Dear Sir

Mr Westcott has desired Mr Statham to enquire of me the amount of Captain Powells bond, and he will order it to be paid.

I beg the favour of you to let him know how much the Principal & Interest come to, and receive it for me, which you may keep at the common Interest, if it suits you or act otherwise for me in these perelous times as you may find safest and best.

As I never drew any Interest it was added every year to the Principal without the form of renewing the Bond, which was only done once. The amount of Principal and Interest up to the first of January 1786 will be (M Ps 1961.38.68) One thousand nine hundred sixty one Madras Pagodas thirty eight fanams and sixty eight Cash.

If any accident should happen to me during the present Service I request you will remit whatever I may leave behind to my brother the Revd Mr William Johnson Temple, Vicar of St Gluves, near Penryn Cornwall except a legacy of a Hundred Pagodas to a Slave girl that I keep together with her little freedom. I have no debts myself and you can have very trouble

I will give you an account of our success and motions when I find Opportunities Believe me Dear Sir With great truth & sincerity

To the Honble the Mayor Court at Madrasspatnam

The 10th Day of August 1784

On which day Mr Charles Bromley as proctor for John Balfour and Josias Dupre Porcher as Attorneys to Hall Plumer pretended Executors named in a Supposed Will of Captain Hugh Dilkes Harding deceased prayed a Citation might Issue directed to Captain John Taylor and Catharine his Wife sole Legatory named in the only true certain Last Will and Testament named of the said Captain Hugh Dilkes Harding Deceased to come into this Honble Court to see the said Supposed Will proved as on the seventeenth day of the said Month of August Instant on which day Henry Dudley as Proctor for the said John Taylor in Right of his said Wife Catharine Taylor sole Legatory of the said Last Will and Testament of the said Hugh Dilkes Harding did file a Caveat that no Probate or Letters of administration being granted to the Estate and Effects of the said Hugh Dilkes Harding Deceased and now the said John Taylor in Right of his said Wife sole Legatory as aforesaid by all better and more effectual ways and means of Law to all intents and purposes which in the Law doth alledged and say and in Law propound the same in Articles following To Wit.

First The said Proponent saith that he hath a right and is entitled to Letters of administration with Last Will and Testament of the said Hugh Dilkes Harding deceased annexed in Right of his Wife Catharine Taylor sole Legatary named in the said Last Will and Testament which was executed on the twenty Second day of July which was in the year our Lord One thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty two which said Last Will and Testament on that they was and now is the Last Will and Testament of the said deceased Testator Harry Taylor the Sole Surviving Executor of the said last Will and Testament having renounced his rights of Executorship on the fourteenth day of October One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty three Charles Salmon the other Executor having departed this life without taking out Probate of the said Will.—

Secondly Because the said Last Will and Testament propounded by this Proponent and which is now among the Records of this Honble Court was proved by Captain William Sydenham and Captain Bartholomew Vigors on the third day of December One thousand Seven hundred and Eighty three when they upon the said Last Will and Testament being produced to them did make the usual Oaths to the handWriting of the said Deceased Hugh Dilkes Harding in the presence of this Honble Court the Subscribing Witnesses to the said Last Will and Testament being absent and this proponent Sheweth that thereupon the said Hall Plumer by his said Attornies were willing to Relinquish their pretended Rights in the supposed Will now produced and Opposed by them to the real and only last Will and Testament propounded by this proponent but that under the pretext of the said Hugh Dilkes Harding being intoxicated with Liquor at that time of making the said Last Will and Testament so propounded by this proponent he the said Opponent by his said Attornies do now again Set up and oppose the said pretended Will as and for the last Will and Testament of the said Testator and upon no other Grounds, not that the said Last Will and Testament was and is not the Only last Will and Testament left by the Testator at the time of his decease Whereas this proponent Sheweth that altho the said Attornies may alledge that the Testator might have mad said Last Will and Testament in favor of the said Catharine at the time that he was in Company, the same is nevertheless valid a good to all intents and purposes of the Law the said Testator being in his good and Reasonable understanding as may appear from the wor of the said Last Will and Testament which is perfect compleat and certain as to his intentions and the persons meant and intended to b benefited thereby and was not made in fear under fraud or Error nor there any imperfection or defect in the meaning thereof which can in the Smallest instance and by the Smallest circumstance why the sa Last Will and Testament should not be pronounced for as such the Attornies may have been lead astray in that advice that a man w is intoxicated cannot make a Will and therefore this Will propound by this proponent is not a perfect Will, but this Proponent is humbly of Opinion that such imperfections must appear upon face the Will itself which is composed in the Language and Spirit Reason are and must be demonstrations that the Testator was at time of his making his Will of Sufficient and Reasonable understan to Know what to do or avoid doing This Criterian is clearly mark out in Swin burn upon Wills a Clear and learned author in th Second part of his Book Chapter the Sixth wherein he treats of that is Drunk

Fitzh..... Whether he that is drunk may make a Testament He that is overcome with drunk during the time of his drunkenness is compared to a madman and therefore if he makes a Testament at that time it is void in Law which is to be understood when he is so excessively drunk, that he is utterly deprived of the use of Reason and understanding otherwise if his understanding be obscured and his memory troubled, yet may he make his Testament

To this We will add the Words of Dr Godolphin Such as are drunk during the time of being drunk can make no Testament that shall be good in Law yet this is only when he is so excessive Drunk that he is altogether deprived for the time of the use of Reason and understanding being according to the flaggon Phrase, as it were dead drunk for if he be but so drunk, that his understanding is but some what clouded and obscured, and his memory troubled, he may in that case make his Testament and it may be good in Law He therefore that is but ex helarated with Liquors and therefore doth but some what deviate from the Rule of Right reason is not the person whom the Law renders at that time intestable but he who by a Continual Custom of Toping or by such an excess of drunkenness hath so exiled his intellects that he hath as it were totally lost the rational and reserved nothing to himself but the Animal

And this Proponent saith that the words and meaning of the Will produced by him are so clear and so fully preserved under the guide and direction of good reason and understang that it carries thro' the whole uncontrovertable certainty of their being the only bias and motive which influenced him to make his Testament in the manner he

time of his decease Whereas this proponent Sheweth that all the the said Attornies may alledge that the Testator might have ma in the Smallest instance and by the Smallest circumstance why the Last Will and Testament should not be pronounced for as such the Attornies may have been lead astray in their Advice that a man by this proponents is not a perfect Will, but this Proponent humbly of Opinion that such imperfections must appear upon

I do Swear in presence of Captain Spencer Cochrane which declaration this Proponent hath thought expedient to annex he hopes in due time more largely to elucidate and prove if the Oppo

Lastly That all and Singular the aforesaid Premises were and are true whereof proof being had as far as possible the Proponent prays that right and Justice may be effectually done and administered to him and that this Honble Court will be pleased to pronounce for the Validity of the said Last Will aforesaid grant him this Proponent Letters of Administration in Right of his said Wife with the said Last Will and Testament annexed

The Answer of Hall Plumer late of Fort Saint George but now of London in the Kingdom of England Esquire Executor named in the last Will and Testament of Captain Hugh Dilkes Harding Deceased late in the Service of the Honble the United English East India Company on the Coast of Coromandell, by his Attornies John Balfour and Josias Dupre Porcher of Fort Saint George Esquires Opponents to the Allegations of Captain John Taylor Proponent in Right of Catherine his Wife, which said Catherine is said to be the Residuary Legatee in a Writing

Writting pretended to be the Last Will and Testament of the said Deceased Captain Hugh Dilkes Harding.

This said Opponent by his said Attornies Say to the first allegation of the above said Proponent in Right of his Wife Catherine Taylor, that he the said Opponent, cannot Admit of the Proponents Petition to Letters of Administration with the pretended Will of the said Hugh Dilkes Harding annexed, in Right of his Wife Catherine, who is said to be the Sole Legatee named in the said pretended Will of the Twenty Second day of July 1796 notwithstanding the Renounciation of Harry Taylor the pretended Executor named therein, and the Death of Charles Salmon the other Executor therein named, Because of Such pretended Writing being no Will or Testament of the said Deceased Hugh Dilkes Harding, the same being void at the making thereof, by reason and means of the Insanity of the said Deceased in his life time at the time of his Subscribing his Name to the Same, as is Evident from the Declaration of Lieutenant Thomas Cumberland Ross, one of the Subscribing Witnesses thereto, and made in this Hon^ble Court, at the time the Proponents motion to prove the said Writing to be the last Will and Testament of the said Hugh Dilkes Harding, the said Lieutenant Thomas Cumberland Ross upon being Interrogated by the Register of the said Court whether the said Testator Hugh Dilkes Harding, was at the time he so set his name to the said Paper Writing of Sound mind, Memory and understanding, to which he the said Lieutenant Thomas Cumberland Ross declared, he the said Hugh Dilkes Harding was not in his Senses at the time of such his Signing more he Sensible of what he did, being exceeding by Drunk and incapable of

Judging

Judging for himself whereupon the said pretended Will was Rejected, and no Probate could at that time be Obtained.

To the Second Allegation of the Proponent, the said Opponent by his said Attornies, Say that he cannot Admit of the said Writing being proved to be the Will of the said Hugh Dilkes Harding, because two persons Swore to the Hand Writing of the said Hugh Dilkes Harding. This Opponent begs leave to Observe, that this Swearing to the Hand Writing of the said Deceased was done to prove the Hand Writing of the Testator, who did not See the said Hugh Dilkes Harding Set his Name to the said Writing which the said Opponent Says was Irregular and Informal, more Especially as another Writing under the Hand and Seal of the said Deceased appeared purporting to be the last Will and Testament of the said Testator, and Declared in the presence of Two Credible Witnesses, and made and Published when the Testator was in his perfect Senses this Will the said Opponent Says is wrote fair and Legible, and Signed, and Sealed whereas the pretended Writing Exhibited by the said Proponent is Scarcely legible and Unintelligible, and without Seal, no Revokation inserted therein of any other Will, but the whole of this pretended Writing appears Nugatory, and to have been Written by some other person, than the said Hugh Dilkes Harding it also appears to be in the third person, and not in the first, for the said Paper Writing Says "Memorandum of Captain Harding going on Service" He Acknowledges "to have in the Hands of Hall Plumer Esq^r &^c., In Case of any Death to be transferred to M^rs Catharine Taylor," from the Diction of the Writing it appears to be the Act and Deed of another Person, and Signed by the said Hugh Dilkes Harding at the instigation of some person present,

he the said Hugh Dilkes Harding being Drunk, and Insensible to, at the time he so Subscribed his name, and under that Case and undue influence was this Writing Subscribed, but which, in Law, Carries no force or having Effect, and that the Same cannot according to the Statute, operate as a Revocation of any other or former Will of the Deceased, as such pretended Writing Exhibited by the Proponent, can be of no force or Effect as appears by the Declaration of the aforementioned Lieutenant Thomas Cumberland Ross notwithstanding what the Proponent has alledged in his Allegations to the Contrary, and in order to Shew the Law, how it Operates in Writings of this Sort, and when there are other Writings made in due form of Law This Opponent Says, that the pretended Writing of the said Hugh Dilkes Harding Exhibited by the said Proponent may be said, "to have been made and Written under a Fatal Insanity of Mind, the same as a Mad man or a Lunatick, who cannot dispose of any thing by Will, because they do not know any thing they do, for in making the Testament the Integrity or perfectness of the mind and not Health of Body is Requisite," this pretended Will the said Opponent Says, being by another person than the Testator and Subscribed to in a fit of intoxication cannot by any Subsequent Verbal Assertion be Efficacy, to make this forged Writing Valid. for as Richardson Says in his Law of Last Wills and Testaments Page 43, "He that is over come by Liquor, during the time of his Drunkenness compared to a mad man and therefore if he makes his Testament at that time it is void in Law, which is to be understood when he is so far Drunk that he is Utterly deprived of the Use of Reason and understanding such was the Case of the said Hugh Dilkes Harding at the time of his Subscribing his Name to the pretended Writing of the 27.th day of July as is Evident from the Declaration of the said Lieutenant Thomas Cumberland Ross, The Proponents has in his Allegations endeavoured to Support and Establish this pretended Writing as the Last Will and Testament of the said Hugh Dilkes Harding by the Testemony of some parol Evidence Subsequent to the Subscribing of the Testators Name to the said pretended Writing this said Opponent Says that the constant Rule of the Law has been to Reject all Parol Evidence brought to Supply the words of a Will or to Explain the intention of the Testator," vide Richardson Law of Last Wills and Testaments Page 279 more Especially where there is another Will made in due form of Law, The Opponent further Says he cannot admit of the pretended affidavit of Ensign George Shaw to be received in Evidence in Support of the pretended Writing of the 27 day of July 1782, as the parties before whom such affidavit was made, are Persons who have no Authority by Law to Administer an Oath, and of Course no legal Evidence, in Support of the Proponent Claim in Right of his Wife.

His said Opponent proceeds to Answer the Allegations of the said Proponent in Support of the Will and Testament under date of the 24 July 1781, Published and Declared by the said Testator, Hugh Dilkes Harding as and for his last Will and Testament, first that the Will of the said Hugh Dilkes Harding, as produced by this Opponent the Executor therein named is in every instance according to Law, Written by the Testator himself, fair, and Legible and Sealed, having an Executor named, and a Devise or Bequest of the Surplus of his the Testators Estate, after payment of Debts, it is Witnessed as the Law directs, by two Credible Witnesses, who Set their Names in Testimony thereof this Will was also declared by the Testator, when in his Sober Sense, as and for his Last Will

and Testament, without Covin Fraud or Deceit, and made in favor of the Person, who is mentioned as the Residuary Legatee therein in Consideration, as this Opponent Saith, of the many favors Received from the Father Sir Harry Corby Knight, and the Friends of the Legatee, and of Regard to the Legatee herself This said Opponent being the Testators Agent in his life time, and a Special Friend, and the said Deceased many Obligations and in whose Hands the Testator placed the greatest part of his Fortune, The said Opponent being about to marry the Sister of the Legatee, all of these are Considerations to Shew the Intentions of the Testator, in favor of his best Friends, to whom the Testator was much Indebted for every Cash he was worth, so that nothing but Insanity originating in an Excessive Intoxication, could have induced him the said Testator to Set his Name to a Writing he was not in a Condition to know what were the Contents, and which the Subscribing Witness Lieutenant Thomas Cumberland Ross declared in Open Court that the Testator was so Completely intoxicated as not to know what he did.

This Opponent further Saith that the Will of the said Testator delivered into this Honble Court and proved by one of the Evidences to Set his Name to the said Will, is not by any Act and Deed Revoked or Annulled either directly or indirectly, Implied, or Expressed, for the Statute of the 29th of Chal. 2d C3, Says that no Will in Writing Concerning any Goods or Chattells or personal Estate Shall be Repealed, nor Shall any Clause Devise or Bequest therein, be Altered or Changed by any word, or by Will by Word of mouth only Except the same bein the life time of the Testator committed to Writing, and after the Writing thereof Read unto the Testator and and allowed by him, and proved to be so done, by three Witnesses at the least This Opponent Saith, that as this said Will is Signed and Sealed, and was published, and Declared, by the said Testator to be his last Will and Testament, no Deed whatever, can Revoke the same, unless it be done as the Statute directs, for as the Writing produced by the Proponent as the pretended last Will of the said Hugh Dilkes Harding is neither Sealed, nor Declared by the Testator to be his last Will in the presence of the Subscribing Witness the said Writing according to Law, cannot be Admitted, but as a Memorandum written by another person, than the said Hugh Dilkes Harding, of a Bequest in favor of a Stranger, to whom the Testator was under no Tie or Obligation, and made without any Consideration Whereas the Will produced by the Opponent, was made in Consideration of the Spiritual Services done by the Opponent and his Friends as well as the intimacy Subsisting between the Testator and the Family of the Residuary Legatee.

For which said good Causes and Motives and because of the Several Errors and Uncertainties contained and Alledged in the said allegations of the said Proponent this Opponent humbly prays that a Probate to the last Will of the said Hugh Dilkes Harding deceased under date the 24 day of July in the year of our Lord 1784 may be granted unto him this Opponent as the Executor therein named and that the Allegations of the said Proponent may be Set a Side with Cost to be paid by the said Proponent

The Charges incurred to the Estate on this Subject have been defrayed by the Administrators and will be particularly stated when the Business is closed.-

The General Confusion spread throughout all the Country by the Incursion of the Enemy in the late War, has not only unavoidably delayed the giving in of the above Accounts to the Honble the Mayors Court, but from having scattered and reduced to Poverty most of the debtors to the Estate, has put it out of the Power of the Administrators to do any thing effectual, but on the Opening of the next Season, their utmost Exertions will be directed towards that Object in which as the Principal Creditors they are themselves deeply interested, and will will not therefore neglect any means which can be devised for the benefit of the Estate and the Advantage of the Creditors in General.—
