Sundry Accounts Dr. to Captain Thomas Sydenham Resident at Hydrabad Continued

Balla Carried forward ——— 27,654 15.78

In the months of January 1809 the new System of Accounts established for the Resident, was introduced, and the Balance of the 31st Dec.r 1808, instead of being stated as formerly in Rupees, was then shewn in Pagodas – In consequence of this arrangement the sum of Money in the Residents Treasury which consisted of Hyd.d Rup.s, was brought forward at the new rate of 388½ p.r 100 Pagodas, in lieu of the old Book rate of 350 – And the Resident is therefore entitled to Credit for the Amount of the difference which arose upon this alteration of the Rate of Exchange, in the Balance of Hydrabad Rupees then on hand – The adjustment of this Calculation is as follows:

Balance of Hydrabad Rupees in the Treasury on the 31st Decem.r 1808 – 1,47,144. 4. 9. which at 350 p.r 100 Pag.s (at which rate the Resident has been debited for them) amounted to Pagodas ——— 42,041. 10. 19.

But converted at the newly established rate of 388½ the same number of Rupees produce only ——— 37,874. 14. 7.

Difference passed to the Residents Credit 4,166. 11. 12.

For amount of sundry small differences arising from Fractions &c.a in the foregoing calculations 3. 4. 38.

Total Credits to the Resident on the Balla Acct 31,823. 27. 48.

113 Bengal Presidency

For a difference of Exchange on the Bills drawn upon Bengal by the Resident in the Month of January 1809, which were then by mistake credited to Bengal at the former rate of 350 p.r 100 Pagodas instead of 388½, at which the Hyd.d Rupees had been that month fixed:

The Total Amount of the Bills in question was Hyd.d Rs. 240709.

which, credited to Bengal @ 350, produces Pagodas. 68774 —

But converted at the proper Rate of 388½ they produce 61,958. 24. 7½

The difference arising upon this adjustment is thus passed to the Credit of Captain Sydenham 6,815. 20. 6

Carried forward 6,815. 20. 6

Sundry Accounts Dr. to Captain Thomas Sydenham Resident at Hydrabad Brought forward ——— 31,823 27. 48

Bengal Presidency Cont.d Brought forward ——— 6,815. 20. 6.

Deduct from this sum an excess credit made to Captain Sydenham upon the same principle in charging the sum taken in January for the expences of the Residency – The sum in question was Hydrabad Rupees 20,659. 11. 5, which converted at the old rate of 350 p.r 100 Pagodas produced Pagodas ——— 5,902. 24. 7.

But computed at the rate of 388½ it is ——— 5,317. 36. 46

To the difference, therefore, Bengal Presidency is now thus credited ——— 584. 43. 27

6,230 21. 59.

114 Advances made by the Residents at Hydrabad on account of the War against the Confederated Mahrattas Chiefs.

13 Revenue General Books

For the amount advanced on the 12th April 1807, to the late Superintendent of the Mint for Contingent & Current Charges &c. which amount was duly debited to the head of "Superintendent of the Mint" in the Cash Account for the said Month, but being afterwards erroneously debited to this head on these Books for 1807/8 Page 225, it is now thus reversed — 400 . .

For Melting Stores supplies from the Arsenal to the New Mint, particulars as p. Statement sent to the Mint Master with Letter dated 22d April 1808, which were credited in his Account for the same Month, and erroneously debited in these Books for 1807/8 Page 331 to this head instead of to the Superintendent — 357 6. 8.

114 Civil Charges

For the amount advanced to Mr. Roebuck Mint Master in the month of August 1807, for the purchase of a quantity of Charcoal agreeably to the orders of Government under date 19th August 1807, which was at that time carried to his personal debit and again erroneously debited to the head of Mint Charges, instead of to that of "Superintendent of the Mint" in these Books for 1808/9 Page 92. The head of Mint Charges having been transferred to that of Civil Charges in the same Books Page 424, it becomes necessary to credit this head, and to debit that of Superintendent of the Mint," as he has credited General Books for this advance, in his Account for August 1807, Page — 1000 . .

For the amount advanced to Mr. Ogilvie Mint Master on the 7th March 1809 for Contingencies, which sum has been debited to the head of Mint Charges, instead of Superintendent of the Mint, in the Sub Treasurers Account for the same Month, and it having been written off by transfer of that head to the Civil Charges, it is now thus reversed, as he has credited the General Books in his Account for March 1809 — 1000 . .

41 Sundry Accounts Dr. to Military Operations in Travancore & Cochin Pagodas 4,58,475.4.60

To the Sums charged to the Government of Travancore and Cochin on account of the Extra Expences incurred during the Disturbances in those Countries in the year 1809, according to the Accounts Current between the Rajahs of Travancore and Cochin and the Honble Company as framed by the Resident in Travancore for the year 1809/10.—

75 Government of Travancore

For amount charged to this Government on account of the proportion of two thirds of the whole extra expences which this Rajah is to repay to the Honble Company ——— 305,650.2.9.

73 Rajah of Cochin

For amount charged to this Government on account of the Proportion of one third of the whole extra Expences which this Rajah is to repay to the Honble Compy. ——— 152,825.2.51.

The small difference in this account arises on the Conversion of the Foreign Currency

Total Amount of the extra expenses incurred on account of the Travancore Campaigne agreeably to the Statements laid before the Honble the Governor in Genal ——— 4,58,475.4.60.

N.B. The difference which appears between the amount of the extra expences stated here, and the debits charged on account in the General Books, arises from the Charges of the Military Department having been stated by the Military Auditor General in the Accounts submitted to Government, whereas the debits in the General Books are made after the disbursements are audited and adjusted in the Military Books —

Thus the total Military Expences by the Military Auditor General's Estimate amounts to ——— Pagodas 284,815.28.34 and the debits in General Books, as transferred by Military Books after audit, have been, for 1808/9 ——— 77976.23.25.

1809/10 ——— 118746.23.60

together 196723.2.6

Making a short debit (which will be found to correspond with the difference between the debits and credits above) to be brought to account as the disbursements shall be progressively audited. ——— 33092.28.29
