Mr. John Turing Sheriff appears and delivers into Court, the following Letter which is ordered to be Entered.

To the Worshipful the Mayors Court of Madraspatnam.

I take the Liberty to represent to this Worthy Court a flagrant and recent instance of the venality, Disobedience, and ill Conduct of Samuel Moyses and Thomas Innes my Officers as Sheriff of these Districts.

Last Friday afternoon the Mayor issued a Warrant of committment against the Body of Clement Poveyo, which Warrant my Deputy as usual brought and shewed to me, whereupon I ordered Poveyo to be immediately imprisoned accordingly my Deputy directed Thomas Innes to carry and deliver Poveyo into the Goalers Charge, but he instead of following this Order, suffered the said Poveyo to escape that night at his own Houses upon sending this to be the Case, next morning I sent him under my Deputy and repeated my positive orders for Clement Poveyo's

Povenjo's being directly secured in Goal, which my Deputy enjoined Samuel Hays to execute, who however delayed the same till Saturday Evening, and then as I am informed accepted a Bribe from Povenjo to allow him to stay another night out of Prison — on Sunday morning finding to my great Surprize that Clement Povenjo had not been imprisoned notwithstanding my peremptory Orders for his being secured, I wrote a note to my Deputy demanding the reasons why my Orders had not been obeyed, when he acquainted me that the aforesaid Court Serjeants had suffered Clement Povenjo to make his Escape, either through their Connivance or incapacity by Drunkenness to Guard him —

It being highly necessary that an Example should be made of so unworthy Men in order to deter others from the like bad Practices — I do not think either Samuel Hayes or Thomas Jones are any longer fit to serve as my officers, and moreover submit it to this Honble Court to inflict what Punishment their enormeous Crime may seem to deserve — I am with great respect

Fort St George
17th March 1767

The Honble Court's
most obedient Servant
John Turing Sheriff

John Patterson the Deputy Sheriff being duly Sworn acquaints the Court that on Tuesday the 12th Instant he received Orders from the Sheriff to deliver the Body of Clement Povenjo into the Custody of the Gaoler, that he in consequence thereof delivered him into the Charge of Thomas Jones one of the Sheriffs officers, with an Order for the Gaoler to receive him — That the next morning Thomas Jones sent to acquaint this Deponent, that he had kept the Defendant Clement Povenjo out of Prison all night, and desired Leave to permit him to remain out of it that Day — That this Deponent was very angry and sent word to Thomas Jones that he could give no such permission, and at the same time, that he thought he had been committed to Prison all that time, and ordered him in his Rent to commit him immediately — notwithstanding on the 15th in the morning Thomas Jones came to this Deponents House and acquainted him, that Samuel Hayes the other Sheriffs officer had suffered the Defendant, Clement Povenjo, to escape on Horseback as he Samuel Hayes was conducting him to the Company's Gardens — This Deponent immediately acquainted the Sheriff thereof, and dispatched Peons in search of him — at the same time Mr Cranwell sent a Servant desiring this Deponent to come and speak to him, who informed this Deponent that he had reason to believe Mr John Jolly and Captain Sayan were privy to his Escape, as John Jolly had given the Serjeants Money to prevail on them to keep him out of Goal — That John Jolly had also offered Mr Cranwell 5 Pagodas as a recompence for the loss of his time — On the 16th in the Evening this Deponent went to the House of Samuel Hayes who informed him, that Thomas Jones had the Charge of the Defendant Clement Povenjo, when he made his Escape, and further that he was that he had been sent for to the House of Captain Sayan by Thomas Jones the 16th in the Evening, when he took the Charge of Clement Povenjo from Thomas Jones, and ordered him to go with him to Prison — upon which John Jolly stept him and told him there was no fear of the Defendant that he would get Bail and that Mr Cranwell spoke much to the same purpose — soon after Samuel Hayes acquainted Mr Cranwell, that there was a Palankin and Bridle sent privately into a Stable by Clement Povenjo's Servants, and that the Horse was to be sent there also as soon as he had eat his Grass — upon which Jolly made answer upon his word the Horse was shot — sometime after Jolly gave Samuel Hayes Pags 5/2 which asked what it was for, and was told by Jolly that he made him a present of it —

Samuel Hayes being called upon acquaints the Court that on Saturday the 14th Instant about noon the Wife of Thomas Jones sent to speak with him, and desired him to go to her Husband, that he was with Clement Povenjo who had not committed him to Prison — That this Deponent accordingly went to him and found there sitting at Captain Sayans Door, and asked him where Clement Povenjo was, who said he was in Captain Sayans House — This Deponent then asked Thomas Jones why he did not commit him to Prison the day before, when he had him in the Fort — who replied that he

the had given Bail in one Suit, and he thought he would give Bail in this — As this Deponent was going to the Door of Captain Sayan's House, he — spoke to the Defendant Clement Povenyo, and desire him to come out, as he must go to Prison immediately — Mr John Jolly then came to this Deponent, and desired him not to be in a hurry, that Clement Povenyo was going to give Major Bonjour and Captain Sayan as Bail, and that he was going to send for Mr Cranwell the Attorney immediately — That Mr Cranwell came about 4 or 5 o'Clock in the afternoon and went in to Mr Jolly, that Clement Povenyo and these Two, talked together for sometime, and it being near 6 o'Clock this Deponent went to Mr Jolly and Mr Cranwell, who came to the Door, and acquainted this Deponent, that he had no occasion to be afraid of Clement Povenyo's running away, and Mr Cranwell at the same time said he was Attorney for the Complainants, and a little after a Portuguese Man came and told him that Clement Povenyo's Saddle was wrapt up in Cloth, and that his Horse was to be taken away as soon as he had eaten his Gram, upon which this Deponent went & acquainted Mr Cranwell and Mr Jolly thereof, which gave this Deponent great suspicion of Clement Povenyo's intention of going away — That Mr Jolly said that he was sure Clement Povenyo's House was sold for 60 Pags and that the person who bought him was come to take him away — soon after which the same Portuguese Boy told this Deponent that he saw two Bottles of Wine and a Loaf go out of Clement Povenyo's House of which this Deponent then informed Mr Cranwell and Mr Jolly, upon which they again assured this Deponent he would not run away — Mr Cranwell saying at the same time that when a Man came out of his House that his Servants would wrong him, that he on Horseback imagined the Servants had Stole the Wine and Bread — at Gun fire Mr Jolly and Mr Cranwell came out and walked with this Deponent, and Mr Jolly took this Deponent by the Hand, and put something into it, what it was he did not know — That Mr Cranwell said that Major Bonjour and Captain Sayan would become Bail for Clement Povenyo on Monday — That when this Deponent found it was money Mr Jolly had put into his hand, he asked him, what it was for? who said he made him a Present of it — That the money he received was Pagodas 4-8-2 Fan — Two Pagodas of which he afterwards gave to Jones — Mr Jolly then turning to Mr Cranwell said as you have taken such great Trouble, Clement Povenyo would make him a handsome Present, and then told this Deponent that Clement Povenyo would also make him a handsome Present, which this Deponent said he did not want — Between 9 and 11 o'Clock they broke up from Table and Mr Jolly and Mr Cranwell — this Deponent knew that the Prison Doors were locked, he could not be put in that Night, he then sent for Thomas Jones, and they went with Clement Povenyo to his House — and this Deponent told Jones that if he was sleepy he might lie down, and this Deponent would call him when he was sleepy — upon which Jones laid down & slept till about ½ past 4 o'Clock, when this — Deponent waked him and delivered Clement Povenyo into his Custody, and this Deponent then lay down on the Payall, and slept till almost 6 o'Clock, and when he waked Clement Povenyo was dozing himself and Jones walking about the House — Jones then desired this Deponent to go home and get — something to eat and he would take Charge of the Defendant Clement Povenyo, which this Deponent did — That he saw Jones and Clement Povenyo going towards the Garden House, and this Deponent said to Jones, for God's sake take Care of him, and keep hold of the Horses Rein, who said he would take Care

Care of him — That this Deponent sent a Servant with them, who soon after returned and acquainted this Deponent that Clement Povenzo had gone off from Thomas Jones, upon which this Deponent immediately went and acquainted Mr Cranwell therewith and desired him to lend him his Horse, that he might follow him, which Mr Cranwell refused doing, and— while this Deponent was endeavoring to prevail on Mr Cranwell to lend his Horse, Thomas Jones and his Wife came in — That Jones also asked him— for the Horse which he refused lending — which when this Deponent heard, he went out of the House, to Mr Harrison's, and desired him to lend his Palankeen, which he did, and this Deponent got two other Palankeen Boys — That this Deponent went as far as Saint Thomé, but could not discover which way he had taken, upon which He sent Boys about Saint Thomé to endeavor to Mr Cranwell, and Thomas Jones one of the Sheriffs Officers, being absent in Search of the Defendant — Deferred the Consideration of this Matter till next Court Day —

The Sheriff acquaints the Court that the Defendant had been taken and Committed to Prison.

The Attorney for the Complainant prays that a Warrant of Execution may issue against the Defendants Effects, he not having Satisfied the Decree of this Court passed the 10.th Instant.

Granted as returnable the 21.st day of April next.

The Court proceeding to take into Consideration the matter relative to the Escape of the Defendant.

Mr. Cranwell being duely Sworn acquaints the Court that on Saturday the 11.th Instant in the afternoon he received a Note from Mr. Solly desiring to speak with him at Captain Faujas's House, that he accordingly went there, and found Mr. Solly sitting at the Door with one Hayward the Defendant, Captain Faujas and [illegible] Faillet, that Mr. Solly acquainted him that he wanted him to accept from an agreement from the Defendant to pay the Complainants 300 Pagodas Pannum. This Deponent told him he was only Attorney for the Complainants and that he could do nothing unless they were present. That Hayes on about 2 Hours after came and told this Deponent that the Defendants Saddle was Carried into a Tope, and the Horse was to follow when he had eaten his Grain, which this Deponent informed Mr. Solly of, and at the same time told him it looked as if he intended to get away. Mr. Solly said there was no Danger, for the Horse was sold, sometime after Mr. Solly was walking with this Deponent, the made Hayes a Present, and offered this Deponent something, which he refused, that Mr. Solly told him, that it was in Consideration of the trouble he had in coming and for his loss of time. about the close of the Evening this Deponent told Hayes, that the Sum was great, and advised him to be careful and do nothing without the Orders of the Deputy Sheriff, and Mr. Solly added that he was not responsible for the Defendant, and whilst this Deponent saw he was Hayes was a little intoxicated / repeated to him once or twice. This Deponent stayed Supper, and went away between ten and Eleven. The next morning Hayes and Innes came to this Deponent and informed him that the Defendant had escaped, and Hayes desired this this Deponent to lend his Horse, which he refused, as he had once before lent him, and he was hurt - about 11 - o'clock Sunday morning Anthony Johnson who had become Bail for the Defendant in another Suit came to this Deponent, & acquainted him that he was informed that the Defendant's Family was at Poolong - upon which this Deponent offered to go after him with any other Person, and that one Mr Williams and this Deponent accordingly went in Search of him on monday morning at one o'clock, and found him to the Westward of Madras - This Deponent absolutely denies his having acquainted Hayes that he was Attorney for the Complainants or endeavored by any means to prevail on him to keep the Defendant out of Prison -

Mr John Selby being duly Sworn acquaints the Court that on Saturday the 14th Instant this Deponent going to settle some affairs with the Defendant, who he understood had been Arrested, he found him at Captain Sazan's in the Black Town - that when this Deponent had settled his Business with the Defendant, Hayes desired to stay and dine with Captain Sazan, which he did - This Deponent stayed there till 5 o'Clock, and took his leave to go away, but was earnestly desired by the Defendant to use whatever endeavors were in his power to keep him out of Prison untill he could see the Nabob, Mr Bull or Major Boyajee, who he was sure would find some method to prevent his going to Goal, and be the means of bringing his Cause before the Court of Appeals, which he was sure would reverse the Decree of this Court - Every Gentleman on that Court knowing the real State of his Case, and how much he had been injured by the Judgement - This Deponent told him, he would do every thing consistent with the Honor, Justice and his safety, But before he would venture to intermeddle in a matter of so delicate a nature, he begged to have the Affair laid before Mr Cranwell the Attorney of the opposite Party, who being sent for immediately came - This Deponent proposed to him that the Defendant should pay Pagodas 300 p annum in discharge of his Debt which would be more advisable than throwing him into Prison - But Mr Cranwell saying he could enter into no such Composition - This Deponent asked Mr Cranwell what could be done consistent with Justice, to keep him out of Prison till he could see the Gentlemen he had desired - That Mr Cranwell told this and at the same time added, that He thought the escape of the Defendant in the Situation he was could not be dreaded, He might possibly venture to indulge him But that it was the Business of the Serjeant to look to it - This Deponent then went to the Serjeant, and in the hearing of Mr Cranwell proposed to him to permit the Defendant to remain out of Prison, till he could speak to the Gentlemen he desired - The Serjeant at first was scrupulous of complying, but in about a ½ an Hour after came and informed this Deponent that the Defendant's Saddle was sent out of the House, and the Horse led to a Tope, with which he suspected he wanted to make his Escape, This This Deponent informed the Defendant of, who swore in the most Solemn manner that He had no such intention, which this Deponent had the more reason to believe, as about 2 Hours before, He had offered his Horse to him, But on his refusal of it, it was immediately bought by Captain Sazan, of which this Deponent immediately informed the Serjeant. The Serjeant yet appeared Scrupulous and at last Captain Sazan proposed sending for the Deputy Sheriff and becoming Security for the Defendant by giving a Note of hand for the amount of his Debt untill it could be done in a more regular manner - That Mr Villard who at that time came in, dissuaded Captain Sazan from doing so, telling him the Defendant was a Man continually forming Schemes which generally ended in his own hurt, and so very unchangeable that he never knew his own mind 2 Hours together, and might therefore possibly make his Escape, and Mr Villard further added that every end could be answered by letting him remain in the Serjeants Hands, who could effectually prevent his running away, and at the same time give him Liberty to do his Business provided they were properly recompensed for their trouble, upon which the Defendant desired this Deponent again to speak to the Serjeants and to give them 5 Pagodas to keep him from going to Prison, which this Deponent complied with - But at the same time repeatedly told the Serjeants, "Remember I do not know what your Duty is, do not do "a wrong thing, and afterwards think of throwing the Blame on me - Extend your "Clemency as far as you can, which I am answerable if you are properly satisfied, But at the "same time do not neglect your Duty" - Mr Cranwell seemed to have no Objection

Antony Thomas who claims Back for the Services of a Negro Man named Jacob

To the Honorable the Judge of the Parish and City of New Orleans in Chancery sitting

Your Petitioner humbly shews that on the 15th day of December 1821 he purchased of Jacob Barker a Negro Man named Jacob for the price and sum of Eight hundred Dollars which he has paid and discharged as will appear by the Bill of Sale hereto annexed and marked A. That the said Negro Man Jacob has absconded from the service of your Petitioner and has refused to return to his said service although your Petitioner has frequently demanded him of the said Jacob Barker and has offered to pay all reasonable charges for the apprehension and delivery of the said Negro Man Jacob to your Petitioner. That your Petitioner has been informed and believes that the said Negro Man Jacob is now employed as a Waiter on board the Steam Boat called the Natchez Capt. Henry Shreve now lying in the Port of New Orleans. That your Petitioner has applied to the said Capt. Henry Shreve to deliver up the said Negro Man Jacob to your Petitioner but the said Capt. Henry Shreve refuses to deliver up the said Negro Man Jacob to your Petitioner unless he is compelled by the Order of this Honorable Court. That your Petitioner is willing and ready to pay all reasonable charges for the apprehension and delivery of the said Negro Man Jacob to your Petitioner. That your Petitioner is informed and believes that the said Negro Man Jacob is now on board the said Steam Boat Natchez lying in the Port of New Orleans. That your Petitioner is willing and ready to give Security for the Value of the said Negro Man Jacob in case he should be lost or destroyed while in the possession of your Petitioner. That your Petitioner is willing and ready to give Security for the Costs of this Suit. That your Petitioner is willing and ready to give Security for the Damages which may accrue to the said Capt. Henry Shreve by the detention of the said Negro Man Jacob

The Court taking into consideration the Prayer of the Defendants Attorney made on the 26th. May last for quashing the Depositions of Vincatashellom Moodelly, Vincatadry, and Raganadaren, as being interested in the Issue of the Suit are of opinion that the said Persons are Interested in the Issue of the Suit, It is therefore Ordered that their Depositions be thrown out

This Cause coming on to be heard and debated this day in the presence of the Attornies on both sides, on reading the Complainants Bill, with a Translate of an Obligation annexed, The Defendants Answer with Translates of Two Bonds, a Bond, and an agreement annexed - The Replication, The Rejoinder The Interrogatories and Depositions on the part of the Complainant with a Bond annexed, The Interrogatories and Depositions on the part of the Defendant Four Exhibits on the part of the Defendants An Extract from the Minutes of Court on hearing the pleadings made use of by the Attornies and on due Consideration had thereon It appearing to the Court, that the amount of the Bond on which the Defendants are sued, was not lent to them, but that the Complainants Dubash Vincatashellom Moodelly lent to Vincatarry and Raganadarow, Renters of the Salawadi Country the sum of One Thousand Pagodas Pagodas 1000-/ and as a Security for the said Sum, they deposited with the said Vincatashellom Moodelly an Obligation of the Defendants to the said Renters for Two Thousand five Hundred and Thirty one Manoodelly Pagodas, Three fanams and Sixty Cash which appears to have been extorted from the Defendants by force and Violence - without any Valuable Consideration given by the said Renters, and it also appearing to the Court that the Defendants were by Imprisonment and other Illwages obliged and compelled by the said Vincatashellom Moodelly to execute the Obligation on which they are now sued, without their receiving any valuable Consideration for the same This Court doth therefore think fit to Order and Decree, and doth accordingly Order and Decree that the said Obligation shall be Cancelled and annulled, and that the Complainants Bill shall stand Dismissed with Costs of Suit.

This Cause coming on to be heard and debated this day in the presence of the Attorneys on both sides on reading the Complainants Bill with a Note of Hand annexed, the Defendants Answer with an Account Current and Letter annexed the Bill of Reply the Replication, the Rejoinder Two Exhibits on the part of the Defendant on hearing the pleadings made use of by the Attorneys and on mature consideration had thereon It appearing to the Court from the length of time which happened between the Date of the Note of Hand on which the Complainant founds his Demand, and the time the Suit was commenced which is near six years and from no mention being made of any Note of Hand in the Account Current between the Complainant and Defendant dated from 9th April 1755 to 19th January 1757 annexed to the Defendants Answer, the Ballance of which appears to have been paid The Court are of opinion that the said Note has been discharged, and is the very Sum for which the Complainant debits the Defendant under Date 7th July 1756 as much paid to Mr Cameron the Defendants Account The Court are the more confirmed in the Justness of this Opinion from the Defendants being at the time he executed the Note of Hand at Port Saint Davids and consequently the money must have been paid to some other Person on his Account, and the time the money was received by Mr. Barnaby agreeing nearly with the Date of the said Note, and which Mr. Barnaby seems thro' a mistake to have called a Draught, and particularly as the Complainant has not produced the Draught mentioned to be paid by him. This Court doth therefore think fit to Order and Decree, and doth accordingly Order and Decree, that the said Note shall be cancelled, and that the Complainants Bill shall stand dismissed with Costs.
