He is questioned by the Court, if the Defendt Candaram Moodelaer gave Chellumbrum Chetty a Letter of Credit on him, to supply the S. Chellumbrum with money? if so was any particular Sum, or a General Credit? And if ever the Sd Candarum Woodelaer recalled the said Letter of Credit?
To which the Mylapore Comrapah Answered, that the Deft Candarum Woodelaer did write him a Letter about five Years ago to supply the said Chellumbrum Chetty with money and that it was a general Credit, & not for any particular Sum, & that the said Credit has never been recalled
And Raga Chetty Taggapah being also Questioned as above answered in the same manner as Mylapore Comrapah And both of them being asked if a Gomasta takes up money in his Principals Name, if the Principal is obliged to pay it?
Also if when a person gives such Credit to a Gomasta wants to have the same back, it is not Customary to write to that Effect to the person whom the Credit is given?
