The Matter in Dispute between the Petitioner and the Respondent Coming on to be Argued and Determined this day in the presence of the Attorneys on both Sides and the Court having had due Consideration thereon doth think fit to Order and doth Accordingly Order that the Prayer of the Petitioners Petition be over ruled and that the Sheriffs do pay unto the Parties Petitioner and Respondent in Proportion to their respective Claims the Sum Levied by Sale out of the Estate and Effects of Duncan Andrew Barnes Deceased and it is further Ordered that each party do pay their own Costs -

Mr. Alderman Ross dissents to the Resolution of the Court because the

the Original Claim of the Petitioner is founded upon a Bond being specialty to which the Law gives a preference and which ought therefore to be paid first and because the Claim of the Respondent is Originally founded upon a Matter of Account which is only a Simple Contract Debt -

Bill with Copy of an Account Current Answered Read – Affidavit of the Complainant Read – Plea Read –

The Defendants Plea to the Complainants Bill Coming on to be Argued and Determined this Day in the presence of the Attornies on both Sides and the Court having had due Consideration thereon are of Opinion that the Defendants Plea is good and Sufficient This Court doth therefore think fit to Order and doth Accordingly Order that the Complainants Bill do stand dismissed with Costs –

Mr Alderman Ross Dissents to the Resolution of this Court and will Send

Send in his Reasons at a future day –

Because in his Opinion none of the Reasons offered in Support of the said Plea appear to – be well founded – or give a sufficient foundation for pushing the present Complainant under the – Necessity of seeking for Relief in this Court by the mode of a Cross Bill – to be brought forward on the ground of the Action which the Defendant in the present Suit has recently entered against the present Complainant that being clearly an Action in the Nature of a Trespass where no – Specific Debt is Alledged – but merely the Withholding of a certain Property which is said to be wrongfully withheld – or the value thereof is required to be – ascertained – And this being an Action upon the Case in the Nature of a Bill of Discovery – where Several Articles of Charge are Specially Set forth to which the Defendant is required to give Specific Answers – and a Claim made upon the foundation of such Charges to the Amount of Pag. 10197 – which is also Supported by – Affidavit – And under such Circumstances it is of a Nature altogether different from and — totally Unconnected with the ground of Action in the Bill of the present Defendant who cannot therefore be entitled to Plead the Statute which was made for the Relief of Debtors in the view of giving them an Option (but by no means of Compelling them) to set off one — Debt against Another — a Mode of proceeding for which there does not appear to be the most distant Colour of Reason in the present Case nor can the Complainants (whose Bill is now dismissed) be put under the Necessity of Adopting it — without Subjecting him to a Hardship in the mode of seeking Redress (this that surely Cannot be the intention of this Court) totally incompatible with the Rules of Proceeding in all Courts, and should now therefore have been Avoided in the present instance —

p Curr

Mr. Alderman Ross Dissents to the Resolution of the Court and will send in his Reasons at a future day.—

Because the Contest in the present Suit by the Tenor of the Proceedings appears to be carried on between the Assignor of the Bond Sued for (who is a Native) and the Defendant (who is also a Native) as if the property still Remained in the Assignor—tho the name of the Assignee for the sake of form is introduced into the Bill of Complaint—which is not only a palpable evasion of that part of his Majesties Charter, which prohibits the Natives from Suing each other in this Court, but is a deviation from the Rules of Law which direct that the property of a Bond Assignee for a valuable Consideration paid shall be Solely vested in the Assignee whose right is so absolute in the Eye of the Law, that if the Obligor after Notice of the Assignment pays the Money to the Obligee, he will be Compelled to pay it over again—and if the present Case these Principles of Law are to be set aside in favour of the Assignor, no Bond Assignee can be safe, for the Assignor will always find some pretence to Suggest that the Bond was taken in Trust for him, and that the Assignee is only a Nominal Plaintiff—and as in the present Case the Consideration having been paid by the Assignee—and that his Name is Used merely in Consequence of a corrupt Bargain, in which a small Consideration may have been given for the purpose of evading the Order of the Charter (on the Restraint put upon the Suits of Natives) it is still less Necessary or Proper to Consider the present Suitor as entitled to the Decree which is now given in his favour, whether the Transferor or the Transferee is Regarded as the Real Client.—

Mr Stephen Popham Attorney for the Respondent - Domingas Johnson acquaints the Court that on last Court Day Judgment was given in favor of his Client in the above Matter with Costs and during the time he was out of Court the Opposite Attorney prayed that each party might pay their own Costs which was agreed upon by the Court The said Attorney further Acquaints the Court that had he been present he should have opposed the Motion made by the Attorney for the Petitioner Ruangapah Naick Respecting the Costs upon the same grounds which he Stated to the Court as a Reason why they should Adjudge Costs in favor of his Client Viz. That the principal part of the Expence Attending the Proceedings arose from the Petitioner having Attempted to Open the Decree as being unfairly obtained by by

by Examining Witnesses thereto after an Execution had issued to carry the same into Effect He therefore prays that the Court will take the same into Consideration and Order the Judgment to Stand as it Originally passed in favor of the Respondent to which the Opposite Attorney objects because he conceives the Motion is irregular and ought to have been brought forward by a Petition for Rehearing or if upon Motion Regular Notice of that Motion ought to have been given and because part of the Petitioners Petition was granted The Court having taken the same into Consideration it is Ordered that the Order of Court made on this Matter of the 5th day of this Instant Respecting the payment of Costs do Stand Reversed and that the Petitioner do pay all the Costs Attending this Matter.—

London Attorney at Law Sir John Reynolds Baronet and of Mr. James Grierson a Material Witness in this Cause — Agreeably to his prayer of last Court day. To which the Opposite Attorney objects because the Defendant hath not Set forth in his Affidavit any Special Circumstances of the Case to induce the Court to grant a Commission beyond Sea nor does

the Affidavit Set forth the belief of the Defendant that he cannot proceed to a hearing without the Evidence of the said James Grierson for want of which certainly and as the Action is founded upon a Bond wherein the said James Grierson is not a Witness, the said Affidavit is insufficient to Warrant the granting of the Defendants prayer which doth not appear otherwise than as a Calculate for the purpose of delay. We therefore pray that the prayer of the

Demurrer filed this Day —

The Attornies for the Defendant acquaint the Court that they did last Court Day pray that the Complainant might deliver into Court by this Court Day the several Exhibits then prayed for which he has neglected doing they therefore pray that they may now deliver the same in to which the Opposite Attornies object — because they have not been Served with an Extract from the Minutes of that Day — The Court having taken the same into Consideration are of Opinion that the Cause shewn is insufficient — but it is Ordered that the Opposite Party be allowed till Next Court Day to deliver in the Exhibits prayed for —

Mr. Brennan Ross Dissents to the Resolution of the Court — because he believes there have been frequent Instances in Court of Extracts having been Served upon the Opposite Attorney when the Compliance of an Order of Court was required and if the Practice of the Court is uncertain with respect to the Serving of Extracts the same ought to be first determined by a full Court he is therefore of Opinion that the Opposite party ought to be allowed till Next Court day to deliver in the Papers prayed for or shew Cause to the Contrary — Messrs. Brennan Readhead and Rochuck can find no Rule of Court or Precedent on the Records nor have the Opposite Attornies pointed out any Specific Instance wherein it has been Required — Mr. Brennan Ross in Reply thereto observes that he thinks there has not been sufficient time during the Sitting of the Court to enquire into what has been the Practice of the Court in like Cases though he has said he believes it has been frequently done —

Mr. Brennan Readhead goes off the Bench —
The Mayor returns to his Seat and the Maces are Replaced —

Exhibits on the part of the Complainant Marked A B & C Read

This Cause Coming on to be Heard and Debated this Day in the presence of the Attorneys on both

both Sides on Reading the Complainants Bill with Copies of a Bill of Sale, a Policy of Insurance Paragraph of a Letter and an Account Annexed, The Defendants Answer, The Replication, The Rejoinder, The Interrogatories and Depositions on the part of the Complainant with three Exhibits Marked A B & C with Translations thereof Annexed, The Interrogatories and Depositions on the part of the Defendant One Exhibit on the part of the Complainant Marked D & One Rehearing the Pleadings made Use of by the Attornies and on due Consideration had thereon This Court doth think fit to Review and Decree and doth Accordingly Order and Decree that the Decree of this Court of the 2nd April last do stand Confirmed and that the Defendants do pay the Costs Attending the Rehearing of this Cause —

Mr Alexander Wedderburn Doth Dissent to the Resolution of the Court being of Opinion that in all Cases of Loss a Absolute proof of the property is indispensably Necessary which has not been produced on the present Occasion —

Mr Norman Mitchell Dissents to the Resolution of the Court and will Sign in his Reasons at a future Day —

Because no proof of the Complainants Interest was produced and by the Laws of Insurance, the Insured cannot be entitled to Recover without first clearly establishing the existence of the Interest upon which he grounds his Right and this Sign of Opinion cannot be done by a Simple Declaration, such as that brought before the Court, which is neither Attested upon Oath or sufficiently Specific —

Because without sufficient proof of Interest either by Bill of Lading or Competent Affidavit, No Insurer can Deem himself Safe, but is liable to Payment of pretended Losses on the mere Ipse dixit of others — a Practice, which will discourage Insurances by opening a Door to Wrongs highly grievous to the Fair Insurer —

Because, the Insurer, Relying on the Information given to him by the Party wishing to insure, is always Subjected to Imposition, and in case of Loss, as Cash in Common to Imposition, and in case of Loss, as Cash in Common equity entitled to the most unequivocal Proofs, that the Interest Insured was bona fide on board The Laws of Insurance Sensible of the very ill Effects and dangerous grounds upon which the Insurer and Insured Stand, have wisely ordained that all Claims on Insurances for Payment of Losses shall be Substantiated by the fullest and Clearest Testimony, and therefore the Insured has been guilty, however unintentionally of the Smallest error or omission, which may have operated to the Prejudice of the Insurer, the Policy shall be void also, as otherwise a field would be open for Abuses and the Insurance System must soon fall to the ground —

Because the Merchants are sufficiently well versed in the Customs and Laws of Commerce to know that it is expedient in all Cases, to have Bills of Lading or Receipts for Goods actually Shipped — without adverting to any further Necessity of proving the Interest on board in case of Loss, the precaution of taking Receipts or Bills of Lading is absolutely requisite for obtaining the delivery of the Goods from the Commander of the Vessel and this precaution is seldom or ever Neglected — It is also the Common Practice of Merchants for very obvious Reasons, to take, not one, but three Receipts or Bills of

Lading

Lading — In the present instance, if the observance of this Common and Necessary Rule has been wilfully omitted, it must have been for some improper purpose if Accidentally, the Party has had the fullest advantage of his own wrong, which neither Law Reason nor precedent can Justify —

Henry Chichley Mitchell
Merchant —

I beg leave to Subscribe to the Reasons set forth in the foregoing Dissent, as the grounds of the Dissent entered by Me on the Minutes to the Resolution of the Court on the 3rd May —

Petition of the Defendant Read and filed this Day — praying for a Rehearing of the Order of Court passed in this Cause on the 3d. Ultimo — to which the Opposite Attornies object because it appears that the Court have Determined upon the Defendants motion upon the grounds of an Affidavit — shewing that it was not possible for the Complainant to comply with the Order of the Court and further because the Defendant hath rendered the Cause unnecessary by putting in a Demurrer which precludes a Rehearing to the Merits of the Cause as the same only goes to what appears upon the face of the Bill They therefore Submit to the Consideration of the Court the Regularity or Necessity of granting a Rehearing The Attornies for the Defendant in Reply to the Objections Stated by the Attornies for the Complainant request the Court that their prayer for the Production of the Papers was made prior to the filing of the Demurrer the present objection therefore of the Opposite Attornies if of any weight ought to have been made when they were Ordered to shew Cause it is now out of time the Matter in Question has been Discussed and it is a Rehearing of that Discussion the Defendant prays for and which he hopes the Court will grant for the Reasons he has stated The Court having taken the same into Consideration it is Ordered that a Rehearing be granted and that the same do
