Poorney Narrain Pillay Executor of Patcheapah Moodelly deceased

Ramalinga Pillay Sworn on the Part of the Plaintiff

Depose that he was in the Service of Patcheapah deceased in the month of Margaly in the year 1788 as Tapildar. that at that time Patcheapah was at Tanjore and that Patcheapah came to Madras in the year 1790. that the Deponent came with him to Madras. Recollects that there was an alarm in the Country from Looties and that he Knows a part of Patcheapah's Property was sent to the house of Powney Narrain Pillay at Madras. That the Jewels belonging to his Elder Wife were first sent. that he was present when they were packed up and wh[illegible] were afterwards sent to Narrain Pillah's house. - That after the Jewels were sent away, Patcheapah went to the house of his second Wife on the South side, and acquainted her that the People were greatly alarmed on account of the Enemy's horse, afterwards Patcheapah desired his Second Wife to bring the Box containing her Jewels, Who wished to know where Patcheapah meant to send them, who answered that he intended to send them to the house of Powney Narrain Pillay. She thereupon observed that Powney Narrain Pillay was much attached to her Rival and therefore thought the Jewels would be much safer in the hands of some other Person. Patcheapah observed that she need not be under any apprehension at the Jewels being sent to Powney Narrain Pillay as he considered him in the same light as his Father. Whereupon Pauny Aie took off her Jewels from her Neck and some hand Rings and put them into the Box and expressed her apprehensions at the whole of her Property being sent to the care of Powney Narrain Pillay and observed to Patcheapah at the time of his sending away the Jewels that he had promised at the time of her marriage, with him to settle an Estate of forty or fifty thousand Pagodas on her which he had not done, and then she began to cry and lament.
In consequence of Pauny Aie lamenting the said Patcheapah desired this Deponent to bring to him a Cadjan and Iron different Jewels belonging to his Second Wife which he named.

Cadjan writing being produced to the witness Deposes it to be same abovementioned and that Deponent wrote so far as the List of the Jewels. after the List was written by the Deponent Patcheapah desired this Deponent to deliver it to him and Patcheapah then in his own hand wrote the remainder of it. Afterwards Patcheapah desired this Deponent to read the Contents of the Cadjan to Pauney Aie which he did - afterwards Patcheapah desired this Deponent to make a cover for the Cadjan and Patcheapah then delivered it to Pauney Aie. After this Deponent had read the Cadjan to Pauney Aie she o[illegible] that it was expressed in the Cadjan that the whole of [illegible] Jewels and also Twenty Thousand Pagodas out of his Estate had been given to her, when she observed that they had not been given to her, W which Patcheapah took back the Cadjan and made an alteration by inserting "I bind myself to give you - the former and latter words are still remaining on the Cadjan (The Interpreter being asked whether the two modes of Expression in the Cadjan of "I have given You" and "I bind myself to give" make any alteration in the Sense informs the Court he does not think there is any material difference) The Cadjan was afterwards placed in a Box - The Chest of Jewels and another Chest containing wearing Apparel were afterwards sent to Narrain Pillay. There was no other Person present except Patcheapah. his second Wife and this Deponent. This Deponent lived with Patcheapah until the Year 1792. is at present in the management of a Village belonging to Narrain Pillah - first came into his Service about three years ago - the Village is called Nellokey, the Village not being of a rich Soil, it at present yields only about 150 Pagodas annually - this Deponent was examined in the Court of Cutcherry as a Witness in proof of the above Agreement.

Examined

Deposes he has no other name than Ramalinga Pillay - Patcheapah made his Will. the Transaction above referred to took place at Comeivaram Covil. When the Jewels were packed up Patcheapah, his second Wife, this Deponent and Mootal Naick were present. Mootal Naick was called in after the Cadjan was drawn. this Deponent saw Patcheapah write the Cadjan - he wrote six lines previous to his giving it to the Deponent to read.

This Deponent signed his name to the Cadjan after he had read it to Pairiny Aie - the whole of the Cadjan was written before the alteration was made - he signed his name subsequent to the [illegible] of both parties - the alteration was made after Patcheapah had signed the Cadjan. Patcheapah came to Madras on Business, he was at that time in good health, he Patcheapah remained at Madras about 14 Months - he was not in good health at that time, he was ill in the Year 1792, his Disorder was the Palsy by which he lost the use of one Side. about Ten months after Patcheapah's Arrival at Comeivaram Covil he was taken ill.
At the time of making the Agreement he was in good health. and was in good health four months subsequent thereto.
Deponent Knows a Person named Anna Gooroocall. he was a Priest to Patcheapah Moodelliar. he did not live at Patcheapah's house at the time the agreement was executed. he did not come with Patcheapah from Tanjore, but may have come on his own Business. He used to come to Patcheapah's house at Comeivaram Covil and officiate as Priest. Anna Gooroocall lived in Patcheapah's family at Tanjore at one time. The Deponent was in the Service of Patcheapah as Tofeldar at Trivicarai - Knows Hericanah Vencatayyan. he was not present when the Jewels were packed up. Deponent is acquainted with Vadaloo Cunnapilly. cannot tell whether he was Conicoply to Patcheapah - Knows Sawmy Pillah - does not know whether he was in Patcheapah's Service. he did not come with Patcheapah from Tanjore. Is not nearly related to Chittoo Pillah, but is of the same Cast - Has heard of the Marriage of Pairiny Aie with Patcheapah, Deponent was in the service of Patcheapah until his Death and even after his Death he continued in the same service under the directions of the Defendant. Deponent

Have being sent on some employment it was after the execution of the Agreement. Deponent was recommended by Patcheapah as Head Conicoply to the District of Cheddumbaram in the Year Vorooder Corodoo - this Situation was something inferior to what he held before under Patcheapah. At the time he was Tofeldar to Patcheapah, he had Transactions with the Rajah of Tanjore, and when they were settled he remained without service some time and was afterwards recommended by Patcheapah as Head Conicoply to Cheddumbaram. The Deponent is generally with Chittoo Pillah though he does not eat and sleep at his house.
Deponent has not been to Narrain Pillah since his arrival at Madras. receives Wages from Narrain Pillah. The Deft.
Gomastah, Sabaubady, came to the Deponent and paid his Pay at 3 Pagodas ⅌ Month which he continues to Receive. a quarter or half Pagoda less. The Deponent says that Patcheapah delivered the Cadjan to Pairiny Aie, which she kept by her in a small Box. there was only one List of the Jewels made. there was no List of the Elder Wife's Jewels. Deponent saw her Jewels packed up. At the time the list was made the Box was open. the List was not put in the same Box with the Jewels. there were no Friends of Patcheapah present at the time the Cadjan was executed. Did not say at his Examination in the Cutcherry Court that any of Patcheapah's Friends were present at the time the Agreement was executed. Deponent Receives his Pay from Narrain out of the Rents.

speak to Patcheapah's hand writing from that circumstance. The Deponent believes the last part of the Agreement to be the hand Writing of Patcheapah.

Cross Examined. Deponent saw the Cadjan Agreement yesterday at Mr Chalmer's house - never saw it before yesterday - the Deponent was desired to look if it was Patcheapah's hand Writing, at which time the other Cadjan was produced.

Deponent believes it to be the hand Writing of Patcheapah and that he forms such belief from a comparison with the other Cadjan.

Deposes he was acquainted with Patcheapah Moodelly deceased, Knows his hand Writing by having seen him write - used to go to the house of Patcheapah to shroff Money at Tanjore - Cadjan produced to Witness - the last part of the Cadjan is Patcheapah's hand writing and his Signature - the whole of the six Lines is Patcheapah's hand writing.

Cross Examined. Never saw the Cadjan before - was not a Witness in the Cutchery Court - has often seen Patcheapah write - was a Shroff in Patcheapah's Service for ten years and constantly saw him write. Deponent follows the employ of Shroff - Patcheapah sometimes wrote on Paper, sometimes on Cadjan.

Cadjan Exhibit produced to Witness - that when he acted as Arbitrator in the Cutchery Court there was Evidence produced of Patcheapah's hand writing by comparison that it is according to the Laws of the Natives to do so. that he was then employed [illegible] Court with that in question - Narrain Pillah was required in the Cutchery Court to produce some writings to be compared with Patcheapah's which he did produce.

Cross Examined. Deponent looks at the Cadjan - Deposes that when he saw the Cadjan in the Cutchery Court it appeared to him the same as it does now. that the whole of the Cadjan is written in Large Letters, and the alteration is written in small Letters: the alteration therefore appeared to him to be newly written - The Deponent means that it was written at the same time, that as soon as the Cadjan had been written the alteration was made. the Deponent believes the alteration in the Cadjan is of the same hand writing with the rest.

Chittra Pillah Executrix of Pariany Aii Deceased versus

Poorney Narrain Pillah Executor of Patcheapah Moodelly deceased

The Advocate for the Plaintiff deliver in the Probate granted by the late Mayor's Court to Chittra Pillah of the Will of Pariany Aii Deceased.

Anna Goorocall sworn on the Part of the Defendant.

Deposes that he is a Braminy Priest, that he lived with Patcheapah Moodelliar deceased, and lived with him until his Patcheapahs Death. That he was the Priest of Patcheapah, and that the Deponent and his Forefathers lived with from Generation to Generation. That he has known Patcheapah from his the Deponents Infancy – Deponent as his Priest was intimately acquainted with all his Affairs – Deponent frequented Patcheapahs House every day – the Deponent was intimately acquainted with Patcheapahs hand writing, and that he so became acquainted with it having in the course of his attendance at Patcheapahs House frequently seen him write – Patcheapah Moodelliar when he last came to Madras was accompanied by Deponent and that he always travelled with Patcheapah – Patcheapah came last to Madras in the Year Sadanna 1798. does not recollect in what month of that year. During his stay at Madras Patcheapah was seized with the Palsy, to the best of his recollection he was so seized in the month of Thye of the said Year Sadanna. the said Patcheapah was by such disorder deprived of the use of his left side. and in consequence thereof was rendered incapable of walking and that he could not do any thing without the assistance of others – Deponent says that he Patcheapah could move by the assistance of one Person on his left side. During such the illness of Patcheapah he was generally attended by his Servants named Chellapermaul. Vincatayyan. Ramalinga Pillay, Moorgam packed up to be sent to Madras in the month of September 1798. at Comiveram Coil in Patcheapahs house. There were present at that time the forementioned Chellapermaul, Vincatayyen, Ramalinga Pillay and two or three other Persons whose names he does not at present recollect. Deponent says that on that occasion a List was taken of such Jewels, it was so taken by Ramalinga Pillay. There was not any objection made by Talamy Aii to the Jewels being sent to Madras. she did not at that time mention any thing to Patcheapah of any Promises that he had not fulfilled. the Jewels were sent for the purpose of safety from the Enemy. Patcheapah Moodelly could not at this time move without assistance. After Ramalinga Pillah had made the List it was put into the Box containing the Jewels. That Patcheapah Moodelly did not write any thing upon the List. the List was read over to Patcheapah but he did not take it into his hand. Deponent says that Patcheapah at that time was not capable of writing on a Cadjan. that it is necessary to make use of the left hand in writing on a Cadjan. and that is the reason the Deponent has said Patcheapah was incapable of writing on a Cadjan. Deponent says that Patcheapah had Paper Pen and Ink in his house. After Patcheapah was taken ill one Vinaya Moorty Pillay generally wrote for him. Deponent has been in the strictest Intimacy with Patcheapah for thirty Years. that he constantly attended him during that time as his Priest. Cadjan Agreement being produced to Deponent saith that no part thereof is of Patcheapahs hand writing. the two last divisions of the Cadjan are in a different hand to the other part which is the hand writing of Ramalinga Pilla. Deponent was present when the List of Jewels was taken, and from knowing the hand writing of Ramalinga Pilla and recollecting that the List was written on a single leaf, and by being present Deponent says that the Cadjan produced is the same. and that so much of the Cadjan ending with the last Item of the List is the hand writing of a away in his presence. Deponent has heard that the Chest was brought back again. Patcheapah was a rich Man and lived in great Magnificence. Kept many Servants and that there were always a number of his Servants attending him during his Illness.

Cross Examined. Deponent says he has heard that one Vidanada Moodelliar was Patcheapah's Father, that he does not know if he was a Man of Property. Deponent does not know who was Vidanada's Father. Deponent's Fore Fathers were Priests to Vidanada. Patcheapah was of the Soodra Cast. that it is divided into different Casts. he does not know to which of those Casts Patcheapah belonged. Deponent says that Patcheapah was considered of an inferior Cast, that he was looked upon as a Bastard. The Office of Priest is not merely confined to saying Prayers. That he is acquainted with some part of Patcheapah's Concerns. Patcheapah used to consult Deponent on the subject of Charities.
Deponent always went to Patcheapah's house for the purpose of saying Prayers. Deponent has seen Patcheapah write on occasions of making Lists for Charitable purposes which he has shown to Deponent. Patcheapah always wrote on Paper. Deponent says that there will appear a difference in a Persons hand writing when writing on Paper and on a Cadjan. Cadjan produced to Deponent says that having always seen Patcheapah's hand writing on Paper and never saw him write on a Cadjan, he therefore cannot say whether the Signature to the Cadjan is of Patcheapah's hand writing. Cadjan Agreement produced to Witness says, that he cannot say whether the Signature thereto is of Patcheapah's Writing, having always seen him write on Paper. Deponent is acquainted with Ramalinga Pillai's hand writing by having seen him write on a Madras he was accompanied by Jaggapatty Iyer Brother to Juggapah and he thinks that the Family came with him but cannot say. Deponent accompanied Patcheapah. Deponent thinks that the Women came to Madras sometime subsequent to Patcheapah's arrival at Madras. Deponent does not recollect the date when Patcheapah was seized with the Palsy but that it was subsequent to Pongall. Deponent remembers to have given a Deposition before Mr Kindersley in this matter - says that he then mentioned the month of Thye in the Year Sadarna.

Deponent's Examination in the Cutchery Court produced to Deponent admits it to be Copy of the Declaration given by him it appears from the Declaration that Patcheapah was attacked with the Palsy on the 13th Jany 1792. Deponent says there appears one years difference between what he then said and now. The Jewels were sent to Ponney Narrains house in the Month of September, of Year Veroocroodoo. answering to 1791, which was subsequent to his being struck with the Palsy. Patcheapah was attacked with the Palsy in the month of Thye, year Sadarna, answering to January 1791.
Deponent says it was customary for Patcheapah to make a List for Charitable Purposes every year, and he may have made one in the Year of Veroocroodoo, Month of Thye. And he thinks that Patcheapah might have signed a Deed of Gift in that year but he was not present. Patcheapah had entirely lost the use of his left hand and had very little use of the left leg by the Palsy, in other respects he was in good health. At the time the List of Jewels was made, Patcheapah could write with Pen and Ink. Deponent was in Patcheapah's House when the account came of the Enemy's Horse, that he was with Patcheapah below stairs. The Elder Wife lived in the North side, and the Second on the South side, they lived below stairs. Vencataroy, Chellapermaul and Ramalinga Pillah were with Patcheapah when the [illegible] of the House. Patcheapah ordered his Aii was present and sent for the Jewels. The Jewels of the other Wife were sent to Madras subsequent to Palamy Aii's. Deponent saw some Chests carried to Pomay Narrain Pillay's house. that with respect to Palamy Aii's Jewels he was present when the List was made, and which was put with the Chest and sent away - Chellapermaul accompanied by Vincatarayan carried away the Chest. That Patcheapah upon the News being received of the Loss sent away some things and that some Jewels were sent off previous to Palamy Aii. - he was present when some other Jewels were packed up & sealed. Palamy Aii's Jewels were packed up in a Box by themselves. Deponent having read a Copy of a Declaration given by him in the Cutcherry Court admits it to be correct. Deponent says that the List of the Jewels was made out that they might be found out regularly afterwards - that it was made as a Check on Narrain.

Questn. Whether it was for the purpose of being a Check on Narrain Pillay that Ramalinga signed his Name to the List?

Answr. - He did not see Ramalinga Pillay sign his Name to the List, nor was he desired to do so.

Questn. If any of the Jewels were missing how were they to be recovered from Narrain, there being no Witness to it?

Ansr. He does not Know.

Patcheapah employed Vmaya Moodley Pillah to write matters of length. those that were short he wrote himself. At the time the List of Jewels was made out, Palamy Aii, Chellapermal and Vincatarayan and some other Servants of the deceased were present - Admits he did not mention in his declaration that there were more than two present. The Box containing the Jewels was oblong, flat at the Top, made of wood of a red colour - thinks it was a plain Teak wood Box. Does not dictated by Deponent and written by another Man - he thinks the Copy produced is a true Copy but unless he can have an opportunity of comparing it with the Original he cannot say - he cannot tell whether the dates mentioned in that Paper are the same as given by him in the Cutcherry Court. Deponent positively says that at the time the Jewels were taken and the List made that Patcheapah was afflicted with the Palsy. Deponent says that on looking at the Paper describing his Declaration in the Cutcherry Court he thinks there is a mistake of one year with respect to the time when Patcheapah was seized with the Palsy. - There was no Copy taken of the List of the Jewels.
