It appearing to the Court that in the Proceedings within this Cause are very intricate and perplexed for want of Accounts between the Parties being annexed to the Proceedings to shew what Sums have been paid and received on account of the mortgaged Plantation and for unravelling the different Lines of Fragment, without which the Court are unable to form any certain Judgment with regard to the Merits of the Suit. It is therefore Ordered that the several Proceedings be dismissed, and the Parties are left to commence their Action and that each party do pay his own Costs.
