Nine Hundred in the 12th Line of the 2d page of the Bill of Complaint are entirely omitted — Mr Attorney is therefore Ordered to amend his said Bill

This Cause coming on to be heard and debated this day in the Presence of the Complainant and Defendant Johannes Nieuwenhuis Esq of the Attorneys on both sides — On reading the Complainants Bill, the Defendants Answer thereto the Replication, the Rejoinder — The Exhibits produced on the part of the Complainant the Interrogatories and depositions on the part of the Complainant — On hearing the pleadings read and the Attorneys And on due Consideration had thereon The Defendant having acknowledged in their Answer that the sum of Pagodas One thousand seven hundred and Eighty four, appears by the Books of the deceased Jacob Cachelaer to have been due from him at the time of his Decease to the Complainant,
This Court doth therefore think fit to Order and Decree and doth accordingly Order and Decree that the Defendants shall pay unto the Complainant the said Sum of Pagodas One thousand seven hundred and Eighty four with the Jack Interest as now is or hereafter shall become due thereon from the time they began to pay off the other Debts due from the Estate of the said deceased until full payment is made — But as the Complainant hath not produced sufficient proof of the damages alledged to have been sustained by him — This Court doth therefore Order and Decree that that part of the Complainants demand shall stand dismissed And it appearing to the Court that the Defendants Refusing to Defend the Complainants original Demand proceeded more from an Obstinate and vexatious Temper than any just Reasons they could have for so doing — This Court doth therefore further Order and Decree that the Costs of Suit shall be paid by the

The Attorney for the Complainant produces to the Court a Certificate from the Register setting forth that the usual Rule had issued for the Defendant to Answer the Complainants Bill, which he had neglected doing

He therefore prays that a Decree may now pass against the Defendant

Bill Read.

It appearing to this Court that the Defendant hath been served with the usual Rule to Answer the Complainants Bill, Root wilfully and Obstinately refusing so to do — This Court doth therefore think fit to Order and Decree and doth accordingly Order and Decree that the Defendant Shall pay unto the Complainant the Sum and Sums of Five hundred and twenty pounds Pag. 525 Together with all such Interest as now is or hereafter shall become due thereon from time to time of the Obligation sued for, also all Cost of this Suit
