I George Campbell, Assistant Surgeon in the Honble English East India Companys Service being at this time of Writting sound in Mind & tolerably Well in Body, but sensible of the uncertainty of all earthly enjoyments, do to prevent any confusion after my Death, and tho I have little to bequeath — make out this my last Will & Testament. —

First I recommend my Soul to God, hoping that thro the intercession of our Glorious Redeemer he will forgive all my iniquities, & receive me into that — state of Bliss promised to all good Men. —

Secondly, I do will & Bequeath, all that I am now or shall Die — possessed of, to my much beloved Brother David Campbell, Lieutenant of Infantry in in the Honble Companys Service, on this Establishment of Coromandel; & in case of his unfortunately dieing before Me I then Will & Bequeath all that I am or shall die possesed of to my most indulgent & best of Fathers David Campbell of Coupar in Angus Merchant, & in failure of him to my tender & affectionate Mother Susan Watson his Spouse, & in failure of Both of them, that it may be equally divided, betwixt my Surviving Brother & Sisters James, Elisabeth, Isabel, Margaret & Emelia Campbells.

To See this will executed I must Request that my friends Wm. Mungo Dick of Maddepollam & Mr. Alexander Ferrier Surgeon at Cheacole, would Act as executors — Should this Will & Testament not have a legal forme, I do hereagain declare it to be what I Consider as my last & Sole Testament

Translation of a Last Will and Testament of Paukanate Appiah Deceased Dated the 13th of Decemr 1780.

I Paukanate Appiah do make out this my Last Will and Testament for the Settlement of my own Estates that is to Say.

I am not Perfect in Health and therefore I write this my Intention that it may be known to all People, that my Cousions their Estates divided in the time of our Anceptors, and Settled to enjoy each of their own Estates and Debts and only to bear the funeral Ceremony, but not to have a right to one anothers Estates and Debts, therefore I do now appointed my Wife Mangatoy as right owner to my House, Joys, Estates, and Debts, and not any of my Cousins, as she is a Woman I delivered them to her Brother named Tickaune Sawmy, and he is to Maintain her all her life time, and I nomenate one Coha Rangasamy to be overseer on Tickaune Sawmy that he may not Deceive My said Wife, further if any of my Relations come and perform our funeral Ceremoney, they should pay him the Sum of 50 Pagodas out of my Estates for two Cannyadaram or Marriage, and after our Death the said Tickaune Sawmy is to Enjoy our House &c as a Right owner Thus I think this in my Mind and to make out this my Last Will by the Witnesses of God and Bramins that whomsoever think to the Contrary of this my Last Will and Testament they are to bare the Sin as much as they killed a Cow in the Banaras River — Witnesses
