r: Mohun and the rest of the Councell did endeavour of themselves to procure pagodas for land carriage.

4. I have heard to my best remembrance that M^r. Mohun did owe y^e Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as}: Merchants Madala Condapa &c: mony in or about Aug^t: 1674 for goods bought for the Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as}: Acco^t: but what summe there was then owing to them I know not, nor what meanes he used to stop their Mouthes from clamouring, they never complaining to me that he owed them any mony on the Comp^{as}: acco^t: as I remember, neither have I heard them of late complaine that they were not fully satisfied, but I have heard M^r. Mohun ordered the delivery of some Copper to some of them at Mackapate but upon what accompt I know not.

5. I have heard M^r. Ramsden say that he had not received his sallary when M^r. Mohun had charg'd it in the bookes, but also that he did not demand it before, when he did it was paid him, I never to my remembrance heard any other complaine for want of their dyet mony or Sallary.

6. I have heard M^r. Manwaring say that M^r. Mohun disposed of Broad Cloth, Scarlett and fine Greenes and brought not the amount thereof to accompt in due time, but I cannot affirme it, but to the best of my remembrance there was deliver'd Mira Abdalla Bakier about one thousand pag^{os}: in broad cloth on M^r. Mohuns particular acco^t: it was entred to my best remembrance in the Warehouse bookes accordingly but for any mock order he gave M^r. Manwaring or any other I know not.

7. I have heard Anco the Bramine complaine to my best remembrance that he had given M^r. Mohun forty Candy of Iron out of the Dustore mony, but never to my remembrance that he wanted his wages, but I know he ranne away and left his business in confusion, w^{ch}. he said was because M^r. Mohun would have him take up mony for him at Interest upon his own bill.

8. I know that M^r. George White came with an order from Madapollam to M^r. Manwaring from M^r. Mohu[n] for the delivery of about thirteene thousand ₧s & to him, but M^r. Manwaring refused the delivery untill he had received his receipt back that he gave M^r. Mohun, w^{ch}: when it was produced the mony was delivered M^r. White, but whither M^r. Mohun paid his perticular debt to Mahumad Nazier or Mahumed Muckim out of them I cannot affirme, but I have heard he paid them in Dollars, and that to the best of my remembrance from Mahumed Muckim, I doe not remember that Madala Condapa a Merchants went down at that time, I doe not remember that I heard Maddala Cundapa or any of the Merchants complaine that M^r. Mohun delivered them tut a part of the said Dollars when the whole or more was due to them or that I heard them say any thing concerning them to my best rememb[rance].

9. I doe not know that the parcell of goods bought of M^r. Salisbury [to the] am^t: of one thousand fifty eight pag^{os}: twelve fan^s: was first [intended for] M^r: Mohuns perticular acco^t: nor have heard so to the best of [my re]membrance.

10. Concerning the hundred fifty and six half ₧s Broad Cloth made sould Babbo Bengala at 24 pag^{os}: the half peece in the Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as}: bookes I have never heard they were sould for more then twenty fower pag^{os}: to the best of my remembrance.

11. I know not but have heard Jango a Dubash in Metchlepatam say (who was employed in the business of Naglawanch and the places adjacent by M^r. Mohun) that he had received both Dollars and Lead to provide cloth, I never heard that the goods were intended on any particular acco^t: to my best remembrance. Bengall Bobbo did informe me to the best of my remembrance, that he had advised M^r. Manwaring that he had taken up goods for M^r. Mohun in the Comp^{as}: name, and that M^r. Mohun had bid him tell M^r. Manwaring so (though the thing was not reall) but for what reasons M^r. Mohun did so I know not, nor of the contriver of this story.

12. I know not neither have I heard that M^r. Mohun tooke up any mony of Meir Jamall or Mahumed Mazier (sic) on the Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as}: accompt.

13. I know that M^r. Mohun had threatned some of the Comp^{as}: Servants that if they did not submitt to his will they should have no more respect then the least boy in the ffactory, and have heard that he hath threatned the ruine of some of the Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as}: Servants, as also that he charged M^r. fleetwood in his acco^t: with the quarter part freight of two of his Vessells for his permission to my best remembrance, but neither know nor heard any oppression done to M^r. Alley or others.

14. M^r. Nathaniel Cholmley told me to my best remembrance that M^r. Mohun threatened to breake open his Godowne in case he did not deliver him a parcell of Gance, and Copper at the price he then bought for of the Dutch in lieu of mony he owed him for acco^t: of M^r. Gyfford.

15. I have heard to the best of my remembrance that M^r. Mohun in Meirza Momins time when he was Governour did send to him to hinder the bringing in of goods into M^r. fleetwoods, M^r. Hattons and my house, and to hinder the shiping of any goods from either of our houses, but I cannot affirme that it hath been the occasion of stoping the Comp^{as}: goods or their Servants in the Banksall, or augmenting the Piscash to the Governours.

16. I know not that M^r: Mohun when he went to Madrass in 71 left none of the Hono^{ble}: Comp^{as}: Cash with me, and have heard M^r: Manwaring say neither with him, but M^r. Manwaring to my best remembrance after desired me to joyne with him in giving a receipt for five thousand pag^{os}: or thereabouts, after M^r: Mohun was arrived at Madrass, w^{ch}: I did, but to my best remembrance, I have heard M^r: freeman say that the mony taken up by him was for M^r. Mohuns particular acco^t: he being supplied by me for the expence of the fiactory.

17. I doe know that M^r Mohun did possess himself after M^r: Langstones death with his bookes and papers, and have heard that he kept them some time in his sole possession to the best of my remembrance, and afterwards delivered some papers of his to M^r: freeman, and have to the like remembrance heard him reputed worth two thousand pag^{os}:

18. I know nothing.

19. I doe know that M^r. Mohun shewed me a paper written to the [best] of my remembrance by M^r. Wales, expressing his faire and honest dealings both with the Hono^{ble}: Comp^a: and others, but who drew up the Originall I know not, M^r. Christopher Hattons firme to my best remembrance was only to it, I did not signe the said paper nor could doe it wth a safe conscience.

To y^e 20. I referr mysele to my answer to the 3^d. Interrogatory.

FORT S^t. GEORGE 9th: MAY: 1675.

I did not receive my Sallary (as neere as I can guess) 'till about the five November or prim Xber 1674, when I asked M^r. Tivill for it who paid it me And withall doe declare that I never asked M^r. Mohun for any But when I was at Madapollam & M^r. Mohun et at Metchlapatam I wrott to M^r. Tivill to send it me but never received any answer from him he telling me when I saw him that his sickness was y^e occasion of his not answering my Letter But whether that or want of Cash I cannot possitively say And have heard M^r. Colebourne declare that he had not received his sallery as also M^r. Canham & M^r. Scattergood.

Concerning
my Sallery.

Concerning
Dyett money.

M^r: Mohun when went to Madapollam in 1673 left some of the compayes servants at Metchlapatam whereof M^r Freeman then Steward was one, of whome it's usuall for Us to Receive our Dyett money who monethly paid me mine but withall [t]old me it was to doe me a Kindness (for that he had noe money to pay us) for want whereof M^r. Crawley and M^r. Canham were necessitated (to the best of my Remembrance) to goe without theirs one moneth. And indeed so in reallity did I for I received that as his owne money not as the compayes.

As to the
money.

I cannot affirme that I ever heard the Braminah speake possitively either in y^e negative or affirmative.

As to our wanting of a Dinner at Madapollam.

To the best of my Remembrance we one time wanted those things which we ordinarily had but to say possitively whether it was a dinner or supper I cannot, yet think it was a dinner & have heard M^r. Colebourne then Steward say that he wanted money to provide victualls and he was in disburse for the company on that accomp[t]

Concerning
Mr. Mohuns
[over]awing
the comp^y.
[servants]
and Freeman

I have heard that M^r. Mohun did threaten M^r fleetwood & M^r Cholmley the former I have heard speake of it himself.

As to the badness [of] the cloth.

I have heard M^r. [a few words lost] that the cloth was very bad.

Concerning
a secretary
[of an] office.

I never knew of any Secretary 'till about November or December 74 when these things were examined into M^r Mohun said M^r Crawley was Secretary, nor of any office where according to y^e compayes orders their papers ought to be kept that their Servants may peruse y^m. for their education & understanding.

Concerning
Mr.
Langstones
estate.

To the best of my remembrance I have heard that M^r. Lanstone in his life time was looked upon to be worth something considerable and I have heard a sume mentioned but whether it was 1000 pag: or 2000 pag: I dare not possitively Sweare but w^t. is become of it I know not.

Concerning
receiving pisobashes
from y^e
Merchants.
As to Mr.
Mohuns
owing
Dr. Morris
money.

I cannot speake anything materiall to prove y^e same.

I have heard Dr. Morris say that M^r. Mohun owed him money And to the best of my Remembrance said it was for the compayes acco^t:

Whether ever
I heard that
Mr. Mohun was out of cash.

In answer to Which I doe declare That a Little before I received my Sallary being in company with M^r. Ramsden I told him I would goe aske for my Sallary who replied (for what) M^r. Mohun has noe money (or words to y^t effect)

As also that when I was at Madapollam talkeing [wth] Docter Heathfeild concerning M^r. Mohun he told me [he] had reced his money of him but that he was forced to awaite some time 'till he could receive y^e whole he telling him he wanted money but that he should have [one word lost] shortly and then he would pay him which afterwards he reced the[se] such like words I have heard him speake by w^{ch}: I then understood that M^r. Mohun wanted money.

W^m. AYLOFFE.

I doe attest that the attestation which I gave at Madapollam [concern]ing M^r. Mainwaring was altered & that I heard Mr Crawley [a word lost] M^r Mohun ordered him to doe it as he did as also have heard M^r. A [a few words lost] I asked him concerning its falsness that it was done by a [a few words lost] words to that effect.
