To the Rev^d Mr. Swartz Missionary of the Protestant Church at Trichinopoly

Reverend Sir

The Last and Dearest concern I have in my Earthly Affairs is the future Tranquility of my poor Wife who has been faithful to me in all the Calamities and hardships of my Wayward fortune

In Consideration of which I most humbly beg that after my Decease you will your Goodness will reach so far as to keep a fatherly Eye over her and it would Contribute much to my peace of mind could I be certain of her Listening to your Gentle persuasions in converting her to the protestant faith

It is however my earnest request that she with the Child attend our Church once a Week or oftener and to take particular Care that she suffers Neither the Child nor herself to be led away by the Insinuations of a parcel of Foolish Ignorant Bigotted old Women

I further Request that whatever Sums of money may be collected after my Decease she Deliver it into your Hands and shape her Expenses agreeable to the Interest of it by that means she will always have that to Depend upon and hope that you will procure her a sufficient Security for the principal And should God preserve your Life till the Child is Marriagable that you will Endeavour to match her to some sober Deserving man

I hope these few Necessary Precautions will answer their Ends and for your Earnest Endeavours therein I hope the Almighty Ruler of Eternity will Reward you to whom and his Blessed son Jesus Christ the Incense Prayers shall never be wanting from
