To James Taylor Esq

Sir

I have to Request you will be so obliging as to inform the Honble Court that I wish to have their opinion whether they do not think that I am entitled to charge the parties for the Depositions I send to Court, having hitherto only been paid for the Copies of those Depositions which said Copies I deliver to the Attornies so that I make out three Copies from the rough Draft and am only paid for two, as I have before fully informed you of the Nature of the Empley and also how trifling the Emoluments are, All which I beg you will be so kind as to lay before the Honble Court, and I flatter myself they will not think my Requesting this additional charge unreasonable
